

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

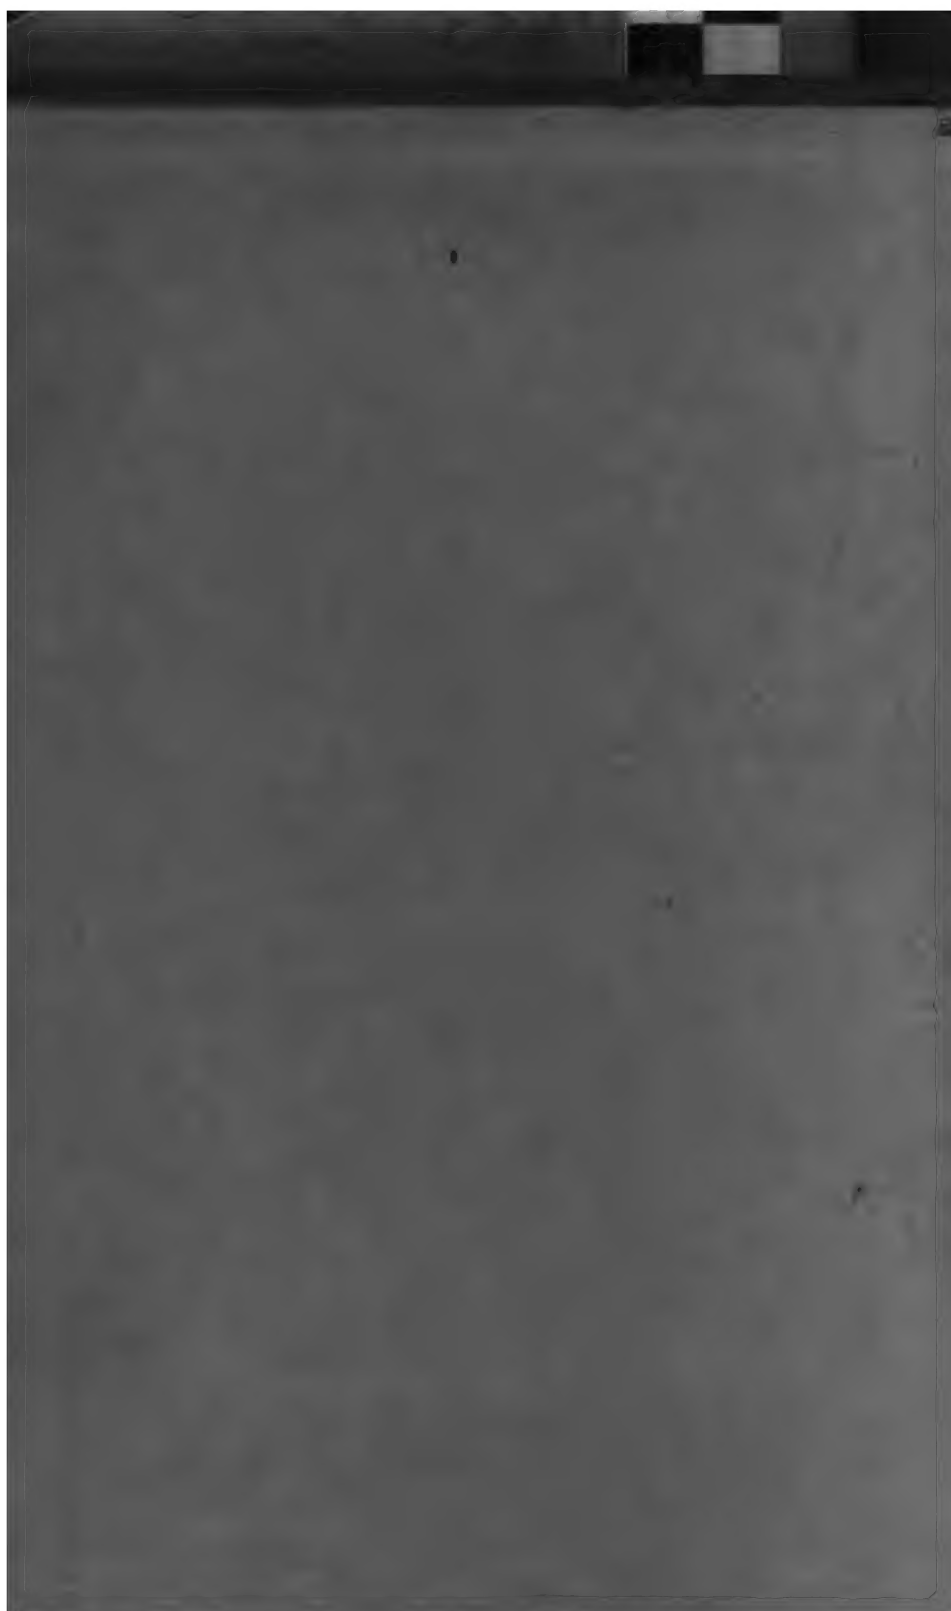

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. PROCEEDINGS OF THE FORTIETH CONVENTION

FIRST DAY.

On Tuesday, May 15th, the day named in the Constitution of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island for the Annual Convention of the same, a number of the Clergymen and Laity assembled in the Cathedral, Garden City, the place appointed by the Bishop.

The Communion Office was begun by Rev. Paul F. Swett, Precentor of the Cathedral, the Rev. Dr. Spencer S. Roche reading the Epistle, and the Rev. John R. Moses, Dean of the Cathedral, reading the Gospel. The Rev. Frederic W. Norris, Rector of the Church of St. Matthew, preached the sermon. During the singing of the offertory hymn the alms were received for Diocesan Missions. The Celebrant, the Right Reverend the Bishop, was assisted in the distribution of the Holy Communion by the Rev. John R. Moses, the Rev. Dr. Roche, the Rev. Canon Bryan and the Rev. Paul F. Swett.

The Bishop appointed a Committee on Credentials of Lay Delegates, consisting of the Secretary, the Rev. Henry T. Scudder, and Col. William S. Cogswell.

The Secretary then proceeded to call the names of the Clergy of the Diocese entitled to seats, and of the Lay Delegates, until it was found a quorum was present. Those whose names were not called recorded their attendance by placing their names in a box on the Secretary's table.

The President declared the Convention duly organized for business. The Rev. Robert Rogers, Ph.D., was nominated for Secretary and unanimously elected. Upon motion of the Rev. Dr. Rogers, the Rev. John Henri Sattig was elected Assistant Upon motion the Convention adjourned until 2.30 P. M. Luncheon was served at the Garden City Hotel.

Upon the reassembling of the Convention the Rev. Frederic W. Norris reported for the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, that the Certificate of Incorporation and other documents referring to St. Stephen's Church, Port Washington, had been received and found correct, and moved that this Parish be admitted into Union with the Convention. This motion was carried.

To the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island:

The Church or congregation, duly incorporated, and known in law by the name of "The Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Stephen's Church, Port Washington, Long Island," in pursuance, and by authority of a resolution of the Vestry of the said Church, hereby applies for admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, and presents herewith a duly certified and authenticated copy of the resolution of the said Vestry adopted on the 17th day of March, 1906, authorizing such application, and agreeing to abide by, and conform to and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders and regulations of the Convention.

Also, the Certificate of Incorporation of the Church, which was duly recorded in the office of the Clerk of the County of Nassau on the 10th day of November, 1905, in liber 2, at page 388.

Also, a certificate of the Bishop that he approves of the incorporation of such Church, and that such Church, in his judgment, is duly and satisfactorily established.

And, also, evidence that not less than twenty-five persons, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least six months preceding the date of this application, attended Divine Service in such church or congregation.

Dated at Port Washington, in the County of Nassau, and the State of New York, this 11th day of April, 1906.

By order of the Vestry,

WM. E. NIES, Rector.

The First Day.

At a meeting of the Vestry of the Church or congregation known as The Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Stephen's Church, Port Washington, Long Island, duly convened, and held according to law at No. 60 Pine Street, New York City, on the 17th day of March, 1906, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That the Rector, Wardens, and Vestrymen of St. Stephen's Church, Port Washington, Long Island, New York, desire admission into union with the Church in the Diocese of Long Island, and do make application therefore to the Convention of the Church in this Diocese, and do hereby agree to abide by, and conform to, and observe all the Canons of the Church, and all the rules, orders and regulations of the Convention."

Which is hereby certified by the Rector and Clerk of the Vestry, and is also authenticated by the seal of the corporation.

WM. E. NIES, Rector.

Report

THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE BELONGING TO THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

Since their last report (see Journal of 1905, page 41) the trustees have received the following:

80.—Deed dated May 9, 1905, conveys from Ellen B. Craig to the Trustees a plot of land adjoining the Protestant Episcopal Church, at Quogue, L. I., to be used for church purposes, but reserving to the Craig family a certain burial plot. The deed contains certain covenants which if violated forfeits the said plot back to Mrs. Craig or her heirs forever.

81.—Gives a statement of the fees received and to be received by the Trustees under the agreement made by the Trustees with Trinity Church, New York, and St. James' Church, Newtown, L. I. (See No. 78 for statement of agreement.) The amount received under said agreement to date is $75. As yet there have been no disbursements.

82.—A promised donation from a church member of the Diocese of Long Island (name not to transpire) of the sum of $1,200 per annum to make provision for the salary of a private secretary for the Bishop of the Diocese.

No date is stated as to when the pledge terminates. A payment of $600 was made on December 26, 1905, and forwarded to the Bishop to be applied as above.

83.—Deed dated June 22, 1900, from Alfred Wagstaff and others to the Trustees, conveys a plot of land and the Church building thereon in the town of Easthampton, L. I. There are no conditions imposed in this deed which is recorded in the County Clerk's office for Suffolk County, L. I., in Liber 521 of Deeds, page 90, June 18, 1900. In connection with this deed of gift reference should be made to No. 10 of the Trustees' records.

The First Day.

- No. 84.—Agreement between the Trustees and the Franklin Trust Co., Borough of Brooklyn, relative to the "Maurice Fund," which fund is placed in the custody of said Trust Company, under the immediate supervision of a Committee of the Trustees. (See agreement as to terms, etc.) Under said agreement there has been placed with said Trust Company cash and securities amounting in the aggregate to the sum of $262,427.65.
- No. 85.—Deed dated 30th March, 1906, from George Foster Peabody to the Trustees conveys the property known as St. Augustine Church (land and building) in trust for the Rector, Church Wardens and Vestrymen of said Church for the use of the congregation of said Church, subject to certain conditions recited in the Deed. Accompanying said deed there is an agreement entered into between the Trustees and the said Peabody to the effect that the Church building shall be repaired from the Building Fund of said Church now in the hands of the Trustees, together with other conditions fully set forth in said agreement and to which reference is directed.

The Maurice Fund.

- No. 86.—This fund consists of the proceeds of certain lands conveyed to the Trustees by the late James Maurice of Newtown, L. I. (see records of the Trustees, No. 16), known as Font Maur, and of certain lands adjoining Font Maur, conveyed to the Trustees by the Misses Maurice, sisters of the late James Maurice, less the expenses for commissions, surveys, etc., attending the sale of said lands, together with the balance of the fund known as the Font Maur Fund, the total up to this date being $262,427.65, as follows:

Cash paid to the Franklin Trust Company under agreement (see Trustees' records No. 84).....	$62,427 65
Bond and Mortgage of the Turner Fink Company at 5 per cent. interest, also with said Trust Company.....	200,000 00
	$262,427 65

The principal of this fund is to be kept invested and the income only is to be used by the Trustees for Diocesan purposes.

Respectfully submitted,

A. E. ORR, Treasurer.

A. E. ORR, Treasurer.

Brooklyn, May 14, 1906.

Mr. Orr further stated that the yearly assessment of two per cent. of the stipend paid to Rectors of parishes, or Ministers of congregations, had increased the income of the Bishop's Salary Fund to the point where he deemed it wise to recommend the reduction of this annual assessment from two per cent. to one and a half per cent., and he offered the following resolution :

Resolved, That until further order the yearly assessment for the Bishop's Salary Fund shall be equal to one and one-half per centum of the stipends paid to the Rectors of parishes or Ministers of congregations in the Diocese.

This was carried.

The First Day.

Mr. Orr called the attention of the Convention to the fact that many parishes were in arrears in the payment of their assessment to the Bishop's Salary Fund and the Diocesan Fund, the amount now due from these parishes, whose names he furnished, being $2,044.27.

Dr. Joseph H. Raymond thereupon offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a copy of the resolution adopted by the Convention of 1905, by virtue of which the Treasurer was empowered to make a settlement with the parishes in arrears in account with the Bishop's Salary Fund and the Diocesan Fund, be sent by the Secretary to each of said parishes, with a statement that it is the wish of the Convention that the matter receive prompt attention.

This was carried.

Mr. Orr also spoke of the many benefactions of the Maurice family, mentioning the fact that the recent sale of a plot of ground, given by this family, would result in giving the Diocese a fund, the annual income of which would be $12,000. He moved that in view of the many benefactions received from this family the Convention express through the Chairman to the Misses Maurice its gratitude for the same. This was carried unanimously.

The First Day.

The President announced that nominations for the Standing Committee were in order and the following names were placed in nomination and duly seconded:

For Clerical Member for Four Years.

The Rev. Dr. John G. Bacchus.

For Lay Member for Four Years.

Hon. Augustus Van Wyck, Mr. George Wistar Kirke.

Upon motion nominations were then closed.

The President then announced that nominations for members of the Missionary Committee were in order, and the following names were placed in nomination and duly seconded:

For Delegates at Large.

Dean John R. Moses, Mr. Isaac Simonson,
The Rev. Dr. Lindsay Parker, Mr. Daniel Whitford.

For Delegates: From the Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau:

Mr. P. R. Jennings.

From the Northern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn:

Dr. George G. Hopkins.

From the Southern Archdeaconry of Brooklyn:

Mr. George S. Catlin.

From the Archdeaconry of Suffolk.

Mr. James W. Eaton.

The Rev. Dr. A. B. Kinsolving then presented the report of the American Church Building Fund.

AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND.

The Commission for Long Island and the Committee appointed by the Bishop beg to present their Annual Report:

During the past year 19 Parishes in Kings County have contributed $501.13; 7 in Queens and Nassau, $114.38, and 1 in Suffolk, $20, making a total of $635.51. The largest contributions received were $118 from St. Ann's and $100 from St. Luke's, Brooklyn. The Permanent Fund has grown from $39,475.37 to $473,539.51. This is an increase for the year of $440,064.14, as against an increase of $5,000 for the previous year—the largest increase made within a single year for many years past. A large percentage of the new churches, started in sparsely settled districts in the West and Southwest, receive either loans at reasonable rates of interest or grants of money, when it is the final payment upon the property, from the Building Fund, and many an anxious burden is thus lifted from the shoulders of our missionary pioneers. It is one of the wise agencies of the Church for making her standard bearers, who are out on the far frontier representing us, feel that Mother Church is behind them, and every Parish which contributes annually to the Fund and every individual prompted to leave it a bequest is aiding in the creation of one of the most serviceable and permanent agencies for the spreading of the Gospel and the extension of the Church of Christ which has ever been devised. Some of the best men the ministry contains have been recruited in these small rural parishes and both a dutiful and a sagacious statesmanship ask of us that the good work should go on.

AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION.

BROOKLYN, May 10, 1906.

The Diocesan Commissioners again ask the clergy and laity of Long Island to increase their efforts for the Fund, that our Diocese may complete its quota. Last year one parish completed its proportion, and twenty-seven parishes contributed to the Fund.

Attention is invited to the founding of memorial, named, funds. This Diocese has founded three of $5,000 each.

The Fund now amounts to $423,519.51.

1. This Fund is permanent, and will continue doing its work.
2. The object is necessary to Church extension, and to the establishment of religious influences in sparsely settled portions of the land.
3. The plan is no experiment. In England the Church Building Society has done splendid work. And our own Commission can show a record of twenty-one years of faithful and efficient service.
4. The business affairs of the Commission are managed by experienced business men, elected by the Commission at large, and having the confidence of the entire community.

5. DONATIONS ARE WELLED FROM THE DEATH AND BEQUESTS TO THE "AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION" OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, FOR THE USES OF SAID COMMISSION, ETC.

6. PLEASE SEND CONTRIBUTIONS TO GEORGE C. THOMAS, TREASURER, CHURCH MISSIONS HOUSE, 101 FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK, WHO WILL RETURN RECEIPTS.

The First Day.

The Rev. Dr. Alsop reported for the Committee on Canons concerning the changes in the Canons which were suggested at the last Convention. He moved the re-committment of this subject to be Committee for further report on the second day. This motion was carried.

Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse reported for the Committee on Missionary Operations in the Diocese as follows:

Your Committee would recommend as an additional Section to Canon 9, viz.:

SECTION X.—[1.] The Bishop may nominate to the Northern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn and to the Southern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, a clergyman to fill the office of Archdeacon of Brooklyn, who, upon being approved and accepted by both Archdeaconries, shall take the oversight of the missionary work in the said Archdeaconries, with the exception of the Cathedral and Parochial Chapels, and generally perform in said Archdeaconries the duties assigned by Section VI of this Canon to an Archdeacon.

[2.] He shall hold office for two years, and thereafter in terms of two years upon nomination by the Bishop and approval and acceptance by the two Archdeaconries.

[3.] During the incumbency of such Archdeacon of Brooklyn the two Archdeaconries shall meet together, and the work therein and the funds therefor may be consolidated and administered as though the two Archdeaconries constituted a single Archdeaconry. At such meetings the Archdeacon of Brooklyn shall, if he be present, preside, and in his absence the Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry within the limits of which the meeting is held shall preside.

[4.] The two Archdeaconries may adopt by-laws for their government in matters of joint interest.

Upon motion, this report was referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Rev. Henry T. Scudder reported for the Trustees of the Clergymen's Pension and Retirement Fund:

The Trustees of the Pension Fund beg leave to report that their work during the first year has been to organize and endeavor to start a sentiment throughout the Diocese favorable to the accumulation of the nucleus of a fund. To that end the Trustees have endeavored by personal interview to beget an interest in the need for active work in this behalf. They have also had distributed to all the clergy in care of parishes, and to many of the leading laymen, a reminder of this important work for the amelioration of the condition of the aged clergy, by providing them with a suitable pension. They trust the seed thus sown will produce a good effect, and at another year it will be possible to report a goodly number of collections taken up in different parishes, as well as individual donations on the part of those interested in this good work. As it has come to our notice that we may from time to time receive bequests to swell the principal of our fund, the Trustees have asked permission of your body to be incorporated, so that they legally can collect any such sums as may be bequeathed them. We beg leave to state in conclusion that already, by a collection taken up a few weeks since in St. Peter's Church, Brooklyn, amounting to $100.00, and by donations, we have a nest egg for the fund, which we hope will soon be increased by many generous gifts. A large hospital for children in a neighboring city came from thirty cents being found in the little worn pocketbook of a sweet child who had left this world. Can we not hope that much will come from the $145.00 with which we have begun our fund for pensioning our aged and deserving clergy in this Diocese?

Respectfully submitted on behalf of Trustees of the Clergymen's Pension Retirement Fund.

HENRY T. SCUDDER, Chairman.

May 15, 1906.

The Rev. Mr. Scudder then offered the following resolution:

Be it Resolved, That the Trustees of the Clergymen's Pension and Retirement Fund be, and hereby are, directed to be incorporated.

This was carried. The Rev. Mr. Scudder then offered an amendment that line second of Section 3, Canon 11, be amended to read as follows:

"Treasurer of the Fund" instead of "Treasurer of the Convention."

This was referred to the Committee on Canons.

Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse offered the following amendment to Canon 10, providing for the widows and children of deceased clergymen:

That Canon 10 be amended by striking therefrom Section II., and old Sections III. and IV. to be entitled [2] and [3], so as to read:

SECTION II.—[1.] Two clerical and three lay Trustees shall be annually appointed by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a Board to be called The Trustees of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen, whose duty it shall be to receive applications for relief, and to apply said fund according to such rules and principles as the said Trustees shall adopt, to be submitted to the Convention for its revision and approval.

[2.] It is hereby declared to be the duty of every congregation in the Diocese to make an annual collection, to be paid to the Trustees of said fund, who shall hold and apply the same to the relief of the families of deceased clergymen of this Diocese. It is recommended that such collection be made on the annual Thanksgiving Day, or the Sunday next before or next following.

[3.] Vacancies occurring in the number of the Trustees during the recess of the Convention may be filled by the remaining Trustees.

[4.] All contributions or donations for this object shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Fund, and funds not needed for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the Trustees.

This was referred to the Committee on Canons.

The Bishop then read his annual address.*

Upon motion of Dr. Hopkins, duly seconded, it was resolved to make Diocesan Missions the order of the second day at 11 A. M., and that each Archdeacon be given ten minutes in which to make a report.

At 4.20 P. M., upon motion of the Secretary, the Convention adjourned until the following morning at 10 o'clock.

* Printed elsewhere in this Journal

The Second Day.

THE SECOND DAY.

After morning prayer the Convention met, pursuant to adjournment, the Right Reverend the Bishop presiding.

The Minutes and proceedings of the First Day were read and approved.

The Secretary reported that he had received the certificate of the Lay Delegates from St. John's Church, Fort Hamilton.

THE TRUSTEES.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

Mr. James R. Cowing.	Mr. William H. Wallace.
Mr. Alexander E. Orr.	Mr. A. Augustus Low.
Mr. Frederick T. Aldridge.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen.

Rt. Rev. Frederick Burgess, D.D.	Hon. Townsend Scudder.
Rev. Reese F. Alsop, D.D.	Mr. Henry E. Pierrepont.
Mr. Alexander E. Orr, Treasurer, 102 Remsen St., Brooklyn.

Of the General Theological Seminary.

Rev. St. Clair Hester.	Mr. Henry E. Pierrepont.
Rev. William G. Ivie.

Of the Pension and Retiring Fund for the Clergy.

Rev. Henry T. Scudder.	Mr. F. T. Sherman.
Rev. Henry D. Waller.	Mr. Spencer Aldrich.
Mr. Frank Sherman Benson.

The Bishop also nominated for Members of the Ecclesiastical Court, till 1908:

Rev. C. F. J. Wrigley, D.D.	Rev. St. Clair Hester.
Rev. Nelson R. Boss.	Rev. Bishop Falkner.
Rev. Joshua Kimber.	Rev. John H. Prescott.
Rev. William P. Evans.

Col. William S. Cogswell, Church Advocate.

Mr. Omri F. Hibbard, Lay Assessor.

The Rev. Mr. Scudder moved that all these nominations be confirmed. This was carried.

The Second Day.

Elections to fill the vacancies on the Standing and Missionary Committees then followed.

The Rev. Mr. Newbold moved that the authority of the Convention be given to the Secretary to cast one ballot for the Clerical Member of the Standing Committee, there being but one name in nomination. This was carried and the Secretary announced that he had cast a ballot for the Rev. Dr. John G. Bacchus who was declared elected for four years.

The Rev. Mr. Newbold moved a similar resolution in reference to the names placed in nomination for the Missionary Committee. This was carried and Secretary reported that he had cast one ballot for the names placed in nomination as follows:

For Delegates at Large.

Rev. John R. Moses.

Mr. Isaac Simonson.

Rev. Dr. Lindsay Parker.

Mr. Daniel Whitford.

From Northern Archdeaconry.

Dr. George G. Hopkins.

From Southern Archdeaconry.

Mr. George S. Catlin.

From Queens and Nassau.

Mr. P. R. Jennings.

From Suffolk.

Mr. James W. Eaton.

They were declared elected.

The Bishop announced that the order of the day was Diocesan Missions and called upon the Rev. William Holden who reported for the Archdeaconry of Suffolk.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF SUFFOLK COUNTY.

Last year the Rev. R. M. Edwards reported the organizing of a Mission at East Hauppauge, and now is able to announce that a structure, 16 x 16 feet, will be shortly in place to serve as a temporary chapel. Every member of this small community is interested and has done something toward the success of the work.

From the organization services have been held in the home of a Roman Catholic, and when the property changed hands, and the successor, being of the same faith, seeing the success of the work, readily agreed to s continuance until such time as their chapel should be ready, and added contribution to enforce his confidence.

This field added to the already large field of Brentwood, Central Islip and Ronkonkoma, cared for by the Rev. R. M. Edwards, should appeal to the generosity of churchmen of the Diocese as calling for their contribution to enable them to possess a church worthy of the work, and support of the giver of the land.

Will not some reader of the above help to furnish a good horse for his extensive missionary field?

Mattituck—The Rev. W. A. Wasson notes an increased attendance at services, and the promise of support from summer people.

Yaphank—Which has been for many years under the care of a lay-leader, will with the first of June be in charge of a priest, who will care for it in conjunction with Centre Moriches.

Quite a number of the people have moved away from Yaphank, and with a priest caring for the large district between it and Centre Moriches, we believe the work will be strengthened by its extension.

Centre Moriches—Cared for by Rev. H. W. R. Stafford for six years, with marked faithfulness, has been joined with Yaphank, as a better arrangement for both places—each having suffered much by removals.

The Rev. F. C. H. Wendel will begin this work June 1st.

Bellport—Rev. Irving McElroy—Has within the past year come into association with the Archdeaconry as a mission of that body. Here, as elsewhere, removals have made marked inroads upon the possible supporters, though reports show faithful work and an extensive field.

Brookhaven—Rev. Irving McElroy in charge, shows an interest in the Church that has not been known for some time, and promises well for the coming summer.

Port Jefferson—Vacant at this time, by reason of the death of Rev. A. K. Fenton, who for four years ministered with love and affection to this congregation, and left upon all who knew him the certainty of his religious and spiritual life.

Amagansett (Summer Chapel)—Under the faithful and earnest efforts of Rev. E. C. Chorley and H. St. Clair Hathaway during last July and August, made possible the clearing of the mortgage upon the site purchased by the Archdeaconry. The attendance was markedly increased over that of the preceding summer, and an afternoon service upon the beach drew many that did not ordinarily attend.

The friends of this work have pledged $400.00 toward the erection of a church, and invite contributions through the Archdeacon.

Setauket—Rev. D. Marvin, Rector—This Parish, with its 177 years of testimony to the Church's service, seems at times to find new hope and support in the opening up of the one industry known for years, i. e., the Rubber Works; and about the time this gets fairly under way, the work ceases, and the new comers seek other fields of labor. However, despite this disappointment, the faithful membership keep up their interest and await better times.

Easthampton.—Rev. O. F. R. Treder has within the past year wrought a good work, and made a marked impression upon the community of the value of the Church and her services. Congregations numbering one hundred or more have welcomed visiting clergy, and the union chapel services at Freetown have likewise shown a marked increase, filling the building, and often having hearers without, listening to the service.

To speak of this field without mentioning the work of Mrs. M. S. Gustine among the people of Freetown would rob it of much of its interest and picturesqueness—for she lives among these people the year round and ministers as an elder sister and friend always. Contributions of plain material for garments suitable for winter and summer can always be found useful by Mrs. Gustine in her work. She will gladly answer any letters of inquiry addressed to her at Easthampton P. O.

We would remind the reader that services are continued during the summer at Quogue, Westhampton, Southampton, and an occasional service at Silver Brook. With the larger part of Suffolk County ministered by missions and summer chapels, we ask you to realize the nearness of missions at home and lend them your generous support. We would acknowledge the generous support granted us by St. Andrew's Dune Church, Southampton, and Church of the Atonement, Quogue.

Respectfully submitted,

WM. HOLDEN,

Archdeacon of Suffolk County.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF QUEENS AND NASSAU.

The Rev. Canon Bryan reported for the Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau:

I report on some aspects, parts and progress of the Archdeaconry's work. The Rev. Edward Nicholas Hollings entered on his duties as general Missionary among the colored people of Queens and Nassau Counties, on March 1, 1906. By his quiet dignity, his devotion to duty and tactful work, he has already strengthened and built up the three congregations under his charge at Smithville, South Jamaica, and Hempstead. The Executive Committee has very wisely arranged to make necessary repairs and improvements to his residence in Jamaica, the cost of which will not exceed $175, of which $25 will be paid by the people of the Missions under the care of the Rev. Mr. Hollings. A very laudable and commendable contribution from them. I am also happy to report that the new Church for our Mission at Roosevelt is now completed at the contract price of $2,500, and will be formally dedicated by the Bishop of the Diocese on the evening of June 17th, at which time a class for Confirmation will be presented. I can assure you that we have here the best and most finished building of any of the Mission Churches we have erected. This result is due to the conscientious work done by the contractors and the careful supervision given it by our faithful treasurer, Mr. P. R. Jennings, assisted by the local building committee. The contract for a very pretty and attractive Church in the mission or Mexican style of architecture, to be erected at Belle Harbor, has been signed. We are promised the completed building by August 1st. The contract price is

The Second Day.

$6,000, of which $4,000 has been obtained by a mortgage placed on the property. When completed this church will be one of the most attractive and remarkable churches on this Island. For this happy result we are indebted not only to the local committee, but especially so to our learned counsellor, Mr. Daniel Whitford, who has given very kindly of his time and effort for arranging various details that have led up to this advance in the work at this point. Plans have also been drawn for the new church to be erected for St. Mark's Mission, Steinway. After several suggested alterations have been made, bids will be called for, the contract awarded and duly signed. The present healthy condition of the work at this point is most commendable, and to you I commend the earnest, thorough and altogether unselfish work of the deacon in charge, the Rev. Benjamin Mottram. The Sunday School has reached the high water mark of 150 children. Another sign of progress is to be seen in the improved condition, spiritual and financial, of the Mission of St. Michael and All Angels, Seaford. On December 1, 1905, the resignation of the Rev. W. B. Hooper, as priest in charge, took effect. On January 1st, last, at my request, with the advice of the Executive Committee, the consent of the Bishop of the Diocese having been given, the charge of this Mission was put in the priestly care of the Rev. F. M. Townley, rector of the neighboring parish of The Redeemer, Merrick. Last January the Archdeaconry, per its treasurer, advanced this Mission $100 to be applied toward the $234 due the Rev. Mr. Hooper for stipend. At Easter they were able to return this loan, at the same time requesting that we release them from any other claims we might have against them. In consideration of their efforts to repay this loan, and of the renewed life and interest on the part of the congregation the Executive Committee think it wise to recommend that we accede to their request. I record here my appreciation of the unselfish, conscientious and untiring work given to this work by the Rev. Mr. Townley and Mr. P. R. Jennings, in the revival of the life of the Mission and the carrying forward of the work. Never before has the work here seemed so "worth while" as at the present moment.

"Last but not least" in the things accomplished is the success of the priest and people of St. Matthew's Mission, Brooklyn Manor, in raising at Easter, its fund for paying off its mortgage of $2,200, in memory of its faithful layman, the late Mr. Charles R. Kay. On Easter Day they placed upon the Altar, in pledges and cash the full amount of the mortgage. This is the first of our Missions to liquidate its entire indebtedness, and in this instance it has been accomplished within ten months. I record here my appreciation of the noble response made to the appeal of the Rev. Dr. Bunn and the Archdeacon at our last Archdeaconry meeting. It cheered our hearts to have one after another arise in their places to state the sums they would give toward this noble object. Even from the faithful few in St. Mary's Chapel, Laurel Hill, through its faithful representative, Mr. Edward H. Inglis, came a donation just at a time it was most needed to cheer and encourage those in the Mission to persevere and raise the entire amount. We thank you, one and all, friends! To Dr. Bunn, his Building Committee, and the Women of the Mission, I think I voice the sentiments of the entire body, clerical and lay, of the Archdeaconry, when I assure them that by their unselfish and self-denying labor they have set a noble example for all to follow. To them we can truthfully say: "Well done." From this instance of success in debt-paying there comes the inspiration to us never to be weary or discouraged in well doing. We are bound to succeed and win out in the end!

The progress of Christ Church Mission, Lynbrook, continues uninterruptedly under the able ministry of the Rev. Mr. Creveling. A desirable property adjoining our present church has recently been purchased for the use of the priest in charge as a parsonage. After enlarging the house now thereon, painting it and putting it in thorough repair, the Rev. Mr. Creveling will take up his residence therein. Thus another one of our Missions will be in thorough condition for effective work. All Saints' Church, Morris Park, under the faithful ministry of the Rev. John Graham, has begun a sinking fund to liquidate its mortgage. The interior of the church has been tastefully decorated by frescoing the walls of the nave and the chancel, and presents to the worshipers a very churchly and attractive appearance. Turning our attention from the present and past of our work, let me direct your attention to that work which is before us in the immediate future. The new work that thus opens out before us is large and fraught with great responsibility. The three openings that are calling and beckoning to us just now are all in the Borough of Queens. First—the Metropolitan District in the second ward of Queens Borough, where there are now fifteen thousand people. Alas! we can make no appropriation at this time to this work, but we shall avail ourselves of the services of the Bishop's secretary, the Rev. Mr. Merriman, to begin work at this point. Second—Dutch Kills. For a whole year efforts have been made to rent a desirable store, which could be used for the present as a chapel. In due time St. Thomas' Church, Ravenswood, should be moved back to Dutch Kills, so as to be in the midst of a residential section with a population to minister to. To pay the rent of the store at the rate of $18 per month for a few months, is asked of this Archdeaconry—until such time as the Rector and Vestry can pay it themselves. Surely we should listen to this Macedonian cry "Come over and help us." Lastly—a great field, already "white unto the harvest," is calling and beckoning us to come and take possession of it. The Archdeacon is anticipating a pleasant tour of investigation through East Elmhurst and Louna Park with the Rector of St. James' Church, Newtown, to obtain information and knowledge concerning existing conditions. Already several thousands are in this district waiting for the Church to minister to them. We have a mission to the big places as well as the smaller ones. We must go to them and begin work on a large scale. The demands are large. Our response thereto must be prompt and generous. Who will help? We need at least $1,200 for the first year's expenses for the large work demanded of us. The report of the Treasurer is herewith annexed. All of which is respectfully submitted.

May 1, 1906.

Canon Bryan for the Missionary Committee offered the following resolutions:

Whereas, It is desirable to straighten the lines of the property of St. John's Mission, on Front Street, Hempstead, by exchanging a portion of said property in the rear for a piece of land on the easterly side belonging to A. R. Mollineaux, and thereby enlarging the frontage of St. John's Mission property by five feet on its Front Street side, therefore be it Resolved, That this Convention assents to the exchange of land hereby requested, in accordance with the terms of the Charter of the Corporation of Diocesan Missions of Long Island.

This was carried.

Resolved, That $6,500.00 be raised the ensuing Diocesan year for the needs of Diocesan Missions, in the several Archdeaconries of the Diocese.

This was carried.

Rev. James Townsend Russell reported for the Archdeaconry of Brooklyn:

ReportOF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF BROOKLYN.

Since October last, four new missions have been undertaken with more or less success. St. Lydia's, East New York, at the corner of Milford and Blake Avenues, is perhaps the most prosperous at present. It is about one mile distant from each of the three parishes, St. Clement's, Trinity, and the Littlejohn Memorial Church of the Transfiguration. Store-rooms have been rented and fitted up, at a cost of $25 per month. There is a congregation of more than sixty persons. A Sunday School, which began with 43 members, has increased to more than 80, and the weekly contributions have grown from $6.00 to $8.50. Mr. George Vernon Dickey, a postulant for Holy Orders, formerly a clergyman of the Presbyterian Church, is in charge of this promising work.

The mission at Kings Highway, near Ocean Avenue, has taken the name of Holy Innocents. More than a year ago a committee, appointed by Archdeacon Wrigley, reported in favor of this location. Early in January of this year, parlor services were inaugurated and weekly services have been in progress since that time. Services are now held in a real estate office near the Brighton Beach R. R. There is an attendance of from 10 to 20 people; at one service there were 23. The weekly offerings amount to about $1.85. A Sunday School has been started which has made but little progress as yet, but promises well. This mission at present is under the care of a layman, Mr. Homer D. Wellman.

Another mission, which calls itself the Redemption Mission, has been undertaken in the Flatlands section. For some weeks the meetings were held in parlors, but recently a building known as the Vanderveer Mansion has been secured at a cost of $20 per month, most of which expense they are prepared to carry themselves. A congregation of from 10 to 15 persons has been gathered together. A Sunday School began last Sunday afternoon, with 17 scholars in attendance. This work is cared for by a layman, Mr. Theo. M. Bedwin.

Another mission has been undertaken at Hawthorne Street, east of Nostrand Avenue. Evening services have been held there in parlors for the past three Sundays, the last one, May 13th, having an attendance of 26 persons. Much interest is manifested by the people, who have long desired Church services, being too far, as they believe, from established parishes. Children are there in large numbers, who have no Sunday School near enough to attend. They welcome the coming of the Church, and promise liberal support. A meeting is called for Friday evening next, to consider ways and means for a more definite organization. Twenty-three families have been found, most of whom are eager to assist.

There are other inviting fields in Southern Brooklyn, into which it seems the Church should go. Begun in this way, they need not be a heavy drain upon the funds of the Archdeaconry, at least until they demonstrate the wisdom of larger expenditure.

Italian work has been undertaken by the Rev. D. A. Rocca, an Italian missionary. The Church of the Redeemer, Fourth Avenue and Pacific Street, has been kindly given by the Rector and Vestry for Italian services on Sunday at 5 P. M. This is not far from a very populous Italian section. For some weeks there has been a growing congregation. On April 22d, there were 123 persons in attendance. In other Italian sections there is a demand for the Church. The Rector and Vestry of St. Clement's Church, East New York, have offered the use of their building at special hours; also St. Jude's, Blythebourne. Italians, living not far from these churches, will be invited to attend Italian services. One feature of Italian work must be recognized at the outset: it is not and can not be self-supporting. The older members of Italian families need, and should have services in Italian, but Sunday School work must be done in English. The children as they grow into maturity decline to attend Italian services, but this must not blind our eyes to the necessity of Italian missions. The Church at large will be strengthened from these missions, even though the services in Italian will be a continuous drain upon missionary funds. $1,200 to $1,500 a year will be necessary to carry on this service, even in this economical way, but it will require at least $5,000 a year to add Sunday Schools and Institutional work.

In October last, when I began my work, four parishes, receiving help from the Archdeaconry, fell vacant. St. Timothy's Church, Howard Avenue, soon made what seems to be a very wise choice in the selection of the Rev. A. A. Brown as Rector. The work there is more than ever prosperous.

St. Alban's, Canarsie; St. John's, Fort Hamilton, and the Church of the Advent, Bath Beach, have relinquished their prerogatives in the matter of election of rectors, and have voted to accept appointment by the Archdeacon, with the approval of the Bishop, of Ministers-in-Charge.

The Rev. Vernon D. Ruggles has been appointed to St. Alban's, Canarsie. The work there is progressing under his administration. The attendance at services and Sunday School has been most encouraging, and the finances of the Church seem to be in a prosperous condition. Mr. Ruggles has been doing a vigorous work in the community, and it is not too much to expect at an early date substantial results.

The Rev. J. G. Lewis accepted appointment to St. John's Church, Fort Hamilton, some two months ago, and the results of his labors have been most encouraging. It is expected that this parish will shortly be in a position to begin the erection of a suitable rectory adjoining the Church.

The Rev. G. W. Bowne has accepted temporary appointment to the Church of the Advent, Bath Beach. From the beginning of his labors there the results have been highly satisfactory. The attendance at morning services has been materially increased. An evening service at 7.30 with preaching has been inaugurated, with gratifying results. The offerings at all services have been largely increased. The problem, however, before the Church of the Advent is the purchase of land in more favorable locality, the erection of a suitable church edifice and the building up of a substantial parish. This, it is hoped, may be undertaken during the coming year.

The other Archdeaconry missions have all made good progress.

The Nativity Mission, Vanderveer Park, has acquired lots at the corner of Ocean Avenue and Avenue F. These lots, 100 x 110 ft., purchased in May last, cost $10,250.00; are now worth more. $2,250.00 was paid on the lots; $500.00 was added to this from the Easter offerings, and in order that they may take title, they are making a strenuous effort to pay $1,500.00 more by the first of June. To enable them to do this they have made application to the Archdeaconry for $500.00.

The Second Day.

St. Michael's Church, North 5th Street, the Rev. M. A. Trathen, Minister-in-Charge, has continued to demonstrate its usefulness. The attendance upon the services Sundays and week days, and at the Sunday School, manifests vigorous life. It is believed that the usefulness of this parish would be greatly enhanced if the Church could remove a few blocks to a better location. They are now almost entirely surrounded by Roman Catholics and Jews. They will need also a parish building. This would be in the line of Church Extension, and it is hoped that ways may open for its accomplishment.

The Rector of St. Matthias' Church, Sheepshead Bay, reports a prosperous year in spite of many disadvantages. The Church has paid all current expenses, the Minister's salary, and some old debts. The present indebtedness consists of $3,300.00 mortgage on the property and $800.00 back salary of the Rector. The parish house is finished and furnished. Plumbing and water are required for the parish house, and a proper heating apparatus for both the parish house and the Church.

In June last the Rev. Henry B. Wilson was appointed to the Holy Cross Mission. He found the services cared for by two earnest laymen, Messrs. H. B. Delapierre and Henry F. Wilson, Jr. There were 14 teachers and a few more than 200 pupils in the Sunday School. Perhaps a dozen people were in attendance at the morning services and about thirty in the evening. The results of Mr. Wilson's administration and labors are apparent. The early communion services were attended during Lent by from 35 to 50 persons. On Easter morning there were 70 in attendance. The morning prayer and preaching service will average 55 to 60, and the evening prayer about 100. The Sunday School has grown from 200 to 444. This work has outgrown its present buildings and is sorely in need of more room. It is in the midst of a densely populated and growing section, and many important needs are pressing upon them. This work, without doubt, demands hearty and liberal support from the Archdeaconry.

By no means behind any of the others in interest and encouragement is St. Philip's Colored Mission, in Dean Street, the Rev. Nathaniel P. Boyd, Minister-in-Charge. He is conducting there a vigorous work, with most gratifying results. In December last, through the instrumentality of the Archdeacon and other friends, it was made possible for St. Philip's to secure an adjacent lot in the rear of their Church building, at a cost of $25.00. On this lot they propose now to erect a parish building, estimating the cost to be $4,000.00. The Archdeacon has given assurance that they will be helped to the extent of $1,000.00, if they can secure the other

$3,000.00. The Rev. Mr. Boyd is working vigorously to this end, and it is not unlikely that before another convention the vision will be a reality.

St. Philip's, Dyker Heights, the Rev. J. H. Sattig, Rector, was assisted in the purchase of most desirable lots adjoining their property by a loan of $1,000.00 through the Archdeacon, and from a generous friend of Church Extension in Brooklyn.

The call comes from many directions for Church Extension. In the opinion of the writer, the most urgent of these is for the strengthening of existing missions. Overtaxed churches should be encouraged, parish buildings erected, additional clerical help given where needed, and in every possible way progressive work encouraged and strengthened.

The effort to build up and strengthen the income for Church Extension has not been without substantial encouragement. More than $2,000.00 has already been subscribed in response to appeals. Other subscriptions are confidently expected. The appeal itself was ill-timed. Unfortunate and unavoidable delay brought it out in the midst of Lent, and the terrible calamity in San Francisco, which brought forth generous contributions from Brooklyn as well as other cities, made it seem wise to postpone for the time further appeal. The total increase, however, from all sources for Archdeaconry work amounts now to more than $7,000.00 annually

GEO. S. CATLIN,

Committee.

The Second Day.

Your Treasurer is ashamed of this report.

There are 20,000 Sunday School children in the Diocese, and only one-thirteenth of them contributed.

The Bishop and the Missionary Committee are very grateful to those Sunday Schools that contributed, and hope that every Sunday School will not only give one Sunday's collection during the next year, but also take up an extra collection to make up for the year they failed to give one collection.

This Fund is authorized by Resolution of this Convention, and will be a growing Fund, and one in which the Bishop and everyone is deeply interested.

ReportOF PROPERTY HELD IN TRUST BY THE CORPORATION OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONS OF LONG ISLAND.

First report in Journal for 1903, page 103, for six pieces of property. Second report in Journal for 1905, page 103, for sixteen pieces of property. Since the second report, two pieces of property have been transferred to the Corporation, in trust, viz.:

DEED No. 23.—September 29, 1904, from George R. Williams and Elizabeth Williams, his wife, for parcel of land at Smithville, South, Nassau County, held in trust for St. Matthias' Mission, in care of Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau.

DEED No. 24.—September 2, 1905, from Frank H. Tyler and Louisa A. Tyler, his wife, for twenty-four lots in Block No. 36, and three lots in Block No. 38 at Central Islip, Suffolk County, held for St. Boniface Mission, East Hauppauge.

The Diocesan House needs about $2,000 to meet its annual expenses; of this amount the Bishop contributes individually, $200; the Corporation of the Cathedral of the Incarnation, $1,000; and balance from guarantors of the Maintenance Fund about $800.

When a Treasurer has his accounts audited, he feels at liberty to make suggestions.

The opening of the tunnels and new bridges is destined to make the Diocese of Long Island a rapidly growing Diocese, and it will require judicious foresight in a financial way to meet its needs. The Corporation of the Diocesan Missions of Long Island needs a large fund to carry on active progressive missionary work in the three or four Archdeaconries.

The value of the Diocesan Mission House to the Diocese can hardly be estimated by the great mass of Church members, and it would not be amiss to state that the House is in charge of Mr. Robert Harrold, who has done very efficient and satisfactory work.

The Second Day.

It is a pleasure to submit his report in order that you may gain some idea of the usefulness of the Diocesan House.

MR. ROBERT HARROLD'S REPORT.

We have at least 3,000 visitors, exclusive of members of various committees. Of committee and larger bodies we have had 154 meetings. Another important work that has been done is to furnish clergymen as supplies for occasional work in the various churches in the Diocese. I find during the past year I supplied 69 churches with acceptable priests from a list I kept on file, with the approval of the Bishop. I have also provided clergy for three funerals and one marriage. The greater part of this supply work was done during the summer months. I have calls for all kinds of information in regard to our various charitable institutions, not only in this Diocese, but in New York, all of which I try to keep posted on. Then again, I have calls for organists and sextons, several of which I have been the means of locating in positions. When we consider what has been done in the past I think this Diocesan House has been of great service to the Church at large, and its usefulness is increasing every day.

ROBERT HARROLD.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES W. EATON,
Treasurer.

The Rev. J. H. Melish offered the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Archdeacon of the various Archdeaconries, together with one layman from each Archdeaconry, be appointed by the Bishop as a committee which shall be authorized to apportion among the parishes and mission churches the annual apportionment to the Diocese by the Board of Managers for Domestic and Foreign Missions.

The Rev. Dr. Alsop for the Committee on Canons made the following report:

The Committee on Canons, to whom the proposed amendment to Canon 11, Section III., so that it shall read: "All contributions and donations for this object shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Fund," offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That the amendment be adopted.

This was carried.

The Committee on Canons to which was referred a proposed amendment to Canon 10 providing for the widows and children of deceased clergymen, respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration, and recommend the following amendment, and additions to Canon 10, to wit:

Change the title so as to read:

Canon 10—Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen and of the Fund for Families of Deceased Clergymen.

Include provisions for Aged and Infirm Clergy under one section, entitled:

SECTION I.—Old Section I. to be entitled [1]. Old Section II. to be omitted. Old Sections III. and IV. to be entitled [2] and [3].

And add thereto a new Section II., which shall read according to the report submitted to this Committee yesterday.

Your Committee offer the following resolution:

Resolved, That these amendments be adopted.

This was carried.

Rev. Dr. Alsop offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Trustees of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen are hereby ordered to seek incorporation.

The Committee on Canons to whom was referred a proposed amendment to Canon 9 on the Missionary Work of the Diocese respectfully report that they have had the same under consideration and recommend the following:

Add: SECTION X. [1]. The Bishop may nominate to the Northern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn and to the Southern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, a clergyman to fill the office of Archdeacon of Brooklyn, who, upon being approved and accepted by both Archdeaconries, shall take oversight of the missionary work in the said Archdeaconries, with the exception of the Cathedral and Parochial Chapels, and generally perform in said Archdeaconries the duties assigned by Section VI. of this Canon to an Archdeacon.

[2.] He shall hold office for two years, and thereafter in terms of two years upon nomination by the Bishop and approval and acceptance by the two Archdeaconries.

[3.] During the incumbency of such Archdeacon of Brooklyn the two Archdeaconries shall meet together, and the work therein and the funds therefor may be consolidated and administered as though the two Archdeaconries constituted a single Archdeaconry. At such meetings the Archdeacon of Brooklyn shall, if he be present, preside, and in his absence the Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry within the limits of which the meeting is held shall preside.

[4.] The two Archdeaconries may adopt By-laws for their governance in matters of joint interest.

Your Committee move that these amendments be adopted. This was carried.

The Committee on Canons recommended the following change in rules of order, made necessary by the amendments to Canons.

Amend Rule of Order No. 5, for Second Day, by inserting after "Clergymen," on second line, "Trustees for the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen," and "Trustees of Clergymen's Pension and Retiring Fund."

Amend Rule 10 by changing "Report" to "Reports," and by adding "of Trustees for the Fund for Families of Deceased Clergymen," and "of the Trustees of Clergymen's Pension and Retiring Fund."

These amendments, upon motion, were adopted.

Colonel Cogswell for the Committee on Canons spoke on the adoption of the new form of Canons by the General Convention and proposed the following changes in the Constitution and Canons of the Diocese of Long Island, in order to make them conform with the new canons of the General Convention.

Diocese of Long Island.

The Second Day.

The Constitution
OF THE
Protestant Episcopal Church
IN THE
Diocese of Long Island

ADOPTED IN CONVENTION IN BROOKLYN
AS AMENDED IN SUBSEQUENT CONVENTION.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the third Tuesday of May in each year, provided that when such day falls in Rogation Week, it shall be on the fourth Tuesday of May, in the Cathedral at Garden City, or in such other place as shall be designated by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the Ecclesiastical Authority may call such Conventions.

ARTICLE III

SECTION 1.—The Convention shall be composed of all Ministers, canonically resident in this Diocese; and of Lay Delegates not exceeding three in number from the Cathedral, and each Church or Congregation admitted into union with the Church in this Diocese.

Provided, however, That no Minister shall be a member of the Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for a period of three months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, and is not under sentence of suspension.

SEC. 2.—The mode of electing Lay Delegates to the Convention from the Cathedral and Churches or Congregations, and of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with a celebration of the Holy Communion, at which service there shall be a sermon, address or charge by the Bishop, or a sermon by some Minister appointed by him. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate or of the inability of the Bishop to act, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall make provisions for the sermon.

At the conclusion of the service, the Convention shall organize for the transaction of business.

The Second Day.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop, by virtue of his office, shall preside in the Convention; in the absence or inability of the Bishop to act, the Bishop Coadjutor shall preside. If there be no Bishop Coadjutor, or if there is a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Convention shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Annual Convention, and until a successor be chosen. He shall take minutes of the proceedings, preserve the journals and records, attest the public acts of the Convention, and perform such other duties as may be prescribed by Canon. He shall deliver to his successor all books and papers relating to the concerns of the Convention which may be in his possession.

ARTICLE VII.

No change.

ARTICLE VIII.

OF THE
IN THE ...

PRELIMINARY CANON.

The Definition of Terms.

Unless it shall otherwise appear from the context, or be otherwise expressly directed, the following terms shall, for the purposes of these Canons, be construed to mean as follows: The terms, "The Constitution" and "The Canons" to mean, respectively, the Constitution and the Canons for the government of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, passed and adopted in General Convention in October, 1904, and any amendments thereof; the terms, "Constitution" and "Canons" the Constitution and Canons of the Church in this Diocese; the term "Minister," a Bishop, Priest or Deacon; the term "Clergyman," a Priest or Deacon; the term "This Church," the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; the term "Ecclesiastical Authority," the Bishop of the Diocese, or the Bishop Coadjutor or the Standing Committee when authorized by the Bishop, as provided in Section V of Canon 12 of The Canons, or a Bishop in charge of the Diocese as provided in [I], Section VI of Canon 12 of The Canons, or when there is no Bishop in charge, the Standing Committee: the term "Canonically Resident," that a Minister has been duly received into this Diocese by acceptance of Letters Dimissory recorded as provided by Section V of Canon 1, ordination or some other mode by the Ecclesiastical Authority. Whenever words importing the plural number are used in describing or referring to any matters, parties or persons, any single matter, party or person shall be deemed to be included, although distributive words may not be used.

Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese.

SECTION I.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare or cause to be prepared and recorded in a book designated "Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese," a list of all Ministers of this Church canonically resident in the Diocese, designating those settled in the Cathedral or in some Church or Congregation in union with this Convention by the names of their respective offices, Churches, Congregations or Cures; those employed as Missionaries by their respective stations; those who are Chaplains in the Army and Navy by their posts of duty; those employed as Instructors of youth in any College, Academy or Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, by the Colleges, Academies or other Seminaries of learning in which they are engaged, and in regard to those not so employed, their places of residence only.

SEC. II.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall cause all changes in said record or list by reason of death, transfer, disposition or suspension, and all additions thereto by reason of acceptance of Letters Dimissory, ordination or any other mode to be promptly made.

SEC. III.—Such Record or List, or a copy thereof, authenticated by the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of its meeting, and shall be prefixed to the Journal.

SEC. IV.—The right of any Minister to a seat in the Convention shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Third Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself, whether his name be inserted in such list or omitted. Such list shall, however, be taken as presumptive evidence of the right of those whose names appear thereon to seats in the Convention, and that none others have such right.

SEC. V.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall record or cause to be recorded in a book designated "Letters Dimissory" all such letters received by it, the date of reception, and a brief minute of the action taken thereon. When a certificate pursuant to [IV] or [V] Section V of Canon 15 of The Canons is given, it must be recorded at length; from the date of such certificate as recorded, and not before, a Clergyman shall be deemed canonically resident.

SEC. VI.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall record or cause to be recorded in a book to be called "Election of Rectors" all notices of the election of a Rector required by Section III of Canon 14 of The Canons, and of the action taken thereon.

SEC. VII.—The Record or List named in Section I, the record of "Letters Dimissory" named in Section IV, and the record of "Election of Rectors" named in Section V, of this Canon, or transcripts thereof (or of such parts thereof as may relate to the matter in question), duly certified by the Secretary of the Convention, shall be received in evidence upon all proceedings or trials under any law or Canon in force in this Diocese.

CANON 2.

SECTION I.—Of Churches and Congregations in Union with the Church in this Diocese.

[1.] The Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, and recorded in a book designated "Record or List of Churches and Congregations in Union with the Church in this Diocese," a list of the Cathedral and all such Churches and Congregations by their corporate name, date of organization and date of admission into Union with the Diocese.

[2.] Such Record or List, or a copy thereof, authenticated by the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of its meeting, and shall be taken as presumptive evidence of the right of the Cathedral and of such Church or Congregation whose name appears thereon to appoint Lay Delegates to the Convention, and that none others have such right. A copy of such Record or List shall be prefixed to the Journal.

[3.] The Cathedral and each Church and Congregation now in Union with the Church in this Diocese, and such as may hereafter be received in Union therewith shall be entitled to appoint three Lay Delegates to the Convention.

[4.] No Lay Delegates shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention unless he is a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church and has been connected with the Cathedral, Church or Congregation appointing him at least twelve months prior to such appointment.

SEC. II.—Of Lay Delegates.

[1.] The Lay Delegates to the Convention from the Cathedral, one of whom shall be a member of the Cathedral Chapter, shall be chosen by the male Lay Members of full age of the Congregation, who have habitually for twelve months preceding such election attended divine service in the Cathedral, acting under by-laws made by the Chapter. The evidence of their appointment shall be a certificate signed by the Dean, or the Precentor if the Dean is absent, and by the recording officer.

[2.] Lay Delegates from Churches or Congregations shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence.

When the Vestry is from vacancy or otherwise incompetent to act, and in cases where a Church or Congregation is organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Church or Congregation.

[3.] The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Defegate, if made by the Vestry, shall be a written certificate signed by the Rector of the Church, or if there be no Rector or he be absent, by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also in each case by the Clerk of the Vestry.

[4.] If the appointment be made by the Church or Congregation, the evidence shall be a certificate signed by the Minister, if there be one, or by the officer presiding at a meeting of the Congregation by which he was elected, and by the Clerk or Secretary, which certificate shall declare that such person has been duly chosen Lay Delegate by the male members of full age of such Church or Congregation who have habitually for twelve months preceding such election attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

[5.] The time, place and manner of holding such election, and the notice for holding the same (which shall be ten days at least), shall be fixed by rules or by-laws made by the Trustees of such Churches or Congregations, or by the Lay Members of the same, qualified as aforesaid, at a meeting duly convened.

[6.] Every certificate of the appointment of a Lay Delegate shall show upon its face that the appointment has been made in pursuance of the requirements of this Section, and shall certify that the delegate has the qualifications required by this Canon.

[7.] A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted by the Secretary of the Convention, to the Vestry or Trustees of every Church in Union with this Convention, with blank printed forms of proceedings under it, to be entered upon their books of minutes. All alterations shall be similarly transmitted.

[8.] No other certificate or evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate than such as is required by this Section shall be required, and the right of any Layman to a seat in the Convention, in cases of doubt or dispute, shall be determined by the Convention itself.

The Second Day.

CANON 3.

Of Parish Boundaries.

SECTION I.—No Change from Present Canon 2.

CANON 4.

Of the Convention.

SECTION I.—Of the Call of the Convention.

[1.] At least three weeks before a Convention is held the Secretary shall mail a written or printed notice of the time and place thereof directed to each Minister, who by the "Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese" is entitled to a seat therein, to the Chapter of the Cathedral and to the Vestry of Trustees of each Church or Congregation entitled to appoint Lay Delegates thereto named in the "List of Churches or Congregations in Union with the Church in this Diocese."

Whenever a Special Convention is to be held, such notice shall specify the purpose for which it is called, and no business other than that so specified shall be transacted.

[2.] At least five days before the time specified in the call for a Convention, the Cathedral and any Church or Congregation appointing Lay Delegates to the Convention shall file the certificate of appointment as provided in Canon 2, with the Secretary, who shall prepare a list of such Delegates and place it before the Convention on the first day of its meeting. Irregular or defective certificates, and certificates and documents relating to contested seats shall be reported by the Secretary to the Convention when organized for its action.

SEC. II.—Of a Quorum.

[1.] The presence of at least fifteen Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least fifteen Churches or Congregations, shall be necessary for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. III.—Of Organizing the Convention.

[1.] The Bishop, or in his absence, the Bishop Coadjutor, shall call those presenting themselves to order. If neither the Bishop nor the Bishop Coadjutor are present the Presbyter present who has been longest canonically resident in the Diocese shall take the Chair and preside until a President be elected.

[2.] The Secretary shall call over the names of the Ministers entitled to seats from the Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese, and of the Lay Delegates so entitled from the list provided for in [2] of Section I of this Canon.

The Second Day.

[1.] A canonical quorum of fifteen Clergymen and Delegates from fifteen Churches or Congregations being present, the Bishop, or in his absence the Bishop Coadjutor if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If neither the Bishop nor the Bishop Coadjutor are present, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided for in Article V of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot. The President elected shall declare the Convention organized for business.

[2.] The Convention shall then take action upon the irregular or defective certificates of appointment of Lay Delegates, and certificates and documents relating to unexpired seats reported by the Secretary.

[3.] The Convention shall then proceed to the election, by ballot, of a Secretary. He may nominate an Assistant Secretary for choice by the Convention.

[4.] The rules of order in force at the preceding Convention, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said rules of order shall regulate the proceedings, after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

SEC. IV.—The Secretary.

[1.] In addition to the offices and duties elsewhere declared, the Secretary shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of this Church, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention, and shall request the Secretaries of the Diocesan Convention to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

[2.] He shall also transmit to the Secretary of the House of Deputies the documents and certified copy of the testimonials mentioned in [iii] of Section I of Canon 40 of The Canons, and also forward a duplicate copy of such testimonials to the Standing Committee of the Diocese, in which the General Convention is next to meet. He shall also transmit to such Secretary the documents and lists mentioned in Section II of Canon 47 of The Canons.

[3.] Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, or he shall be unable to act, the duties shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

SEC. V.—(Old Sec. VII.) The Treasurer.

No change.

SEC. VI. (Old Sec. VIII.) Of Elections.

No change.

The Second Day.

SEC. VII. (Old Sec. IX.) Of the Admission of a Church into Union and Maintaining such Union.

[1], [2], [3], [4], without change.

After [4] add new [5], as follows:

[5.] The Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches shall make their report on the application to the Convention with their recommendations thereon immediately after the Secretary has been elected. The report shall be acted upon before the adjournment of the Convention. If the Convention by a majority vote shall grant the application, the Church or Congregation shall be declared by the President to have been duly received into union with the Church in this Diocese.

And renumber remaining sub-divisions [6], [7] and [8], respectively.

CANON 5.

Of the Standing Committee.

Whereas, by Article IV of The Constitution, it is required that there shall be a Standing Committee, to be appointed by the Convention in each Diocese, whose rights and duties, except as provided in The Constitution and The Canons may be prescribed by the Canons of the respective Diocese; therefore it is, in addition to The Constitution and The Canons, declared and prescribed as follows:

[1.] There shall be a Standing Committee to consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity elected by the Convention and divided into four classes, so that one of the Clergy and one of the Laity shall go out of office annually, and the two vacancies thus made shall be filled by an election by ballot and by the concurrent vote of the members of each order at every stated meeting of the Convention, of one of each order to serve for four years.

PRESENT CANON 23.

Will be unnecessary, if the proposed changes should be adopted, as the duties of the Secretary are fully stated in Section IV of Canon 4 of the proposed Canons.

Colonel Cogswell then moved that further consideration of this report be made the order of business at three o'clock. This was carried.

The Rev. Mr. Holden addressed the Convention on the Men's Thank Offering Fund to be made at the next General Convention and urged the appointment of a Secretary and Treasurer in each parish for the collection of contributions.

The Secretary read the following Communications to the Convention:

NEW ORLEANS, LA., January 1, 1906.

The Rev. R. Rogers, Secretary of Long Island, Brooklyn, N. Y.:

REV. AND DEAR SIR: The Joint Committee appointed at the last General Convention, with reference to the memorial presented to the Convention by the 20th Annual Conference of Church Workers Amongst the Colored People, instructed their Sub-Committee to procure statistics and information.

In fulfillment of this duty we are proceeding to secure expressions concerning the "Canon on Special Missionary Bishops" which the Conference proposed to the Convention, with a petition for its adoption.

A copy of the Memorial and proposed Canon is enclosed.

We seek such expression from the Council of the Diocese of Long Island as will indicate whether they consider our present organization adequate for this work, or whether they favor the Canon as proposed by the Conference, or, in case they do not favor the Canon and do favor some change, what change they would propose.

The Second Day.

We respectfully address this inquiry to the Council, having addressed a similar inquiry to the Bishop, and we beg such statement of the view of the Council for the information of the Joint Committee as the Council may deem it proper and advisable to make.

Faithfully yours,

DAVIS SESSUMS,
EDMUND N. JOYNER,
B. LAWTON WIGGINS,
Sub-Committee.

A Memorial

TO THE GENERAL CONVENTION OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

At the Twentieth Annual Conference of Church Workers Among the Colored People, held in St. Philip's Church, Newark, N. J., September 27-30, 1904, the year of the One Hundredth Anniversary of the Ordination of the first Negro Priest in America, in the interest of furthering the work which we represent, the proposed Canon, which follows, was duly approved, and it was resolved that this Memorial be forwarded to the General Convention, with the very earnest request and petition, that your honorable body would incorporate the same into the Canon Law of the Church.

CANON.

On Special Missionary Bishops.

SECTION 1. In Dioceses containing in large numbers peoples who by reason of certain peculiarities cannot effectively be reached in the regular diocesan way, it shall be lawful for the Bishops of any two or more contiguous Dioceses to petition the House of Bishops for the establishment of a Special Missionary District within the bounds of their territory, and for the appointment, for said District, of a Special Missionary Bishop of that race, over the congregations of the particular race or language for which his ministration shall be required in the Dioceses making such petition.

SEC. 2. If, upon consideration of all the circumstances of the case, the House of Bishops shall deem it expedient, they may proceed at once to establish the same, and also to elect a suitable person to exercise Episcopal functions in the proposed Special Missionary District, after the manner of the election and consecration of a Domestic Missionary Bishop. The Diocesan Bishops within the bounds of the District so established shall constitute a Council of Advice to the Missionary Bishop.

SEC. 3. Any Bishop so elected and consecrated shall exercise Episcopal functions in such congregations only, in such Dioceses, and for such missionary work only as shall have been distinctly specified and described in the petition for his appointment, and in the action of the House of Bishops thereupon.

SEC. 4. The rights, privileges and duties of such Special Missionary Bishop, within his assigned District, and in his relations to the other Bishops and Dioceses of the Church, shall be in all respects the same as those of a Domestic Missionary Bishop.

SEC. 5. Each Special Missionary District may terminate with the natural life of the Bishop appointed to it; or be terminated by his disability, arising from physical or judicial causes, or by his accepted resignation made to the House of Bishops.

SEC. 6. Congregations included in a Special Missionary District, by the terms of its establishment, may, from time to time, withdraw themselves or be withdrawn from union with the other congregations of the Diocese in which they may be respectively situate upon such conditions as shall have been provided in the petition and action establishing the District, or as may be agreed upon between the Special Missionary Bishop and the Bishop and Convention of the Diocese to which they may desire to be united.

In proposing to your honorable body the adoption of such a measure, it may not be out of place to briefly review some of the efforts, in past years, of a few of the Diocesan authorities to attain the same end now so earnestly sought by your petitioners.

In 1869, when the first colored congregation of our Church organized in Virginia, applied to the Council to be received "as a parish with all the rights and privileges of other parishes," the petition was not granted, but in lieu thereof, it was "taken under the care" of the Council. Immediately following this action, the following preamble and resolution, offered by the Rev. Dr. Andrews, were adopted:

"WHEREAS, It is believed that a plan can be devised for the ecclesiastical and spiritual well being of the colored members of our Church, more promotive of the respect to which they are entitled as Christians, and in every way more agreeable to themselves than anything which has been submitted, therefore

"Resolved, That a committee of three clergymen and two laymen be appointed to consider and report upon this subject to the next Council."

The Second Day.

Notwithstanding the fact that in the Diocese of South Carolina, previous to the Civil War, colored communicants outnumbered the whites, yet in the Convention of that Diocese in 1868, the Rev. Dr. J. S. Hanckell, Chairman of the Committee on the State of the Church, in his report said:

"In many of our parishes (especially in the lower country, where this class was most numerous) the falling off in the number of communicants is lamentable in the extreme. In some parishes, where they were numbered by hundreds, there are now none. In others the number of communicants has been reduced one-half or one-fourth. In 1860 the whole number of colored communicants was 2,960. There have been reported to us (at that Convention) only 291. In one parish 14 chapels built for their use, in another 7, in another 5, in several 2 or 3, are all deserted."

The lamented Bishop Howe, of South Carolina, in his Convention Address of 1873, says: "I find myself inclined to think, at least from present observation and reflection, that if our Church is to do any work of moment among this people, it must be done by the Church at large. Let a Missionary Jurisdiction be erected by the General Convention with express reference to these people, and let a Missionary Bishop be consecrated, who shall give his whole time and thought to this work; who, as the executive, not of a single Diocese, but of the entire Church, shall organize congregations, provide them with Church schools and pastors, and in due time raise up from among the colored people themselves, deacons and priests who shall be educated men, and competent to the work of the ministry. It would seem as if the Church, even in lack of precedent, ought to be able to provide for our perplexity."

In the General Convention of the next year, 1874, the Bishop of North Carolina introduced, in the House of Bishops, a Canon providing for suffragan Bishops. At the same Convention the Bishop of Maryland, as a substitute for the proposition from North Carolina, offered a Canon providing for Missionary Bishops and Missionary Districts.

The Canon which your petitioners, at this present time, ask your honorable body to adopt, is, with but few verbal changes, the identical Canon offered by the Bishop of Maryland.

The General Convention failing to give the relief sought at that time, the Diocese of Virginia, at its Council in 1879, instructed its deputies to the General Convention to make another effort to secure a "separate organization" for the colored people of the Southern States, with Bishops of their own race.

The General Convention still failing to act, a Southern Conference was held at Sewanee, Tenn., July 25, 1883, composed entirely of white Southerners, there being present 12 Bishops, 17 Priests, and 11 laymen. At the next General Convention, which met in the fall of 1883, in Philadelphia, the Sewanee plan was laid before that body, but no definite action was taken. Despairing of action upon the part of the General Convention, the Virginia Council led the way, and, in a diocesan manner, enacted the same legislation which it was sought to be made general, going a step further, in account of the inaction of the General Convention, and disfranchising its colored Clergy.

The Second Day.

Since then the Diocese of South Carolina, and now the Diocese of Arizona, by legislative action, which leaves the colored work in ecclesiastical circles have added to the already most difficult barriers which encompass our work.

In our humble judgment, the best solution of the difficulty lies in the adoption of the Canon proposed by the Bishop of Maryland in 1874, and commended by such men as the late Bishops Stevens of Pennsylvania and Vall of Kansas. With all fairness and frankness of speech, the real issue cannot well be evaded. The people represented by your petitioners are citizens of the United States, having a share in the Government under which they live. We cannot reasonably expect such persons to accept membership in a Church which denies them a share in the ecclesiastical government, which, in honor bound, they must sustain, and bear true allegiance. We claim that ours is a Catholic Church, and yet, in its highest legislative body, the exclusion of members of our race as parts of the Catholic entity would seem a silent but expressive contradiction of such an all-embracing claim.

Without an academic debate of the many points involved in the present cause of "friction" within the Church, your petitioners, in the interest of the peace of the Church, are content to waive any fundamental convictions which they may have with respect to absolute democratic equality of all races in the government of the Church, and loyally and cheerfully accept the tentative plan suggested by means of the proposed legislation.

We are unable to see, in its adoption, any greater recognition of the spirit of caste in the Church, than that unwritten law which now obtains, by the which, the Church deliberately ordains and appoints colored priests to minister to colored congregations. If it be conceded that a colored clergyman is more acceptable to a congregation of colored persons, and can render more efficient and satisfactory service, we fail to understand why a colored priest, as Bishop, whose entire associations, experiences and observations have been specially concentrated along racial lines, is any the less capable of administering the affairs of a group of such congregations.

In the employment of the plan of operation and administration suggested by us, two definite results are warranted. First, and by no means the least, race "friction" will be eliminated, and instead of race prejudice on the one hand, and race suspicion on the other, mutual good will, genuine enthusiasm, and hearty co-operation will take the place of indifferent acquiescence. In the second place, it will vouchsafe the colored ace, and colored Churchmen in particular, the opportunity for a full and unrestricted development of all their powers and faculties; and the accumulated force and value of this new life and enthusiastic endeavor will be evidenced in an accelerated and phenomenal growth of the Church among the colored race.

to the Convention of the Diocese of Long Island:

GENTLEMEN: The investigation of The Communicants' League has developed the fact that many of the State and Municipal Institutions are without the regular ministrations of a priest of the Episcopal Church. The Communicants' League has, therefore, addressed a communication to the various dioceses of the State, urging their attention to this matter, and it would respectfully urge upon the Diocese of Long Island that this matter be referred to its proper agency, with instructions to the end that each different Penal, Reform and Charitable Institution in the Diocese may regularly receive the ministrations of a priest of the Church.

JAS. H. FALCONER, Secretary.

A motion to refer this to the several Archdeacons was carried.

The Rev. Dr. Kinsolving then read the following report of the Standing Committee:

REPORT OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Long Island begs leave to submit the following report:

June 5, 1905.—Announcement was made of the re-election at the recent Convention of the Rev. Dr. Arthur B. Kinsolving and Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse as members of the Committee for four years.

The Committee organized by the election of the Rev. Dr. Swentzel, as President, and Dr. Kinsolving, as Secretary. It was decided that the stated meetings of the Committee be held on Monday afternoons in the Ember weeks, at 4.30 o'clock.

The Second Day.

The Rev. Messrs. Walter Franklin Prince and Harry Edwin Payne were recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the Priesthood, and Mr. Samuel C. Fish, for Holy Orders, and the proper papers signed.

June 14, 1905.—Mr. Norman Orlando Hutton, was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the Diaconate.

A request was received from the Church of the Nativity, Vanderveer Park, for permission to remove the site of their Church to the northeast corner of Ocean Avenue and Avenue F. A letter was presented from the Rev. E. A. Osborn, Rector of St. John's Church, Parkville, opposing such action and asking a hearing. Accordingly, a meeting was called for Tuesday, the 20th.

Rev. William Morrison presented a corrected draft of the petition from the corporation of All Saints' Church, Brooklyn, to be allowed to sell certain property on the northeast side of Seventh Street near Seventh Avenue, Brooklyn, hereinbefore described, and on motion, the Secretary was authorized to sign the papers.

An application was received from the corporation of Epiphany Church, Ozone Park, setting forth that this parish, formerly a cathedral mission, had become a duly incorporated parish, and been so admitted at the last Diocesan Convention, asking that the title to the Church property at Ozone Park, bounded by Wyckoff, Belmont and McCormack Avenues, be transferred from the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese to the corporation of Epiphany Church. The application was granted.

June 20, 1905.—Consent was given to the election of the Rev. Frederick Foote Johnson to be a Missionary Bishop of this Church to assist the Bishop of South Dakota.

The matter of the moving of the site of the Church of the Nativity, Vanderveer Park, to the corner of Ocean Avenue and Avenue F was taken up. No opposition was made by the corporation of St. Paul's, Flatbush, Church of the Holy Apostles, Windsor Terrace, or St. Jude's, Blythebourne. Rev. Andrew Fleming stated his reasons for desiring to move. Of nine vestrymen present, seven were in favor of the removal and two opposed. Both sides were fully heard, as well as a deputation from St. John's Church, Parkville. The Committee adjourned to meet on June 21st, to consider further the testimony.

June 21, 1905.—After deliberation upon the petition of the corporation of the Church of the Nativity, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, That in the matter of the petition of the Church of the Nativity, Vanderveer Park, to be allowed to move the site of the Church to Ocean Avenue and Avenue F, the Standing Committee after a full hearing, upon due notice, respectfully advise and consent that the Bishop give his permission to the removal of the Church of the Nativity to the site proposed, upon that Church's securing the money required to make full payment for the land, subject to the contemplated mortgage of not exceeding $6,000."

A letter from the Bishop was presented, asking the counsel of the Committee in regard to a petition from the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of St. Matthew's Church and Church of the Epiphany, Brooklyn, for the consolidation of the two parishes, and after due consideration of all the papers in the case, the following resolution was adopted:

"Resolved, The Standing Committee advise and consent that the Bishop give his permission to the consolidation of St. Matthew's Church and the Church of the Epiphany in general accordance with the agreement duly signed and sealed by the corporations, which agreement, however, though satisfactory as a preliminary agreement, should be followed by an agreement more strictly in accord with the terms of Section 12 of the Religious Corporations Law of the State of New York."

November 24, 1905.—Mr. Charles M. Baldwin was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders.

Mr. Asyggell W. E. Carrington was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders, with the suggestion that his papers be dated back to September 20, 1905.

Mr. Leonidas W. Smith was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders, with the suggestion that his papers date from November 1, 1905.

Permission was given the corporation of St. George's Church, Flushing, L. I., to place a mortgage of $3,000 upon St. John's Chapel, Murray Hill, with the understanding that the existing mortgage of $1,100 be retired.

December 11, 1905.—Consent was given to the election of the Rev. Edward Melville Parker, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of New Hampshire, and the Rev. Charles D. Williams, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of Michigan, and the proper papers signed.

December 19, 1905.—Consent was given to the placing of a mortgage of $2,800 upon St. Paul's Mission, Roosevelt, with the understanding that the Church people there pay the interest on the mortgage, and reduce it by the sum of $200 yearly.

Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. John N. McCormick, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of Western Michigan.

January 10, 1906.—Consent was given to the consecration of the Rev. William Walter Webb, D.D., to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Milwaukee, and the proper papers signed.

March 5, 1906.—Consent was given the corporation of the Church of the Holy Apostles, Windsor Terrace, Brooklyn, to sell a lot which had been presented to the parish, with the present value of $1,560, on condition that the proceeds of the sale be kept in a fund to be used in the future for the same purpose.

The Second Day.

Permission was given the Diocesan Missions of Long Island to place the following mortgages upon the following pieces of property: First, upon the Central Mission at Gentile, L. I. a mortgage of $5,000, of which $2,000 shall be used to pay off an existing mortgage, and $3,000 to purchase an existing mortgage; second, to place a purchase mortgage of $2,500 upon the property of Christ Church Mission, on Earl Avenue, Lynbrook, L. I.; third, to place a mortgage of $4,000 upon St. Mark's Mission, Steinway, L. I. to erect a Church building there at cost $6,000; and fourth, to place a mortgage of $2,000 upon the Mission property at Belle Harbor, L. I., to erect a Church at cost $2,000.

Permission was given for the conveyance, by the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Christ Church, Manhasset, L. I. to the corporation of St. Stephen's Church, Fort Washington, L. I. of two lots of land at Port Washington, in the County of Nassau, New York (formerly the County of Queens) and known and designated by the numbers 16 and 17 on a certain map entitled "Map of property belonging to D. A. Cornwell and H. W. Blackman, at Fort Washington, L. I. made 1872, and filed in the Clerk's office of the said County of Queens, June 28, 1872."

March 11, 1881.—A letter was read from the Bishop to the President, asking a meeting of the Standing Committee on the question whether the Church at Shelter Island is to be treated as a Mission under Canon 9, of the Diocesan Canons, and requesting that the discussion be confined to this one point. The Bishop was present and gave a detailed history of the case, and after extended consultation, the Committee took the matter under further consideration, adjourning to meet March 21st.

March 21, 1881.—Judge Van Wyck reported on behalf of the Sub-Committee, consisting of Mr. Mynderse and himself, in regard to the status of St. Mary's Church, Shelter Island, and the minister there, as follows: The property was conveyed to this corporation, in trust, for the congregation, and the Church shall be brought into union with the Diocese. The Church recognize the existence of a de facto corporation by the acknowledgment of the deed. Since the deed was given, and many years ago, the Church has become incorporated. The clergyman now in charge claims to be a member of the parish, but appointed by the Bishop. Whether a parish, under these circumstances, allows the Bishop to act for them, they are the trustees of a de facto congregation subsequently incorporated and so incorporating. Then not having taken the step of coming into union with the Diocese does not make them a Mission. After further consideration, adjourned.

Resolution. That the Standing Committee having been asked by the Bishop for their counsel and advice on one point only in connection with St. Mary's Shelter Island, namely, whether St. Mary's is a Mission or not and comes under Canon 9 of our Canons, we respectively advise that upon the facts presented to us, St. Mary's Shelter Island, is not a Mission, and that the minister in charge is not a missionary, subject to Canon 9."

The Second Day.

Consent was given the corporation of St. Stephen's Church, Port Washington, L. I., to convey to William M. Huckle, or his assigns, all those two certain lots of land, situate, lying and being at Port Washington, in the County of Nassau (formerly the County of Queens), and State of New York, known and designated on a certain map on file in the Clerk's office of the County of Queens, entitled "Map of property belonging to D. A. Cornwell and H. W. Eastman, at Port Washington, Long Island, made 1872," as and by the lots 16 and 17 on said map.

ARTHUR B. KINSOLVING,

Secretary.

The Rev. John Henri Sattig presented the following report of the Committee on the General Theological Seminary:

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

The Committee on the General Theological Seminary respectfully reports that this institution, under the wise direction of the Dean, the Very Rev. Wilford L. Robbins, D.D., LL.D., continues to be the leading Seminary of the Church in the United States.

During the twenty-one years from 1885 to 1905, inclusive, 601 students completed the course and graduated. Of this number, thirty, or about five per cent., were candidates for Holy Orders from this Diocese.

The largest number graduated in any one year during this period was in the year 1898, when 44 students completed the course, of whom 3 came from this Diocese.

The class of 1900 was also large, numbering 40, of whom 4 came from Long Island.

A perusal of the appended statistics and a survey of the names of the senior class of 1906, printed in the Seminary catalogue, will show that during the years 1904, 1905, and 1906, but one student from this Diocese completed the course.

Your Committee would remind you that it has been frequently stated that since 1900 there has been a falling off in the number of men entering the ministry, but that from henceforth they believe an increase can be expected.

While the present senior class contains but 15 men, the middle class contains 39, and the junior class 40, besides which there are at present in the Seminary 5 fellows, 5 graduate students, and 13 special students. The number of candidates from this Diocese at present in the Seminary is 5. During the year the Rev. Francis B. Blodgett, B.A., B.D., Instructor of Dogmatic Theology and Greek, was added to the Faculty.

GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY,
C. B. ZARRISKIE, Registrar.

The Rev. William S. Chase presented the following report on the Social Service Committee:

Report

OF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE TO THE CONVENTION
OF THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND IN MAY, 1906.

The Bishop of Long Island, in his annual charge in 1903, spoke of the social mission of the Church. The Convention in 1905 authorized by canon the annual appointment by the Bishop of the Social Service Committee to carry into effect any measures recommended by the Diocesan Convention.

The Second Day.

The last Convention referred four matters to us for action.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE.

The first of these was to do something towards securing a better observance of the Lord's Day by our own Church members, and especially by those who are now compelled to work on Sunday.

At a meeting of the Committee, held on October 13th, the Secretary was asked to write to the American Automobile Association, and request their kind assistance in such way as might seem to them best, so that by the example and influence of that strong national organization such a secularizing of the Lord's Day as occurred at the time of the Vanderbilt Cup Race last fall might not be repeated in succeeding years.

The letter said: "We are aware, however, that no automobile races are conducted on Sunday under your auspices, and that you recently caused the arrest of many persons on your Long Island course on Sunday who were exceeding the legal speed limit.

"We would, however, suggest that you forbid any contestants from making tests on Sunday or trial speedings at the time on which it is permitted on all days of the week, i.e., from 5 to 7.30 A. M.

"It is possible also that in the future you may discover some more effective method of preventing persons not members of your Association from using your course for illegal speedings on Sunday.

"We would also ask whether, without infringing upon the liberty of the local management of automobile races in various parts of the country, your Association cannot use your powerful influence for the patriotic as well as the moral and religious purpose of preserving all that is wisest and best of the American Sunday, that institution which has done so much for the founding and upbuilding of our national life."

The letter from the American Automobile Association in reply, stated that our request had been carefully considered by the Board of Directors and said: "'The American Automobile Association,' through its Racing Board, endeavored to prevent Sunday speeding on the 1905 Vanderbilt course, and perhaps another year it could use more effective methods should the contests take place. The matter of early trials at daybreak on Sunday would be referred to the Racing Board for its judgment. Since this riding around the course, frequently done at less than racing speed, could be considered nothing more than a trip like one might take in a horse-drawn vehicle, you can, perhaps, appreciate that it might be difficult for us to forbid this driving on a Sunday.

"You may rest assured that the Association will endeavor to inconvenience and interfere as little as possible with Long Islanders in this particular.

"In other parts of the country we can hardly do other than to allow conditions to govern, and there is always recourse to law if any illegal entertainments are attempted. There can hardly be any question but that the A. A. A. would not permit any national event to take place on the Sabbath."

The Committee has noticed the increased boldness of persons who can make money by violating the Sunday Laws, especially those forbidding Sunday theaters and professional ball games, and we desire to call attention to the appeal of the actors, that they be not compelled to work seven days in the week as coming from persons who, having much to do with the morals of the people, ought not to be deprived of religious education and privileges.

PROBATION WORK.

The second recommendation to the Committee was that it continue and extend the probation work in the courts.

History of Juvenile Courts.

Illinois was the first State to codify the laws relating to children, and on July 1, 1899, a children's court was opened in Chicago. Since then Juvenile Courts Laws have been established in more than thirteen other States. There are twenty-six Juvenile Courts in the United States, and there are also many courts where the judges sit at a suitable time and place to try children apart from adults.

In accordance with two acts passed by the New York Legislature, a children's court was opened in the Borough of Manhattan on January 1, 1904, and another in Brooklyn, September 9, 1905, at 102 Court Street. During 1904, 2,486 boys and 296 girls and during 1905, 2,081 boys and 326 girls were convicted of crime, very often petty larceny, or of disorder in the streets. Of these 850 were sent to some reformatory institution, many were fined, and 626 were put on parole, generally under the care of a probationary officer, to whom they must regularly report.

When the Juvenile Court Law was enacted, it was thought that a higher type of probation officers would be secured by requiring that their salaries be paid and their selection be made not by the State, but by voluntary societies. From the first the Roman Catholics have had a man present every day in the Children's Court, the Jews have a lady probation officer there, and recently, as the result of the work of the Social Service Committee in this probation work, one of our own Church rectors, through a few private contributors, has been able to place a lawyer of experience as probation officer in the Children's Court.

Committee's Probation Officer.

The Social Service Committee received a gift of money with which to provide a probation officer for a year in one of the Brooklyn Courts.

The Second Day.

It was first thought to put him in the Children's Court, but it was found there was greater need of such work in the next higher court.

Mr. Charles H. Warner, a member of the New York bar, who is regularly engaged in the Social Settlement work afternoons and evenings at the Alfred Corning Clark Neighborhood House, Rivington Street, was engaged and placed experimentally in the Court of Special Sessions, in January, 1905, which meets on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 171 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, at 10 A. M. This court deals with misdemeanors, punishable by a fine of $500, or an imprisonment of one year or both. The larger part of the persons brought before this court are between the ages of seventeen and twenty-one.

After several months' experience Mr. Warner was appointed by the judges as probation officer of the Court of Special Sessions, where there is also a lady probation officer, representing St. Vincent de Paul Society of the Roman Catholics.

Mr. Warner's work has been :

1. To visit the Kings County Jail and talk with the prisoners held for the Court of General Sessions. This he does on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays.
2. To investigate certain cases for the judge when the judges feel that the evidence produced in court is not enough to enable them to give a wise verdict.
3. To look after certain cases which the judges deem to be fit cases for parole.

Since January 1, 1905, Mr. Warner has had 98 cases referred to him by the judges of Special Sessions. Of these 79 were for petty larceny, or for something similar; 14 were for assault in the third degree. Of these cases 21 are now on parole and 16 have been discharged from parole on good report from Mr. Warner. On his recommendation sentence was suspended upon 22 cases, and 23 were sent to Kings County Jail or Penitentiary, and 14 sent to the N. Y. C. Reformatory for misdemeanants at Hart's Island.

It is interesting to note that of those placed on parole only three violated their parole and had to be rearrested.

The last of the money originally donated for this purpose was expended about the first of this year. Since that time the finance committee has been obliged to provide about $60 a month, as it pays Mr. Warner $50 and his expenses. His work takes his time from about 9 A. M. to 2 P. M. each week day.

The committee will not be able to continue this excellent work after the 1st of June, unless funds are provided from some unexpected source.

Mr. Warner gives two specimen cases :

Diocese of Long Island.The Second Day.A Specimen Case.

N— G—, seventeen years of age, was out of work. He had a hard-working father, a good mother and a comfortable home. He had answered some advertisements for work, but he was easy and very unsuspecting of criminal schemes. A fellow who had been in trouble before wanted some money with which to get his overcoat out of pawn, so he induced N— G— to take a certain article, which he thought belonged to this person seeking the favor, and sell it and bring the money back to him. Both were arrested. N— G— was paroled in my custody, after a report to the judges of the above stated facts, and his co-defendant was committed to the penitentiary. I think if this investigation of the character and the home surroundings of N— G— had not been made, he also would have been committed. The terms of his parole are that he get a position at once, live at home and report to me weekly, and at the court each month.

The poolroom caused it. In desperation he had pawned even to his clothes. He had been out late at night with his poolroom pals, and some nights did not come home at all. At last he was caught, pleaded guilty, and was paroled. His widowed mother, almost sent to the grave by her son's conduct, thought as S— had a desire to get into the army, the discipline there would do him good. He has enlisted for three years. His poolroom and race track career, and larceny to procure the money such agencies require, would soon have placed S— in the penitentiary and his widowed mother in the grave.

Instead of that, a recent letter from his mother says, "About a month ago he was given a twenty-four hour leave, and from his manners I think there is a great improvement in him.

Another Specimen Case.

J— L— had a good job as a butler, and had access to all parts of the house. His employer had great confidence in him, because he was acquainted with the boy's family, and knew of its respectability. But J— was an easy mark, and he had some companions who knew this, that he had a position which would give him great opportunity to get money's worth when his money gave out. They allowed J— to treat them liberally in the saloons, for they were out of work. Soon his money gave out, and to keep these friendships he felt he must get money somehow. Then the trouble began. His employer began to miss articles, but did not suspect, until one day he found his gold watch in J—'s pocket. He was arrested, and pleaded guilty to the charge of petty larceny. He was paroled in my custody, and is now an honest man.

Another Case.

One of the Manhattan justices on January 8, 1906, said that one case mentioned in the annual report of J. C. Graveur made in the Court of

The Second Day.

Special Sessions in the Borough of Manhattan was such a vivid illustration of the benefits resulting from the parole that it should be given as an object lesson to the world.

Mr. Graveur said: "The man in question was now only twenty-two years old, and had spent most of his life in reformatories. His early years were passed in an orphan asylum. At fourteen he was sent to the Roman Catholic Protectory for unlawful entry. He spent a year there, and after his release was sentenced four different times on charges of petit larceny to the workhouse for periods varying from sixty days to nine months.

The last time he was before the court he was charged with stealing twelve dollars. He had been sent by his employer to pay a bill, and disappeared with the money. He was arraigned in March, 1905, but Justice Deuel, despite the damaging testimony, decided to parole him. Mr. Graveur obtained employment for the youth as an errand boy in a department store. He became manager of that store within nine months. His position is one of large trust financially.

In his report Graveur said he had 182 cases in the year, and only two of these had resulted badly. Since 1900 he had charge of 3,655 paroled cases, and most of these men, the report set forth, are holding responsible positions. Lawyers and friends after the session presented to Graveur a gold embossed badge, Justice McAvoy making the presentation speech.

MARRIAGES AND DIVORCE.

The third subject referred to us for action was to endeavor to co-operate with the various religious bodies to take action for the furthering of the ideal of the forming and perpetuating of the marriage relation.

Some slight progress has been made on this matter and some further work is now being attempted.

FRATERNAL RELATION TO BROOKLYN CENTRAL LABOR UNION.

In accordance with the fourth recommendation of the last convention, the Rev. John Howard Melish was appointed, representing our committee as fraternal delegate to the Brooklyn Central Labor Union for the purpose of informing ourselves concerning their work and of endeavoring to remove mutual distrust between capital and labor, the function of the delegate being that of diplomatic representative.

In his report to the Committee, Mr. Melish says: "From the time of my appointment until Lenten duties prevented, I have attended the meetings of the Union every Sunday afternoon. What has impressed me deeply in these months is the character of the labor leaders of Brooklyn. In no body of men with whom I am associated have I heard more vital subjects discussed or treated with greater fairness to opposite views and with deeper insight into underlying conditions. Those men, both for ability and honesty of purpose, are as worthy of trust as are the leaders in any rank of business or the professions. It is my earnest hope that they may say as much of us clergymen and laymen.

"I have been impressed with the ethical value of such an organization no less than with the character of its members. Though the meetings are held on Sunday, in a room over a place where liquor is sold, the moral atmosphere of the place is as wholesome as that of any fashionable club. The men are there for a serious purpose. They report upon their sick comrades, and delegate committees to 'visit them in their distress.' Any man or woman with a cause to plead is allowed the floor, and the collections which have often followed contained neither pennies nor nickels. The subjects which I have heard discussed are not abstract justice, brotherhood, charity, service, but justice, as it meets concrete situations in everyday life; brotherhood, as it calls upon men to sacrifice themselves as individuals or as trades for other individuals or trades; charity, as it gives children the chance to grow, unhindered by grinding toil or disabled workers, the way to retain their self-respect; service, as the duty and privilege of citizens to urge their fellows to vote for an idea instead of a party and its figurehead. The ethical value of such meetings on Sunday is vastly superior to the social club and not unworthy of comparison with the Church.

"The Social Service Committee, representing the Church, and the Central Labor Union, representing the toilers, have at least one common cause on which it would be wise for them to get together. At the font the Church claims the child for God, and dedicates it to the service of the Highest. At the Church door Mammon has too often seized that little one and made it the victim of greed, for child labor has only the employer's profits for its purpose, not the educational value of work. It is the labor union which has stood at the Church door and fought for the child's body, mind and spirit. I believe that our Social Service Committee could do no better work than join with the Union in its fight for the children. I said this to the Union and it was greeted with a cheer.

"In extending to the Committee the privilege of sending a fraternal delegate the Union acted with great courtesy, and in their reception of your representative those gentlemen have shown extreme cordiality.

OTHER SIMILAR COMMITTEES.

Since the last Convention two bodies of Christians on Long Island have appointed a similar permanent Committee on Social Service, each having the hope that there may be later a co-operation of such committees from all Christian communions for social betterment. The Social Service Committee of the Brooklyn Presbytery consists of three ministers and two elders, as follows: Rev. Warren H. Wilson, Rev. L. M. Clarke, Rev. W. Hutchins; Elders, Howard Haviland, J. R. Frith, who are authorized "to act either alone or in conjunction with like committees from other religious bodies, and with public officials and with labor unions in studying, reporting and co-operating with social movements and institutions as the family, the Sabbath, the Labor Union."

The Second Day.

The New York East Conference of Methodist Episcopalians has inaugurated this Spring a permanent Social Service Committee, consisting of five clergymen: Reverends A. W. Byrt, A. H. Goodenough, F. J. McConnell, D. G. Downey, F. B. Upham.

RACE TRACK GAMBLING.

The Social Service Committee is glad that the Bishop and Clergy of Queens and Nassau Counties were able to secure from the Legislature an act forbidding a race track within four miles of the Mineola Court House, thus protecting the Garden City Institutions and homes from the threatened gambling evils. It desires also to express the hope that something may be done to induce the State Legislature to repeal those laws which since 1895 have practically nullified the article of the Constitution, which adopted in 1894 forbids all gambling, poolselling or bookmaking anywhere within the State. Any toleration of race track gambling as less dangerous than poolroom gambling is seen to be fallacious when one realizes that it is the race track which in the summer educates young men to gamble, and thus prepares patrons for the poolrooms in the winter. While it may not be possible to prevent all gambling, it is possible to prevent large crowds of people from congregating for the purpose of public gambling, under the protection and sanction of the law. In the eleven years since the adoption of the laws which were contrived to prevent any punishment of gambling on the race track, poolrooms and all forms of gambling have increased tremendously throughout the City and State. This is not to be wondered at when one remembers that the State legislators have permitted the race track to be a State school for the education of our people in gambling, and that each day in the summer an average of ten thousand and sometimes between thirty and forty thousand people attend for the reason that they have a special permission from the State to gamble there.

The Committee does not request the passage of any resolutions but will continue to carry out the recommendations of last year and any that may be made this year.

Signed for the Social Service Committee,

WM. SHEAFE CHASE,

C. F. J. WRIGLEY,

The Rev. Spencer Roche offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of Long Island approve the adoption of the alteration in Article 11 of the Constitution, referred to in the letter addressed to this Convention, dated May 1, 1905, and signed by the Rev. Henry Anstice, Secretary of the House of Deputies. (See p. 92, Journal of 1905.)

This was carried.

At 1.05 P. M., upon motion of the Rev. Dr. Rogers, the Convention adjourned to 2.30 P. M.

At 2.50 P. M. the Convention re-assembled, having had luncheon at the Garden City Hotel.

The Rev. Mr. Washburn presented a report from Committee on Christian Education.

The Second Day.

Report

OF COMMITTEE ON CHRISTIAN EDUCATION.

The Committee on Christian Education would report, briefly, a series of facts concerning three Diocesan Schools, one located in the Greater City of New York, at 286 Washington Avenue, Borough of Brooklyn; the other two in the charming country resort called Garden City.

St. Catharine's Hall, under the supervision of Miss Emma O. Conro, Principal, closes another year of successful work. This city school registered during the past year ninety pupils. Its material comforts are perfect, its curriculum excellent, its teachers strong of character, its discipline that of a well regulated family.

Along with intellectual training, and proper attention to social requirements, there is cultivated a spirit of benevolence and such an interest in others as manifests itself in kindly and philanthropic deeds. This school provided for forty-five persons Thanksgiving Day dinners; it entertained at a Christmas Tree twenty-seven children from St. Phebe's Mission; it has engaged in missionary work at an Orphanage; it has furnished teachers for sewing schools and Sunday Schools connected with prominent Churches, and in one parish it provided seven-ninths of a choir for week-day services during Lent.

St. Catharine's inculcates high ideals, and endeavors to develop in her students the best type of Christian womanhood.

St. Mary's School, near by the Cathedral at Garden City, is just completing, under the management of Miss Annie F. Gibson, Principal, a year of most satisfactory work. It has registered fifty-three day and fifty-four boarding pupils, with an average attendance of one hundred students during the entire year.

The object of this school, undisturbed by the excitement of society, is to secure good scholarship, and by basing both life and study upon a foundation of religious principle, to promote whatsoever is happy and wholesome.

Church instruction begins in the primary department, and is carried on through a course comprising the Catechism, the Christian Year, a year on the New Testament, two years on the Old Testament, and one year on the History of the Prayer Book.

St. Mary's will graduate five pupils in June, and the Senior Class includes two others who are preparing for Vassar and Wellesley. Four members of last year's class are pursuing advanced courses of music in New York.

During Lent five members of the school were confirmed by the Bishop of Long Island.

The school has contributed for charitable purposes as follows: For

The Second Day.

Diocesan Missions, $16.25; for the House of St. Giles the Cripple, $129.25, and for other objects, $37.35, making a total of $182.85.

One has only to visit St. Mary's, walk through her halls adorned with classic art, note the facilities for instruction and mark the evidences on every hand of perfect refinement and culture, to realize that the Diocese has here one of the finest preparatory schools for girls to be found in our land.

St. Paul's School, Garden City, of which Frederick L. Gamage, D.C.L., is head master, has enrolled during the school year, twenty-one day and one hundred and sixty-two boarding pupils, making a total of one hundred and eighty-three students.

Regular chapel services are held twice a day. The upper forms attend the Cathedral service on Sundays. Every Monday a period of forty-five minutes is devoted to religious instruction, when all the students take part. Eleven boys were confirmed at the Cathedral on Easter Day.

St. Paul's has contributed in aid of a distressed school in Tennessee, $50.00; and to the Mineola Mission, $100.00. The school has also contributed a quantity of clothing to "The Friend in Need Society" of New York.

The St. Paul's Club, composed of Upper Form boys, is doing good work in promoting religious study, and securing speakers on ethical topics.

In view of the healthful location of St. Paul's School, the perfect sanitation of its building, the character and experience of its teachers, the high standard of its scholarship, its athletic organizations, its elevated social atmosphere, its remoteness from rival institutions, and its accessibility by rail, is it a wonder that its popularity continues to increase?

On Commencement Day forty-three boys will graduate. Of these, one will go to Columbia College, two to Amherst College, two to Harvard College, two to Cornell, two to the University of Virginia, nine to Princeton College, and twenty will go to Yale.

All of which is respectfully submitted.

SPENCER S. ROCHE.
PAUL F. SWETT.
ALRICK H. MAN,
HENRY H. WASHBURN.

The following resolution, offered by Colonel Asa Bird Gardner, was carried:

Resolved, That 1,500 copies of the annual address to this Convention of the Right Reverend Bishop presiding, be printed for the use of the Diocese.

The Rev. Winfield S. Baer presented the following report of the Sunday School Commission:

The Second Day.

Report

OF THE SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMISSION.

The Committee of the General Convention having the matter of Sunday Schools under consideration will make its report next year, and until such report, it is felt that our efforts can best be directed towards stimulating interest in the work.

Under present circumstances, this interest is advanced by meetings to consider Sunday School matters. A meeting was held in Holy Trinity Church, Brooklyn, in November, at which most valuable addresses were made by workers of prominence. While the congregation was fair, it is a matter of regret that more of our teachers were not present to profit by these carefully considered addresses.

The Spring meeting will be held on Tuesday, May 29th, at St. Gabriel's Church, Hollis.

While not formed under the working of the Commission, we report, as a matter of interest and congratulation, that a league of Sunday Schools has been formed by some ten of the Churches on the Park Hill section, with meetings of teachers for advice, and of schools for inspiration and encouragement. We commend this to other groups of Churches.

WINFIELD S. BAER.

The Bishop announced the appointment, to fill a vacancy in the Committee on Christian Education, of the Hon. Townsend Scudder, of Sea Cliff.

Colonel Cogswell, for the Committee on Canons, moved the adoption of the following articles of the Constitution. This was carried.

ARTICLE I.

There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the third Tuesday of May in each year, provided that when such day falls in Rogation Week, it shall be on the fourth Tuesday of May, in the Cathedral at Garden City, or in such other place as shall be designated by the Ecclesiastical Authority.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to act, the Ecclesiastical Authority may call such Conventions.

He then moved the adoption of Section 1, Article III, of the Constitution.

The Second Day.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1.—The Convention shall be composed of all Ministers canonically resident in this Diocese; and of Lay Delegates not exceeding three in number from the Cathedral, and each Church or Congregation admitted into union with the Church in this Diocese.

Provided, however, That no Minister shall be a member of the Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for a period of three months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, and is not under sentence of suspension.

The Rev. C. L. Newbold offered the following amendment:

To strike out paragraph 2, beginning with the word "provided."

This amendment was lost.

The Rev. W. E. L. Ward offered to amend Section 1, by striking out the word "ministers" and substituting in its place the word "clergymen." This motion was lost.

The Rev. J. Clarence Jones offered a resolution to amend Section 1 of Article III, by inserting before the words "All Ministers" the words "Bishop and Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one." This was carried.

Colonel Cogswell then moved the adoption of Section 1 of Article III, amended as follows:

The Convention shall be composed of the Bishop, the Bishop Coadjutor, if there be one, and of all ministers canonically resident in the Diocese; and of lay delegates not exceeding three in number from the Cathedral and each Church or Congregation admitted into union with the Church in this Diocese.

Provided, however, that no minister shall be a member of the Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for a period of three months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention, and is not under sentence of suspension.

This was carried.

Upon motion of Colonel Cogswell, Section 2 of Article III of the Constitution was adopted as follows:

SEC. 2. The mode of electing Lay Delegates to the Convention from the Cathedral and Churches or Congregations, and of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the Church in this Diocese shall be prescribed by Canon.

Colonel Cogswell, for the Committee on Canons, moved the adoption of Articles IV, V, VI, VII, and VIII of the Constitution.

This was carried.

The Second Day.

Colonel Cogswell, for the Committee on Canons, offered a resolution to adopt the preliminary canon as presented by the Committee. This was carried.

The Rev. Dr. Rogers offered a resolution to adopt all of the canons as proposed with the exception of Sub-Section 4 of Canon No. 2. This was carried.

The Rev. Kirkland Huske offered an amendment to Sub-Section 4 of Canon No. 2, striking out the word "Communicant" and inserting the words "unless he be a baptized person." This was seconded by the Rev. John Howard Melish. The amendment was lost.

Colonel Cogswell moved the adoption of Sub-Section 4, Canon No. 2, as proposed by the Committee. This was carried.

Mr. Haxtun offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee appointed at the last Convention to make such changes in the Journal as will make its recital of the religious incorporation laws conform to the latest amendments thereto, be continued with like power.

This was carried.

Mr. William C. Johnson offered the following amendment to Canon 27:

Resolved, That Canon 27 be amended to read as follows: It shall be the duty of the Secretary of the Convention, at least fifteen days, and not more than thirty days before the date set for the meeting of each Convention, to forward, by mail, to every minister of this Church, canonically resident in the Diocese, and entitled to a seat in the Convention, and to the Clerk of the Vestry of every incorporated Church or Congregation, entitled to appoint lay delegates to the Convention, a copy of any new Canon, or amendment to any existing Canon which is to be offered for adoption at the next ensuing Convention. In cases in which the Secretary certifies that the notice required above has been duly given, the Canons may be altered or a new Canon may be added at the Annual Convention, by the vote of a majority of the members of the same. In cases in which the notice required above has not been given, the Canons may nevertheless be altered or new Canons may be added at the Annual Convention, but only by the vote of two-thirds of the members of the same.

This was referred, by motion, to the Committee on Canons.

The Bishop appointed the following Trustees of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen.

Rt. Rev. Frederick Burgess.

Hon. Townsend Scudder.

Rev. R. F. Alsop, D.D.

The Second Day.

The Rev. Dr. Bacchus presented the Report of the Church Charity Foundation and other charitable institutions of the Diocese.

The Standing Committee of the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions of the Diocese attempts only to limn in barest outline the love-work which the Church has wrought, during the past year, in and through her noble group of Diocesan charitable institutions. The full picture of her love-endeavor, with its vistas of cheer and achievement, must, for want of time, remain undrawn. It will suffice for the purposes of our report if we merely glimpse the wide circle of the Church's charitable effort. We may not pause closely to study its various segments.

Several bits, of the periphery of the Church's love-effort, however, invite at least a fugitive glance. One such bit of the circle-sweep of our benevolent work is the Sheltering Arms Nursery, 157 Dean Street, Brooklyn, a wholesome covert for destitute young children, in which the mother-heart of the Church surrounds them, with loving care, and Christian nurture. In this sanctuary of relief, at the beginning of its past year, were seventy-two children; into it, during the year, sixty were received, and from it seventy were discharged. The sustentation fund received from all sources, $6,866.14, and it disbursed $6,830.23. The especial needs of this department of the Church's benevolence are, first, a livelier interest in its work on the part of Brooklyn parishes, for its present inadequate support is chiefly given by individuals, not parishes; and, second, an increase of its present Hospital Fund of $1,000.00 to an amount sufficient to provide a hospital ward where surgical cases can be treated and where contagious diseases can be quarantined.

The Trained Christian Helpers, 1489 Pacific Street, have their place, too, in the circle of our diocesan love-work. The radii of their arc of supreme helpfulness, if we may so speak, are, first, the providing a two-years' course of free training under skilled physicians, of capable Christian women as nurses—thus equipping them for a life of usefulness, and, second, the sending them out to nurse the sick in homes of narrow means, where, without their help, the sick would be deprived of skilled care. This department of our work has no financial problem to solve. It is generously maintained by friends who know the inestimable worth of its unselfish work. Its supreme need is to recruit its ranks with women who have the grace of sacrifice and are moved by the Christ spirit. No nobler sphere of Christian usefulness could be opened to devoted Christian women.

The House of St. Giles the Cripple, 417 and 419 Clinton Street, Brooklyn, describes a long curve in the wide circumference of our diocesan benevolence. Within its kindly walls two hundred and sixty sufferers were treated, the past fiscal year, and one hundred and ninety-eight operations were performed, resulting for the most part in physical betterment. Its Summer Home, St. Giles-in-the-Fields, Garden City, L. I., has proved a delightful adjunct to St. Giles the Cripple, enabling its beneficiaries to avail themselves of the pure air and sweet naturalness of rural life, during the torrid months of a Brooklyn summer. The financial status of St. Giles is excellent. Its receipts from all sources were $21,534.94 and its expenditures, including payment of interest on mortgages, repayment of borrowed money and reduction of mortgage on St. Giles-in-the-Fields were $20,749.17, leaving a balance of $785.77. The total of net assets is estimated at $20,904.30, and this total will be largely increased in the near future by systematic reduction of its mortgaged indebtedness. Indeed, on the first of May, 1906, a further reduction of debt, in the amount of $1,200, not included in the already mentioned figures, was made, and in the early autumn the debt will be still further lessened by applying to it a bequest of $2,000 realizable at that time. A uniquely Christ-like work is this of St. Giles, and we bespeak for it an ever-widening interest.

In our rapid and necessarily superficial survey of the broad sweep of the Church's love-work we must not overlook St. Phebe's Mission, 125 DeKalb Avenue, Brooklyn. Even one last, long, lingering look would not reveal the manifoldness of its service of love. It stands an ever-ready friend to its neighborhood, a centre from which ray forth loving sympathy and encouragement to the plain many in their daily trials, inciting them to live the higher life. St. Phebe carries sweetness and light into hospital, almshouse and jail. She climbs crazy stairways to minister to those in rags and want, and threads the slums on errands of mercy. She conducts a Convalescent Department in which patients discharged from Hospitals, but still too weak to work, are lodged until they recruit their strength, administers the Kindergarten and the Kitchen garden, classes for Boys, cooking and sewing classes, Girls' clubs, Young Mothers' clubs, Mothers' meetings, the Loan closet, the Penny Provident Fund, clothing sales, and Fresh Air Work. About one-third of St. Phebe's income of $5,020.77, the past year, was derived from the earnings of its Endowment Fund of $38,000; the remainder was supplied by individual subscriptions and donations from some fourteen or more of our parishes. Its salient need is a larger number of regular yearly subscribers to its maintenance fund.

Our glance at the wide circle of the Church's labor of love would be singularly misleading and illusive if we failed to remind you of the large segment which The Church Charity Foundation occupies in that circle. To change the figure the Church Charity Foundation, consisting of the Home for the Aged, the Orphan House, St. John's Hospital, the Sisters' House, the Training School for Nurses, and the Home for the Blind, is and ever must be the cynosure of all eyes in the shining galaxy of the Charitable Institutions that deck with glorious sheen the firmament of our diocesan love-endeavor. Its ministrations are so large, so various, and so inclusive of all the critical and necessitous periods of human, senile infirmity, untaught childhood, disease-stricken manhood and womanhood, as to make it loom largest in our field of loving service and the centre of our interest and affection.

Its work the past year is most gratifying in respect both of its quantity and quality. Its Hospital has treated from ten to fourteen more patients, its Orphan House has welcomed more children, than in the year foregoing and its Home for the Aged is now full to repletion. Along with this increase of work, expenses have been met without deficiency, although it was necessary to pay a triennial insurance premium of $2,255.56, and renew the electric lighting at a cost of $2,043.65.

Coincidentally with its enlarged work and bettered current account, has been wrought, wondered to relate, the complete financial rehabilitation of the Church Charity Foundation. Through the munificence of Mrs. Arthur W. Benson, Mr. Frank Sherman Benson, and Miss Mary Benson, a gift of $40,000 was made last Spring to the Foundation, to be applied to the cancellation of its entire debt, $71,000, provided that the remainder of the indebtedness, $31,000, should be raised on or before the 1st of October. A special committee consisting of Messrs. P. R. Jennings, William H. Male and the Rev. Paul F. Swett were appointed to solicit contributions, and so successful was their appeal that the entire amount was raised before the expiration of the time limit, and thus was our dear Church Charity Foundation freed from its intolerable weight of debt—"heavy as frost and deep almost as life." Whilst we should rejoice that the Foundation is no longer fettered by debt and that its endowment fund is steadily growing, the increase for the year being $7,506.65 and the total amounting to $316,945.34, from which there is an annual income of $14,725.59, yet our rejoicing should be tempered by the reflection that the parishes have contributed the present year about $1,000 less than last year to the maintenance of the Foundation, and in the face of the fact that its current expenses must necessarily increase with its enlarging work.

The Church in times past has given much of her best thought to perfecting her organization, enriching her worship and safe-guarding her truth. It was well she did so. One, however, would greatly misconceive the trend of her life to-day if he failed to see how the Church is shifting her accent from things accomplished, and placing it upon that social service which the age is demanding of her, and without which she cannot live her full life. The love-work she is doing to-day is prophetic of that larger service she is to render when she shall "see life clearly and see it whole."

Standing Resolutions

PRINTING CONSTITUTION, ETC., 1896.

Resolved: That the Constitution and Canons, and Rules of Order, be each year printed and bound with the Journal of this Diocese.

INCORPORATION OF PARISHES, 1896.

Resolved: That the Act for the Incorporation of Parishes, as recently amended by the State Legislature, be inserted as an Appendix to the Journal.

WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN, 1898.

Resolved: That hereafter the names of the Wardens and Vestrymen of each Parish be included in its annual report to this Convention.

SECRETARY OF THE BOARD OF EXAMINING CHAPLAINS, 1898.

Resolved: That the Secretary of the Board of Examining Chaplains be authorized to draw on the Treasurer of the Diocese for the running expenses of the Board, provided said expenses do not amount to more than fifty dollars in any one calendar year.

ALLOWANCE TO SECRETARY AND TREASURER, 1899.

Resolved: That $250 be allowed to the Secretaries and $100 to the Treasurer for clerical assistance.

ALLOWANCE TO ORGANIST AND VERGER, 1899

Resolved: That $50 be allowed to the Organist of the Cathedral for the expense of the music at the opening services, and $15 to the Verger for his services in attendance on this Convention.

APPENDIX A

THE BISHOP'S ANNUAL ADDRESS TO THE CONVENTION

Delivered May 15, 1906

It is my privilege to address you at this, the fifth annual Diocesan Convention since my consecration as Bishop. During the past year, from May 1st to May 1st, I have visited 92 churches and missions for confirmation, and have confirmed 2,072 persons. I have ordained three men to the priesthood and two to the diaconate. I have also deposed one deacon from the ministry.

Appended to this address is a list of my official and semi-official acts, which will be printed in the Journal.

The overwhelming calamity which recently came to the Diocese of California has called forth the sympathy of Churchmen throughout the country. Now that the pressing physical needs of the people have been satisfactorily met, it is well for us, as Churchmen, to recall the fact that the Church herself in San Francisco will suffer a serious blow unless some united effort is made for the rebuilding of her edifices. This work will take many years to accomplish, and in the end let us hope that our sister Diocese, situated on the Pacific in a position analogous to our own on the Atlantic Ocean, may be but the stronger for the crisis through which she has passed. From these misfortunes we can turn to our own history during the past year.

THE CHURCH CHARITY FOUNDATION.

Foremost amongst our blessings during the past year has been the payment of the entire debt of the Church Charity Foundation. This was made possible by the gift of $40,000, offered entirely without solicitation, by Mrs. Arthur W. Benson, Mr. Frank Sherman Benson, and Miss Mary Benson. The Committee who had in hand the raising of the balance were pleased by the cordial response given to their appeal, and at the meeting of the Board of Managers, in October, they were able to report the entire sum, $71,000, as subscribed. The history of the Foundation is thus a justification of Diocesan methods. Had it not been from the start closely linked with the Diocese and made a distinctly Church Charity, it would never have survived the dark periods of its history. There were times when its friends were discouraged, and only their belief in Church methods and aims kept them at their post and saved the Institution from shipwreck. Now that the ship is safe, I hope that all will join in trying to strengthen it for a yet longer cruise. I think I can promise you careful and conservative management, and the Diocese has vindicated its title to generosity. Only it will never do to rest satisfied or secure with what has been done. In that case "the end of growth is the beginning of decay." The Diocese must never cease its efforts until it has made its Hospital, its Home for the Blind, its Orphans' House, its Home for the Aged, rank with the best in the country. The most pressing need at the present time is a building for the nurses, where the accommodations may be such as are commensurate with the service that is required. After that we need, as an adjunct to the Hospital, a place for convalescents and for hopeless invalids who do not require the constant attendance given at the Hospital. A country branch of the Orphans' department is also desirable. Thus, we see a long road of progress stretching before us, if only we avoid falling again into the quicksand of debt.

There is another danger which should be avoided, that of leaning too much on what is known as city aid. This is a custom which has grown up in many private charities, and which ought to be held in check. It is right that the city should pay for the work which it asks charitable institutions to do, but few misfortunes could be greater for a Church charity than to be dependent on City or State for support, or to be unable to care for its people, if a city comptroller should for any reason cancel the gifts from the public funds. The Church Charity Foundation has maintained its general independence in this respect, and I mention the matter only as a general warning. This whole question is liable at any time to come up for consideration by the public. It is decidedly un-American for any private charity or hospital, whether it be controlled by a Church or by Trustees, to be supported by taxation. Such a system might result in those churches or boards which could wield the greatest amount of political influence getting the lion's share of the State's beneficent disbursements, and in this way huge private establishments might be built up to the glory of denominations or individuals, when the taxpayers alone have borne and continue to bear the chief burden. The City or State should, in my opinion, do its own work, build its own libraries, manage its own schools, administer its own hospitals and homes. I believe that the time is coming when this cleavage will be insisted upon, and that then our charity must be able to stand the strain.

THE ARCHDEACONRY IDEA.

In September last, acting under the resolution of the last Convention, I appointed the Reverend James Townsend Russell, Archdeacon of Brooklyn. This appointment has been helpful to the Missionary work in Kings County. The Archdeacon's report shows that several new missions have been started in places where they were sorely needed; the missionaries in the field have been encouraged by the presence of one who could give his whole time to the work, and I feel convinced that the office has been created none too soon to meet the rapidly changing conditions of the City.

I shall endeavor, acting with the Archdeacon, to put greater strength into the already existing missions, and to build up larger work rather than multiply small circles. An amendment of the Missionary Canon is to be presented to this Convention, in order that the Archdeacon of Brooklyn may have canonical standing, and that the Northern and Southern Archdeaconries may meet together and act as one. At some future time more radical changes may be desirable, but time alone will show what readjustment of the machinery is necessary for greater efficiency.

The Diocesan Canons are already in harmony with the great principle of the Church, that the responsibility for missions must rest with the Bishop, and that to whomsoever the responsibility is given, to him the authority must be entrusted. In accordance with this, the Bishop alone has the power of initiation and location of missions and churches, although he cannot act without the advice and consent of the Standing Committee. No missionary can be appointed except with his consent. The dismissal of the missionary follows the same law, and is left to the Bishop, acting with the Archdeacon. No one who reflects on the tentative character of much of our missionary work, would dream of giving rectorial rights to missionaries, any more than to curates in charge of parochial work. The Archdeaconry system is intended to be an assistance to the Bishop in his work, and, rightly adjusted, it makes possible the administration of a large Diocese, but it is not intended to limit in any way the Bishop's responsibility or to take from him the privilege and duty of close personal association with the missionaries.

THE SALARIES OF MISSIONARIES.

The salaries of many of our missionary stations are sadly inadequate. It is some satisfaction to know that they are promptly paid, but the fact that good men can be often obtained to serve for small stipends should not blind our eyes to the need of making adequate provision for men from whom the best work must be demanded. I commend this subject to the three archdeaconries, with the recommendation that either by combinations of missions, or by larger giving on the part of the people, the missionary may be placed beyond want and disheartening care.

WIDOWS' AND ORPHANS' FUND.

In this Diocese a Clergyman's Retirement and Pension Fund has been started. If it can be increased it will, with our Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund, provide reasonably for the needs of the aged and aging clergy. But the Widows' and Orphans' Fund is too small to meet the demands made upon it. Surely here is a first duty to a great and prosperous Diocese like our own. Widows with little children to support need generous treatment, and I can assure you that your money brings a blessing to those whose dear ones have died in the Church's service. Our Fund is well nigh exhausted. Already we receive for this purpose from the General Relief Fund more than we give back to it. I appeal, therefore, to the clergy to explain the need to their people, and to take up each year the canonical offering.

TWO CANONS OF THE CHURCH.

I wish to call your attention to two canons passed by the last General Convention. One is Number 14, which directs that no election of a Rector shall be had until the name of the clergyman whom it is proposed to elect has been made known to the Bishop, and sufficient time, not exceeding thirty days, has been given him to communicate with the Vestry thereon. And the other is Canon 38 on the Solemnization of Matrimony. The second section directs that the Parish Register shall be signed, not only by the officiating minister at a wedding, but, if practicable, by the married parties, and by at least two witnesses of the marriage. I should rule that this is always practicable when the marriage is in the Church, and that such signing ought not to be omitted after the ceremony. Thus, the woman writes her new name for the first time in the Church record.

THE FONT-MAUR PROPERTY.

Great cause for rejoicing should be felt on account of the sale by the Trustees of the estate belonging to the Diocese of the lands at Maspeth. This gift was made by Mr. James Maurice in 1871. At a later date, August, 1901, his surviving sisters, Miss Sarah E. Maurice and Miss Margaret J. Maurice, freed the land from the restrictions to sale. To this family of noble givers the Diocese of Long Island owes a debt of gratitude, which a former Convention expressed by resolution, but which will be remembered as long as the Diocese exists. The fund will be wisely safeguarded and invested, and the interest will be employed, according to the deed of gift, for benevolent, charitable and religious purposes in the Diocese of Long Island. It will be the endeavor of the Trustees to see that the income is so expended as to be an incentive to others to give. It is a pleasure to me to record my own appreciation of the wise judgment of the lay members of the Standing Committee who carried out the details of the business transaction now so happily ended.

BUSINESS INTEGRITY.

Much sadness has been caused to honest people by the revelations of corruption which have been made during the past year in the business world. It is needless for me to say that however great may be our sorrow or indignation, the Diocesan Convention is not the place to pass aimless resolutions emphasizing our belief in the Eighth Commandment, and our horror, either of forgery or misappropriation of funds, or larceny. Rather should we endeavor, by greater care of our own trust funds, by more diligent attention to our various parochial methods, to show the true example of scrupulous honesty and faithful administration. Most of all should we abstain from those modes of raising money, which, when seen on the race-course, or pool-rooms, are strongly and bitterly condemned. It will be only an added drop of bitterness to a pastor, or a parent, when he finds the young man wasting his savings in such pursuits, to reflect that the first taste for such ventures was acquired at church fairs, or in lotteries, or card parties, gotten up for parish or charity revenue. I believe that the Church has long outgrown such practices, but it is well us to remember that money thus gained is thrice tainted. It is tainted by him who gives and him who takes, and by the rich or charity which presides over the entertainment. If the Church will but keep herself clean from all such defilement, she will do more to stamp out corruption in business, and purify in society, than all the acts of a legislature or the decision of a court. Not money, but the love of money, is the root of all evil, and the Church can get along without parish houses, or fine buildings, or costly charities, if to get them she teaches her youth that gains are to be made only by others' losses, and thus stains the high sense of honor which the catechism inculcates in the hearts of every one of her children.

THE MISSIONARY APPORTIONMENTS AND THE MEN'S THANK OFFERING.

A few words should be said in regard to the great work of the Church in the missionary field. It is a cause of thankfulness that the Diocese has continued to increase the amount given to this object. On September last, the Board of Missions reported that it had received from Long Island for its general work $18,037.68, an increase of $4,834.84 over the preceding year. Still, we fall far short of what is asked and what we ought to do. I wish that we could report next year that the whole of our apportionment, $41,000, had been raised. Let us pray, and work, and give, with no less an ideal before our eyes.

The Committee which has the Men's Thank Offering in charge has been steadily at work, and I trust that the clergy and laity will do all in their power to assist them, so that every man may have the opportunity to enroll his name on this great roll of honor and to do his part to make the three hundredth anniversary of the beginning of Church life in America a festival worthy of our Lord and Master, on Whose Altar the offering is to be laid.

THE CHURCH'S AUTHORITY ON MATTERS OF FAITH.

In conclusion, I wish to speak of a subject which has been very close to the minds and hearts of Churchmen during the past year, the question of the allegiance of the clergy to the Church's creeds and faith. I am aware that a Convention Address is not the place in which to discuss subtle theological problems, but it is surely not amiss for me to outline what I think should be the practical policy for the Church and the Diocese in a crisis, which, while its importance may have been exaggerated, has certainly caused anxiety and uncertainty to many devoutly religious minds.

It is claimed, then, by certain writers that the facts of the Christian Creed are on the eve of being disproved by historical science, or, as they prefer to call it, by higher criticism; that these facts of the creed are not essential to the faith, and that, therefore, men should be allowed to retain their positions as teachers and officers of the Church when they no longer accept the historical statements of the Apostles' and Nicene Creeds.

Far be it from me to wish to belittle higher criticism. I glory in every one of its victories. I believe that the new and scientific method of studying the Old and New Testaments have deepened the spiritual life of scholars, and, through them, it has affected the whole body of believers. But it is only fair that we should be warned against the arrogance of those who would claim "higher criticism" only for the ranks of doubters. The man who believes the truth that the Second Person of the Adorable Trinity became man in the womb of the Virgin Mary, and that He took then upon Himself the form of a servant and was crucified for us and rose again from the dead and ascended into Heaven, will not be less exact, sincere, candid, faithful, in the scientific study of the Scriptures than the man whose creed is that no miracles ever happened, and that man's salvation can come only from his own evolution, and is not brought down from God. The fatal mistake, however, which is often made by enthusiasts for higher criticism, lies in supposing that it is to be the final judge in regard to the truth of the Christian faith. The Professor's study is too far removed from the center of human life. So long as his talk turns around the non-essentials, the accretions of the faith, he may be allowed to decide, just as Indians might be allowed to prowl around the fort and take some of the worthless pieces of timber, or even cut down some of the trees which obstruct the view, but once let them touch the real palisades of the fortress, or the guns on the ramparts, and they die. So scholarship may decide about II Isaiah, about a scientific or poetical treatment of the first chapter of Genesis, about the book of Jonah, or Daniel, or Job, or Deuteronomy. It will be allowed to discuss grave questions about the New Testament, and on its verdict, if that verdict ever reaches fixity, we may rest, in determining the authenticity and dates of early documents. But the moment scholarship tries to touch the Person of Christ and to settle in regard to the vital facts which lie behind the creed, it will find its mistake. The people will have none of it. Instinctively they feel that science has passed beyond its mark and assumed an office to which it has no right. Science can take us back to Easter Day, can show us Peter and the loved Apostle running to the Tomb, but science cannot enter. That is left for faith. Science can take us back to the Bethlehem Khan on Christmas morning, and show us perhaps the Mother and Joseph and the Child, but faith alone can believe that the sweet face of the woman is that of a maiden and that the Child has been conceived by the Holy Ghost and is the Only Begotten Son of God.

But to the people the faith, not the science, is essential. When the father and mother must pray for their sick child, they do not care to enter into any philosophical dissertation about miracles, and to debate whether Jesus raised the daughter of Jairus from sleep or death. They believe and pray. And even when the child is dead, and they stand by the open grave, do you think they want the Professor to come with his dissertations on the Resurrection and tell us that the early rationalists adopted the theory that Jesus had not died; that Strauss and Renan called it merely a subjective vision; while Keim called it an objective vision; that Martineau said it was only a legend, and so forth and so on? No, they believe according as they have or have not received the Light of the Holy Spirit, and nice calculations of German scholarship will not touch them in their hour of trial. Imagine the young pupil of the Professor asked to read to some sick and dying servant of Jesus and prefacing his reading by the statement that the most careful modern scholarship has decided that there are only nine absolutely credible sayings to be attributed to Jesus, and that without these sayings the Person of Jesus could be removed from the field of history. The poor disappointed face turns away, and the lips of the believer repeat, "Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." "Let not your heart be troubled, believe in God, believe also in Me." "In My Father's House are many mansions, if it were not so I would have told you." That is faith, faith in the Person of Christ, and you can see how far you are removed from the Professor's lecture room.

What I am trying to bring out is something which every historian should acknowledge: the power and importance of the Church in determining faith. The Church is a teaching church, "ecclesia docens." Now all teaching is necessarily in part and at certain times dogmatic, and those who plead for the abolition of dogma from the Church, plead for something which if granted must destroy the Church as an institution. The child is not at a certain age told to reason. "You do it this way," says the mother, and long afterwards he will see the reason. So we call the Church our mother, and we believe her dogmas. We may not attribute infallibility to those dogmas. That word infallibility, in my judgment, should never be used. But we can respect and bow before the Church's authority as the supreme guide, for the Church is guided by the Holy Spirit into all truth. With the exception of the Gospels themselves no more impressive period of history exists than the history of the General Councils of the Church, as they formulated the creeds, defining with great care only so that they might protect our faith in Jesus Christ, as Perfect Man and God. It is easy, under the leadership of such an historian as Stanley, to show personal defects in the leaders at the Council of Nice, and to paint the lack of dignity and decorum in the assembly. It would be easy, too, to adopt Gibbon's shallow and supercilious attitude towards the whole question of the Divinity of Christ, which was made to turn on the use or omission of the smallest letter of the Greek alphabet from the Nicene Creed. But when all this sort of writing has spent its force, we come back to the study of those years, and watch with a feeling of awe the unfolding of God's truth in the councils of the Church. Every heresy that can be imagined was promulgated during those first four centuries, and the Church, founded upon the Rock of the Person of Christ, stood firm as the great waves of false doctrines broke in vain upon her massive walls.

It is, then, absolutely scholarly to give to this faith of the Church an authority over our critical theories. A friend of mine, who, in seminary days, was a deep and troubled student of modern criticism, as it was thirty years ago, became so sceptical that several of us doubted if he would be ordained, said a few years afterwards to one who asked him about his rationalistic theories, that all those questions solved themselves in active parochial life. That is a common experience, I doubt not. The Holy Spirit has inspired the Church as a teacher, and to-day she teaches the same truth about Jesus Christ which she taught the men who in Nero's time gave their bodies for torches in the Emperor's garden, or died among the lions in the arena.

And it would be absurd to say that this faith in the authority of the Church will not form a bias in our critical studies. But if you can show me a man in any department of life who is not biased, I will grant you that a bias towards the Church is wrong. If you come to me with some hypothetical case of forgery or murder, and ask me to decide about the evidence, I will sit calmly down and try to dissect and weigh and judge, and render an impartial verdict. But suppose in the middle of my calculations you tell me that it is my own son who is accused of the forgery, or the murder, immediately the whole case is changed. I know him, I believe in him, I love him. I am sure he would not deceive. It is my faith. I can now plead my best before the jury. But the facts will be looked at in a different way from before. So Jesus creates in men's minds an attitude which can hardly be called neutral, and those who accept the Church's teaching about Him, and believe Him to be the unique man, will see only beauty and truth in the thought of the empty tomb and the Christmas birth. There is nothing to be ashamed of in this bias. We have learned to believe in Jesus as the Way, the Truth and the Life. We see in Him one who died not as other men die, but who died for all mankind; we find in Him one who asserted His own peculiar position towards God and towards man, and who claimed that He worked miracles, and whose closest friends claimed that He rose from the dead. That this whole faith creates in us a disposition to believe the facts of St. Matthew's and St. Luke's gospel, and makes us reverent in our treatment of the Church's creeds, can not be denied. But it adds to and does not detract from our intellectual honesty as we repeat the words, "Who for us men and for our salvation came down from Heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary and was made man."

But what shall be the attitude of the Church towards those who hardly recognize the right of the Church to dogmatic teaching, and who doubt the facts asserted in the creeds?

Let me say, then, it should be one of toleration. We do not wish to multiply heresy trials. The Church is entrenched in her own fortress. She need not fear. Mankind is inherently honest. The normal conscience will not permit a man to go on saying the creed and not believing it. The whole great liturgy of the Prayer Book is against these naturalistic ideas of the Christian Religion, and laymen and clergy alike will demand "common honesty" in themselves as they come to the services. But still the Church will recognize that some of her men may stand in suspense, and that doubt is not always exclusive of faith. As Dr. Frederic Henry Chase says, in the Cambridge Theological Essays, which I recommend to all clergy who feel the need of clearer thinking on these great questions, "Christianity is an historical religion; and, therefore, as in the natural order, so in the world of faith, there must needs be twilight as well as noontide splendor. Inability to rank all articles of the Creed on the same level in regard to historical evidence is not equivalent to the denial of any." Sometimes the twilight will seem to many a thoughtful Churchman almost to have become night, and his hold on one or the other of the Christian verities may have been relaxed. The Church would be gentle with such. She does not commission them to teach their doubts or errors, but to wait in prayer for the light of the Holy Spirit. That I think to be the intended meaning of the much discussed phrase in the Bishop's Pastoral issued at the last General Convention, "Be silent or withdraw." The whole passage, had we time to discuss it, could be made clear, and, while the idea may have been awkwardly expressed, it was manifestly not the intention of the House of Bishops to encourage hypocrisy, but to counsel silence and prayer and study to those who were tormented with doubts about the Church's fundamental teaching.

I would not voluntarily pile up metaphysical or speculative difficulties at the present time. My office is rather to encourage than dishearten the honest doubters and lead them on to faith. I subscribe to the sentiment of John Stuart Mill, who said, "I hold entirely with those clergymen who elect to remain in the National Church, so long as they are able to accept its articles and confessions in every sense, or with any interpretation consistent with common honesty, whether it be the generally received interpretation or not."

But the real difficulty lies in that expression, "common honesty." And those who distinctly throw over the Church's authority and publicly, or in print, say that the facts of the Creed may be denied, can hardly fail to be tried and condemned. This is a matter of necessity. The Church herself is in danger. The old questions were to a certain extent immaterial. When Wesley said that "the giving up of witchcraft was the giving up of the Bible," he said something which was manifestly not true. The Graf-Wellhausen theories about the Pentateuch may be, as Dr. James Orr claims, radically destructive of the Church's faith, but it takes a good deal of erudition to appreciate them, and no one is going to be radically distressed by the assertion of the mythical theory of Abraham or Isaac or Jacob. Most of us may be content to let the discussion continue. But when you advance to Jesus, and claim that the account of His birth and resurrection is also a myth, that all the miracles related in the Gospels were either the record of natural cures worked by an unusual personal influence or are out and out legends, such as collect around the history of Buddha or Mahomet, then you have destroyed the Church of Christ.

Let the Church once decide that such views have their place in her sanctuary, and her power is gone. She sinks down into an ethical society, which, however, will command the respect of no one. No self-respecting young man would wish to go into her ministry. Young men are not cowards. They are ready to take the venture of faith. But they will not take a vow to teach the doctrine which this Church has received, when they believe that the opposite is Biblical truth. They will not consent to use, in reciting the Creed, mental reservations, of which the traditional Jesuit would be ashamed. No obloquy attaches itself in these days to the term "heretic." Huxley, Emerson, Carlyle, Ledywich, Froude, are all honored names. But history will not honor the men who put strained constructions on the Creed and say the liturgy with constant apologies for the mediæval superstition. When, in political life, the cabinet officer finds himself out of sympathy with the President's policy, he will relinquish his salary, leave his pleasant Washington home, resign his prestige and social influence, and retire honorably into private life. The clergy can be trusted to act no less honorably when they become convinced that they must teach some other creed than that which this Church hath received.

There can be no compromise here. The Church's missionary life is at stake. It has become a question between naturalistic ideas and those deeper and more mysterious views of the sacraments and the Person of our Lord, which were held by the Apostles, by St. Paul, by the Evangelists, and with unbroken descent by the great teachers and saints of the Church to the present time. Take this faith away, and yet a naturalistic religion with a humanitarian Christ be a legalized doctrine for our pulpits, and you have taken away the missionary motive from the Church. She would no longer believe herself commissioned to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. The Atonement, the Doctrine of Sin, and Eternal Salvation in the Blood of Christ, when once you have eliminated the miraculous from the pages of the New Testament, disappear as living truths for the people. The world, then, is watching us in this struggle around the manger cradle of the Son of God. The facts of Christmas and Epiphany are true facts in the life of Jesus. We are not teaching our children lies. Of any other man than Jesus it would be utterly impossible to assert such facts. But we believe the Church when she asserts of Him that He came down from Heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Ghost of the Virgin Mary.

"I believe one Catholic and Apostolic Church."

Only one Bishop has died in the American Church during Convention year, the Right Reverend Benjamin Wistar Morris, D.D., Bishop of Oregon. He was consecrated Bishop in 1868, and his great work in his important Diocese has been known and appreciated by all who watched his long career of faithfulness in his responsible position.

THE REV. DEAN RICHMOND BABBITT, D.D.

The Rev. Dean Richmond Babbitt, D.D., came to this Diocese in the year 1898, to assume charge of the Church of the Epiphany. He was a man of high education and untiring energy. He assumed a church which was apparently hopelessly burdened with debt, and by the interest which he created he saved the Diocese from what is always a calamity, the dissolution of a parish corporation by bankruptcy. When, at the time of his death, St. Matthew's Church united with the Church of the Epiphany under the new title of The Church of St. Matthew, the Epiphany had already been made solvent. But I think that all who have watched the history of the Church of the Epiphany must feel that it is not right for Church to lay upon her clergy the entire burden of a crushing load of debt.

THE REV. RICHARD FLETCHER PUTNAM.

The Rev. Richard Fletcher Putnam was ordained Deacon by Bishop Eastburn, of Massachusetts, in 1859; he was advanced to the Priesthood and came to this Diocese in 1902. When he died he was faithfully serving as curate in All Saints' Church, Brooklyn.

THE REV. ARTHUR KIRBY FENTON.

The Rev. Arthur Kirby Fenton was born in England, and was a graduate of Pembroke College, Oxford, in 1871. He was ordained to the Diaconate in this country by Bishop Whittle in 1893, and to the Priesthood by Bishop Peterkin in 1894; for many years he served the Diocese of West Virginia, but in 1901 he took charge of the Mission of Christ Church, Portsmouth, where he did noble, self-sacrificing work. All who knew him could bear witness to his untiring fidelity, his courage, his gentleness. The influence of his presence will long be felt in the community where he labored.

Two laymen, formerly members of the Diocesan Convention, have died during the year. Hon. John F. Nichols, who was for many years a vestryman and the Treasurer of the Church of the Messiah, died in December. Mr. Jonas Stremmell, who had been vestryman of St. George's Church, Astoria, since 1855, was for a long period a delegate from that parish to the Diocesan Convention.

Balance on hand, $886.00.

It will be noticed this year that we have reduced our communicant list by hundred and fifty members. Those reported we have in sight, and in one or another they count in the work of the Church. We cannot see that it serves any purpose to carry on our lists members that we cannot find, and put them to Convention as if they were living entities in the work of the Church. We are advised, however, by a distinguished canonist of the diocese, we have no legal rights to reduce our membership in this way.

We beg to call attention to Ascension Chapel, which has paid its own way: It was opened in March, 1905, and which is situated over a mile from the main church. Greenpoint section of Brooklyn has a population of 1½ the City of Utica, where there are 6 or 7 Episcopal churches, and which is the City of the Diocese. Our clerical force and strength, financial and otherwise, is easily gathered from this report. With no rectory, and a population of 5,000 to minister to, the Rector within seven months was thrown into bed with fever, and was given up both by his physician and his parish.

Brooklyn, Ascension Chapel; the Rev. WALTER E. BENTLEY, Rector. JOHN COSTELLO, in charge. John C. Snackenbergh, Robt. G. Collins, James McCartney, and the Rector, Committee. Geo. Hartley, 155 Oakland Street, Clerk. Jas. McCartney, 68 Norman Avenue, Treasurer.

Number of Families, 156. Baptisms (children, 5; adult, 1), 6. Communicants, 25. Sunday School: Officers and Teachers (male, 2; female, 10), 12; Pupils (male, 45; female, 70), 115. Public Catechetical Instruction, 52 times.

INCOME.—Holy Communion Alms, $16.52; Offerings at Services, $63.00; Sunday School Offerings, $69.00; All Other Sources, $12.34—total, $160.86.

EXPENDITURES.—Parochial: Alms and Donations for Charitable Purposes, $16.52; Other Expenses, including salaries, $144.34—total Parochial, $160.86.

Ascension Chapel was opened for service in a vacant store on the first Sunday of March, 1905. It started with 9 children and 5 adults, and services were maintained by the Rector every Sunday at 4 P. M., and Sunday School at 3 P. M. Last fall we moved from the store, situated at the corner of Humboldt St. and Norman Ave., to the Norwegian Church, on Russell St., near Nassau Ave., and the hour of service was changed last March (our first anniversary) from 4 to 7 P. M. At this unusual hour we have had as many as 38 persons present, but we cannot make it later, as the church is used for an 8 P. M. service by the Norwegians. Through the Church Federation 175 families have been discovered who claim some relationship to the Church, and had the work been started 10 or 20 years ago in all probability another independent parish would have been added to the diocese. As it is, the Lutherans, with their liturgy in English and their vested choir, have built a fine stone edifice, largely at our expense.

Brooklyn, Church of the Atonement; the Rev. E. HOMER WELLMAN, Ph.D., Rector. Homer H. Wellman, Archibald Simpson, Churchwardens. Wm. H. James, John Mulreaney, James R. Deats, F. D. Welling, Fred'k Fichtelmann, George Collins, J. J. Thomley, Vestrymen. Wm. H. James, Church of the Atonement, Clerk. James R. Deats, 190 13th Street, Treasurer.

In August, 1905, the Parish purchased a Rectory at 781 Quincy St., upon which there is a mortgage of $1,800.00, which we hope will soon be paid. All current expenses have been met, and the Parish is now in better financial condition than at any time in the last fifty years.

The Communion Alms include all gifts of money to the Rector, to be used for parish purposes at his entire discretion. From 1904 to 1905 there were two such gifts, amounting to $7.00; from 1905 to 1906 there were twenty, amounting to $49.50. About 200 people attended Holy Communion during the year.

With the permission of Mrs. Boardman, the $5,000.00 given by her to the parish last year may be used as an endowment until it is deemed expedient to build a house for parish purposes. The money is in the form of a trust fund. The trustee is the Rev. Frederick A. Wright. The lot bought with a part of this fund has been sold at a slight advance in price.

The balance brought forward from last year is included in the item receipts.

Through the generosity of Mr. Peabody, the church building on St. Edwards St., of which we had enjoyed for many years the gratuitous use, has now become the property of St. Augustine's Church. It will be renovated at an expense of about $5,000.00 from the funds of the church. In addition to that expense, through the liberality of Mr. Mynderse, it will be made more beautiful and convenient. The people of St. Augustine's feel very grateful to Mr. Peabody, Mr. Mynderse and others who have rendered them substantial assistance.

Services in sign language for the deaf have been held in St. Mark's Church every Sunday afternoon. These services have been under the direction of the General Manager of the Church Mission to Deaf Mutes, Rev. John Chamberlain, D.D., who has himself celebrated Holy Communion with the deaf people on the fourth Sunday of each month. Six young deaf men and women have during the year been presented there for confirmation. Owing to a lack of clergy conversant with sign language, the other services have nearly all been conducted by lay readers.

An organization styled "The Brooklyn Guild of Deaf Mutes," whose chief purpose is to maintain a fund for relief of the sick and poor, holds its meetings in St. Mark's Parish House.

There are about one hundred deaf people in the Diocese, most of them in Brooklyn, who have been confirmed, nearly all of whom receive the Holy Communion more or less frequently at St. Mark's. There are probably two or three hundred more, many of whom have been baptized, who need pastoral care. Since their homes are scattered all over Brooklyn and Queens Boroughs, proper shepherding of these people would amply occupy the time of a clergyman. Under present circumstances, one man has to do the best he can to meet similar conditions in four Dioceses.

On July 20, 1905, the parishes legally known as St. Matthew's Protestant Episcopal Church and the Church of the Epiphany were by due process of law consolidated, under the title, The Church of St. Matthew. The services of the consolidated parishes are conducted in the church situated at the corner of Tompkins Ave. and McDonough St. This note seemed to be necessary in order to account for the change in title.

St. Matthias' Church has been able to pay all back debts, water taxes, assessments, insurance, gas bills, and interest on the mortgage, and starts with a clean sheet so far as current expenses are concerned. The only debt now on the society is the old mortgage debt on the church property of $3,300.00, and back salary, now reduced to $760.00, due the Rector at the beginning of his first two years. The Rector, as Treasurer, has made special efforts, supported by the people, to bring about this favorable result. On October 22, 1905, Bishop Burgess opened with appropriate religious services the new parish house, costing, with its furniture, over $5,000.00, all paid for. This church sadly needs plumbing and water for the parish house, and an adequate heating plant for the church and parish house.

The present incumbent took charge of the work July 20, 1905, and was called as Rector November 6th, when the parish was incorporated. About two years ago a plot of land was purchased, 200 x 375 feet, facing on two prominent streets. From funds raised since July last, and from the sale of the old church site, the money is in hand to clear the new land from all indebtedness. The church building was removed from the old site and set up on the new land last December.

A solid silver communion service was given in December by Mr. Alfred Fraser and family in memory of Mrs. Alfred Fraser and Edward Martin Fraser.

Sets of altar hangings for the year, two stoles, and vestments for a male choir of sixteen, introduced for the first time Easter Sunday, were furnished and made by the Parochial Branch of the Guild.

Above report includes services at Brookhaven and Southaven. During the summer there are from 70 to 80 families worshipping with us, in addition to our own 41. From January to Easter I opened my own house for services, partly to save expense and partly because of the location of the church outside the centre of our people. The result was encouraging, my winter congregations being the largest of any of the past three winters. My ministrations extend to the people of the community, and the church is quietly winning its way. We have met with heavy financial reverses this past year by deaths and removals, but hope and work on.

The Priest-in-Charge of St. Luke's Parish conducts services regularly on Sunday evenings at 7.30 in a free chapel at Freetown, with the customary parochial work during the week. A Sunday School is regularly conducted in the same free chapel on Sundays at 2.30 P. M. by Mrs. Mary S. Gustine, lay missionary, and a most efficient worker. A course of free lectures (12) illustrated by stereopticon was delivered by the Priest-in-Charge, at Freetown. The same lectures, with charge for admission, were delivered in St. Luke's Parish for the benefit of the East Hampton Free Library. As the slides and lantern used in these lectures were loaned by the State Library, the proceeds were turned over to the Free Library, in accordance with the rules of the University of the State of New York.

We have enough money to build our chancel, 16 feet square, which, with its sharp roof and cross, will not be unsightly, and we shall worship in it until I can get the money necessary to complete the church. It will be small, but two feet wider each way than the room which we have occupied so long. We have received a gift of land, about 1½ acres, on the corner of Bedford Avenue and the Michol Road, from Mr. Frank D. Tyler, 1,183 Fulton Street, Brooklyn, who owns considerable property in this vicinity, and he has promised us a $75.00 altar when the church is completed. The House and Home Co., who owns much land there, has also given us $25.00. Will not some reader of this give us a small organ, as Germans are so fond of music?

During the year we received as gifts a baptistry, a marine mosaic tablet, an old Spanish lace fair linen cloth, a sanctuary lamp and new vestments for the Rector. The Parish held a regular election of wardens and vestrymen, after lapse of eight years, and prepared the necessary papers for application for admission to the convention, but did not secure the consent of the Diocesan. The financial statement does not include the repairs to the carriage sheds, as this business was not done with the consent of the parish nor paid for by the congregation. The annual works of charity for hospitals, etc., was done and boxes sent as usual.

APPENDIX D.

Clerical Reports

The Rev. GEO. F. BREED, D.D., residing at Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, Pa., respectfully reports:

That during the past year he has celebrated the Holy Communion thirteen times and assisted and read portions of the office fifteen times; delivered thirty-two sermons and seventeen addresses; said morning prayer twenty times, evening prayer twenty-two times; read the office for the burial of the dead three times; administered the sacrament of baptism twice, and said the form of solemnization of matrimony once.

These services have been rendered in Philadelphia, Trenton, Haddonfield and Belmar, N. J.; Lee, Mass.; Richmond Hill and Flatbush, L. I.

The Rev. HENRY B. CORNWELL, D.D., Rector Emeritus of the Church of the Good Shepherd, Brooklyn, reports:

That during the past year, owing to the increasing infirmities of age, he has been able to render less service in the Ministry of the Church than for several years past. It is a matter of profound regret to him that he has been able so infrequently to visit the Church in which he was for nearly twenty-two years Rector, and where he is always cheered and comforted by the cordial welcome extended to him by both the present Rector and the members of the congregation.

Rev. J. A. DENNISTON reports:

Since the last Diocesan Convention I have officiated every Sunday in the Dioceses of New York, Long Island and New Jersey and since August at St. Augustine Chapel, Trinity Parish, New York, every Sunday. Celebrated the Holy Communion on all Holy Days, twice on Sundays and on Festivals. Administered the Sacrament of Baptism fifty- (children, fifty; adults, eight). Solemnized ten marriages, offighteen burials, prepared a class of twenty-eight candidates for n; celebrated five private Communion. Preached every other l on some Saints' Days, besides special Lenten and Sunday ices. Made thirty-two addresses.

CHARLES H. GARDINER, residing at Bridgehampton, respectfully ts:

last summer, on Sundays, he has regularly offered the A. M. the Church, at a private residence in the village. The contending these services have been (with few exceptions) summers. He has also baptized an infant, and assisted in Holy Services Easter A. M. at Christ Church, Sag Harbor.

W. V. GWILYM reports:

ne. I never did anything anywhere in the way of Bible teach-first asking the permission of the Parish Priest and also of I wish to continue in the same line of work during the com-write this to you to let you know of my doings.

ELVIN HONEYMAN respectfully reports:

uring the past year he has officiated as follows: Sunday Serfoly Communion, Sundays, 17; Holy Communion, Holy Days, e, 1; Burials, 7. Assisted at 8 services. These services have ed in the Dioceses of Newark, Maine and Massachusetts.

M. HYDE respectfully reports:

uring the past year he has officiated in the Diocese of Long portunity offered.

SHUA KIMBER, residing at Richmond Hill, respectfully reports:

uring the last Convention year he has performed the duties o the office of Associate Secretary of The Domestic and ssionary Society, besides which he has rendered occasional

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Long Island Diocese

The Long Island Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is composed of 30 Senior Chapters, having an aggregate membership of about 230, besides the Junior Assembly, for which see below. These Chapters form the Local Assembly, which meets monthly from September to June in various parishes for conference, instruction and corporate worship. Once a year, on Passion Sunday, the Assembly gathers at a corporate celebration of the Holy Communion.

The sole object of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is the spread of Christ's Kingdom among men, through daily prayer for that object and the making of an earnest effort each week to bring some man nearer to Christ, through His Church.

Senior Chapters of the Brotherhood exist in the following Parishes: St. Ann's; Incarnation; St. Matthew's; St. Thomas'; Grace, on the Heights; Christ Church, Clinton Street; St. Stephen's; St. Timothy's; Christ Church, Bedford Avenue; Holy Comforter; St. James'; St. Luke's; Holy Cross; Christ Chapel; St. Philip's; St. John's, Webster Avenue; St. Mark's; Ascension, and Atonement, Brooklyn; Trinity, Roslyn; Redeemer, Astoria; Resurrection, Richmond Hill; St. Gabriel's, Hollis; St. Joseph's, Queens; Epiphany, Ozone Park; St. Mark's, Islip; Grace, Whitestone; St. George's, Hempstead; St. Andrew's, Creedmoor; St. Luke's, Sea Cliff.

The officers of the Assembly are:

President—William Harison, Redeemer, Astoria, 62 William Street, New York. Vice-President and Treasurer—William Macbeth, Incarnation, 834 Prospect Place. Secretary—Nicholas R. Mesereau, 673 Vanderbilt Avenue, Brooklyn. Chaplain—Rev. Frank Page, D.D., St. John's Church, Brooklyn. Executive Committee—L. V. Sanford, Christ Church; H. E. Blanchford, Resurrection, Richmond Hill; John L. Little, St. Jude's, Blythebourne; N. R. Mersereau, St. Luke's; George Denton, St. Andrew's, Creedmoor; Robert A. Lyman, St. Ann's; Frank Du Moulin, St. Thomas'; Alexander Harding, Jr., St. Luke's; George G. Grimm, St. Mark's; and William B. Dall, Grace, ex-officio, as Member of the National Council for Long Island.

The Junior Department is made up of boys from twelve to eighteen years of age. Its sole object is to pray and work for the spread of Christ's Kingdom among boys. The Juniors attend the Senior meetings, including the annual preparation service and Corporate Communion. The Secretary for the Junior Department is Dr. George E. Henderson, 61 Taylor Street.

Girls' friendly Society

The Long Island Diocesan Organization of the Girls' Friendly Society was formed under the sanction of the Bishop of the Diocese, April 22, 1887.

OBJECTS.

1. To bind together in one Society, Churchwomen as Associates, and girls and young women as Members, for mutual help—religious and secular—for sympathy and prayer.

2. To encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents, faithfulness to employers, and thrift.

3. To provide the privileges of the Society for its Members, wherever they may be, by giving them an introduction from one Branch to another.

President of the Diocesan Council—Mrs. A. H. Ford, 61 Second Place.
Secretary and Treasurer—Miss Jane A. S. Schapps, 853 Bedford Ave.

Associate for Commended Members—Mrs. W. J. Shattuck, Jr., 160 Clinton Street.

The Trained Christian Helpers

HOME, No. 1489 PACIFIC STREET, NEAR KINGSTON AVENUE.

Board of Managers—Mrs. J. A. Peterkin, President; Mrs. Ruth Y. Smith, Treasurer; Mrs. R. M. Gedney Secretary; Mrs. J. A. Winder, Home Visitor; Mrs. M. L. Crary, Mrs. J. B. Laing, Mrs. Peter Bogert, Mrs. William Arnold, Mrs. Albert F. Johnston, Mrs. R. H. Sherwood, Mrs. Theron A. Upson, Mrs. Andrew Michael, Miss Harriet Coffin, Miss Emma Janicky.

Medical Adviser—Dr. A. W. Catlin.

Medical Staff, Dr. A. W. Catlin, Lecturer on Practice of Medicine, Nursing of Fever; Dr. W. W. Laing, Lecturer on Surgery and Principles of Antisepsis; Dr. Stewart Lewis, Lecturer on Obstetrics and Care of Children; Dr. Henry G. Webster, Lecturer on Materia Medica and Therapeutics.

The order of the Trained Christian Helpers, now in the eighth year of its existence, has for its object the furnishing of trained nursing help in the sick rooms of the poor and the middle class, who cannot possibly afford to have the trained nurse, and their service is offered either free or at moderate figures to meet the circumstances. The Home and training, which covers two years, are offered free to any young Christian woman who comes with the high motive of rendering a trained, intelligent and, therefore, helpful service to the sick and needy. Lectures are held almost daily in the Winter season and examinations test the progress of those taking the course, till at the end of two years, if found proficient, a certificate is presented. During this time they hold themselves in readiness to respond to the call of the physician in such cases where the length of time they have been under training justifies their going, and while in active service they will receive a weekly stipend for their personal use, in addition to the Home and training, which are offered free.

The statement given below of the year's work shows the varied field of service into which the Helpers go, and the character of the service rendered is best attested by the results obtained, which have proved over and over again that the skilled attention of the trained nurse saves precious life many times, while the giving of this trained nursing help to the sick poor is an unspeakable benediction. The financial condition of the Home is excellent. Absolutely no debt and the rent for the coming year largely provided for, but we need more earnest, devoted women to take the training. In so vast a population even all the efforts combined represented by the system of district nursing, the Red Cross, and such individual effort as can be made, are but drops in the bucket, and the cry of human suffering ies on only partially relieved. In the past seven and a half years have taken the course and are now in the general field of nursing, gained their vocation and means of livelihood while inmates of the

The lectures and active training will begin again in October and hoped that many will feel called to this divine business of healing and tending.

the comforts of the Home and the training by the staff of physicians 10 years are offered free to those who consecrate themselves to the work of healing and comforting.

The Women's Central Board

OF THE

Church Charity Foundation of the Diocese of Long Island

The Women's Central Board of the Church Charity Foundation is composed of the former Board of Associates and the co-workers of the eight Houses, viz.: The Home for the Aged, The Orphan House, St. Vincent's Hospital, and the Home for the Blind.

The object of the Board is to solicit contributions of money, material, and to further the interest of the same.

The work is carried on through the House and other Committees, of which has its own Chairman, appointed by the President of the

The regular meetings of the Women's Board are held on the first Tuesday in each month from October to June, at 11 o'clock, in the Home for the Aged, 464 Herkimer Street.

The Executive Committee meets at 10 o'clock on the same day.

The Rectors of the Diocese are expected to appoint women to represent their respective Parishes on the Women's Central Board.

The Chairmen of Committees must be communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

All women in sympathy with the work are eligible as members, their names being first presented by the Membership Committee and voted upon by the Board. Present membership, about 200. Dues are $3 a year.

RELATING TO
Protestant Episcopal Churches

CHAPTER XLII OF THE GENERAL LAWS.

(As amended to date.)

The Religious Corporations Law.

ARTICLE I. Provisions Applicable to Religious Corporations General:

§ 11. SALE, MORTGAGE AND LEASE OF REAL PROPERTY OF RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS.—A religious corporation shall not sell or mortgage any real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court for pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote any resolution or proposition for the sale, mortgage or lease of its property unless the rector of said church, if it then has a rector, be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to mortgage any of its real property, which has been consecrated or which is used for regular religious services by the congregation of such church, or which is used for a rectory or parsonage, without the consent of the bishop and standing committee of the Diocese to which such church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to give the consent of the standing committee with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the Bishop shall suffice. The trustees of an incorporated Roman Catholic Church shall not make application to the court for leave to mortgage, lease or sell any of its real property without the consent of the Archbishop or Bishop of the Diocese to which such church belongs, or in case of their absence or inability to do so, without the consent of the Vicar-General or Administrator of such Diocese. The petition of the trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church or Roman Catholic Church shall, in addition to the matters required by the code of civil procedure to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plots, or burial permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

ARTICLE II. Special provisions for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches:

SECTION 30. The meeting for incorporation.

31. The certificate of incorporation.
32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; power and duties thereof.
33. Annual Elections of incorporated Protestant Episcopal parishes.
34. Changing the number of vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal parishes hereafter incorporated.
35. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of vestrymen and terms of churchwardens of Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.
36. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen.

§ 30. THE MEETING FOR INCORPORATION.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or congregation, and of electing the first churchwardens and vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice in time of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such parish or congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the outer door of such place of worship.

Only men of full age who have been regular attendants at the worship of such parish or congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such parish or congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating minister, or, if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be judge of the qualifications of the voters, and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated parish or congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed corporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the vestrymen thereof shall be three, six or nine; and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be churchwardens thereof, one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

§ 31. THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county, and the town, city or village, in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be, located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, on which the annual election shall be held;
5. The number of vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;
6. The names of the vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;
7. The names of the churchwardens elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;

On filing such certificate in the office of the clerk of the county, so specified therein, the churchwardens and vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the rector, when there is one, shall form a vestry, and shall be the trustees of such church or congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act, be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its *governance.

Such corporation shall be an incorporated church, and may be termed so an incorporated parish.

§ 32. CORPORATE TRUSTEES; VESTRY; POWERS AND DUTIES THEREOF.—The churchwardens and vestrymen of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church, together with the rector thereof, if any, shall be the trustees of the corporation and shall also constitute the vestry of the parish.

No meeting of the vestry or trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the rector in writing either personally or by mail, or, if there be no rector or he be incapable of acting, by one of the churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the vestry or trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient; provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the vestry or board of trustees there must be present either:

1. The rector, at least one of the churchwardens and a majority of vestrymen; or,
2. The rector, both churchwardens and one less than a majority of vestrymen; or,
3. If the rector be absent from the Diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one churchwarden and a majority of the vestrymen, or both churchwardens and one less than a majority of the vestrymen.

But if there be a rector of the parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case, for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such rector.

The presiding officer of the vestry or trustees shall be the rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the churchwardens be present; or the churchwarden present, if but one be present.

At each meeting of the vestry or trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a churchwarden or vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election, at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

If vacancies exist in the offices of the churchwardens or vestrymen in such number that a quorum of the vestry or board of trustees is not in office at any time, the rector shall forthwith call a special election for the filling of such vacancies. If there be no rector, the churchwarden longest in office shall call such special election. Notice of such special election shall be read by the rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by one of the churchwardens, on the Sunday next preceding such election, in the time of divine service. If for any reason the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for divine service on such Sunday, such notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for one week next preceding the election. Such notice shall conform to that required for an annual election. The provisions of section thirty-three of this chapter, relating to annual elections shall apply to such special election, except as inconsistent herewith. Such vacancies shall be filled at such election for the remainder of the unexpired terms.

The vestry may, subject to the canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the Diocese in which the parish or church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the rectorship of the parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the rector.

§ 33. ANNUAL ELECTIONS OF INCORPORATED PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PARISHES.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Notice of such annual election shall be read by the rector of the parish, or, if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by the churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for the divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each churchwarden and vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected. The meeting for such annual election shall be held immediately after morning service.

The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no churchwarden be present, a vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast at such election. The presiding officer of such meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election, or since the establishment of such parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one hour, and longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The churchwardens and vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as churchwarden, unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as vestryman, unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish hereafter incorporated, one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the vestrymen of the parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated, two churchwardens and the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one churchwarden or of but one-third of its vestrymen shall then expire, in which case one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each churchwarden and vestryman shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

§ 34. CHANGING THE NUMBER OF VESTRYMEN OF PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PARISHES HEREAFTER INCORPORATED.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of vestrymen of such parish be changed to either three, six or nine vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of vestrymen to be elected at such next annual election, one-third of such increased number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter; one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not affect the term of office of any vestryman duly elected, and at each next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

§ 35. CHANGING DATE OF ANNUAL ELECTION, NUMBER AND TERMS OF OFFICE OF VESTRYMEN AND TERMS OF OFFICE OF CHURCHWARDENS IN PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCHES HERETOFORE INCORPORATED.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the annual election be changed to a secular day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of vestrymen be changed to three, six or nine, and that the terms of office of the churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the parish; the number of vestrymen so decided on; and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect churchwardens, so that the term of one warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determine to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on by such meeting, and the terms of the vestrymen and churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of vestrymen and manner of electing wardens and vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years; one-third thereof to hold office for two years; and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one churchwarden.

§ 36. CHANGING THE QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS AND THE QUALIFICATIONS OF WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirement of section thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

SESSION LAWS OF 1904.

CHAP. 689.

AN ACT to exempt the real estate of religious corporations in the City of New York, as now constituted, from assessment for public improvements.

ACCEPTED BY THE CITY.

Became a law May 9, 1904, with the approval of the Governor. Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1.—The real estate owned by any religious corporation located in the City of New York, as now constituted, actually dedicated and used by such corporation exclusively as a place of public worship, shall be exempt from all assessments for public improvements which are now levied and assessed against such real estate.

SEC. 2.—This act shall take effect immediately.

APPENDIX H.

The Constitution OF THE Protestant Episcopal Church IN THE Diocese of Long Island

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1.—There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the third Tuesday of May in each year, provided that when such day falls in Rogation Week it shall be on the fourth Tuesday of May, in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being; or, in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

SEC. 2.—In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop, or, in the cases above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Conventions.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1.—The Convention shall be composed of the Bishop, the officiating Ministers, regularly in this Diocese which is in union with the Episcopal Church, not exceeding three Delegates

SEC. 2.—Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, Chaplains in the Army or Navy of the United States, who shall be canonically connected with the Diocese, and on duty at some station within its limits, and Clergymen, members of the Board of Managers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and those engaged as professors or instructors of youth, in any College, Academy or General Seminary of learning, duly incorporated, may be members of this Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall be a member of this Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of three months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

SEC. 3.—The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is, from vacancy, or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

SEC. 4.—But in cases of Churches or Congregations, organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

SEC. 5.—The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the Convention may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with the prayers of the Church. On the first morning of the Convention there shall be a sermon, address or charge by the Bishop, or a sermon by some Presbyter, to be appointed by him, and the Holy Communion shall always be celebrated. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the sermon shall be provided for by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop, by virtue of his office, shall preside in the Convention, but in case of a vacancy, inability to act, or absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1.—A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention, and until a successor be chosen. His duty shall be to take minutes of the proceedings, to preserve the journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relating to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession.

SEC. 2.—It shall be also his duty to give due notice of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

SECTION 1.—In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and except as hereinafter provided, shall vote in one body; but, if in any case it shall be required by five votes, either wholly or in part of Clergymen, or of Lay Delegates, or shall be demanded by Canon, the two orders shall vote separately, the Clergy by individuals and the Laity by Congregations; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

SEC. 2.—In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, and according to the mode above described.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced, in writing and considered in the Convention; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

SEC. 2.—Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, Chaplains in the Army or Navy of the United States, who shall be canonically connected with the Diocese, and on duty at some station within its limits, and Clergymen, members of the Board of Managers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and those engaged as professors or instructors of youth, in any College, Academy or General Seminary of learning, duly incorporated, may be members of this Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall be a member of this Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of three months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

SEC. 3.—The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is, from vacancy, or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

SEC. 4.—But in cases of Churches or Congregations, organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

SEC. 5.—The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the Convention may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with the prayers of the Church. On the first morning of the Convention there shall be a sermon, addressed or charge by the Bishop, or a sermon by some Presbyter, to be appointed by him, and the Holy Communion shall always be celebrated. In case of vacancy in the Episcopate, the sermon shall be provided for by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop, by virtue of his office, shall preside in the Convention, but in case of a vacancy, inability to act, or absence, the members shall elect President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1.—A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention, and until a successor be chosen. His duty shall be to take minutes of the proceedings, to preserve the journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and to deliver into the hands of his successor all books d papers, relating to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in possession.

SEC. 2.—It shall be also his duty to give due notice of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

SECTION 1.—In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and except as hereinafter provided, shall vote in one body; but, if in any case it shall be required by five votes, either wholly or in part of Clergymen, or of Lay Delegates, or shall be commanded by Canon, the two orders shall vote separately, the Clergy by individuals and the Laity by Congregations; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

SEC. 2.—In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, and according to the mode above described.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced, in writing and considered in the Convention; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

The Canons
OF THE

The Definition of Terms.

Unless it shall otherwise appear from the context, or be otherwise expressly directed, the following terms shall, for the purposes of these Canons, be construed to mean as follows: The terms, "The Constitution" and "The Canons" to mean, respectively, the Constitution and the Canons for the government of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, passed and adopted in General Convention in October, 1904, and any amendments thereof; the terms, "Constitution" and "Canons" the Constitution and Canons of the Church in this Diocese; the term "Minister," a Bishop, Priest or Deacon; the term "Clergyman," a Priest or Deacon; the term "This Church," the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; the term "Ecclesiastical Authority," the Bishop of the Diocese, or the Bishop Coadjutor, or the Standing Committee when authorized by the Bishop, as provided in Section V of Canon 12 of The Canons, or by a Bishop in charge of the Diocese as provided in [ii] Section VI of Canon 12 of The Canons, or when there is no Bishop in charge, the Standing Committee; the term "Canonically Resident," that a Minister has been duly received into this Diocese by acceptance of Letters Dimissory recorded as provided by Section V of Canon 1, ordination or some other mode by the Ecclesiastical Authority. Whenever words importing the plural number are used in describing or referring to any matters, parties or persons, any single matter, party or person shall be deemed to be included, although distributive words may not be used.

CANON I.

Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese.

SECTION I.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare or cause to be prepared and recorded in a book designated "Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese," a list of all Ministers of this Church canonically resident in the Diocese, designating those settled in the Cathedral or in some Church

Congregation in union with this Convention by the names of their respective offices, Churches, Congregations or Cures; those employed as missionaries by their respective stations; those who are Chaplains in the Army and Navy by their posts of duty; those employed as instructors of youth in any College, Academy or Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, by the Colleges, Academies or other Seminaries of learning in which they are engaged, and in regard to those not so employed, their places of residence only.

SEC. II.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall cause all changes in said record or list by reason of death, transfer, deposition or suspension, and all additions thereto by reason of acceptance of Letters Dimissory, ordination or any other mode, to be promptly made.

SEC. III.—Such Record or List, or a copy thereof, authenticated by the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of its meeting, and shall be prefixed to the Journal.

SEC. IV.—The right of any Minister to a seat in the Convention shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Third Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself, whether his name be inserted in such list or omitted. Such list shall, however, be taken as presumptive evidence of the right of those whose names appear thereon to seats in the Convention, and that none others have such right.

SEC. V.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall record or cause to be recorded in a book designated "Letters Dimissory" all such letters received by it, the date of reception, and a brief minute of the action taken thereon. When a certificate pursuant to [IV] or [V] Section V of Canon of The Canons is given, it must be recorded at length; from the date of each certificate as recorded, and not before, a Clergyman shall be deemed canonically resident.

SEC. VI.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall record or cause to be recorded in a book to be called "Election of Rectors" all notices of the Election of a Rector required by Section III of Canon 14 of The Canons, and of the action taken thereon.

SEC. VII.—The Record or List named in Section I, the record of "Letters Dimissory" named in Section V, and the record of "Election of Rectors" named in Section VI of this Canon, or transcripts thereof (or of such parts thereof as may relate to the matter in question), duly certified by the Secretary of the Convention, shall be received in evidence upon all proceedings or trials under any law or Canon in force in this Diocese.

CANON 2.

SECTION I.—Of Churches and Congregations in Union with the Church in this Diocese.

[1.] The Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, and recorded in a book designated "Record or List of Churches and Congregations in Union with the Church in this Diocese," a list of the Cathedral and all such Churches and Congregations by their corporate name, date of organization and date of admission into Union with the Diocese.

[2.] Such Record or List, or a copy thereof, authenticated by the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of its meeting, and shall be taken as presumptive evidence of the right of the Cathedral and of such Church or Congregation whose name appears thereon to appoint Lay Delegates to the Convention, and that none others have such right. A copy of such Record or List shall be prefixed to the Journal.

[3.] The Cathedral and each Church and Congregation now in Union with the Church in this Diocese and such as may hereafter be received in Union therewith shall be entitled to appoint three Lay Delegates to the Convention.

[4.] No Lay Delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention unless he is a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church and has been connected with the Cathedral, Church or Congregation appointing him at least twelve months prior to such appointment.

SEC. II.—Of Lay Delegates.

[1.] The Lay Delegates to the Convention from the Cathedral, one of whom shall be a member of the Cathedral Chapter, shall be chosen by the male Lay Members of full age of the Congregation, who have habitually for twelve months preceding such election attended divine service in the Cathedral, acting under by-laws made by the Chapter. The evidence of their appointment shall be a certificate signed by the Dean, or the Precentor if the Dean is absent, and by the recording officer.

[2.] Lay Delegates from Churches or Congregations shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence.

When the Vestry is from vacancy or otherwise incompetent to act, and in cases where a Church or Congregation is organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Church or Congregation.

[3.] The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate, if made by the Vestry, shall be a written certificate signed by the Rector of the Church, or if there be no Rector or he be absent, by the Warden who presides at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also in each case by the Clerk of the Vestry.

[4.] If the appointment be made by the Church or Congregation, the evidence shall be a certificate signed by the Minister, if there be one, or by the officer presiding at a meeting of the Congregation by which he was elected, and by the Clerk or Secretary, which certificate shall declare that such person has been duly chosen Lay Delegate by the male members of full age of such Church or Congregation who have habitually for twelve months preceding such election attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

[5.] The time, place and manner of holding such election, and the notice for holding the same (which shall be ten days at least), shall be fixed by rules or by-laws made by the Trustees of such Churches or Congregations, or by the Lay Members of the same, qualified as aforesaid, at meeting duly convened.

[6.] Every certificate of the appointment of a Lay Delegate shall show upon its face that the appointment has been made in pursuance of the requirements of this Section, and shall certify that the delegate has the qualifications required by this Canon.

[7.] A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted by the Secretary of the Convention, to the Vestry of Trustees of every Church in Union with this Convention, with blank printed forms of proceedings under it, to be entered upon their books of minutes. All alterations shall be similarly transmitted.

[8.] No other certificate or evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate than such as is required by this Section shall be required, and the right of any Layman to a seat in the Convention, in cases of doubt or dispute, shall be determined by the Convention itself.

CANON 3.

Of Parish Boundaries.

SECTION I.—The Parish boundaries, as defined by the Laws of the State of New York, of the four parishes of St. George's, Flushing; Grace, Jamaica; St. James', Newtown; and St. George's, Hempstead, are limited and established by the terms of their several charters.

SEC. II.—All other parish boundaries in this Diocese are and shall be the limits as now fixed by law, of any village, town, township, incorporated borough, city, ward of a city, or the limits of some division thereof, which may have been recognized or which shall hereafter be recognized by the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee.

SEC. III.—The ascertainment and defining other boundaries of the existing parishes or parochial cures, in all cases where any question or conflict of jurisdiction may arise, the formation of new parishes, or the establishment of new churches, congregations or missions, within the limits of other parishes, and the changing the location of any church or congregation, and the transferring of the same beyond the vicinage in which it now or may be hereafter established, shall be vested in the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, after an opportunity to be heard, on ten days' notice thereof, served by mail on the Rector and Clerk of the Vestry of each of the three nearest parishes. And in case of there being no Bishop, in the Ecclesiastical Authority; Provided, that in all cases where the Standing Committee shall act alone, there may be an appeal made to the next Diocesan Convention.

SEC. IV.—Nothing contained in this Canon shall affect any legal rights of property of any parish.

CANON 4.

Of the Convention.

SECTION I.—Of the Call of the Convention.

[1.] At least three weeks before a Convention is held the Secretary shall mail a written or printed notice of the time and place thereof directed to each Minister, who by the "Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese" is entitled to a seat therein, to the Chapter of the Cathedral and to the Vestry or Trustees of each Church or Congregation entitled to appoint Lay Delegates thereto named in the "List of Churches or Congregations in Union with the Church in this Diocese."

Whenever a Special Convention is to be held, such notice shall specify the purpose for which it is called, and no business other than that so specified shall be transacted.

[2.] At least five days before the time specified in the call for a Convention, the Cathedral and any Church or Congregation appointing Lay Delegates to the Convention shall file the certificate of appointment as provided in Canon 2, with the Secretary, who shall prepare a list of such Delegates and place it before the Convention on the first day of its meeting. Irregular or defective certificates, and certificates and documents relating to contested seats shall be reported by the Secretary to the Convention when organized for its action.

SEC. II.—Of a Quorum.

[1.] The presence of at least fifteen Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least fifteen Churches or Congregations, shall be necessary for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. III.—Of Organizing the Convention.

[1.] The Bishop, or in his absence, the Bishop Coadjutor, shall call those presenting themselves to order. If neither the Bishop nor Bishop Coadjutor are present the Presbyter present who has been long-~~est~~

canonically resident in the Diocese shall take the Chair and preside until a President shall be elected.

[2.] The Secretary shall call over the names of the Ministers entitled to seats from the Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese, and of the Lay Delegates so entitled from the list provided for in [2] of Section I of this Canon.

[3.] A canonical quorum of fifteen Clergymen and Delegates from fifteen Churches or Congregations being present, the Bishop, or in his absence, the Bishop Coadjutor, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If neither the Bishop nor the Bishop Coadjutor are present, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided for in Article V of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot. The President elected shall declare the Convention organized for business.

[4.] The Convention shall then take action upon the irregular or defective certificates of appointment of Lay Delegates, and certificates and documents relating to contested seats reported by the Secretary.

[5.] The Convention shall then proceed to the election, by ballot, of a Secretary. He may nominate an Assistant Secretary for choice by the Convention.

[6.] The rules of order in force at the preceding Convention, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said rules or order shall regulate the proceedings, after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

SEC. IV.—The Secretary.

[1.] In addition to the offices and duties elsewhere declared, the Secretary shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of this Church, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention, and shall request the Secretaries of the Diocesan Convention to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

[2.] He shall also transmit to the Secretary of the House of Deputies the documents and certified copy of the testimonials mentioned in [ii] of Section I of Canon 46 of The Canons, and also forward a duplicate copy of such testimonials to the Standing Committee of the Diocese, in which the General Convention is next to meet. He shall also transmit to such Secretary the documents and lists mentioned in Section II of Canon 47 of The Canons.

[3.] Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, or he shall be unable to act, the duties shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

SEC. V.—The Treasurer.

[1.] At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and to disburse them by the same authority; and where no disbursement has been ordered by the Convention, under the direction of the Standing Committee.

[2.] His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee appointed by it.

[3.] In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by the Standing Committee; and the person appointed by such Committee shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

SEC. VI.—Of Elections.

Elections by ballot, when required by the Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention; and when the election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order, upon concurrent ballot, shall be necessary to a valid election.

SEC. VII.—Of the Admission of a Church into Union, and of Maintaining such Union.

[1.] To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, the Vestry or Trustees respectively shall submit to the Convention or to a Committee appointed by it, the Certificate or Act of Incorporation or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it is, or may be, to record or file certificates of incorporation of Religious Societies.

[2.] There shall also be submitted a certificate of the Ecclesiastical Authority, that the incorporation of such Church was approved before such act of incorporation, and that such Church is duly and satisfactorily established.

[3.] Satisfactory testimony, by certificate of the Rector or Churchwarden, or the principal officer of a Board of Trustees, or otherwise, shall also be given, that not less than twenty-five persons of legal age, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least six months preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

[4.] The application for admission shall be in writing and shall be accompanied with a copy of a resolution adopted by the Vestry, Congregation or Trustees respectively, that such Church agrees to abide by and conform to the Constitutions, Canons, Rules and Orders in force within the Diocese. Such copy shall be certified by the Secretary or Clerk, and authenticated by the seal of the Corporation. This application, with the documents required as above, shall be sent to the Secretary of the Convention.

on, that they may be communicated to the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention.

[5.] The Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches shall make their report on the application to the Convention with their recommendations thereon immediately after the Secretary has been elected. The report shall be acted upon before the adjournment of the Convention. If the Convention by a majority vote shall grant the application, the Church or Congregation shall be declared by the President to have been duly received into union with the Church in this Diocese.

[6.] Whenever any Church in union shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report (no missionary report being made in its behalf), or shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the Ecclesiastical Authority the services of a Missionary, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send Delegates to the same. The Bishop shall report such Church to the Convention in his annual address, stating whether, in his judgment, after legal advice of the Lay Assessor of the Ecclesiastical Court and the Church Advocate, such Church has or has not for any cause become extinct in fact.

[7.] Such Church, however, upon proof satisfactory to the Ecclesiastical Authority that it has continued its corporate existence, may be readmitted upon an application to the Convention, accompanied with a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just; such re-admission shall take place from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to it.

[8.] Whenever any Church shall be thus reported as extinct by the death or removal of its members, or by ceasing to act in its corporate capacity and to keep up the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church, the Convention shall declare the same to be extinct, and may instruct the trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island, to apply to the proper authorities for an order and decree of the dissolution of the same.

CANON 5.

Of the Standing Committee.

Whereas, by Article IV of The Constitution, it is required that there shall be a Standing Committee, to be appointed by the Convention in each Diocese, whose rights and duties, except as provided in The Constitution and The Canons may be prescribed by the Canons of the respective Diocese; therefore it is, in addition to The Constitution and The Canons, declared and prescribed as follows:

[1.] There shall be a Standing Committee to consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity elected by the Convention and divided into four classes, so that one of the Clergy and one of the Laity shall go out of office annually, and the two vacancies thus made shall be filled by an election by ballot and by the concurrent vote of the members of each order at every stated meeting of the Convention, of one of each order to serve for four years.

[2.] Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical and Lay members of the Committee until the meeting of the next Convention, when they shall be filled by an election by ballot.

In all other cases they shall act as one body, without distinction of orders, except when otherwise directed by the Canons of the General Convention.

SEC. II.—The Bishop of the Diocese and the Standing Committee are the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island; and they and their successors in office are hereby elected and constituted by the said title, Trustees, under the Act, Chapter 110, of the Laws of the State of New York, passed April 11, 1876, which is hereby adopted, with all powers conferred by said Act.

Until otherwise ordered, the said Trustees are restrained from the exercise of such powers, properties and trusts as are committed to the officers and committees of this Convention, already appointed and existing.

SEC. III.—In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by him, in matters of discipline, shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to or enjoined upon the Clerical members of such Committee in which case they shall be exercised by such Clerical members alone provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by Bishop.

CANON 6.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SECTION I.—The Convention shall, at each regular annual meeting next preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect, by a concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay Members, four Clergymen and four Laymen as deputies to the General Convention from this Diocese. It shall, also, in like manner, elect four Clergymen and four Laymen as provisional deputies, to act in the cases hereafter mentioned. Such deputies and provisional deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be deputies or provisional deputies for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. II.—Upon any vacancy occurring, by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the deputies, or provisional deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention during which or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. III.—It shall be the duty of the deputies elect to signify to the Bishop, at least ten days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to discharge its duties, in default of which, the Bishop shall designate, from the list of provisional deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. The Bishop shall, in like manner, designate from the same list of provisional deputies, one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of the Diocese, which may in any way occur. The person or persons so designated, being furnished with a certificate of appointment, shall have all the power and authority of deputies duly elected by the Convention.

CANON 7.

Of the Registrar and Historiographer.

SECTION I.—The journals, files, papers, reports and other documents, which, under the Canons or otherwise, shall become the property of this Convention, shall be committed to the keeping of a Presbyter to be elected by it, and who shall be known as the Registrar and Historiographer of the Diocese of Long Island.

SEC. II.—It shall be his duty to procure all such journals, files, papers, reports, copies of charters and acts of incorporation of Churches and other documents, which may be of value in the history of this Diocese, to arrange, label, file, index and otherwise put in order, and provide for the safe keeping of the same, and all such others as may hereafter come into his possession, in some safe and accessible place of deposit, and to hold the same, under such regulations and restrictions as this Convention may from time to time provide.

SEC. III.—It shall be his duty, also, to secure a proper and sufficient Book of Record, and enter therein a record of the consecration of all the Bishops of this Diocese, designating accurately the time and place of the same, with the names of the consecrating Bishops, and of others present and assisting; to record a list of all the Presbyters and Deacons, and the dates of their connection with this Diocese, and copies of the charters and acts of incorporation of Churches in the same, with such additional facts as may be worthy of safe keeping in the archives of this Diocese.

CANON 8.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SECTION I.—[1.] The Fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese now provided, together with what may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate.

[2.] Such Trustees shall be five in number, and shall be appointed by and hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, which shall fill up all vacancies. Vacancies, however, occurring during a recess of the Convention, may be filled by the remaining Trustees, to be reported to and approved by the Convention.

SEC. II.—[1.] It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a Parish or Congregation in this Diocese, to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made in aid of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, and in case of a vacant Parish, the duty shall devolve upon the Wardens and Vestrymen.

[2.] The amount received shall be paid to the Treasurer of the said Trustees, and shall be reported by them to the next Convention, at a stated meeting, and shall be entered on its Journal.

[3.] The moneys thus raised shall be kept by the Trustees in a regular course of accumulation without diminution, until by such accumulation it shall amount to at least one hundred thousand dollars, or until the Convention shall otherwise direct.

[4.] The interest or income of the Fund shall be subject to the order of the Convention.

SEC. III.—[1.] All moneys belonging to such Fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stock of the United States, or of the State of New York, or of the city of New York, or any Railroad Bonds, approved by the unanimous vote of the Trustees. All securities, when practicable, shall be taken in the corporate name. The Trustees may, from time to time, change such investments.

[2.] A statement exhibiting the condition of the said Fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON 9.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SECTION I.—Whereas, it is indispensable to provide a fund for defraying the necessary expenses of the Convention, it is therefore required of every Congregation in this Diocese to pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the day of its annual meeting, a contribution of not less than 1 per cent. on the amount of salary of its Clergyman, which fund shall be appropriated in part by a Committee of the Convention to said expenses.

SEC. II.—And whereas, by Section V, of Canon 46, of The Canons, it is made the duty of the several Diocesan Conventions to forward to the Treasurer of the General Convention, at each meeting of the same, three dollars for each Minister within the Diocese, for the purpose of paying the contingent expenses of the said Convention; therefore it shall be the duty of the Committee upon the Diocesan Fund to retain annually, out of the moneys received by them, one dollar for each Clergyman in this Diocese. The amount thus retained shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention to the Treasurer of the General Convention, at each meeting of the same.

CANON 10.

Of the Missionary Operations of the Diocese.

SECTION I.—The corporation organized by Special Act of the Legislature in 1902 under the name of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island" is hereby recognized as a Diocesan institution, for which provision is recommended to be made. It shall present at each annual Convention a report of its financial condition, showing its receipts and expenditures of money for the preceding year, and all property received or accepted by it in trust, or otherwise, and giving an account of all work done by it.

SEC. II.—The Diocese shall be divided into four districts to be called "Archdeaconries," as follows, viz.:

[1.] The Northern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, including all that part of Kings County lying north of a line running from the river up the middle of Montague Street, to Fulton, to Flatbush Avenue, to Atlantic Avenue, to Franklin Avenue, south to Flatbush Avenue, to Jamaica Bay.

[2.] The Southern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, including all that part of the city and suburbs lying south of said line.

[3.] The Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau, comprising Queens County and Nassau County.

[4.] The Archdeaconry of Suffolk, comprising Suffolk County.

SEC. III.—Each Archdeaconry shall be composed of the Clergy resident within its limits, together with three Laymen from each Parish, appointed annually by the Rector, or Minister-in-charge, or in his absence by the Vestry, to serve until the sitting of the next Convention, and one Lay Delegate from each Chapel or Mission Station not represented in the Convention and having fifteen or more regular communicants, to be appointed by the Minister of said Chapel from among its Laity.

For the purposes of this Canon, Clergymen shall be considered to be resident in that Archdeaconry where their work is located. But this Canon shall not be construed so as to exclude from membership Clergymen resident within the limits of the Archdeaconry and canonically resident in the Diocese, who are officers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and those engaged as professors or instructors of youth in any College, Academy or General Seminary of learning duly incorporated.

At its first regular meeting, and every fourth year thereafter, each Archdeaconry, as constituted above, shall nominate to the Bishop for his approval or rejection a Clergyman to fill the office of Archdeacon, whose duty shall be, in the absence of the Bishop, to preside at all meetings and to perform the other functions of the office as hereinafter provided. His term of office shall be for four years from the time of his appointment, and until his successor shall be nominated and approved. In case the office should become vacant by death or resignation, a special meeting of the Archdeaconry shall be convened by the Bishop, and the said Archdeaconry shall proceed at once to the filling of the office in the manner provided above.

SEC. IV.—The Convention shall annually elect one Layman from each of said Archdeacons, as a Trustee of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island," and shall further elect, as Trustees of that corporation, two Clergymen and two Laymen at large. The persons so elected as Trustees of The Diocesan Missions of Long Island shall, together with the Trustees of the corporation, who hold office ex officio, constitute the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, of which Committee the Bishop shall, ex officio, be the head.

SEC. V.—The Missionary Committee thus constituted and created shall have the management of Missionary operations of the Diocese and the control of the funds raised for Missionaries.

It shall have for its officers the corresponding officers of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island."

It shall receive annually from the several Archdeacons full reports of their work, and with the aid of said reports it shall make a full annual report to the Diocesan Convention, giving an account of all the work done by it and moneys raised and expended by it within the limits of the Diocese. It shall meet as soon as convenient after the adjournment of the Diocesan Convention, at which meeting, after completing its organization it shall designate the amounts derived from each Archdeaconry, and all the amount to be expended in each Archdeaconry, and shall at once notify the secretaries of the several Archdeacons of its action; such designation and allotment to be based in a general way upon the reports of the vious year. Its fiscal year shall end at the meeting of the Missionary Committee next preceding the Diocesan Convention, said meeting to be not less than five days before such Convention.

SEC. VI.—It shall be the duty of the Archdeacon to take the oversight of the Missionary work in the Archdeaconry—with the exception of Cathedral and Parochial Chapels. He shall confer with the Bishop as to plans and details, and with the Clergy within the limits of whose parishes missionary work may be proposed or is being conducted. He shall survey the ground, and propose, as occasion offers, plans of operation, and in case such plans be adopted by the Archdeaconry, awaken, as far as opportunity can be found, an interest therein on the part of the congregations. Each Archdeaconry shall annually present a report of the condition and progress of the missionary work within its limits to the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, in time for said Committee to make its report to the Convention. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of each Archdeaconry to receive contributions from the Parishes and to forward the same to the Treasury of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, and to keep and account for the money of the Archdeaconry, paying out any such sums as he shall be authorized to pay by a regular meeting.

SEC. VII.—Each Archdeaconry shall, in open meeting, under the advice of the Bishop, and with the consent of the Clergy within the limit of whose parishes missionary work may be proposed, conduct the missionary work within its own limits; shall have control and distribution of the money allotted to it by the Missionary Committee, in aid of mission stations and feeble parishes; shall apportion for collection among its parishes and missions the sums from time to time so allotted; and may, at its discretion, with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special missionary work within its limits, and raise funds for such purposes; provided it shall first have met the assessments made upon it by the Missionary Committee.

SEC. VIII.—Each Archdeaconry shall hold, at least twice annually, stated meetings for the transaction of its business, and no apportionments or appropriations shall be made except at those meetings. The time and place of such meetings shall be fixed by the vote or by-laws of each Archdeaconry.

It shall be the duty of each Clergyman, unless prevented by grave and reasonable causes, to attend the regular meetings of the Archdeaconry, and to report all missionary work done in his cure. It shall be competent for each Archdeaconry to arrange, by by-laws or otherwise, such a programme for devotional, business and social exercises as shall in their judgment tend to the profit and pleasure of the meetings.

SAC IX—No missionary station shall be established or missionary appointed except with the concurrence of the Bishop. The Bishop, together with the Archdeacon, shall have the power to remove any missionary; six months notice having been given to the missionary. No appropriation shall be made by the Missionary Committee or by any Archdeaconry in aid of any organized parish, except on application of the wardens and vestrymen of said parish, with the written consent and approval of the Minister, if there be one.

SAC X—[1.] The Bishop may nominate to the Northern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn and to the Southern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, a Clergyman to fill the office of Archdeacon of Brooklyn, who, upon being approved and accepted by both Archdeacons, shall take oversight of the missionary work in the said Archdeacons, with the exception of the Cathedral and Parochial Chapels, and generally perform in said Archdeacons the duties assigned by Section VI of this Canon to an Archdeacon.

[2.] He shall hold office for two years, and thereafter in terms of two years, upon nomination by the Bishop and approval and acceptance by the two Archdeacons.

[3.] During the incumbency of such Archdeacon of Brooklyn, the two Archdeacons shall meet together, and the work therein and the funds therefor may be consolidated and administered as though the two Archdeacons constituted a single Archdeaconry. At such meetings the Archdeacon of Brooklyn shall, if he be present, preside, and in his absence the Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry within the limit of which the meeting is held shall preside.

[4.] The two Archdeacons may adopt by-laws for their government in matters of joint interest.

CANON 11.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and of the Fund for Families of Deceased Clergymen.

SECTION I—[1.] Two Lay Trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop and one Clergyman, to be chosen by the Convention, and the Treasurer of the Convention, shall constitute a Board to be called The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, whose duty it shall be to receive applications for relief and to apply the interest of said Fund according to such rules and principles as the Trustees shall adopt, to be submitted to the Convention for its review and approval.

[2.] Vacancies occurring in the number of the Trustees, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

[3.] All contributions or donations for this object shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Convention, and funds not needed for current use shall be invested and held in trust by such Trustees.

SEC. II.—[1.] Two clerical and three lay trustees shall be annually appointed by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen, whose duty it shall be to receive applications for relief and to apply said Fund according to such rules and principles as the said Trustees shall adopt, to be submitted to the Convention for its revision and approval.

[2.] It is hereby declared to be the duty of every Congregation in this Diocese to make an annual collection, to be paid to the Trustees of said Fund, who shall hold and apply the same to the relief of the families of deceased clergymen of this Diocese. It is recommended that such collection be made on the annual Thanksgiving Day or the Sunday next before, or next following.

[3.] Vacancies occurring in the number of the Trustees during the recess of the Convention may be filled by the remaining Trustees.

[4.] All contributions or donations for this object shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Fund, and funds not needed for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the Trustees.

CANON 12.

Of the Clergymen's Pension and Retirement Fund.

SECTION I.—Two clerical and three lay trustees shall be annually appointed by the Convention, who shall constitute a board to be known as the Trustees of the Clergymen's Pension and Retirement Fund, whose duty it shall be to receive and hold in trust all money contributed or donated for this Fund, and to administer the same in accordance with the provisions of this Canon.

SEC. II.—Vacancies in the board, occurring during the recess of the Convention, may be filled by the remaining members of the board.

SEC. III.—All contributions or donations for this object shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Fund, and funds not needed for current use shall be invested and held in trust by such Trustees.

SEC. IV.—The income from this Fund, as the Trustees may deem proper, shall be available for the granting of pensions to aged clergymen on retiring from the regular work of the ministry.

SEC. V.—All clergymen of the Diocese in good standing who have reached the age of at least 65 years, and have, as clergymen, given the fifteen preceding years to continuous service of the Church in this Diocese, in parochial or missionary work, and during the same period have been canonically resident in this Diocese, on retiring from regular work, shall receive in quarterly payments equal shares of the available money of this Fund. But in no case shall the quarterly payment to any one clergyman exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars.

CANON 13.

Of the Church Charity Foundation and Other Benevolent Institutions.

SECTION I.—The Church Charity Foundation of Long Island is hereby recognized as a Diocesan institution, for which provision is recommended to be made, so that each Congregation in the Diocese may make an annual contribution thereto.

SEC. II.—There shall be a Standing Committee appointed annually by the Bishop, whose duty it shall be to prepare and present to the Convention a digest of all reports relating to the Foundation and other benevolent institutions of the Church.

CANON 14.

Of the Social Service Committee.

There shall be a standing committee to be known as The Social Service Committee, consisting of the Bishop as its ex-officio head, and one clergyman and one layman from each Archdeaconry, and six clergymen and six laymen at large. Its duty shall be to carry into effect, as far as may be, any measure, or measures, recommended by the Diocesan Convention for the betterment of social conditions in the Diocese.

OF DISCIPLINE.

CANON 15.

Of the Ecclesiastical Court.

SECTION I.—There shall be an Ecclesiastical Court for the Diocese of Long Island, to try any Clergyman thereof upon charges. It shall consist of seven Presbyters, members of the Convention, and a Layman learned in the law, a communicant of the Church, of good reputation for gravity and soundness in the faith, to act as adviser to the Court, without a voice. No member of the Standing Committee shall be a member of this Court. They shall be appointed biennially by the Bishop, by and with the advice and consent of the Diocesan Convention, and shall continue in office two years, and until their successors are chosen, unless sooner removed by vote of the Convention.

SEC. II.—When vacancies occur, they shall be filled in the same manner for the residue of the term; but if the Convention be not then in session, he Bishop, with the consent of the remaining members of the Court, shall fill such vacancy by an appointment, which shall continue until the next meeting of the Convention.

SEC. III.—At any trial the Lay Assessor and five clerical members of the Court must be present; and if a less number be present, they shall adjourn from day to day till a quorum be present.

In case the Lay Assessor is absent, or unable to participate in a trial, or disqualified by reason of interest or otherwise, or if for any reason a quorum of the Court cannot be obtained, a special appointment or appointments sufficient to constitute a full Court, shall, at the request of the members of the Court who are present and qualified, be made for the occasion, as is hereinbefore provided, for filling vacancies. The accused may then reject two of these if he desires. Should a Lay Assessor be thus appointed and rejected, another shall be appointed as before, and the Court thus constituted shall proceed with the trial.

SEC. IV.—Upon the question of guilt or innocence of the accused, upon the final decision of the cause, the Clerical members of the Court only shall vote.

They shall anticipate the opening of the sitting of the Court, in any case, by the reception of the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and remember ever that the power committed to them is to be exercised without pride, prejudice or passion.

SEC. V.—The Court shall transact its business in accordance with the canons of the Church and such rules as it may make for its own guidance.

SEC. VI.—There shall be an officer of the Court, to be called the Church Advocate, who shall be a Layman learned in the law. He shall be chosen by the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, and hold office during their pleasure. It shall be his duty to prepare the charges and conduct the trial on behalf of the Church. He shall be the legal adviser to the Ecclesiastical Authority, and give his opinion when called upon on legal questions. The accused may have counsel to aid in his defence. The Church Advocate and counsel for the accused shall be communicants of the Church, of good reputation for gravity and soundness in the faith.

SEC. VII.—The Court shall choose a Clerk, to hold office during its pleasure. He shall keep a record of its proceedings, of convictions and sentences, and preserve the testimony taken on trials.

CANON 16.

Of Confession before Trial.

SECTION I.—Whenever a Clergyman is accused of offences, either by public rumor or reliable information, charges shall be prepared without regard to form, but containing the substance of the offence alleged, with reasonable certainty as to the time, place and circumstances, and delivered to the accused.

SEC. II.—Whenever a Clergyman thus accused, or against whom charges are preferred, as hereinafter provided, shall, before the first session of the Court summoned to try the cause, voluntarily confess himself to the Bishop to be guilty of the offence alleged, the Bishop shall, in the presence of the Standing Committee, pronounce such sentence as he may judge proper, and cause the same, with the accusation reduced to form and the confession annexed, to be recorded by the Clerk of the Court.

CANON 17.

Of Charges and Presentments.

SECTION I.—Charges against a Clergyman for any triable offence shall be made in writing, addressed to the Standing Committee, and be delivered to its President. They must be signed by a majority of the members of the Vestry of the Parish or Church of which the accused is Rector or Minister, or by seven male communicants of this Church, who are not of such Parish or Church, and two of whom shall be Presbyters.

SEC. II.—When the accused is not connected with any Church or Parish, the charges may be signed by any three Presbyters and three Lay Communicants of the Diocese, or by seven Lay Communicants.

SEC. III.—If the offence consists in teaching or preaching publicly and advisedly heresy or heretical doctrine, or doctrines contrary to those of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, a presentment, with specifications of the nature, time and place of such offence, shall be made, signed by three Presbyters of the Church canonically resident within the Diocese, and delivered to the President of the Standing Committee.

SEC. IV.—Whenever the Bishop shall, either from his own observation, or from any information which he shall deem worthy of notice, have reason to believe that there are grounds for an investigation into the conduct of any Clergyman of this Diocese, according to Section I. of Canon 23 of The Canons, he shall, at his discretion, convene the Standing Committee, and lay before them the information in his possession.

SEC. V.—Whenever the Standing Committee, or a majority of them, shall, from any information so laid before them by the Bishop, or from any other information which they, or a majority of them, may think worthy of notice, or from charges made to them as hereinbefore specified, be of opinion that it is proper that a judicial investigation of the conduct of any Clergyman of this Diocese should take place, they, with the consent of the Bishop, shall cause a general statement of the facts of the case to be made and delivered to the Church Advocate.

CANON 18.

Of Limitation.

SECTION I.—No presentment shall be sustained in any case unless the offence be alleged and proved to have been committed within three years next before the day on which the charges are delivered to the Church Advocate, as hereinafter mentioned.

CANON 19.

Of the Preliminary Proceedings.

SECTION I.—Whenever it is determined to bring to trial any Clergyman this Diocese, the Standing Committee shall notify the Church Advocate, and direct him to proceed with the same.

SEC. II.—He shall thereupon prepare charges and specifications, concerning the substance of the offence alleged, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. But no variance between an allegation and proof shall be regarded if the accused has not been misled or prejudiced thereby. The style of the charge or charges shall be.

“Articles or charges against.....exhibited on behalf of the Church to the Bishop of the Diocese of Long Island,acting as Church Advocate, in consequence of a presentment made to the said Bishop by the Standing Committee of the said Diocese.”

He shall immediately deliver two copies of the charges and specifications signed by him to the Bishop, who shall cause one of them, with a notice of the time and place of trial (which he shall prescribe) to be served on the accused personally, or left at his place of abode, at least thirty days before the time appointed for trial.

SEC. III.—The Bishop shall also issue a precept, directed to all the members of the Ecclesiastical Court, requiring them to proceed to the trial of the accused, at the prescribed time and place, which precept, together with the other copy of the charges signed by the Church Advocate, shall be transmitted to the President of the Court, whose duty it shall be, on receipt of the same, to cause all the members of the Court to be summoned to meet at the prescribed time and place.

SEC. IV.—If the accused shall neglect to attend at the time and place appointed for the meeting of the Court, which is convened to try him, after due notice given to him, the President of the Court shall report the fact to the Bishop, who shall thereupon suspend such Clergyman from the exercise of the ministry for contumacy, until he shall appear and demand a trial. If he shall not apply for a trial within three months, the Bishop shall pronounce such sentence as would be proper upon a conviction of the offence alleged.

SEC. V.—Any resort to a civil court, on the part of the accused, for the purpose of impeding, delaying, or averting the trial, shall be treated as contumacy, and the Bishop shall thereupon suspend such Clergyman from the exercise of the ministry for contumacy, until he appear and demand trial.

CANON 20.

Of Trial.

SECTION I.—The accused, on appearance, shall be called upon to say whether he is guilty or not guilty of the offence charged in the presentment. He may thereupon except, in writing, to the sufficiency of the presentment, or any part thereof, or to all or any of the specifications therein, and such exceptions shall be heard and disposed of by the Court.

SEC. II.—If no exceptions are taken, or they are overruled, or only so far allowed as to leave substantial ground for trial, the same shall proceed. If the accused refuse or neglect to plead to the presentment, the Court shall enter the plea of ave guilty for him, and proceed with the trial. The accused may attend, produce his testimony, and make his defence as accused.

SEC. III.—All testimony shall be given on oath or affirmation. The manner of conducting the trial, and the rules of evidence, unless otherwise provided by the Canons of the Church, shall be the same as in the Law Courts of the State of New York, so far as applicable. The Court may adjourn from time to time, not exceeding one week at one adjournment, for the purpose of procuring testimony or furthering the ends of justice.

SEC. IV.—Proceedings in a trial shall be private, unless the accused, ten days before the trial, shall demand in writing that the same be public.

SEC. V.—In case there is reason to suppose that the attendance of a necessary witness cannot be had on trial, either party may, at any time after the presentment is served, on five days' notice to the other, apply to the Lay Assessor to appoint a Commissioner to take the deposition of such witness. The party so applying shall accompany his application with the interrogatories proposed to be propounded to the witness. The Lay Assessor shall then appoint a Commissioner, and fix a time and place to settle the interrogatories before him, at which time and place the other party shall, if he desires, present cross-interrogatories; and further interrogatories may be added with the approbation of the Lay Assessor, and a reasonable time allowed for that purpose, if the Lay Assessor shall deem it necessary or proper. The Lay Assessor shall then transmit the deposition with the interrogatories annexed, to the Commissioner, who shall take the testimony under oath or affirmation, as provided by the laws of the State where taken, and certify the same and transmit it, properly sealed and secured, to the President of the Court. The deposition so taken shall be read upon the trial, subject to all exceptions that would avail if such witnesses were examined in Court.

SEC. VI.—All notices and papers to be served on the accused, after the presentment, may be served on his counsel, and all papers to be served on the prosecutors shall be served on the Church Advocate. Such service may be made by leaving the same with such advocate or counsel personally, or at his place of residence or business, or such service may be made by mail, by depositing the notice or paper, properly folded and enveloped, in the Post Office, directed to the said counsel or advocate, at his place of residence or business, and prepaying the postage. But in case of service by mail, three days' additional time shall be allowed for transmission and receipt.

SEC. VII.—If the person to be served with any presentment, notice or paper has departed from the United States, it shall be sufficient service thereof to leave a copy at his last place of abode within the United States, sixty days before the day on which his appearance or other act required by such notice or paper is to be performed. If his last place of abode cannot be ascertained, a publication of a copy in a public newspaper, printed at the seat of government of the State or Territory in which he last resided, shall be sufficient.

SEC. VIII.—The Court, having fully heard the allegations and proofs of the parties, and deliberately considered the same after the parties have withdrawn, the Lay Assessor shall deliver an opinion in writing of the law and facts of the case, in matters not strictly theological. The Clerical members of the Court shall then declare respectively whether, in their opinion, the accused is guilty or not guilty of each particular charge and specification contained in the presentment, in the order in which they are set forth; and the accused shall be considered as not guilty of every charge and specification of which he shall not be pronounced guilty by a unanimous vote of the Clerical members of the Court.

SEC. IX.—On the final question whether the accused is guilty or not guilty, no member of the Court shall be permitted to vote, or be considered present, who shall not have been present at the delivery of all the testimony. Unless the accused be found guilty he shall be deemed acquitted.

SEC. X.—Whenever a trial shall fail by the negligence of any Clerical member or members, the President of the Court shall report the names and the facts of such negligence to the next ensuing Convention of the Diocese.

SEC. XI.—The decision of the Court as to each and all the charges and specifications shall be reduced to writing and signed by the Court. Such decision or decisions shall be regarded as the judgment of the Court. In case of a judgment of guilty on any charge, the Court shall state also the sentence which, in its opinion, ought to be pronounced.

CANON 21.

Of Ecclesiastical Sentences.

SECTION I.—All proceedings within this Diocese, the result of which may involve a subjection to Canonical sentence, must be ultimately revised and determined, and all sentences pronounced by the Bishop. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall call in the Bishop of some other Diocese, who shall be requested, and is hereby authorized, to act therein, and proceed in the same manner as the Bishop of this Diocese would be authorized to do.

SEC. II.—The Bishop, having received the judgment of the Court, it shall be his duty to inform the accused of the sentence thereof and call upon him to show reason, if any, why the judgment should not be sustained. He may receive from him any statement in mitigation of sentence.

SEC. III.—The Bishop having reviewed and adjudged upon the case, shall proceed to pronounce such sentence as may be proper, not exceeding in severity that recommended by the Court. Such sentence shall be pronounced in the presence of any three Presbyters of the Diocese, after notice to the party of the time and place appointed therefor, and publicly in a Church, or privately, as the Bishop shall determine.

SEC. IV.—A copy of a sentence of suspension shall be sent to the accused, and another to the Vestry or Vestries of the Church or Churches with which he may be canonically connected and such other publicity may be given to it as the Bishop may think expedient.

SEC. V.—The Ecclesiastical Authority, after the final decision, shall transmit all the papers, with such decision, to the Clerk of the Court, whose duty it shall be to record an abstract of the proceedings, including the final judgment and sentence in full, in a book kept for that purpose.

CANON 22.

Of Differences between Ministers and Congregations.

SECTION I.—[1.] In cases of controversy between any Rector or Assistant Minister of any Church or Parish, and the Vestry, Trustees, or Congregation thereof, which cannot be settled by the parties themselves, and is such as to injure the peace and prosperity of the Parish or the Church, the said parties, or either of them, may make a written application to the Ecclesiastical Authority for decision thereupon.

[2.] The parties may agree upon a written statement of facts, and submit the same. If not agreed upon, the application must contain a statement setting forth in substance the ground or grounds on which the interference is sought. A copy of such papers shall be served upon the other party with ten days' notice of the intention to present them. An answer in writing shall be made and delivered.

[3.] When a statement is agreed upon, or no answer is made, or the case shall clearly appear to require no further inquiry as to facts, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall pass upon the same, and if a dissolution of the pastoral relation be deemed necessary, may recommend to such Pastor or Minister to relinquish his titles, on such conditions as shall appear reasonable.

[4.] Whenever further inquiry shall be deemed expedient, or if, when an answer is filed, either party shall demand it, the Ecclesiastical Authority, being a Bishop, shall transmit the papers to the Standing Committee, for action upon the same.

SEC. II.—[1.] The Standing Committee in such case, as well as when the application is to said Committee as the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall thereupon designate three of its members, one of whom shall be a Layman to inquire into the facts and take evidence thereon. Ten days' notice the time and place where such inquiry is to be held shall be given to each party. The testimony so taken shall be reported to the Standing Committee, who, after considering the same, shall recommend to the Bishop such action as they deem proper to be taken in the premises.

[2.] The Bishop, if he approves the recommendation of the Standing Committee, shall declare a final judgment in accordance therewith, giving ten days' notice to each party of the time and place of announcing the same.

SEC. III.—[1.] If the final judgment in any case be a recommendation that the pastoral relations be dissolved, and that titles be relinquished by the Minister, and he shall refuse to comply with the same within thirty days after the decision shall be made known to him, the Bishop may proceed to declare the canonical dissolution of all connection between the parties.

[2.] And if the Vestry or Congregation refuse or neglect to comply with their part with such decision or judgment, the Church shall be prohibited from a representation in the Diocesan Convention until they submit hereto.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

CANON 23.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SECTION I.—[1.] According to Section III of Canon 15 of The Canons, each Clergyman of this Church shall keep a Register of baptisms, confirmations, communicants, marriages and funerals within his cure, agreeably to such rules as may be provided by the Constitution of the Diocese where his cure lies.

[2.] The Register so to be kept by him shall specify the name, place and time of the birth of the child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized, and the names of the witnesses; the names of the parties married; the names of the persons buried, and also the time when each rite was performed.

[3.] These entries shall be made by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church, which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

[4.] This list of communicants shall embrace all within the Minister's cure, as nearly as can be ascertained; and he shall also keep a list of all the families and adult persons within his cure, as far as practicable; and also an accurate list of the persons confirmed, from time to time, by the Bishop.

SEC. II.—Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every Annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, if there be no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of baptisms, confirmations, marriages and funerals, the number of communicants, the contributions for Diocesan, Missionary and other Church objects, in his Parish, and any other matters that may throw light on the state of the same; and in reporting the number of communicants he shall distinguish the additions, removals and deaths since the last report.

CANON 24.

Of Vacant Parishes.

Whenever a Parish becomes vacant it shall be the duty of the Vestry to give immediate notice thereof to the Ecclesiastical Authority.

CANON 25.

Of Repealed Canons.

Whenever there shall be a repealing clause in any Canon, and such Canon shall be repealed, such repeal shall not be a re-enactment of the Canon or Canons repealed by the said repealing clause.

CANON 26.

Of the Repeal, Amendment and Enactment of New Canons.

SECTION I.—In all cases of future enactment, the same, if by way of amendment of an existing provision, shall be in the following form: "Canon —, (or Section —, of Canon —, or Clause —, of Section —, of Canon —,) of Article —, is hereby amended so as to read as follows." And if the enactment is of an additional Clause, Section, or Canon, it shall be designated as the next Canon, or next Section, or next Clause of a Canon or Section, in the order of numbering of the Article to which the subject properly belongs. If a Canon, or Section, or Clause be stricken out, the existing numbering shall be retained until a new edition of the Canons be directed.

SEC. II.—The Secretary, with any one of the Committee on Canons selected by such Committee, shall at the close of each session of the Convention, certify the changes made in the Canons, and the Secretary shall print the same in the Journal.

CANON 27.

Of Amendments of the Canons.

The Canons may be altered, or new Canons may be added at the Annual Convention, after one day's notice, by the vote of a majority of the members of the same.

The undersigned, in accordance with Section II of Canon 26, hereby certify that the foregoing Constitution and Canons are a true copy of the same, as originally adopted by the Convention, with the subsequent additions and amendments.

REESE F. ALSOP,

Chairman of the Committee on Canons.

ROBERT ROGERS,

Secretary of the Convention.

Rules of Order of the Convention

At the opening of each Annual Convention, after Morning Prayer, and the Administration of the Holy Communion, the President take the chair; after which the Order of Procedure shall be as follows:

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of absence or inability to act, or, of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call over the Churches entitled to representation, when Lay Delegates shall present their certificates, which certificates shall be read by the Secretary and a Committee of two members appointed by the Presiding Officer. Irregular or defective certificates, and certificates or documents referring to contested seats, shall be temporarily laid aside. Names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called; after which the certificates and documents laid aside shall be reported to the Convention, which shall decide on the admission of the deputies named.

3. A constitutional quorum (fifteen Clergymen and fifteen Delegates) present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

1. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to nominate an Assistant Secretary.

2. The appointment of seven Standing Committees by the President:

(1.) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, one Clergyman and two Laymen, reports from which Committee may be in order at any time during the session of the Convention.

(2.) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3.) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4.) On the Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5.) On Canons, at least two Clergymen and two Laymen.

(6.) On the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions, one Clergyman and two Laymen.

(7.) On Social Service, one Clergyman and one Layman from each Archdeaconry, and six Clergymen and six Laymen-at-large.

6. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections—one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Missionary Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and the Deputies to the Federate Council.

7. Nominations for Election, without remarks.

8. The Annual Address of the Bishop shall be at any time in order.

9. The receiving and referring, when necessary, of Reports, other than those of Special Committees, which may have been handed in to the Secretary.

10. Miscellaneous Business.

II. On the second day, the Order of Business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.

2. Receiving Certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.

3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.

4. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Missionary Committee, the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention and the Deputies to the Federate Council.

5. The appointment of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, Trustees of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen and Trustees of Clergymen's Pension and Retiring Fund, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

6. Report of the Secretary when any business has been committed to that officer.

7. Report of the Standing Committee.

8. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

9. Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

10. Reports of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, Trustees of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen, and Trustees of Clergymen's Pension and Retiring Fund.

11. Report of the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island.

12. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.

13. Report of the Standing Committee on the Theological Seminary.

14. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.

15. Report of the Standing Committee on the Salary of the Bishop.

16. Report of the Standing Committee on the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions.

17. Report of the Standing Committee on Christian Education.

18. Report of the Committee on the Cathedral Library.

19. Reports of Special Committees.

20. Miscellaneous Business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the Order of Business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the Certificates of the Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented the preceding day, in order.
5. Miscellaneous Business.

IV. If the prescribed Order of Business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business on the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached and finished on the preceding day, and in the Order for that day prescribed; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot from among the Presbyters.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church; Clergymen belonging in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention; Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 9 A.M. to 12:30 P.M., and from 1:30 P.M. to 5 P.M., and when ordered by the Convention from 7 to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated Elections by ballot shall be as follows:

Immediately after nominations are closed on the first day, the Secretary shall prepare all ballots for the several offices and committees to be filled, containing the names of all persons nominated therefor, in alphabetical order, and stating the number of names to be voted for such office or committee, which ballots shall be on the Secretary's desk, for distribution at the opening of the Convention on the second day.

Voters shall prepare their ballots by striking out the names of those for whom they do not vote, leaving uncanceled not more than the number to be elected by the ballot voted.

Nothing herein shall prevent the voting of any ballot that may be presented.

No ballot shall be counted by the Inspectors which contains more names uncanceled than the number required to fill the office or committee for which the ballot is cast.

X. No Motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a Question is before the Convention, no Motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table, to postpone it indefinitely, to postpone it to a certain time, to commit it or to amend it; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the Resolution.

XII. All Amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no after Amendment to such Amendment shall be in order.

XIII. A Motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A Motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate. A Motion to fix the hour or day to which the Convention shall adjourn takes precedence of a Motion to adjourn, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The Mover may withdraw a Motion or Resolution at any time before decision or Amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a Question under debate contain several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided, at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same Question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a Question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The Votes shall be taken by Ayes and Noes, and by Orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the Vote by Orders, it shall be the right of any member of a Delegation, who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the Delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A Question being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session, without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, or without the Motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority at the first decision. No Question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The Reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a Resolution or Resolutions for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President or another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All Questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. All Questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate.

XXVI. The prescribed Order of Business shall not be departed from, nor shall any Rule of Order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

XXVII. The majority of a Quorum shall always be required to elect any Officer.

FORM OF BEQUEST.

I. TO THE CHURCH CHARITY FOUNDATION.

I give and bequeath to the "CHURCH CHARITY FOUNDATION OF LONG ISLAND," incorporated in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-one, in the County of Kings, and State of New York, pursuant to the "Act for the Incorporation of Benevolent, Charitable, Scientific and Missionary Societies," passed April 12, 1843, the sum of..... to be applied to the uses and purposes of said Society.

N. B.—If it be wished that the bequest should be applied wholly to any one of the charities of the Foundation, say, "to be applied to the uses and purposes (here name the charity—as the 'Home for the Aged,' the 'Orphan House,' or 'St. John's Hospital,' etc., as the case may be), of said Society." Or if it be wished to found a new charity, not already established on, but within the scope and object of the Foundation, say, "to be applied to the founding of an institution for (here name the object) under the care and management of said Society."

II. TO THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE BELONGING TO THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

[Of Real Estate.]

I give and devise to "THE TRUSTEES OF THE ESTATE BELONGING TO THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND," the lot or parcel of ground situated in

(DESCRIPTION.)

To have and to hold the same upon trust for the Church or Congregation known as..... in the of..... in the County of..... State of New York, and to hold and manage the same, and to apply the rents, issues and profits thereof for the benefit and use of the above-named Church or Congregation, so long as the same shall conform with the canons, rules, regulations and usages of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Long Island, and with power to convey such premises to said Church or Congregation, to be held and enjoyed by the same so long as said beneficiary shall conform with the said canons, rules and regulations: and upon failure or violation thereof, then to be held and applied upon the like trust for the use of any other Church or Congregation or Society so conforming, in said Diocese, that said Corporation may appoint or select.

[Of Money or Personal Estate.]

As above, specifying the sum of money or particular personal property, and substituting Interest and Income for rents and profits.

The First Day.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE FORTY-FIRST CONVENTION

THE FIRST DAY.

On Tuesday, May 21st, the day named in the Constitution of Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island the annual convention of the same, a number of the clergy and laity assembled in the Cathedral, Garden City, the place appointed by the Bishop.

The Communion office was begun by the Rev. Paul F. Swett, Rector of the Cathedral; the Rev. Canon Bryan reading the Epistle; the Rev. John R. Moses reading the Gospel. The Rector preached the sermon. During the singing of the offertory the alms were received for Diocesan Missions. The Celebrant, the Right Reverend the Bishop, was assisted in the distribution of the Holy Communion by Canons Bryan and Swett, Canon Moses and the Rev. Robert N. Merriman.

At the close of the service the members of the Convention assembled in the Nave of the Cathedral. The Right Reverend, the Bishop in the Chair.

The Secretary proceeded to call the names of the Clergy of the Diocese entitled to seats and of the Lay Delegates, until it found that a quorum was present. Those whose names were called recorded their attendance by placing their names in a book on the Secretary's table.

The President declared the Convention duly organized for business. The Rev. Robert Rogers, Ph.D., was nominated for Secretary and unanimously elected. The Rev. John Henri Sattig was nominated for Assistant Secretary and unanimously elected. Mr. Alexander E. Orr was nominated for Treasurer and on motion the Secretary was directed to cast one ballot and Mr. Orr was declared elected.

The President then announced the appointment of the standing Committees of the Convention:

OF THE TREASURER OF THE CORPORATION OF THE CATHEDRAL OF THE INCARNATION OF THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

Income receipts for the year ending August 31, 1906, from all sources except schools were.....	$42,477 44
There was disbursed during the year, schools not included, for Cathedral maintenance, taxes, ordinary repairs, insurance, etc., including proportion of power house expenses, and special repairs to the stone work of the Cathedral, the sum of	42,598 75
Excess of expenditure over income.....	$121 31

NOTE.—The amount paid out during the year in repairing and re-establishing the stone work of the Cathedral was $9,134.73. This work is only partially completed, and because of what now proves to be very faulty original construction, will continue to be a serious source of expenditure chargeable against the income of the Corporation.

ST. PAUL'S SCHOOL.

Income receipts from all sources during the year were.....	$99,391 95
There was disbursed during the year for maintenance, repairs and proportion of power house expenses, the sum of.....	100,524 58
Deficit for the year.....	$1,132 63

NOTE.—Included in the charge for Maintenance is the sum of $1,500 paid the Head Master on account of a special appropriation made to him of $2,000 to cover expenses relative to his impaired health, and in the charge for repairs the sum of $2,569.71 for extensive repairs to the plumbing plant.

including the heating, lighting and repairs." Mrs. Mackay further provides that the above shares cannot be sold except by the joint consent of herself and the Trustees, but in the event of her death the Trustees are to have full power of sale and reinvestment of the proceeds for the above purposes.

It is stated in the letter of gift by Mrs. Mackay that the above is "the beginning of an endowment fund for the benefit of the Church."

An Agreement Entered Into by the Trustees with the Franklin Trust Company of Brooklyn.

o. 89.—This agreement is based upon a resolution unanimously adopted by the Trustees, reading as follows:

Resolved, That the securities of the remaining trusts of this Corporation be placed in the care and custody of the Franklin Trust Company, of Brooklyn, New York, upon the same terms and conditions as the Maurice Fund."

Under this agreement, the securities of the several trusts held by the Trustees have been turned over to the Franklin Trust Company and receipts taken for the same.

The above agreement is revocable by vote of the Trustees.

Respectfully submitted,

Brooklyn, N. Y., May 10, 1907.

Summary

OF THE AGED AND INFIRM CLERGY FUND, THE EPISCOPAL FUND, THE BISHOP'S SALARY FUND, THE DIOCESAN FUND AND BISHOP LITTLEJOHN MEMORIAL FUND.

A. E. Orr, Treasurer, in account with the Diocese of Long Island.

Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund.

Balance on hand at last accounting (of which $3,278.14 was classified as principal and $1,606.48 as income).....	$4,884 62
Received during the year from seventeen churches.....	326 20
Received income on investments during the year.....	5,947 59
Received on account of the principal of mortgages.....	10,100 00
Total receipts.....	$21,258 41
Disbursed to beneficiaries during the year.....	$3,767 50
Brooklyn Trust Company for collection of income, custody of assets and expenses.....	100 00
Investments in bonds and mortgages.....	13,450 00
Total disbursements	17,317 50

The First Day.

Balance on hand this date (of which $1,454.34 is classified as principal and $2,486.57 as income..... $3,940 91

The amount received for income exceeded the amount paid to beneficiaries and for expenses by $2,180.09, which added to $326.20, the contributions from churches, makes a net gain for the year of $2,406.29 and brings the total of the Fund up to $126,490.91 as against $124,084.62 in 1906.

In 1905-1906 fifty-five churches contributed the sum of..... $958 14
In 1906-1907 seventeen churches contributed the sum of..... 326 20

This large reduction in the number of contributing churches is explained by the fact that many of the Parishes which have heretofore contributed to this Fund have sent their contributions to the Treasurer of the Fund created by the Convention of 1906 "For Families of Deceased Clergymen."

The demands on the Fund show an increase for the year :

The amount paid to beneficiaries for the year 1905-1906 was.... $3,648 00
The amount paid to beneficiaries for the year 1906-1907 is..... 3,767 50

Increase $119 50

Attached to the account is the certificate of the Brooklyn Trust Company that the assets of the Fund, as stated in the account, are in its keeping, and that the account as presented is correct.

A. E. ORR, Treasurer.

The First Day.

It was moved and carried: That the Treasurer of Diocese be authorized to cancel such arrearages as in his judgment cannot be collected and not carry them longer as an asset of their respective funds.

The Hon. Asa Bird Gardiner moved that the thanks of the Convention be extended to the Treasurer, Mr. Alexander E. Orr, for his faithful work, and that the Convention hereby expresses its regrets at his inability to attend the sessions. Motion carried.

The President announced that nominations for Lay Deputies to the General Convention were in order. The following names were placed in nomination:

Mr. Henry E. Pierrepont.	Capt. A. T. Mahan.
Mr. George F. Peabody.	Hon. Charles H. Fuller.
Mr. P. R. Jennings.	Col. W. S. Cogswell.
Mr. Townsend Scudder.	Mr. E. D. Litchfield.
Mr. Daniel Whitford.

Upon motion nominations were closed.

The President announced that nominations for Provisional Lay Deputies to the General Convention were in order and the following names were placed in nomination:

Mr. F. J. H. Atwood.	Mr. A. A. Low.
Hon. Asa Bird Gardiner.	Mr. F. H. Miller, M.D.
Mr. J. E. Langstaff, M.D.	Mr. Henry E. Pierrepont.
Mr. E. D. Litchfield.	Mr. E. C. Sanford.

Upon motion duly carried nominations were then closed.

The President announced that nominations for Provisional Clerical Deputies to the General Convention were in order, and the following names were placed in nomination:

The Rev. Henry B. Bryan.	The Rev. Kirkland Huske.
The Rev. Bishop Falkner.	The Rev. John Henri Sattig.
The Rev. G. T. Dowling, D.D.	The Rev. Henry T. Scudder.

Upon motion duly carried nominations were closed.

The Rev. Henry T. Scudder read the report of the Clergymen's Retiring and Pension Fund.

On behalf of the Trustees of the Clergymen's Retirement and Pension Fund the Chairman desires to present the following summary of the work of the last year. All the money raised has come by personal appeal and by sending to clergy and laity a request for a small contribution. There has been no request for collections in the various churches, although through the kindly interest of a few rectors this has been done gratifying results. The annexed report of the Treasurer of the Fund shows that in a little over one year we have been able to accumulate $704.79. We hope another year to be able to state that we are on our way toward the second thousand dollars of capital. Our Board is incorporated by act of the Legislature. The thanks of the Trustees are due to one of the vestry of Grace Church, Brooklyn, Mr. Frederick Edson Parker, for the accomplishment of this result, due to his kindly interest and persistent work. At the commencement of his efforts he was aided by one of our Board, who was most interested in our work, and with a sense of its importance and usefulness. In this, as in all he has done, his constant aim and thought was to aid his fellow beings and make the world better and brighter. We all shall miss him who has been taken from us to the state of rest and peace.

The First Day.

Of Frank Sherman Benson it can be most truly said that he in every way answered to the highest title that can be given, a Christian gentleman. Respectfully submitted on behalf of the Clergymen's Pension and Retirement Fund.

FRED'K T. SHERMAN, Treasurer.

Brooklyn, May 21, 1907.

The Rev. Mr. McGuffey moved the following amendment to Canon 22, Article 2, Sec. 3., and upon motion it was referred to Committee on Canons.

That said Article (2) be amended so as to read:

“(2) If the final judgment be against the Vestry, Trustees or Congregation, then said Vestry or Trustees, or such majority of them acting in the case, shall immediately resign their offices, and their places shall be filled according to law. And if the Vestry, Trustees or Congregation refuse or neglect to comply on their part with such decision or judgment, and with the provisions of this canon, the Church shall be prohibited from a representation in the Diocesan Convention until they submit in writing.”

The Secretary moved that in the interests of time and order the balloting on the second day of the Convention be done in the crypt of the Cathedral, and to this the following amendment was proposed, which was accepted, and that the Secretary shall arrange to notify the delegates in each pew when the time had come for them to leave their seats to vote and thus avoid confusion.

This resolution as amended was carried.

The President then read the annual address.*

* Printed in another place in this Journal.

The First Day.

The Rev. Mr. Melish offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Convention of the Diocese of Long Island hereby petition the General Convention to take such action as may be necessary to permit the use of the Revised Version of the Holy Scriptures in the Lessons in Morning and Evening prayer."

Upon motion duly carried this resolution was made the order of the second day at 12 o'clock.

It was moved by Archdeacon Russell and seconded that Diocesan Missions be made the order of the second day at 11 o'clock. Carried.

The Convention then adjourned till the following day at 10 A. M.

The Second Day.

THE SECOND DAY.

After morning prayer the Convention met pursuant to adjournment, the Right Reverend the Bishop presiding. The Minutes of the preceding day were read and approved. The President called for the certificates of delegates that had been presented on the first day.

The Rev. Dr. Swentzel presented the following resolution:

In view of the meeting of the General Convention this year and the expense to the Bishop in attending, the treasurer to the Bishop's Salary be directed to increase the allowance made to the Bishop this year traveling expenses to five hundred dollars.

An amendment was offered increasing this sum to one thousand dollars. The amendment being accepted by the mover of the original resolution, it was carried in the amended form.

The Rev. Mr. Scudder offered the following resolution:

In view of the additional labor involved in the preparation of the report of this Diocese to the General Convention, the Secretary be allowed an additional one hundred dollars.

An amendment was offered making the allowance to the Secretary $350 annually (instead of $250 as at present).

The amendment was accepted by the Rev. Mr. Scudder, and in its amended form, the resolution was carried.

The Rev. Mr. Wiley asked from the Bishop an interpretation of the word "communicant" as applied to Delegates to the General Convention.

The Bishop gave the following ruling:

The fact that a man is a member of this Convention implies that he is a communicant and that he would not go behind this fact that he had been sent as a delegate to this Convention by his Parish.

The Rev. Dr. Jackson presented the Report of the Standing Committee.

Report

OF THE STANDING COMMITTEE.

The Standing Committee of the Diocese of Long Island begs to submit the following report:

June 4, 1906.—The Secretary announced the re-election, at the recent session, of the Rev. Dr. John G. Bacchus, and the Hon. Augustus Wyck as members for four years.

The Second Day.

The Committee organized by the election of the Rev. Dr. Swentzel as President, and the Rev. Dr. Kinsolving, as Secretary.

Mr. Daniel Wilmot Gateson was recommended to the Bishop to be received as a candidate for Holy Orders, and the proper papers signed.

The Rev. Benjamin Mottram, Deacon, was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the Priesthood, and the proper papers signed.

The Rev. Norman Orlando Hutton, Deacon, was recommended to the Bishop for ordination to the Priesthood, and the proper papers signed.

Petition from the Corporation of St. Paul's Church, Glen Cove, L. I., was received, requesting leave to sell the old Rectory property, and apply the proceeds to the reduction of a mortgage on the new Rectory property of said Corporation, agreeing not to apply any of the said proceeds to any current expenses of the Corporation. Consent was also asked by this Corporation to sell its old Rectory.

Consent was given to both petitions.

June 13, 1906.—Necessary corrections were made in the papers of recent candidates for Holy Orders, as, through the inadvertence of the Secretary the old blanks, rendered obsolete by the action of the last General Convention, had not been destroyed.

Application was made by the corporation of Grace Church, Jamaica, L. I., for consent to sell "a small lot of land twenty-eight (28) feet by thirty-eight (38) feet, known as No. 68 Trinity Place, in the Borough of Manhattan; the proceeds of the sale to be added to the permanent endowment fund of the Parish. Consent was given.

September 17, 1906.—Consent was given the corporation of St. Stephen's Church, Port Washington, L. I., to place a mortgage of four thousand ($4,000.00) dollars on the Church property for the purpose of erecting a Rectory.

An application for assistance from Grace Church, E. D. Brooklyn, addressed to the Committee was referred to the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese.

Consent was given to the consecration of the Reverend Charles Scadding, to be Bishop of the Diocese of Oregon; and the Rev. Beverly Danbridge Tucker to be Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Southern Virginia.

Consent was given to the corporation of St. John's Church, Huntington, L. I., to execute a mortgage of six thousand ($6,000.00) dollars upon its Church property, situated at the corner of Maine and Prospect Street Huntington, L. I.; the proceeds to be used for the completion and furnishing of the Church.

The Rev. Dr. Kinsolving, removing from the Diocese, resigned from the Committee, and his Secretaryship. The resignation was accepted with regret. The Rev. Dr. T. G. Jackson was elected Secretary in his stead.

The Second Day.

October 15, 1906.—Consent was given the corporation of St. Jude's Church, Blythebourne, Brooklyn, to sell its five lots—100 x 100 feet—of its Mission property at Martense, at 12th Avenue and 41st Street, at a price not less than six thousand five hundred ($6,500.00) dollars, with the understanding that St. Jude's corporation purchase the lots—50 x 100 feet—on the north side of 42d Street, between New Utrecht and Fort Hamilton Avenue, at a price not to exceed three thousand, three hundred ($3,300.00) dollars, and to apply the balance between such sale and purchase, to the erection of a chapel.

Consent was given to the corporation of St. Paul's Church, Glen Cove, L. I., to sell its old Rectory property for seven thousand five hundred ($7,500.00) dollars; the proceeds of such sale to be applied to the reduction of the mortgage indebtedness of its Church property.

The Rev. Dr. Spencer S. Roche was elected a member of the Committee, in the place of Dr. Kinsolving, resigned, to serve until the next Diocesan Convention.

November 5, 1906.—A communication was received from the Bishop of the Diocese, certifying the transfer of Mr. Hermon J. Keyser, from the Diocese of Milwaukee to the Diocese of Long Island.

Petition was received from the Trustees of the Church of the Advent, Bath Beach, asking consent to the sale of their Church property, and to deposit the proceeds thereof with the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese. After discussion, the following resolution was adopted: "That the petition of the Church of the Advent for leave to apply to the Supreme Court for an order permitting it to sell and convey its real estate, on the westerly side of 17th Avenue (formerly Bay 15th Street), and all its right in said 17th Avenue, the product of the sale to be deposited with the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese; to be held for the use and benefit of said Church, and its successors, be and that it is hereby granted; the building now on said land to be reserved for sale by said Church of the Advent, if it so elect."

November 17, 1906.—The Bishop read the Collect for All Saints' Day, and other prayers, and announced the death of Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse, beloved lay member of the Committee.

Mr. Alexander E. Orr and the Rev. Dr. T. G. Jackson were appointed a Committee to draft suitable resolutions on the death of Mr. Mynderse; and that an engrossed copy of them be sent to the family of Mr. Mynderse; and that they be published in the Churchman and the Brooklyn Eagle. It was also resolved to petition the Missionary Committee that a Memorial Tablet be conspicuously placed in the Diocesan House in memory of Mr. Mynderse, to be paid for by voluntary subscription, and that the Standing Committee attend the funeral services in Grace Church.

The Second Day.

November 26, 1906.—The President announced the sudden death of Mr. William H. Male, honored lay member of the Standing Committee. The Hon. Augustus Van Wyck and the Rev. Dr. Roche were appointed a committee to draft suitable resolution on the death of Mr. Male; and that they be published in the Churchman and the Brooklyn Eagle; and that an engrossed copy of the same be sent to the family of Mr. Male.

At the request of St. Luke's, East Hampton, L. I., for permission to grant a right-of-way through its property, the following resolution was taken: "Whereas, It is important that the real estate plot occupied by St. Luke's at East Hampton, L. I., should be enlarged so as to develop the said work; Whereas, Property for such enlargement has been contracted for on condition that a right-of-way twenty (20) feet wide over the southwesterly portion of said property be given the owners of the adjoining property; Resolved, That the Standing Committee of the Diocese of Long Island consent that the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island apply to the court for leave to grant to the Maidstone Improvement Company of Long Island, its successors or assigns forever, a right-of-way over such land belonging to the Diocese of Long Island, situated in the town of East Hampton, minutely described, with conditions and safeguards in the minutes of the Committee."

December 17, 1906.—Mr. Henry E. Pierrepont was elected a member of the Standing Committee, in the place of the late Mr. Mynderse, to serve until the following Diocesan Convention.

Mr. George Vernon Dickey, having presented the proper testimonials, was recommended to the Bishop as a candidate for Holy Orders, and his papers signed.

February 4, 1907.—Consent was given the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of the Church of the Holy Spirit, Bath Beach, Kings County, to place a mortgage of three thousand seven hundred and fifty ($3,750.00) dollars on their Rectory property.

Mr. William S. Cogswell was elected a member of the Standing Committee, in the place of the late Mr. Wm. H. Male, to serve until the next Diocesan Convention.

Mr. James Ray Hosmer, having presented to the Committee the proper testimonials, was recommended to the Bishop as a candidate for Holy Orders, and his papers signed.

March 24, 1907.—The Rev. Dr. Swentzel, Mr. Alexander E. Orr and Judge Van Wyck were designated to co-operate with a committee from the "Missionary Committee and Trustees of the Diocesan Missions," on the matter of a Memorial to Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse, to be placed in the Diocesan House.

T. G. JACKSON, Secretary.

The Second Day.

The President declared the polls open for the election of members of Standing Committee and Deputies to the General Convention.

The Rev. Mr. Scudder, in view of the fact that only one name had been nominated for each of the vacancies on the Missionary Committee and the Trustees of Diocesan Missions of Long Island, and in order to expedite the work of the Convention, moved that the Secretary be authorized to cast one ballot or those nominated. Unanimously carried.

The Secretary cast the ballot and the President declared the following election:

Members-at-Large.—The Rev. Lindsay Parker, Ph.D.; the Rev. John R. Moses; Mr. William H. Ford; Mr. David Whitford; Mr. P. R. Jennings.

From Queens and Nassau.—Mr. P. R. Jennings.

From Suffolk.—Mr. J. W. Eaton.

From Northern Archdeaconry.—Dr. G. G. Hopkins.

From Southern Archdeaconry.—Mr. Percy Litchfield.

Mr. Henry E. Pierrepont presented the Report of the American Church Building Fund.

AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION.

The Diocesan Committee on the A. C. B. Fund Commission beg leave to present their Annual Report:

During the past year 16 Parishes in Kings County have contributed $79.45; 6 Parishes in Queens and Nassau $76.75, and 5 in Suffolk $11.93, a total of $558.12. The Commission has also received notice of a request by the late Colonel Martin, of St. Luke's Church, Brooklyn, of $5,000.00. During the year from September, 1905, to September, 1906, the Commission has loaned $29,700.00 to 15 Parishes or Missions in 14 jurisdictions, and has given $8,625.00 to 36 Parishes or Missions in 31 jurisdictions, and during the same period $15,644.60 previously loaned to various Churches has been returned.

In a recent letter the Bishop of Duluth writes: "As I think over the work of the year and the blessings that have come to us I remember the three Mission Churches that are waiting for me to consecrate them. A year ago we had no Church at Warroad, at Williams, at Breckinridge, and I am sure we would not have a Church now in any of these towns if it had not been of the gifts from the A. C. B. Fund Commission." "It is a friend that has never failed me when I have asked it to help me build a Mission Church."

Respectfully submitted for the Committee,

H. E. PIERREPONT.

AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION.

BROOKLYN, May 14, 1907.

The Diocesan Committee presents herewith their report for the past year. Seven Parishes completed their apportionment and twenty-seven Parishes contributed. This Diocese has founded three memorial named funds and is shortly to be credited with the bequest of Col. Martin.

The permanent fund now amounts to $426,721, including The Winner 50,000, or $376,721 active capital.

1. This Fund is permanent, and will continue doing its work.
 2. The object is necessary to Church extension, and to the establishment of religious influences in sparsely settled portions of the land.
 3. The plan is no experiment. In England the Church Building Society has done splendid work. And our own Commission can show a record of twenty-six years of faithful and efficient service.
 4. The business affairs of the Commission are managed by experienced business men, elected by the Commission at large, and having the confidence of the entire community.
 5. REQUESTS ARE ASKED. FORM: I GIVE, DEVISE AND BEQUEATH TO THE "AMERICAN CHURCH BUILDING FUND COMMISSION," OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, FOR THE USES OF SAID COMMISSION, ETC.
 6. PLEASE SEND CONTRIBUTIONS TO GEORGE C. THOMAS, TREASURER, CHURCH MISSIONS HOUSE, 281 FOURTH AVENUE, NEW YORK, WHO WILL RETURN RECEIPT.

The President announced that Diocesan Missions was the order of the day and called on Canon Bryan to make the Report of the Missionary Committee.

Report

OF THE MISSIONARY COMMITTEE AND THE TRUSTEES OF THE DIOCESAN MISSIONS OF LONG ISLAND TO THE DIOCESAN CONVENTION, MAY 22D, 1907.

The Missionary Committee and the Trustees of the Diocesan Missions of Long Island, in presenting its annual report to this Convention, desires to place upon record its sense of loss and sorrow that has come to our Diocese in general and to this corporation in particular in the recent death of Mr. Wilhelmus Mynderse.

The Second Day.

To him we are indebted for the corporate and legal organization of the Missionary Committee, whereby it has been enabled to take title to Missionary property, to mortgage the same, and to so manage such properties as to place our Missionary operations in the several Arch-deaconries on a sound and business-like basis. We also remember with gratitude that Mr. Mynderse made the Diocesan House in Brooklyn possible by his foresight and generosity. The title and management of the Diocesan House is vested in this corporation, and we feel that the brass tablet, soon to be placed in the Diocesan House to Mr. Mynderse's memory, will serve to keep alive for the future generations that will use the House the memory and good works of a good man.

In accordance with the terms of section six of the Charter of the Corporation of Diocesan Missions, which provides that "no conveyance of any such real estate shall be made, unless authorized by the Convention of said Church in the Diocese," application is herewith asked of this Convention for permission to transfer and sell the following Mission properties:

The memorial Church of the Transfiguration, situated at the corner of Railroad and Ridgewood Avenues, Brooklyn, along with the two adjoining lots belonging to said Mission, and to transfer the same to the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island.

To sell the property known as St. Margaret's Chapel, Van Brunt Street, Brooklyn. Also to sell the Parish House of the Mission of the Transfiguration, on Fulton Street, between Railroad Avenue and Hemlock Street, Brooklyn, and with the proceeds to pay off an existing mortgage now upon the property, and to use the balance in erecting a new Parish House in said Mission.

Also to sell the property of the Mission of the Annunciation, Glendale, and with the proceeds to cancel an existing mortgage of $4,500, and to use the balance derived from the said sale in new Mission work in the Metropolitan District, Queens County.

The Missionary Committee offer the following preamble and resolution:

Whereas, Application has been made to this Convention by the Diocesan Missions of Long Island for permission to transfer the title of the Mission property of the Memorial Church of the Transfiguration, situated at the corner of Railroad Avenue and Ridgewood Avenue, Brooklyn, and its two adjoining lots, to the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island:

Resolved, That such permission be granted. Also the following:

Whereas, It seems desirable to sell the following Mission properties known as St. Margaret's Chapel, Van Brunt Street, Brooklyn, and the property of the Church of the Annunciation, corner of Myrtle, Cooper

THE "DIOCESAN MISSIONS OF LONG ISLAND."

First report in 1903 Journal, page 103. Second report in 1905 Journal, page 113. Third report in 1906 Journal, page 98. Since the last report three pieces of property have been transferred to the Corporation in trust, viz.

DEED No. 25.—December 14, 1903, from Melvin Brown and Susan E., his wife, for lots No. 22 and 22 A in Block No. 155, Brooklyn, Kings County, held in trust for St. Philip's Chapel, Brooklyn, and being an addition to their property.

DEED No. 26.—June 1, 1906, from Allen R. Mollineaux and wife for exchange of property in Hempstead, Nassau County, in order to straighten out the east line of property held in trust for St. John's Church, Hempstead.

DEED No. 27.—October 15, 1906, from Patrick T. Clark and Ellen, his wife, for lot 570 in Block 17, Brooklyn Manor, Queens County, being an additional lot held in trust for St. Matthew's Church, Brooklyn Manor.

NOTE.—The trust is not mentioned in the deed.

We have received a bill of sale for a building in Sagaponack which is to be moved and used as a Mission Chapel at Mecox, in Suffolk County.

The Treasurer wishes to thank the following persons for their generosity in contributing toward the support of the Diocesan Mission Building in Brooklyn for the last five years:

The Rt. Rev. Frederick Burgess, A. A. Low, Esq.

D.D., Bishop of Long Island.

John J. Pierrepont, Esq.

H. E. Pierrepont, Esq.

A. E. Orr, Esq.

Harrington Putnam, Esq.

James Sherlock Davis, Esq.

Frank Sherman Benson, Esq.

Daniel Chauncey, Esq.

Frederick C. Parker, Esq.

Robert S. Gould, Esq.

George Foster Peabody, Esq.

Fred. C. Cochen, Esq.

S. W. Boocock, Esq.

Alexander C. Humphreys, Esq.

John F. Halstead, Esq.

G. W. Hewlett, Esq.

William H. Wallace, Esq.

The actual expenses of running this house without any extraordinary repairs amounts to about $2,300 to $2,500.

The Second Day.

The Bishop has allotted from the "Maurice Fund" the sum of $1,500, and the Corporation will have to ask this Convention to allot them the sum of $1,000 per annum in order to pay the expenses of running what ought to be considered one of the most important buildings in the Diocese.

It has become a necessity, its usefulness is increasing and its convenience as an official building for all kind of work pertaining to Church work cannot be estimated.

You can gain some idea of its importance by the following report of Mr. Harrold which, by courtesy of the House Committee, I have the pleasure of reading.

Mr. Robert Harrold's report endorsed by the House Committee:

BROOKLYN, May 13, 1907.

During the past year the work of the House has been very active. We have had about 4,000 visitors and 139 meetings of committees and other bodies. At the meeting for the Men's Thank Offering April 30th, there were about 140 present. We have provided Clergymen for services in Churches and Chapels throughout the Diocese 114 times; I have also had calls from New York City. There has been one marriage in the House celebrated by one of our Clergy. I have provided for several banquets, or directed parties to the Clergy for their services. Several handsome gifts have been presented to the House, as follows: Two tapestries, by Mr. J. Ives Plumb; oak prayer desk, from Mr. P. R. Jennings; chair, marble candlestick and vases, from Mrs. Rosman; and chime of 5 bells from Archdeacon Russell, which are rung daily for the Noon-Day Prayer. In this connection it might be of interest to state that Noon-Day Prayers for Missions and the Diocese were inaugurated in the House December 15th last, and have been said 126 times to date, with an attendance of 636; the services have been taken as follows: by the Bishop, 6 times; Archdeacon Russell, 40; Rev. E. J. Burlingham, 33; Mr. Harrold, 34; the rest by visiting Clergy, who are always invited when present.

I am pleased to report that the house is in good condition and the service the past year satisfactory.

ROBERT HARROLD.

This Convention is indebted to the foresight and wisdom of the late Wilhelmus Mynderse in securing this property and for his kind-hearted and noble generosity in improving it, so that its usefulness permeates the whole Diocese.

Let us vote to support it and show our respect to one whom we all loved.

Respectfully submitted,

JAMES W. EATON,

Treasurer.

The Second Day.

It was moved by Mr. Eaton and seconded that an appropriation of $1,000 annually be made to the support of the Diocesan House. Carried.

The Rev. James Townsend Russell, Archdeacon, presented the Report of the Archdeaconry of Brooklyn.

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACON OF BROOKLYN.

April 30, 1907.

The Church Extension Fund has given to St. Philip's Colored Mission one thousand dollars toward the building of a Parish House. The building is now complete, and the money for final payment is assured. The total cost is four thousand dollars. It is interesting to know that this is the only Parish building in any colored work in Brooklyn.

Two hundred and sixty dollars has been given to the Church of the Nativity, and they have secured another two hundred dollars to pay off a note outstanding for four hundred and sixty dollars.

Three hundred dollars have been given and four hundred and some odd dollars have been promised to the Church of the Holy Cross for payment on an addition to the Parish building there.

The sale of the property of the Church of the Advent, Bath Beach, has been arranged for the sum of four thousand and four hundred dollars. This money is to be turned over to the estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island, to be expended by them under the direction of the Bishop of the Diocese for Church work somewhere in that vicinity.

The new Missions under the Archdeaconry have made favorable progress.

St. Gabriel's Mission, Nostrand Avenue and Hawthorne Street, has broken ground for a place of worship which, it is hoped, will be ready for occupancy June 1st. They are erecting now a basement, or crypt, eighty by forty feet, which will be used until they are able to complete the Church.

St. Lydia's Mission, East New York, Milford and Blake Streets, has made such progress that their present rooms are inadequate and plans are formulating now to secure land and erect thereon a place of worship.

The Second Day.

Holy Innocents' Mission, Kings Highway, Mr. Homer D. Wellman, Reader, needs a better place of worship. They have been using for the months past a real estate office of inadequate size. They have a Sunday School of about forty children. We hope to accept an offer made by Mr. Harmon, of Wood, Harmon & Company, to sell them land at a corner of Ocean Avenue near Kings Highway. This land is held for six thousand dollars, but will be sold to the Mission for four thousand dollars. No payment will be required until a place of worship has been erected thereon, when a mortgage will be drawn for the full amount—four thousand dollars—and interest on that amount will be required from that time on.

Redemption Mission, now meeting in the old Vanderveer Mansion, Bush Avenue and Avenue J, has appointed a committee to look for a building site. They are self-reliant and energetic, and are most anxious to establish themselves in their own property. Some move will be necessary shortly, as the city has taken the Vanderveer property for a police station and there is no other available place which can be rented.

Italian work, under the Rev. D. A. Rocca, has made encouraging progress at the Annunciation Mission, Lefferts Park. The present store-room has proven too small for the work. It is filled to overflowing at most every meeting. The Sunday School has an average attendance of forty-five children, which number would be greatly increased if teachers were available. The Rev. Mr. Rocca has, until recently, been obliged to conduct the teaching of the whole school. Another place is to be taken immediately in the heart of this Italian section, where not only the mission services will be continued, but settlement work, as much as possible, will be undertaken. A petition, signed by a large number of young men lately come from Italy, requesting teachers in English, has been sent to the archdeacon.

The Trustees of the estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island will petition the convention for authority to sell the property known as Margaret's Mission in Van Brunt Street. It is hoped that we may realize twenty-five hundred to three thousand dollars from this sale, which money should be used for Italian work in the very large settlement west of Fourth Avenue and south of Pacific Street.

The Rev. Mr. McGuffey called attention to certain typographical errors in the Ballot for Deputies to the General Convention and moved their correction. Carried.

Mr. P. R. Jennings presented the Treasurer's Report for the archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau.

The Archdeaconry of Suffolk illustrates the advanced method of conducting mission work through archdeaconries, which brings all the ministers and lay delegates together twice a year, and enables every one to know the needs of mission work in their own field.

The Archdeaconry of Suffolk is just beginning to expand and it will require wise foresight to keep up with the urgent needs of its mission field.

Respectfully submitted,

Report

OF THE ARCHDEACONRY OF SUFFOLK COUNTY.

Brentwood.—Rev. A. M. Edwards reports: Our Women's Auxiliary greatly improved the Church, sent out Christmas and Easter boxes, contributed to the Lace Makers' work and Bishop Van Buren's Hospital in Porto Rico. The children of the Sunday School, in addition to ten boxes, contributed to Father Hughson, O.H.C., to assist him in building St. Anselm's schools at Sewanee, Tenn.

Central Islip.—Rev. R. M. Edwards reports that "the work is holding down," though handicapped by being under the shadows of the State Prison, where other Church services are held weekly, keeping the work quiet and relieving the Church people of their responsibility toward the Arch of the Messiah.

Ronkonkoma.—Rev. R. M. Edwards reports that the people are so interested that it is a difficult matter for them to attend regularly, yet he is greatly encouraged by their faithfulness. He has taken up his residence here now in the rectory, and hopes to develop an added interest. Both church and rectory need repairs, and he cordially invites contributions to this work.

East Hauppauge.—St. Boniface's, Rev. R. M. Edwards. This work, commenced two years ago for a German people, has now a Church of its own, able to seat eighty people. The pews were given by St. James' Church, St. James, as was the prayer desk; the organ and lectern by Mary's Church, Dunton; altar hangings by Emmanuel Church, Great Neck. The cornerstone of white marble, which Archdeacon Holden laid September 22, was the gift of Hill Bros.

Riverhead.—Mr. Tyler, the donor of the land, has given the granite for the exterior of the Church. Our thanks are due to Mrs. Willard for the gift of several stoles, surplices and altar linen put at our disposal. We would express our thanks to the Women's Auxiliary of St. Luke's Church, Sag Harbor, for their contribution to this work, as well as to those who through the Archdeacon contributed largely to the building fund, so that without debt the work might be completed. Faithful and generous service has been rendered by the workingmen of this congregation in helping build the Church.

Mattituck.—Rev. W. A. Wasson reports that there has been no material addition to the village, though a growing interest is shown in the church.

Yaphank.—Rev. F. C. H. Wendel, in charge until June 1, 1907, reports that after one year's faithful service in connection with St. John's Church, after Moriches, he feels that it is an impossibility to meet the demands of these two places, situated ten miles apart. Yet, had it not been for the faithful adherence of the Yaphank congregation, he could not have continued the work as long as he did.

The Second Day.

Center Moriches.—Rev. F. C. H. Wendel reports that owing to removals and internal dissension this Mission has become greatly weakened.

Bellport.—Rev. I. McElroy reports that interest is growing in the Church's services, and a brighter outlook for the work promises, owing to the fact that the newcomers to the village are building near the Church, and so forming a community, with the Church as the center.

Brookhaven.—Rev. I. McElroy. This Mission has shown improvement in number in attendance, though largely from summer people. The work must be continued, though at times it would seem as if "all had moved away" that had an interest in it.

Port Jefferson.—Rev. J. Morris Coerr entered upon the charge of this work last summer, and his report shows the result of his labors. "All holy days have been duly observed. Church attendance and number of communions made have steadily increased. At 3 o'clock every Sunday afternoon I instruct the children in the Church catechism, and added more children to the Sunday School. Six have been baptized and eleven confirmed. With money derived from a legacy of $5,000 we have purchased a house and lot adjoining the Church. The house has been repaired and improved, and is now occupied by the priest in charge. The sanctuary of the Church has been deepened and heightened and a new sacristy built as a memorial gift from Mr. and Mrs. F. Raynor, of Brooklyn. At the same time a new choir room was built and the basement of the Church ceiled and cemented. New pews are ordered and will shortly be put in place. Handsome choir stalls have been ordered by Mr. I. M. Sweezy as a memorial to his friend, Mr. Fred. Raynor. The Girls' Guild have given a handsome credence table, corresponding with the choir stalls in design, a memorial to the Rev. A. K. Fenton, late priest in charge."

Amagansett (Summer Chapel).—This work has been cared for by clergy appointed by the Archdeacon during the months of July and August, and usually kept open one or two Sundays in September by the kindness of Dr. W. Gwynne. During July last, Rev. J. C. Hewlett officiated, while Rev. H. Lilienthal ministered during August. At the close of August a public meeting was held for those interested to consider the advisability of building a Church. About $1,000 was then and there pledged, and since that time $500 additional has been received. The committee appointed to proceed with the work consisting of Messrs. M. L. Warrin, M.D., G. Story, H. H. Garmony, Rev. H. Lilienthal and Archdeacon Holden. The committee met in October and considered plans for the Church, and decided to accept those at hand from Christ Mission

The Second Day.

Bellport, and to follow the same in so far as they admitted of the use of the windows given by St. George's Church, Astoria, etc. The contract has been made and a Church to cost $3,725 built; to be named St. Thomas' in loving memory of the years of service rendered by Dr. Thomas Richey, D.D., Professor in the General Theological Seminary, during his vacation, while residing at Easthampton. A lectern was presented by Mr. C. P. Jeffereys, of Easthampton, while an organ was promised contingent upon the gift of another to St. Luke's Church, Easthampton, by Rev. O. F. R. Treder. It is hoped to have the Church completed and in use this July, when Mr. S. C. Fish, about to be made a deacon, will, with Rev. O. F. R. Treder, care for this field, in connection with neighboring villages east and west of Easthampton. We need pews to complete the furnishings, and any contributions may be sent to Archdeacon Holden, St. James, L. I. Rev. H. Lilienthal will minister during August.

Bridgehampton.—St. Ann's Church. The Archdeacon received July last a letter sent the Bishop, asking that services might be held at Bridgehampton. The kindly offices of Miss Sherlock furnished the place of worship by making a temporary chapel in the Sandford homestead, and services were begun on the first Sunday in August, with the Rev. R. N. Merriman in charge for that month. Sixty people responded to the invitation and a definite interest was awakened; so much so that Miss H. J. Sherlock has given a lot 200 x 200, and a golf club building given by the owners of the club building, at a nominal cost has been transferred from its former site to the present land owned by the Mission, and named St. Ann's. The Rev. O. F. R. Treder has, at the suggestion of the Archdeacon, carried on services on alternate Sundays since September either at the residence of Miss Sherlock or Dr. Corinth. This work is to become associated with St. Luke's, Easthampton, Rev. O. F. R. Treder, who will have Mr. S. C. Fish (deacon) with him. We need contributions to furnish this building for use, and would ask the co-operation of any churches who can help us with suitable furnishings.

Caroline, Setauket.—Rev. D. Marvin, rector, reports: Although, to a certain extent, difficulties and discouragements have hindered the work in this ancient Parish during the past year, we are thankful to say that much good work has been accomplished, and the promise for the future seems bright. Our morning services have, as a rule, been well attended, but it is always difficult, except on special occasions, to make our evening services what they extended into the Parish Building. Donations of clothing, fruits and vegetables have been sent to the Church Charity Foundation, and a large barrel of clothing and Christmas presents to St. Cyprian's Mission for Colored People at Darien, Georgia. We have suffered a great loss in the sudden death of Miss Florence E. Elbertson, a competent and will be in the Church and Sunday School. She was beloved by all who knew her, and the inscription on the mural tablet to her memory, recently placed in our Parish Building, is a brief but accurate summary of her short life "Faithful unto death." During the year one adult and five children have been baptized; three confirmed; two marriages; four burials.

Parish—Church of the Atonement. Services are held in this Church from June 1 to October 1, the services being conducted by visiting clergymen. This work is cared for by the contributions of the congregation, and a committee of five, appointed by the Bishop.

Respectfully submitted,

WILLIAM HOLMES, Archdeacon of Suffolk County.

The President declared the polls closed for the first ballot for the election of members of the Standing Committee and of Deputies to the General Convention.

Canon Bryan presented the Report of the Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau.

ReportOF THE ARCHDEACON OF QUEENS AND NASSAU.

I am glad to learn that the Children's Advent offering this year amounts to $925, a little more than we asked for. This is most encouraging, as last year, instead of receiving nine hundred, we fell behind the amount asked for. I think in two years' time we can confidently reach the thousand dollar mark and depend upon the children, who now number nearly seven thousand in our two counties, for that amount in behalf of Missionary Work.

It is proper at this time that we should make a survey of the entire Missionary field within the Archdeaconry. We will speak first of all of The Cathedral Missions.

I. ST. THOMAS' CHURCH.

St. Thomas', Farmingdale, is now happy in its attractive and commodious new Church. This Church was consecrated by the Bishop of the Diocese in December last in the presence of a number of the clergy and a large congregation, the Rev. Mr. McMullin preaching the sermon. For thirty years past the faithful flock in Farmingdale has been worshipping in the old horse sheds, which had been constructed into a Chapel, after their new Church had been suddenly burned down. During the past six years they had faithfully gathered together, partly through the efforts of Miss Jennie Allen, a sum of money amounting to nearly $800. With the help of the Missions Committee of the Cathedral, a loan of $2,000 was made, and thereby it was possible to erect this new Church. As the debt was not placed upon the property it was possible to have it consecrated. The Rectory, situated just across the street from the new Church, has been purchased, and also the corner lot adjoining the Rectory. The title to this property is vested in the Diocesan Missions of Long Island. The house was put in thorough order with all the modern improvements, so as to be quite a comfortable home for the Priest-in-charge and his family. The Rev. Mr. Merrick has done faithful work here and at Hicksville, as is evidenced by the increasing attendance at Divine Worship at both places.

The Second Day.

Another of the Cathedral Missions that has given evidence of increased spiritual and financial life is the Church of the Transfiguration, Freeport. For four years the present Priest-in-charge, the Rev. Pelham St. George Bissell, has faithfully ministered to this Mission, and has also ministered as Priest-in-charge at the Mission of St. Paul, Roosevelt. Six hundred dollars has been paid to reduce the mortgage of $6,000 resting against the church property at Freeport. New pews and choir stalls have been placed in the chancel and in the church at a cost of $520.69, all of which has been paid by the congregation. The records show an increasing attendance at the public services and an increase in the number of communicants, and also an increase in the offering of the congregation. With its church and its rectory, and the adjoining property situated at the corner of Long Beach and Ocean Avenues, we have one of the finest pieces of property in that section of Nassau County. Priest and people are happy in the peace of God's blessing now resting upon them and the hopeful outlook for the future.

II. MISSIONS PAROCHIAL.

On Palm Sunday afternoon in company with the Rev. Thomas W. Martin, Rector of Trinity, Hewletts, and the Rev. Henry Meiser, Rector of St. John's, Far Rockaway, a visit was made to the recently established Mission at Cedarhurst. Some two years ago, the rectors of the two above-mentioned Parishes agreed to establish a Mission at this point, and this move on their part has proved to be a wise one, because of the large attendance at the Sunday School and the services on Sunday afternoons. The rectors of both Parishes divide the spiritual and financial responsibility between them in the care of the Mission. Ever since its establishment the Church and the Sunday School have contributed to the Children's Advent offering of our Archdeaconry, and to the General Board of Missions, through the Lenten offering. We have here a beautiful example of unselfishness and an non-parochial spirit in advancing the Master's Kingdom in this part of the Archdeaconry.

On Sunday after Easter the Archdeacon made a visit, by invitation of our faithful fellow member, Mr. Wm. J. Sweney, to the Colden Avenue Club of St. George's Church, Flushing. This is the fourth year that your Archdeacon has been asked to make this visit, and each time finds evidence of that large Missionary spirit which has ever abounded in the hearts and lives of the people of this venerable Church, whose guests were to-day. This year, as last year, the people beautifully decorated the Mission room with flags and flowers. For several years our fellow member, Mr. Sweeney, with the help of the other members of St. George's Brotherhood, has given untiring efforts to make this work effective in the moral and religious uplift of the people in that part of Flushing. Evidence abounds on every hand of its far-reaching effectiveness, as seen in the desire of those who come under influence to better their condition, as their mental, moral and spiritual welfare. Strange as it may seem the influence of this work upon the people is such that when they have gotten its spirit they move to other places to enable them to carry on the good work which the Mission has begun within them, and thus this Club which it may have no future as to the establishment of a permanent Church, doing a beautiful work of rescue which goes out into other Parishes. St. Stephen's Mission, Port Washington of the Parish of Christ Church, Manhasset, has become an independent and self-supporting Parish, of which the Rev. W. E. Nies has become the Rector, and entered upon the duties of his Rectorship on November 6th last.

III. MISSIONS OF THE ARCHDEACONRY.

We come now to the Missions of the Archdeaconry. I am prepared to report that the beautiful new church of St. Andrew's by the Sea, Belle Harbor, is completed. It is proposed to have the service of dedication by the Bishop on the third Sunday in June next. The wisdom of planting a church here has already been evidenced by the recent development of real estate enterprise at this point. On all sides of the church have been erected beautiful summer homes and many others are in course of erection. Situated as it is between Belle Harbor and Rockaway Park, it will be able to minister to the people of both communities. I believe it will not be many years before this church will be used all the year round, because already a permanent population makes Rockaway Park its home. To furnish this church with the necessary pews and to pay a small balance for the erection of the church it will be necessary for the Archdeacon to borrow some $1,000 to $1,200. This will be a floating debt, which I am assured the congregation will in the very near future liquidate.

Three miles down the coast, at Arverne, stands the Congregational Church, which has been offered to us. Our learned counsel, Mr. Whitford, has had the matter under careful and serious consideration, so that title to this property might be legally taken. The way has been found whereby a proper and legal transfer of the property may be made to Diocesan Missions. This transfer will be done as soon as possible. It is proposed to conduct the work here in connection with the work at Belle Harbor and

The Second Day.

These two Missions will be placed in care of a Priest or a student of the Seminary, as Lay Reader, under the supervision of the Archdeacon. To adapt the church at Arverne to the services of the Church, some $500 will be needed. How this will be provided remains to be seen. First, I think I will have to look to the Archdeacons to aid it by an appropriation of some $200 until such time as the congregation, which will have been gathered this Summer, shall be able to assume some part of this financial obligation, and to meet this emergency I would recommend that the Archdeaconry authorize the Executive Committee to make such an appropriation for the tie work here during the coming Summer as may seem in their judgment to be right and proper. We need have no fear of the wisdom of the step thus taken, because there is a population of four hundred Gentiles to whom the Church may minister. Who can tell but what some Hebrew, through this Mission, may be led to the Messiah, The Christ?

We must now turn our attention to the consideration of the Church Work at Long Beach. It is already known to you. I think, that the title of the Long Beach property has passed to a real estate company known as the Long Beach Estates. Along with this property has also gone the title to the property known as Grace Chapel. For many years past this Archdeaconry has cared for the Summer services here and maintained them during the season. In connection with the work at Lynbrook, the Archdeacon and the Rev. P. C. Creveling have interviewed Senator Reynolds, the President of the Long Beach Estates, and requested that the Church property be turned over to the Archdeaconry, as had been planned for some years past. Assurance has been given us that the present church will be given us outright. Land situated on a corner, near to the new hotel to be erected, in a desirable section of the coming Atlantic City of Long Island, 100 x 100 feet, will be sold to us for $3,500, one-half of what it would ordinarily cost. We have also the promise from the President of the Long Beach Estates, of a liberal contribution toward the purchase of such land, and to which the present church building can be moved. For the present the church will remain in our care as it is, and this coming Summer will be ministered to by the Rev. Mr. Creveling in connection with Christ Church, Lynbrook. It also gives me pleasure to report that there has come an offer from the new Real Estate Development between Garden City and Floral Park, known as the Garden Cities Estates, to donate land, 150 x 150, for Church purposes. At the earnest request of the Bishop of the Diocese, your Archdeacon recently interviewed Mr. Gage E. Tarbell, the President of the Garden City Estates, as to when this might be done. Assurance has been given us by Mr. Tarbell that such donation of land will be made as soon as the Directors of the Company can act thereon. The Bishop and the Archdeacon have seriously and earnestly considered the advisability of accepting such an offer, because of the nearness of and the accessibility of the Cathedral in Garden City. It has been deemed wise by us to do so, because the opportunity is ours now to establish the Church in what, in a very few years, will be a large and growing population of souls. If we do not meet the religious wants of this population by the establishment of a Parish church it will fall to others to do so by the establishment of a denominational Church of some kind. The Cathedral is a Diocesan Church. It can be attended by any and all, but a Parish Church with its guilds and its organizations, and the personal attention of a Priest and Pastor with the people, is what this population will need and demand. If we fail to respond to it we should be unfaithful to our trust and our opportunity will pass. We feel this is our opportunity and we will seize it.

The new Mission of Grace Church, North Corona, has justified the action of this Archdeaconry in its establishment. The Rev. Mr. Mix continues to care for it and the services are well and largely attended, and Sunday School under the care of Mr. Andrews as Superintendent, has filled the long-felt want in this section of Queens County. We have felt the want and the need and the people have responded to it and we are now assured that the yearly appropriation of $260 made toward it will be well spent. The Mission was organized by the Archdeacon in December, 1901. It has an Executive Committee of five laymen who care for its financial and material needs, and a Guild of women do their part in the financial responsibility of the aggressive work of the Mission. A Parish Register has been opened, and there have been five celebrations of the Holy Communion since the Mission was established. Committees have been made for the selection and purchase of a suitable location on which to establish the future Church, which may be built. None too soon was the Mission undertaken, and if it had only been undertaken sooner perhaps there might have been a neat and attractive Church there now.

We will not look back into the past with its lost opportunities, but we will turn to the future of the Church in North Corona with confidence and hopefulness.

Plans and specifications for the new Church at Steinway have been adopted and approved by the Bishop and the Executive Committee of this Archdeaconry. These plans and specifications are here for the inspection of the members of the Archdeaconry. The sketch shows a neat and churchly building, designed by Henry M. Congdon & Son, architects. To build this Church will take $14,200, and of this only $10,000 is in sight. To make up the sum necessary would require a mortgage of $8,200, which means an annual interest of $410. It has seemed best to all concerned that we should not saddle such a large mortgage upon the Mission, but rather to build a foundation or basement of the future church, and put upon it a temporary roof at a cost of $5,000, which will enable us to build thus far without a mortgage and the people be left free to collect the money to build the remaining part of the church in the not distant future. I trust that this will meet with the approval of the Archdeaconry. The Rev. Wm. A. Webb has faithfully ministered here since the resignation of the Rev. Mr. Mott, which occurred in October last.

Last February your Archdeacon was invited by the Rev. Mr. Creveling, of Lynbrook, to go with him to a meeting of the residents of Rosedale, a new community between Springfield and Valley Stream. Much to our surprise on a stormy night fifty-four people met at the Real Estate Office of Mr. McCormick. Previous to this meeting, some few weeks before, a petition signed by the people of Rosedale had been sent to the Rev. Mr. Creveling, asking him to come and hold services for them. He has done so now for the past three months in private houses with encouraging results. The Archdeacon on the occasion of his visit held a business meeting when Committees were appointed to select a proper site for a future church, and also to secure contributions to the erection of such building. That evening more than $300 was subscribed by those present. With the cordial approval of the Rector, Wardens and Vestrymen of Grace Church, Jamaica, within whose boundaries Rosedale is situated, this Mission has been established and the Rev. Mr. Creveling proposes to minister to them on Sunday afternoons, and I hereby ask the Archdeaconry's approval of the Executive Committee's appropriation of $180 per annum for the support of this work. We are the first on the field and we must not let our opportunity pass, hence the urgency of this action.

The work in our Mission of St. Michael's and All Angels, Seaford, is in a most excellent condition under the loving ministration of its Priest-in-charge, the Rev. J. H. W. Fortescue-Cole. Since July 1st, patiently and conscientiously has he labored among these people. In times of sickness and sorrow, and in the face of biting poverty, he has stood at his post and shared with his people the small stipend of $520, which he receives. The experience of the past ten months shows it is impossible for him and his family to live on this small stipend and meet the other demands made upon him. I earnestly ask that the Archdeaconry appropriate out of its Sustentation Fund $100 to be added to this stipend, and at the same time ask the Parish Missionary Committees to donate another $100 so that the stipend will be at least a livable one. I assure the Archdeaconry, in view of the donation to our Mission at this point, no better or more advisable appropriation could be made. It will strengthen and cheer the Missionary's heart, because it gives him evidence of our confidence and loyalty to him in this most difficult work.

In conclusion your Archdeacon is profoundly impressed with the many and great opportunities that are opening out for us.

The Second Day.

As yet nothing has been done in the great and popular section known as the Maspeth District and Ridgewood Heights, and nothing can be done until a larger income is provided for the Archdeaconry to carry on this most important work. It will be foolish and useless for us, with a few hundred dollars a year to undertake anything in that particular field. A sure must be found and an income of at least $300 must be provided for the purpose, so as to give some strength to the work and the population reached through it, and therefore the problem confronts us now what is best to be done. I sometimes think we must change our methods of work to provide such an income. At present the income depends upon the wants of the Bishop and the Archdeacon to our various Parishes and Missions, it shows an offering for that work. Sometimes that offering is large and sometimes it is small. What is needed is a permanent and sufficient income, and the question is how to provide it. I would suggest that the time has now come for us to adopt the apportionment system, whereby each Church and each Mission should give its due proportion, and to send such apportionment at regular stated times to our Treasurer.

Finally, I would commend the increasing efficiency of our Parish Missionary Committees in their work of rescue in the jails, in the poor houses and hospitals of our two counties. The Prison Committee especially has been most efficient in its work of providing services at the Minerva jail on two Sundays in each month. The Rev. Mr. Cooke, of St. George's Hempstead, has ministered here on the first Sunday of each month, and on the third Sunday the Rev. Mr. Hutton and his choir, of The Church of the Nativity, Mineola. On Sunday last your Archdeacon took the services, and was profoundly impressed with the far-reaching good of such services. Miss Johnson, the Bible reader has carried sunlight and the joy of the Saviour's love into these public institutions of our counties. The Rev. Dr. Gill's work has given evidence of practical Christianity, of which the Saviour spoke when he said "I was in prison and ye came unto Me." So too have the Parish Missionary Committees aided in the Ravenwood work, in the Steinway work, and in our Colored work, and in our jail work. For four years Mrs. Beverly R. Betts was its faithful and conscientious President, and I record here the grateful appreciation of the loving services of its five Presidents, its Secretary, Mrs. John Graham, and its indefatigable, painstaking Treasurer, Mrs. Franklin B. Lord.

May God Bless these ever faithful women and their work in the upbuilding of the Kingdom of God in our midst and pour down His Blessing upon our Missionaries and our people!

All of which is respectfully submitted. HENRY B. BRYAN,

Archdeacon of Queens and Nassau.

The Second Day.

It being the hour of noon, the President requested the Convention to join in prayer for Missions.

The Rev. Dr. Wrigley presented the following report of the Committee on Canons:

"The Committee would report, that in its judgment, the object of the proposed amendment to Canon 27, offered at the last Convention, would be attained by changing the canon as it now stands so as to read: 'These Canons may be altered, or new canons may be added, at the Annual Convention, after one day's notice, by the vote of two-thirds of the members present'."

Resolved, that this change be adopted. Carried.

The Committee on Canons, to whom was referred the proposed amendment of Canon 22, Article 2, Section 3, reported as follows:

That it conflicts with the State laws governing the election of Vestries and that it would be useless to pass it.

They offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Amendments shall not be adopted.

Carried.

Col. Cogswell, for the Committee on Canons, moved that the adoption of the Constitution as approved last year be brought before the Convention. Carried.

Col. Cogswell then moved that the Constitution be approved by a vote by orders. Carried.

The vote by orders was then taken, and unanimous approval given to the Constitution.

The Rev. Dr. Spencer S. Roche then called up the question of the permissive use of the Revised Version which had been made the order of the Second Day at noon.

A vote by orders was then called for on the question of memorializing the General Convention to permit the use of the Revised Version in the Reading of the Lessons at Daily Morning and Evening Prayer.

The President declared the resolution lost.

The Secretary then announced the result of the first ballot for members of the Standing Committee.

The President declared that the Rev. Dr. Swentzel and Mr. Alex. E. Orr had been elected for the term of four year, and that the Hon. Townsend Scudder had been elected for the term of one year, and ordered another ballot for the election of members for two years.

The Rev. Dr. Spencer S. Roche, Mr. A. A. Low and Col. Cogswell withdrew from the ballot of members of the Standing Committee.

The Rev. Mr. Wright presented the Report of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen.

Report

OF THE TRUSTEES OF THE FUND FOR THE FAMILIES OF DECEASED CLERGYMEN OF THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

The Trustees of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen of the Diocese of Long Island beg leave to report that they prepared and presented to the Legislature of the State of New York, at its recent session, an act of incorporation which received the affirmative action of that Body, and became a law on the 18th day of February ultimo, by the approval of the Governor. This act is known on the Statute Books as Chapter 16 of the Laws of 1907, and it gives the Trustees full power, subject to the supervision of the Convention, with liberty to hold real and personal estate, with income not exceeding $20,000.00 per annum.

Under the provisions of the statute the Trustees have organized and held two sessions and voted several appropriations to families of Deceased Clergymen of this Diocese.

The Trustees further report that they have received contributions from 69 Parishes, which (together with a number of gifts from individuals) and accruing interest, amount to $1,678.95, of which $149.90 is, by the terms of the gift, set aside as a permanent invested fund, leaving the sum of $1,529.05 applicable to immediate needs, throughout the year.

Besides this they have received $246.66, being the whole property of the Widows' and Orphans' Fund, and $212.32, being the whole property of the Clergymen's Family Fund. Both these funds have thus wound up their affairs and passed out of existence, so that no more money will be received from them.

The Trustees earnestly hope that a larger sum will be contributed by the Churches to this Fund during the ensuing year. The need of the Fund may be seen by comparing the amount received THIS year for the Families of Deceased Clergymen with the amount received for the Aged and Infirm Clergy Fund in 1870 when THAT fund was first established. The amount contributed then was $1,734.85; the amount which we received was $1,678.95. The comparison is striking when we consider the fact at this fund was substituted for that one as a canonical requirement. Our ability to increase the collection is shown by the fact that our contributions last year were less than in 1870, although our congregations are nearly twice as numerous and our Diocesan income more than four times as great. It is desirable not only that Parishes which contributed this fund last year should increase their gifts, but also that the Parishes which failed to contribute last year should hereafter make annual collections. This is important because the Canon makes such contributions obligatory upon all, and because both justice and kindness urge upon us the claims of the needy and afflicted families of the clergy of our Diocese, and because furthermore every dollar of surplus which we can now accumulate is an investment for the future, the accruing interest of which each year will be added to the Fund, and so hasten the day when it will be no longer necessary to make annual contributions from all the parishes compulsory. That day has already come, in regard to the Fund for the Aged and Infirm Clergymen. It will come in regard to the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen if our contributions to this Fund are as generous as they used to be to that one. A contribution was received from St. Andrew's Church, Brooklyn, after this report was written.

Appended to this report is a copy of the act of incorporation, and the report of the Treasurer of the Fund, all of which is respectfully submitted.

Report

Frederick Sheldon Parker, Treasurer, in account with the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island.

CHAPTER XVI., LAWS 1907.

AN ACT

TO INCORPORATE THE TRUSTEES OF THE FUND FOR THE FAMILIES OF DECEASED CLERGYMEN OF THE PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCH IN THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND.

Became a law February 18, 1907, with the approval of the Governor.
Passed, three-fifths being present.

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

The Second Day.

SECTION 1. Reverend James Clarence Jones, Reverend Frederick A. Wright, Frederick Sheldon Parker, Charles L. Lee, and William L. Sexton, all of the Borough of Brooklyn, City of New York, County of Kings, and their successors, duly elected and appointed in the manner hereinafter prescribed, and the bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church for the Diocese of Long Island, are hereby constituted a body corporate, by the name of "The Trustees of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Long Island," and by that name shall have perpetual succession, and be capable of taking and holding, by gift, grant or devise, subject to all the provisions of law relating to devises and bequests by last will and testament, real or personal estate, or both, for the purposes of said corporation, provided the yearly value or income of the same shall not exceed the sum of twenty thousand dollars. The Bishop for the time being of the said Church in said Diocese, shall, by virtue thereof, be one of the Trustees of the said Fund, in addition to the five Trustees as herein provided.

SECTION 2. The object of the said corporation shall be the management and care of the fund now provided, together with that which may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation accruing from the investment thereof, for the relief of the families of deceased clergymen of the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Diocese of Long Island, and the appropriation of the same to that purpose, according to such rules and principles as said Trustees shall from time to time adopt, subject to the revision and approval of the annual Convention of said Church in said Diocese.

SECTION 3. The said Trustees shall be chosen annually by the Convention of the said Church in said Diocese, two from the clerical and three from the lay members of said Church in said Diocese. They shall hold their offices during the pleasure of the said Convention; and all vacancies occurring in the Board of Trustees shall from time to time be filled by said Convention, or in such manner as the said Convention shall direct. The said Trustee shall appoint from their number a Chairman, Secretary, and a Treasurer. No act of said Trustees shall be valid unless authorized by a resolution and adopted at a regular meeting of said Trustees by a majority of the same, and recorded by the Secretary in a book to be kept as a record of their proceedings, which book shall be open to the inspection of said Convention.

SECTION 4. A statement of the proceedings of the said Trustees hereby incorporated, exhibiting the condition of the fund intrusted to their charge, together with their receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to each annual convention of the said diocese.

The Second Day.

SECTION 5. The said Trustees shall be bound to conform to any instructions that may from time to time be given them by the said convention, touching the management of the said fund and the disposition of the same; provided, that such instructions shall be in writing, and shall be entered on the journal of the convention.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect immediately.

The following Churches and Congregations have failed to comply with the requirements of Canon II, Section 2:

The Rev. Mr. Waller presented the Report of the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions.

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE CHURCH CHARITY FOUNDATION AND OTHER CHARITABLE INSTITUTIONS.

Of the five institutions reporting last year, one has disappeared from the list, viz., the Trained Christian Helpers.

The Church Charity Foundation represents a number of departments of benevolent work of which this diocese may well be proud. And yet there is a failure on the part of many Churches in the Diocese to appreciate, and to discharge the obligation of loyal support that rests upon every congregation. The amount of contributions received from this source has been steadily falling off for the past three years. In 1904, ninety-five congregations gave $12,058.91; in 1905, ninety congregations gave $9,176.22; in 1906, seventy-four congregations gave $6,258.08. That, the amount received last year from the congregations of the Diocese was only a little more than half as much as was given three years ago. But in spite of this neglect, the institutions on the Foundation have prospered. The income for the past year exceeded the expenses by $326.69. Someone may be inclined to ask, why then should the churches make any special effort. It is because the institutions need many things beyond the mere running expenses. Many repairs to the various buildings are needed—repairs which cannot with wisdom be longer neglected. In addition to this pressing need, a Nurses' Home must be provided in the near future. The present quarters for the nurses are in every way inadequate.

The Second Day.

Such a building as must soon be provided for this purpose will cost between $30,000 and $40,000.

The endowment fund has been increased by some recent legacies and now amounts to about $400,500.00.

The House of St. Giles the Cripple shows every evidence of good management, as well as of continued efficiency in its chosen field of work. It closes the year with a balance in its treasury, after paying all expenses of maintenance as well as $1,900.00 on its debt account. The House has received bequests in the past year amounting to $15,000.00. This amount has been invested in 5 per cent. mortgage bonds. The assets of the institution now amount to $39,568.00. Within the past year, 113 patients have been received at the House of St. Giles. Of these, 3 died and 30 were discharged as cured or improved. The present number of inmates is 77.

The Sheltering Arms Nursery continues its quiet, unostentatious and beneficent life. The past year was marked by no extraordinary event, but the physicians have found the year a trying one because of the unusual number of very delicate babies committed to the care of the Nursery, and because of an epidemic of measles which involved twenty cases. One hundred and thirty-nine children have been cared for. Of this number 19 died and 67 were discharged, leaving 53 still under the care of the institution. A member of the Board of Trustees has offered to erect a hospital, or infirmary, for the Nursery. This very acceptable gift will answer a need that has long been felt. It will be a thoroughly fireproof building, and will be connected with the Nursery by bridges. The infirmary will be built within the next few months.

St. Phebe's Mission is a Church settlement. Its activities embrace visits of mercy to hospitals, almshouses and jails. It offers a shelter for convalescents, discharged from hospitals and still unable to take up work. It conducts a kindergarten, a kitchengarten, industrial classes for boys and girls, clubs for girls, meetings for mothers, a library, a branch of the Penny Provident Fund, and a summer vacation home. Within the past year 19,284 people have come to the house to the various classes, 1,486 calls were made on the sick and poor, and 75 convalescent patients were entertained. The work of St. Phebe's Mission has never been in a more hopeful condition than it is at this time.

The Secretary announced the result of the first ballot for Deputies to the General Convention:

The President declared that the following laymen had been elected: Mr. Henry E. Pierrepont and Mr. P. R. Jennings, and ordered another election, two Lay Delegates and four Clerical Delegates still to be chosen.

The Second Day.

The Convention adjourned for lunch, to reassemble at half-st two.

At a quarter to three the Convention was again called to order, the Right Reverend the Bishop in the Chair.

The Rev. John Henri Sattig presented the Report on the General Theological Seminary.

Report

OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

V. JOHN HENRI SATTIG.

MR. FRANK TAPSCOTT.

V. CHARLES A. JESSUP.

MR. ISAAC SIMONSON.

MR. J. F. HALSTED.

THE COMMITTEE ON THE GENERAL THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY RESPECTFULLY REPORTS:

That this institution continues to be the leading Seminary of the Church in the United States, and that it is frequently called the largest institution devoted solely to theological education in the Anglican communion.

As in the days of the late Dean Hoffman, the Seminary still refrains from favoring any particular style of churchmanship. At the annual dinner of the Alumni Association the present Dean, the Very Rev. Wilford L. Robbins, D.D., LL.D., reiterated his determination to continue this policy.

He, too, desires to make the Seminary the general Seminary of the Church and not an institution controlled by or favoring the Broad Church party, the High Church party, or any other group within the Church.

The catalogue shows thirty-six names in the graduating class. This is the largest class since 1900, and is the largest class to finish the course since Dean Robbins entered upon his duties.

The catalogue for 1906-1907 shows that 126 students were enrolled at the time of publication. These were classified as follows:

Fellows	5
General students	8
Senior class (including 3 special students) ..	39
Middle class (including 2 special students) ..	41
Junior class	26

The number of Dioceses represented is thirty-eight (38); of this number seven (7) were from the Diocese of Long Island, two of whom were in the graduating class.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN HENRI SATTIG,
C. A. JESSUP,
FRANK L. TAPSCOTT,
ISAAC SIMONSON,
JOHN F. HALSTED,

Committee.

The President announced that balloting for members of the Standing Committee and of Deputies to the General Convention should proceed.

The Rev. William S. Chase presented the Report of the Social Service Committee.

ReportOF THE SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE,

MAY, 1906, TO MAY, 1907.

Since the last report the Committee has held three meetings. A Constitution and a set of By-Laws have been adopted for seven sub-sections, as follows:

1. Sunday Observance.
2. Moral Recovery, dealing with probation and other rescue work.
3. The Family, dealing with marriage and divorce, and the housing of the poor.
4. The State, dealing with legislation, law enforcement and political reform.
5. Industrial, dealing with labor and capital, commercial ethics, and employment agencies.
6. Vice, dealing with intemperance, social purity, and gambling, and substitutes for the saloon and social amusements for the people.
7. Interdenominational Relations, dealing with the problem of Christian unity, and co-operation in works of charity.

This arrangement seems to cover the field of inquiry allotted to the Committee by order of this Convention.

The matters referred to your Committee by action of the last Diocesan Convention have been allotted to appropriate sub-sections, as follows:

The Sunday question to the Section on Sunday Observance.

Probation work to the Section on Moral Recovery.

Marriage and Divorce to the Section on Family.

The Second Day.

Fraternal Representation in the Brooklyn Central Labor Union to the Industrial Section.

Law Enforcement to the Section on the State.

SUNDAY OBSERVANCE.

Enquiries have been started among the managers of the various street roads of Greater New York as to whether any provision is being made securing to their employees twenty-four hours of consecutive rest in a week. No definite results have so far been obtained, but the end is not yet.

PROBATION WORK.

The work of the Court Probation Officer has proved to be very valuable, but the Committee has not been able to contribute towards his salary since March. It is hoped, however, that the very great need and advances of such work have been made so evident that the Board of Estimate will provide a salary for his permanent maintenance.

LABOR AND THE CHURCH.

Our fraternal delegate to the Brooklyn Central Labor Union has kept in touch with the labor problem. His presence in that conference, representing seventy thousand workers, is a visible proof of the interest of the Church in the cause of organized labor. His presence there shows that this Diocese believes, in the words of the Commission of the General Convention, that "the organization of labor is essential to the well-being of the working people." Our delegate reports to the Committee that he finds the members of the Union more kindly disposed to the Church than they have been for years. It is the opinion of the workingman that the Church of the Carpenter of Nazareth is closer to the carpenters and workers of to-day than it has been for a generation. It is the opinion of our delegate that if every clergyman will form a similar relationship with some local union, and will express in his public speaking an interest in labor and an intelligent sympathy with its problems and efforts, the friction between the Church and the toilers will cease to exist. In the interest of public education along this line, Labor and the Church held a joint meeting on December 16, 1906. Bishop Potter spoke for the Church; Prof. Fagani for the Presbyterian Social Service Committee, and the President of the Massachusetts Federation of Labor.

The meeting was held in the Central Branch of the Brooklyn M. C. A. under the auspices of the Presbyterian Social Service Committee, the Central Labor Union, the Y. M. C. A., and our own Committee.

The Second Day.

SEYMOUR VAUGHN.

Special interest attaches to the work which has been done by the sub-committee on the State towards the enforcement of the laws forbidding Sunday theaters. At a meeting on December 5, the following was adopted:

Resolved That the Social Service Committee of the Diocese of Long Island requests His Honor the Mayor to cause immediate steps to be taken by the proper authorities for the suppression of such theatrical and other performances on Sunday as are violations of the law, and trust that the Actors' Church Alliance will continue its efforts in this direction, and hope that the clergy of the Diocese will co-operate with the Ministerial Committee of Greater New York for the suppression of illegal Sunday theatrical performances.

The New York Diocesan Convention had already passed a similar resolution and so had the Brooklyn Central Labor Union. Later the Actors' Society of America and the Theatrical Employees' Union co-operated in the movement. Up to the present time eleven out of the sixteen Sunday theaters which were open in Brooklyn last November have ceased their illegal Sunday performances and promised not to open next fall.

All of the theaters on Staten Island as well as at least one of the theaters in Manhattan put an end to their Sunday performances early last fall as a result of the increasing protest of public opinion and because of a falling off in their attendance on Sundays. The increasing demand for law enforcement has enabled the police and the courts to give the will of the people more effective service, and the theatrical managers have become both ashamed and afraid to break what now is generally known to be the law forbidding Sunday entertainments. One distinct gain has been the securing of a decision by a Supreme Court Judge that the moving-picture exhibitions which, charging but a very small admission fee, have been a very widespread demoralizing and immoral influence among the young on Sundays, are contrary to the law.

This successful work could not have been accomplished had there not been a strong support and co-operation, not only from the members of this Committee, but also from the clergy and laity generally, irrespective of denominations. A feeling has been created that the will of the Christian element of the community can find effective expression.

UNION SOCIAL SERVICE COMMITTEE.

During the year relations have been established with similar committees of other religious bodies. In July a meeting was held with representatives from the Presbyterian and Methodist Social Service Committees, and a Union Social Service Committee was organized, which, it is hoped, will eventually include representatives from every religious body in the city.

The Second Day.

The proposed purchase of the Rockaway Beach by the city of New York as a Park Seaside Resort for the people was discussed, and, although this Committee refrained from expressing a formal opinion on the scheme, the members, because of the discussion, feel ready for action should it be required.

CHRISTIANITY AND THE STATE.

One of the members of the Committee was of effective service in replying to the request of a Hebrew Association made to the Board of Education of Greater New York, that every Christian song, picture or allusion to the birth, life and teachings of Christ be taken from the public schools, and in convincing the Board that while the State of New York has no established Church, its Constitution and statutes, as well as the common law, do recognize Christianity to be the established religion, as is indicated by the laws requiring the observance of Sunday and by the provision that selections from both the Old and New Testament be read in the public schools.

The Committee desires to commend to the favorable consideration of the members of the Convention, the reform in the primary meeting laws, which have been for some time in operation in the States of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Massachusetts, providing for what is known as Direct Nomination of party candidates for political office. It provides for a primary election, lasting all day, some weeks before the regular election day, at which, during the whole day, members of the various parties have a chance to vote upon the list of candidates, which have been nominated by the petition of a small number of voters. It reduces the power of party managers by requiring the nomination of such party candidates as will secure the endorsement of a larger number of the members of each party than usually attend the party primary meetings. As the political managers will be slow to approve of this proposed reduction of their power, it will be necessary to arouse a strong public demand for this most fundamental reform before it will be adopted by the legislature of the State of New York. It is recommended as the most hopeful method of restoring political power to the people.

For reasons given in last year's report, the Committee request the passage of a resolution upon the subject of gambling.

On the whole, the year's work has been encouraging. The Committee is slowly but surely finding itself, and it is believed that another year will show still better results. It is not an easy matter for such a Committee as this, with no precedents before it, to discern just what its first duties are or just what its line of action should be in taking up entirely new enterprises. So far, we have confined ourselves mainly to discovering what the relations are between this Diocese as a whole and the community of which it forms a part. In seeking information from the great organizations of labor, of capital, of recreation, etc., such as the Central Labor Union, the railroads, the American Automobile Association; the Actors' Alliance, etc., we have seldom met with rebuffs. There is occasional surprise that the Diocese is so practically interested, but the feeling is almost always friendly.

We are convinced that such action as we are instructed by the Convention to take for the betterment of social conditions has a large influence in moulding public sentiment and that it preaches sermons to which the public mind will listen more quickly and with greater respect than to the utterances of individual pulpits. Public offenders and some officials who are drawing salaries to protect and advance the public welfare, but who are in reality in league with the enemies of the common weal, are not alarmed when individual preachers raise the cry of protest, but when they find a great Diocese like ours is denouncing the wrong and has authorized a committee to co-operate with others to correct the evil, they are awed into a respect for the Church and perhaps led to recognize the evil of acts which they may have honestly thought were indorsed by public sentiment.

It is already apparent that this Committee will eventually become a valuable bureau of information to which Rectors and Vestries may come for knowledge it would be otherwise very difficult to secure. Your Committee feels strongly its responsibility to this Convention. It has never taken an action overstepping the authority delegated to it by this body, nor will it ever do so. It appeals again for the continued and increasing confidence of the Diocese of Long Island, whose servant it is, for without such confidence it can do nothing.

We recommend the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Social Service Committee be authorized to take such action as shall seem wise to restrict child labor.

Resolved, That the Social Service Committee be authorized to co-operate with other similar bodies and to memorialize the Legislature to secure the repeal of those laws which since 1895 have practically nullified the article of the Constitution which, adopted in 1894, forbids all gambling, pool selling or bookmaking anywhere within the State.

In behalf of the Committee,

WILLIAM SHEAFE CHASE, Secretary.

The Rev. Mr. Chase offered the following resolutions:

Resolved, That the Social Service Committee be authorized to take such action as shall seem wise to restrict child labor.

Carried.

The Second Day.

resolved, That the Social Service Committee be authorized to co-operate with other similar bodies and to memorialize the Legislature to secure repeal of the laws which since 1895 have practically nullified the article of the Constitution which, adopted in 1894, forbids all gambling, pool or bookmaking anywhere within the State.

carried.

The Secretary then announced the result of the second ballot of the members of the Standing Committee.

The President declared that Mr. Henry E. Pierrepont had been elected Lay Member for two years, but there was no election of Clerical Member for that period.

The Rev. Mr. McGuffey offered the following resolution:

resolved, That this Convention proceed at once with another ballot.

The Rev. Mr. Russell moved:

That an act passed in Assembly of the State Legislature, February 28, No. 950,126, to amend Chapter 696 of the Laws of 1887, entitled "An act to provide hospitals, orphan asylums and other charitable institutions for the City of New York with water and remitting assessments therefor," be amended to exempting real estate owned by religious corporations of New York City from all charges, liens and assessments for the use of the same, be printed in the Convention Journal for 1907.

carried.

Mr. P. R. Jennings offered the following:

resolved, That all those having charge of meetings of a Diocesan or synodical character be requested to notify the Diocesan House, of such meetings as long beforehand as possible, and that a list of such dates be placed on the calendar to be kept at the Diocesan House for the information of the churchmen of the Diocese.

carried.

The Rev. Mr. Brydges, for the Committee on Moral and Religious Instruction in the Public Schools, reported progress and requested the President to add to that committee Mr. F. S. Chase, Mr. A. A. Low, Rev. W. S. Chase.

The Committee on Ethical Instruction in the Public Schools begs to report progress, and to state that from their investigations it has been ascertained from expert testimony that instruction in ethics from textbooks in the schools is not practicable. The Committee further reports that this subject has grown from Diocesan and national to international interest, and that an International Commission on Moral Training has been formed in Great Britain, France, Germany, the United States of America, and other countries.

R. L. BRYDGES, Chairman.

The President announced the following additional appointments to the Committee on Moral and Religious Instruction in the schools: Mr. F. S. Parker, Mr. A. A. Low, Rev. W. S. Chase.

The Rev. St. Clair Hester, acting for the Rev. Spencer S. Roche, presented the Report of the Committee on Colored Bishops.

Report

TO THE DIOCESE OF LONG ISLAND, MAY 21, 1907, BY THE COMMITTEE ON COLORED BISHOPS.

Vide L. I. Convention Journal 1906, p. 10, pp. 110-115.

Also Journal of General Convention 1904, p. 18, p. 49, p. 57, p. 98 (asking for Joint Commission), p. 104, p. 105 (resolutions of Bishops Potter and Doane), p. 219 (Dr. Strange presents memorial), p. 22 (Committee appointed), p. 286 (Joint Commission called for), p. 318 (action of House of Bishops).

The Committee appointed at the Convention of the Diocese a year ago, and which was charged with the duty of rendering some expression with reference to a memorial presented to the General Convention of 1904 by Church Workers among the Colored People, and also concerning a proposed Canon "On Special Missionary Bishops," would respectfully report:

Answering the three questions submitted by the Sub-Committee of the General Convention, the Bishop of Louisiana, Chairman, we believe that the present organization of our Church is inadequate for the work of evangelizing the colored people, in view of the fact that our membership among these people is but one-tenth of what our membership among the whites is.

Secondly, the Canon as proposed "On Special Missionary Bishops" we deem insufficient in view of the general opinion that constitutional as well as canonical alterations will have to be made; and

The Second Day.

Thirdly, your Committee would suggest for adoption as the sense of the Diocese, the proposed alterations in the Constitution and Canons of the Church which are subjoined to this report.

It is clear that the colored people must worship by themselves. They themselves prefer it. In Charleston some time ago a member of your committee saw a great white congregation in a fashionable church go to the Lord's Table, and after they had retired, one poor old mammy in the neat dress that represented the fashion of a generation before, arose in the last pew and went alone to the rail. The negro people will not as a rule adopt any such course. They will not be tolerated hangers-on in the back pews or galleries of the white congregations. They will worship in their own congregations.

What the colored congregation desire, the white congregation concede to be necessary. Experience shows that nobody objects to the presence of one or two negroes, but that practically all bodies of white people object to the presence of a considerable number of negroes. As with the governor of a steam engine, when the pressure rises beyond a certain limit, the mechanism shuts down, often with a good deal of noise. What happens in the white congregations, has happened in the white Diocesan convention. There was no difficulty in the Southern Diocese when one or two negro clergymen and three or four negro lay deputies had seats in diocesan conventions. As a hopeless minority they were not unwelcome, but as their numbers increased and their voting power increased, it began to be felt that such colored vote could very easily be cast on one side or the other, so holding the balance of power, and in an important matter, for example the election of a Bishop, determining the result.

Bishop Boyd Vincent calls attention to Rome's seeing "good reasons for such a step and temporary provision as race Bishop."

"It quiets the question of jurisdiction by subordinating it to the larger interest. If it has no precedent, it dares to create one. Why should we not do the same?"

In the case of Polish Roman Catholics who had long importuned Rome for a representative in the hierarchy in the United States, it was at a time adjudged impracticable to send a Bishop with jurisdiction over the people of another Diocese. A way, however, has been found out of the difficulty. Archbishop Weber, Metropolitan of the Province of Lemberg in Galicia, having resigned his see, the Pope has sent him to America as a Missionary Bishop and Polish representative among the American bishops. He will have no particular see, no episcopal jurisdiction whatever, but he will act as a quasi coadjutor assisting the various other bishops, ordaining, confirming, dedicating churches, etc., and having his headquarters in Cincinnati or Chicago, so that the Poles in America will have a native Polish Archbishop to preach to them in their own tongue, to counsel them out of a full knowledge of the people, and among the Bishops and in every other quarter, to champion their cause.

It should not escape the mind of the Church that her interests have been nobly served by some negro Bishops. There is Bishop Ferguson, of Cape Palmas, West Africa, whose addresses at General Convention have made so favorable an impression, and who is generally considered a discreet and able man. The case of Bishop Holly, of Hayti, must not be forgotten.

In England, where we should regard ecclesiastical order as more conservative than with us, you have the remarkable instance offered by Bishop Crowther, of whom Bishop Whipple declares in his autobiography that at the Lambeth Conference of 1888, he was one of the most interesting characters. As a boy Crowther had been rescued from a slave ship, educated in Christian schools, made deacon, then priest, and in 1864 was consecrated Bishop. While serving as missionary at Sierra Leone, he found his own mother, and by the blessing of God led her from heathen darkness to the light of Jesus Christ. This man was deemed worthy of honor by the universities and by the Church in England. Bishop Whipple said that the peace of God was seen in his face and that his broken speech always rang true to Gospel standards. Bishop Clark, of Rhode Island ("Reminiscences," p. 165), also pays tribute to the deserved esteem in which Bishop Crowther was held by the English Church.

One of the chief obstacles to the consecration of negro Bishops to serve among their own people in the United States, arises from a prejudice that is unworthy of a place in hearts regenerated by the Lord Jesus Christ. Dr. Carl Grammer has nobly said that we ought to stop dwelling on the limitations and demerits of the negro, both for his sake and our own, and fix our eyes upon his excellencies and our own obligations.

Suppose that we thought of all nations and of our own white race according to the criminal tendencies and acts of one in a million! Weak morally as the black man may indeed be, divorced as much of his religion may be from morality, in these things we are to note simply the strong call that he himself in his need makes upon us to come and help him. May the Church of the twentieth century be divinely guarded from prejudice against Africans! The attentive reader of the Book of the Acts of the Apostles cannot overlook the fact that in the very opening of the Christian era, the Holy Spirit of God directed in peculiarly impressive ways the minds of the Apostles to Africans. The Gift of Tongues poured the knowledge of Christ before the people from "the parts of Libya about Cyrene." But a short time after this, St. Philip received a direct commission from the Holy Ghost to instruct and baptize the Ethiopian Eunuch, and so to enable him to evangelize his nation.

The Second Day.

And yet when we consider that near two thousand years have passed, the result is mournfully disappointing, even though we set in the best light both the primitive and the recent activities of the Christian Church in the vast continent of Africa. It is impossible to resist the conviction that the Gospel has not been proffered to Africa with the same alacrity and enthusiasm that China and India, for example, have witnessed—impossible to shut out the truth that Christian apathy and Christian prejudice have hindered the fulfilment of the ancient prediction that Ethiopia, the Morians' land, Cush, "shall soon stretch out her hands unto God."

We have a great opportunity. There is and has been no period of strained relations between our Episcopal Church and several thousands of these colored people. They rely on us; they appeal to us. There is no sign on the part of these black Christians of a desire to set off a schismatical body. What they desire is just what we desired for nigh two hundred years, the power to carry on the Church with full faculties, the power to propagate the same among their own people, as this Church hath received doctrine, discipline and worship. They should have the power to confirm, to examine, to ordain, to consecrate, to form and to summon conferences and conventions.

In conclusion, your Committee submits the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Diocese of Long Island memorialize the General Convention to amend the Constitution and Canons so that Missionary Bishops may be consecrated to have jurisdiction over specific races, and would suggest the following amendments to the Constitution and Canons:

CONSTITUTION, ARTICLE VI.

The House of Bishops may establish Missionary Districts upon racial lines, i.e., for a specified race or races, within the bounds of Dioceses and Missionary Districts established or authorized in Section I, either severally or in such groups as it may determine, provided that in the case of a Diocese such racial jurisdiction within the Diocesan borders shall be first ceded by the Bishop and the Convention of the Diocese.

In the interpretation of the Constitution and Canons the people and churches of such racial Missionary Districts shall be considered as territorially outside of their former Dioceses or Missionary Districts and in a region of their own in the same geographical position, and shall occupy the same relation to the General Convention as any other Domestic Missionary District.

No such cession by a Diocese, or division of a Missionary District, however, shall carry with it the members of the ceded race, who may be or become members of congregations not included in such Missionary Districts.

The Second Day.

The House of Bishops may from time to time change, increase or diminish the territory included in such racial Missionary Districts in such manner as may be prescribed by Canon.

Such racial jurisdiction within the borders of any Diocese may be retroceded to the Diocese by the House of Bishops, if the Bishop and Convention of such Diocese shall consent to receive it.

CANON 10. OF MISSIONARY BISHOPS.

SECTION 1. The House of Bishops may establish Missionary Districts in States or Territories, or parts thereof, not organized into Dioceses, or in territory beyond the United States not under the charge of Bishops in communion with this Church. It may also establish Missionary Districts upon racial lines, i.e., for a specified race or races, within the bounds of Dioceses or Missionary Districts, either severally or in such groupings as it may determine, provided that in the case of a Diocese such racial jurisdiction within the Diocesan borders shall be first ceded by the Bishop and the Convention of the Diocese.

CANON 13. OF DUTIES OF MISSIONARY BISHOPS.

SECTION 1. Missionary Bishops shall exercise jurisdiction in States and Territories, or parts thereof, not organized into Dioceses or in any Missionary District of this Church beyond the United States, or in any Missionary District established upon racial lines in conformity with the Constitution and Canons of this Church, and under such regulations and instructions not inconsistent therewith as the House of Bishops may prescribe.

Respectfully submitted,

SPENCER S. ROCHE

ADOLPH KIENDL.

The Secretary announced the result of the third ballot for members of Standing Committee.

The President declared that there had been no election and ordered a fourth ballot to be taken. The remaining vacancy being for one clerical member for two years.

The Secretary announced the result of the second ballot for Deputies to the General Convention.

The President declared that no election had taken place and ordered another ballot.

The Rev. Dr. Ladd and Mr. E. D. Litchfield withdrew their names from the ballot for Deputies to the General Convention.

The Second Day.

The Secretary announced the result of the fourth ballot for Clerical Member of the Standing Committee for two years.

The President declared that there had been no election and ordered another ballot.

Hon. A. A. Van Wyck moved that the question of Colored Bishops be referred to the Deputies to the General Convention with power to act.

The Rev. Mr. Boyd moved to lay the question of Colored Bishops on the table. Carried.

The Secretary announced the result of the fifth ballot for members of the Standing Committee.

APPENDIX A

THE BISHOP'S ANNUAL ADDRESS TO THE CONVENTION

Delivered May 21, 1906.

It is my privilege to address you, the honored members of this, the Forty-first Convention of the Diocese of Long Island. During the past year, I have made 103 visitations for Confirmation and have confirmed 1817 persons. I have ordained two Deacons to the Priesthood. I have deposed one man from the Priesthood. I have consecrated five Churches in the Diocese: on St. Michael and All Angels' Day, September 29th, the Memorial Church of the Transfiguration, built in memory of the first Bishop of Long Island; on the XIX Sunday after Trinity, October 21st, St. Augustine's Church, Brooklyn; on St. Thomas's Day, December 21st, St. Thomas's Church, Farmingdale; on Epiphany, January 6th, St. George's Church, Brooklyn, and on Friday, March 22d, the new Memorial Church, Trinity Church, Roslyn. The detailed acts of the year will be printed in the Journal.

It may surprise you if I say that there is a peculiar fascination for me about old Convention Journals. I will acknowledge that in old times I shrank from them as duller than legal parchments or Congressional records. But a complete set—and that becoming rare—is worth having. If you are not pressed for time, I assure you that you can have a pleasant afternoon searching, without much help from any index, through the many volumes for some record or statistics. If time is precious, the treasure will be turned into exasperation. The names, some of them well known, call up a past which is full of interest. The various reports, some of them apparently growing more tinted and rose-colored as the institutions they report get deeper into difficulties, have a more than antiquarian charm; every now and then some canon seems to come boldly out, like the Regicide at Hadley, to battle against the enemy, but immediately after the contest, shrinks back into obscurity or oblivion at the end of the volume, never to be disturbed again until some committee or distracted officers try to coax it out to fight in their behalf. But for me, I confess, the Bishop's addresses have a charm which is all their own. Mr. Morley in his life of Gladstone says, "A political speech, like the manna in the wilderness, loses its savour on the second day." That may be true, also, of sermons, but for me these Episcopal charges still have a taste after all these years. The same subjects recur with periodic regularity: "The Family," "Divorce," the "Sisterhoods," "Religious Education in the Schools," the "Church Charity Foundation," each of these has appeared, like the comet, just about the time we expect it and has been able to fix the attention of Churchmen.

No topic appears with greater regularity than the Cathedral. It is evident that it has been an interest to the Bishops if not to the Diocese, and I make no further apology for asking you to consider it now. Five years ago, I said that if my Episcopate should last twenty years, it was my opinion that at the end of that time, the fate of this great work here at Garden City would be decided for good or evil. One quarter of that time has gone by and it is right that I should give you some report.

Financially the record has not been altogether discouraging. I should like here to pay a tribute to the man who through all the years of its existence has watched over the treasury of the Cathedral. To his wise intervention is due the fact that its endowment is as large as it is. For some time he was the sole trustee of one large gift from Judge Hilton, and his judicious investments and discretion saved the funds from material loss. Few outside of the Chapter have known of the time and care which have been given by him to this corporation, and when the history of the Cathedral is written, Alexander E. Orr will be named among its staunchest and ablest friends. During these five years since I became Bishop, the Cathedral has been kept good repair, and its regular expenses, even with the deficits from the Schools included, have not greatly, if at all, exceeded income. There have been, however, two large expenditures in construction which have been charged to the principal account. In the winter of 1904, the unpleasant discovery was made that the power house plant was in bad condition. The furnaces had been required to do more than they ought and the boilers were out of repair. The pipes were in ditches which had in many places collapsed, and the steam had to be forced through pipes sometimes submerged in snow and water. The chimney was blown down in a storm, and the expense of heating and lighting our buildings became so great that serious deficits in our income were the result. To make suitable tunnels for our pipes, to build a substantial and permanent chimney and to put our boilers in proper condition, we were obliged to spend $45,000. This large sum had to be deducted from the funds of the Cathedral, but the saving of from $4,000 to $6,000 each year since then has justified the expenditure.

Another blow came upon us in the fall of 1905. It was discovered that the beautiful spire of the Cathedral had been constructed on wrong principles and that the huge stones on the spires were in actual danger of falling. We had the advice of one of the best firms in New York City, and under the superintendence of our architect, the Chapter went to work to save the tower and spire from ruin. This work proved to be far more expensive than was anticipated, and it has at last been completed at a cost of about $30,000. It has been carefully examined and declared by an independent and undoubted authority to be now in perfect repair. The rest of the Cathedral needs this same careful, conscientious rebuilding—I cannot call it restoration—and I am confident that among the generous laity of the Diocese there will be found some who will offer to do this work and also to restore the organs and endow them.

The Cathedral Chapter believes that its own chief duty lies toward the Diocesan Schools which have been placed directly under its care, and that the surplus income of the Corporation should be carefully guarded so as to maintain these Schools in first-class condition. During the twenty years of their existence, St. Paul's School has received $175,000 in deficits paid out of the income of the Cathedral, and St. Mary's School, $90,000. Besides these large sums, much has been expended from the principal for construction work. During next year an important change will be made in St. Paul's School. Dr. Frederick L. Gamage, who has been head master for fourteen years, and during whose term of office the School has advanced, resigned in April, and his office will be taken by Mr. Walter R. Marsh, at present head master of Pingry School, Elizabeth, N. J. The Chapter is seeking to carry out the intentions of the trust and to maintain, here in Garden City, Schools which, if not perfect, shall be places where the boys and girls will be surrounded by the same influence and protection, and by the same care which they would find in a Christian home.

St. Paul's School is to be a place where boys are conscientiously and carefully prepared for college and for business, and the Chapter feels sure that the public will support this undertaking to maintain a school which shall take rank among the foremost schools of the country. I know that I can appeal with confidence to the Clergy and Laity of this Diocese to give their cordial sympathy to this endeavor to maintain true Church schools reflecting honor on the Diocese and bestowing a blessing on the community.

Perhaps the most serious practical problem is connected with the land, about forty acres of which are almost entirely unutilized. The endowment as originally planned was to be several millions, but a codicil in Mrs. Stewart's will resulted after years of litigation in a comparatively meagre amount being realized. The land itself is so deeded that it cannot be used for revenue, but only for charitable or religious purposes. There is little hope that any consensus of the heirs can be secured to release it from these restrictions except on such terms as would be a practical sacrifice of the property. It seems to me that it is now high time that the Diocese should forget the past, and reflect that it has here in Garden City a wonderful instrument for good. It is for the people of the Diocese now not only to endow the present more generously, but to build and endow other institutions religious and educational character, and so to place the work on a firmest foundation. We cannot accept any more buildings and endowments go with the gifts. But I believe in the future of the Diocese and that through legacies and gifts we may be able to do an even nobler work for Christ. The Cathedral is the heart of the Diocese, the Schools are Diocesan Schools, and we compare the start which we have here in Long Island with the endeavors which are being made in other Dioceses in the country, we have a right to look up and take courage. I can give cordial consideration of plans and even of criticism, if it is made in the right spirit and with due allowance for the difficulties which only those in the Chapter can realize. The Cathedral is worth having, and the care with which the Diocese has protected its stately tower and spire should be to all the encouragement that we mean to do honest, faithful work with the help that God has given us.

ORDINATION VOWS.

Another subject demands my attention. The most solemn which a Bishop performs is that of Ordination. A recent pamphlet entitled "Freedom in the Church," has been widely and extensively circulated among the Clergy. In what I say, I do not have you think that I charge anyone with intellectual dishonesty. This is no time to bandy epithets, when the crisis of the Church is the most serious which this generation has known. I only want to state the truth as I see it, with no lack of candor towards those from whom I differ.

The writer has stated his position with no ambiguity or subtlety. He points out that at Ordination the candidate acknowledges his belief that the Holy Scriptures contain all doctrine necessary for salvation, and his own promise to teach only what he is able to deduce can be concluded and proved from the Scriptures. The candidate then promises so to minister the Doctrines and Sacraments and the Discipline of Christ as the Lord hath commanded, and as the Church hath received the same according to the commandments of God. The author then goes on to say that these form but one vow whose purpose is to elevate Scripture above tradition. He claims that the individual is at liberty to use his own private judgment in regard to the Creeds of the Church and that he has performed his duty though he may deny some of the "details" of the Creed, provided his own study convinces him that they cannot be proved by recourse to the Bible. Later in his book he tells us that the Creeds should be sung as hymns, not said as the solemn statement of facts which are to be believed as necessary to salvation. What, are we to say, then, to the claim that the Creed which is professed by the Church at Baptism, and at Confirmation, said at every daily office and solemnly repeated in the ears of the dying, is to be relegated to the realm of poetry?

There is no doubt that the Church appeals to Scripture for the warrant to her faith. At the time of the Reformation, pressed as she was by the claims of Rome, she sought to put out of her Prayer-Book and her formularies all that could not be proved by Holy Scripture. But on the other hand against the individual private-judgment taught by some of the Protestant sects, she asserted her historic faith and bade her Laity and Clergy alike to profess it. There were two vows distinctly made. On the one hand, her Clergy were to teach nothing which Scripture did not contain; and on the other, they were to teach the doctrine which the Church authorized. It seems hardly conceivable that anyone could doubt this as he reads over the clearly-worded questions of the Bishop in the office of the Ordination of Priests.

But let me suppose that some Priest of the Church, having studied the Scriptures, becomes convinced that that Creed which his Church has given him to teach cannot be proved from Scripture, what course is open to him? Can he continue in the Church, merely introducing musical services, and make one of the noblest arts of man, music, to be the handmaid of his doubts? The gifted author tells us that we must not regard the Church as a business organization. But it is a human society, nevertheless, and the same allegiance which we owe to our fellow-men we must owe to the Church of Christ. A vow made at the solemn service of Ordination cannot be disregarded. For three years the candidate has studied the Scriptures and the Prayer-book; he comes to that service after the most serious admonitions from his Bishop and careful examination. His allegiance to the doctrine of the Church is attested by Presbyters, by Vestry, and by Standing Committee. He professes himself in accord with that Church's teaching, and his Ordination can be had only when he has signed his promise of loyalty to her faith.

An analogy occurs to my mind which shows perhaps the true course. In the Nineteenth Century the two great questions debated in this country were States' Rights and Slavery. Statesmen differed on these subjects. Many claimed that they were denied by the Constitution. Others strongly asserted that they were allowed. At last the war came. Two great men in Virginia took opposite sides. One was General Robert E. Lee, the other was General George Henry Thomas. Lee, believing that the Constitution of the United States recognized the legitimacy of both these doctrines, took the command of the Southern army. Thomas, believing that his State was wrong in its interpretation, left it and joined the Federal side. But what would the world have said of him if he had remained in the Virginia army wearing her uniform but sympathizing with the Northern forces? Surely there is no doubt.

The Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America teaches as Bible truth that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, that He was supernaturally born of the Virgin Mary, that He died upon the Cross and rose again from the dead; that He is God of God, Very God of Very God. If a man thinks that He was born as other men are, that He is a Son of God as other men are sons of God, and that the Resurrection from the dead was a spiritual but not a physical fact, how can he any longer maintain his place in her Ministry? It may be that his is the Scriptural doctrine, that in the light of his modern philosophy he believes that the Bible so teaches, but what is he to do with the clause "as this Church hath received the same." There are certain facts that cannot be "interpreted." They must be accepted or denied. If the facts of the Church's Creeds can be disproved, then the Church's mission is over, and it will be all in vain by means of music and architecture and poetry and rhetoric and money to keep alive a Church whose Creed is based on fiction. You will notice, please, that I am not denying changing views and interpretations of great truths, which will look different in different ages and countries, but the facts of those Gospels cannot be interpreted. They must be either true or false, and their truth is attested to-day by the Church which believes them, and by the Holy Scriptures.

The word "freedom" is a great and glorious word. The American Church has always extended freedom save where it touched the essentials of the faith, the Fatherhood of God, the sinlessness of Christ, the facts of the Creeds. At those she has drawn the line, for more essential than freedom is faith. Her faith has made her conquer in every age. It is faith which makes her services glorious, her worship uplifting, her missionaries self-sacrificing, her people pure. Her final triumph will come, not by telling men that her Creeds are beautiful historical documents, like some illuminated missal painted by some monk long since dead, or like some ruined abbey still raising here and there its pointed arch or broken column, but by convincing all men that Jesus is the Lord to the glory of the Father. Young men will come in answer to her call. They will give their hearts to a living faith. They will come and plight their vow, believing that they have a mission to perform, a Gospel to preach, and loving the Church, whose music is true and holy and inspiring, because it goes back to the "Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace to men of good-will," uttered by the angels on the night when the Saviour of the world was born. That is faith worth dying for. But a creedless Church could rouse no enthusiasm and produce no ministry worth the having.

In all that I have said, I have wished to throw no slight on the scholars and thinkers of the Church, who are trying to solve the religious problems of the day. Far be it from me to put one stumbling-block in the way of the man who, beset by doubt, nevertheless believes that he can honestly remain in the Church and contend for the faith once delivered to the saints. But my desire is to strengthen those who fear lest this dear Church of ours should yield to a false cry for liberty and relinquish her hold all that makes Christianity of vital interest to their souls. There is no such danger. No one of these questions of the day is essentially new. Whatever may happen to the Protestant bodies about us, this Church of ours will remain true to the Apostles' doctrine and fellowship and uphold the supernatural origin of our faith. We are no doubt going through trial. But there is much to encourage us. The changing sentiment in regard to justice, the desire to see one good, clean law for all the States on the subject of marriage, the attempt, while protecting the rights of property, to prevent heartless corporations from cruelty to the poor, the struggle after higher standards in politics and nobler system of education—all show that the preaching of the Gospel of Christ has not been in vain. While I have no idle dream of unity, yet in the end, when philosophy has done her worst to solve the enigma of life, and philanthropy has discovered that money cannot eradicate evil, men's hearts will turn with gratitude and love toward the Church which has believed in the God-Man Jesus Christ, and that through Him, and Him alone, salvation come to the nation and to all mankind. The Church will come into her own at last as the one Power working through all the agencies which ethical societies and human philosophers are powerless to attempt.

"Our little systems have their day,
They have their day and cease to be;
They are but broken lights of Thee,
And Thou, O Lord, art more than they."

The same efforts are not now iving the same results they did in years bygone. This year's financial ent is merely the Treasurer's report. There should be added to it about 0.00, or more, made up of monies in the hands of other treasurers, and idual donations to specific objects, which the Church Treasurer was unable port when the "Parochial Report" blank was put into his hands. There een a gain in attendance at the regular services during the past year.

While the above statistics show that this parish has suffered severely by the loss of its members, they do not show the full loss, as many who have gone to other parts of the city still have their names on the list of communicants. We are being crowded in on one side by the Italians and on the other by the Jews. We wish to record here the severe loss we sustained by the death of the Rev. William H. Hare early in January, 1907, and our grateful thanks for the good work he was doing during the six years in the parish.

Early in the year a new organ, with two manuals and a pedal board, was secured for the Church at a cost of $300.00, met by donations of members of the parish. New chandeliers have been placed in the church. The greatest improvement has been the erection of a new building adjoining the church, which provides a large room, seating 100 children of the primary class, and forms a handsome chapel for week day services. It is called St. Agnes Chantry. In the upper floor it enlarges the rectory by two rooms. It also includes new toilet rooms for the school. The cost of lumber and labor of carpenters was $679.10. The contractor, Mr. N. Bonnländer, courteously extended his services without cost. The Archdeaconry has consented to bear that sum. The chantry has been painted and furnished completely. Five dozen new chairs have been added to the Sunday School. A new stage has been erected in the parish hall at a cost of $75.00 by the Literary Guild.

Other improvements, largely in the form of gifts from parishioners and guilds, are an altar, credence, prieu dieu, pictures, an organ and alms boxes for the chantry; a litany desk, Bishop's chair, alms boxes and kneeling cushions for the church, and two new sets of hangings for the, altar and silk bencher and bells, etc., with $80.00.

It has been thought best to concentrate our efforts, for the most part, on paying off the debt which has burdened the parish for some years, in order that a much needed church may be erected as soon as possible. We are at present worshipping in our parish house, which is far too small to accommodate all the activities which might be undertaken if space permitted. A united effort is being made by the parishioners to present an offering of at least $500.00 on St. Alban's Day, June 17th, for that purpose.

In July, 1906, the Rev. R. F. Alsop, D.D., resigned the Rectorship of the Parish, having held it twenty years, next to the longest rectorate in the history of St. Ann's. He immediately began a missionary visitation tour of the world, in company with Dr. Lloyd, and returns in September as Rector Emeritus. After an interim of five months, during which period the Church was in the clerical care of Dr. Prince, the Vestry called the Rev. C. Campbell Walker, M.A., then Rector of St. John's Church, Staten Island, and Mr. Walker, becoming Rector of St. Ann's, January 1, was instituted on April 28, by the Bishop of Long Island.

The church buildings which came into our possession, as per note appended to last year's report, was renovated at an expense of $5,242.68. The congregation returned hither on Sunday, October 21, 1906, at which time the Bishop, the Rt. Rev. Dr. Burgess, assisted by the Rector, the Associate Minister, and Canon H. B. Bryan, officiated at the consecration of the church.

Our hearts were made glad last January when the announcement was issued that a gentleman of charitable mind, having been impressed with the report of our struggles, faith, and successful labors, had purposed to install in our church a large pipe organ. This act of charity, anonymously done, was immediately put into effect, and the organ was played, for the first time in our services, on the morning of Easter Day.

It was through the instrumentality of Mr. Charles E. Moore, one of our vestrymen, that the donation of the organ was made.

The Sinking Fund to liquidate the mortgage debt now amounts to $65.00. During the course of the next conventional year we hope to increase that sum considerably. A new vocallon organ has been purchased and will add very much to the effectiveness of our services. The organ is a donation from the Vestal Choir. During the summer the Church Building will be painted. Money for that purpose has been collected by a special committee. A steady all-around growth gives this Mission a bright outlook.

The Parochial, not financial, reports as to state of parish and official acts, services, etc., are from July 1, 1906. No records are at hand for May and June, 1906, as to services held in the Church. But the records of baptism, confirmation, burials, etc., are complete and correct. The registration of families, communicants, etc., is incomplete, and these returns are therefore estimated. The old parish register is chaotic and the new register is, as yet, necessarily incomplete in these respects.

In September, 1906, a house adjoining the church was bought and put in thorough repair, to be used as the residence of the priest-in-charge. The purchase money was part of a legacy of the late Mrs. Albert Cornell of New York. This legacy was a personal bequest to Mr. Irving M. Swezey, Treasurer of Christ Church Mission, to be expended by him for the benefit of the Mission at his discretion.

In November the erection of an enlarged sanctuary and sacristy was begun as a gift of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Raynor of Brooklyn, in memory of their son, Forrest. At the same time a choir-room was built and the basement of the church cemented and celled, out of the surplus of the Cornell legacy. Mr. Henry C. Tinker, of New York, has contributed one-half the cost of new pews, the balance being paid for by the remainder of the legacy. Mr. Irving M. Swezey has given handsome choir-stalls with clergy seats, in memory of the late Mr. Fred E. Raynor, for twelve years a most faithful member of the choir. The Girls' Guild has placed a beautiful credence table as a memorial of the late Reverend Arthur K. Fenton, formerly priest in charge of the Mission. The church is newly painted, and the entire church property is in first-class repair.

This church, once prosperous, has had hard luck. A few years ago our charming lake attracted many summer visitors, who were mainly churchmen or, at least, attended St. Mary's. Now, nearly every summer visitor is a Roman Catholic. The few all-the-year people who belong to us are intensely loyal and generous, though not wealthy and live miles away from the church. Both church and rectory need reshingling and paint, as a matter of preservation. But our people cannot afford it. Heretofore it has been impossible for me to do any visiting, on account of bad roads and the scattered location of the people. Now that I have moved from Brentwood to my rectory here, I hope to do a great deal of visiting, organize the women into some kind of society and revive the parish.

During the past year the parish property has been improved by painting the outside of the rectory, and constructing a broad cement path from the church gate to the front entrance. Folding chairs have been provided for the Sunday School room, and a pipe has been extended from the church furnace, so as to heat the new building.

We have to mourn the loss of one of our most intelligent and faithful helpers in the parish and Sunday School. Miss Florence E. Elbersen, who died suddenly, November 25, 1906. A beautiful tablet to her memory has been placed in the Sunday School building.

A barrel of clothing and Christmas gifts was sent by our St. Agnes' Guild, on December, 1906, to St. Cyprian's Mission, Darien, Ga.

APPENDIX D.

The Rev. GEORGE F. BREED, D.D., residing at Mt. Airy, Philadelphia, Pa., respectfully reports:

That during the past year he has celebrated the Holy Communion nine times, assisted and read portions of the office four times, and delivered thirty-seven sermons; said Morning Prayer twenty-six times, Evening Prayer twenty times and the Litany four times; read the office for the burial of the dead once, the office for Holy Matrimony once and administered the Sacrament of Holy Baptism once; also prepared and presented for Confirmation sixteen persons.

These services have been rendered in Philadelphia and Rosemont, Pa.: Shrewsbury and Belmar, N. J.; Ossining and Flatbush, N. Y., and Burkhaven, N. H.

The Rev. HENRY CHAMBERLAINE, Pastor and Superintendent of the Society of St. Johnland, respectfully reports:

That in addition to his duties as Superintendent, he has officiated regularly in the Church, and frequently in several of the homes at St. Johnland. The Holy Communion is celebrated twice each month. The children receive daily religious instruction, and twelve candidates were presented for confirmation at the visting of the Bishop. There have been three baptisms and seven burials.

The Rev. HENRY B. CORNWELL, D.D., reports:

That during the past year, the state of his health has been such as to permit him but rarely to officiate or preach, and that such services have been necessarily limited to the churches of Newburgh—his present residence—and to those in its immediate vicinity.

The Rev. CHARLES H. GARDINER, residing in Bridgehampton, respectfully reports:

That he has officiated as an assistant on Easter A. M., administering the chalice at Holy Communion in Christ Church, Sag Harbor. He has also regularly attended the services of the new St. Ann's Church in this village.

The Rev. J. A. DENNISTON reports :

Since the last Diocesan Convention I have officiated at St. Augustine Chapel, Trinity Parish, New York, every Sunday. Celebrated the Holy Communion on all Holy Days, twice on Sundays and three times on Festivals. Administered the Sacrament of Baptism 34 times (children 30, adults 4); solemnized 16 marriages; officiated at 17 burials; prepared a class of 25 candidates for Confirmation; celebrated 5 private Communion; preached every Sunday, sometimes twice, and on certain Saints' Days, beside special Lenten and Sunday School services; made 51 addresses.

The Rev. MELVIN HONEYMAN reports :

I herewith send my report of work done in the Diocese of Newark and New Jersey during the past Canonical year: Holy Communion, 14; Sunday Services, 35; Week-day Services, 38; assisted at services, 13; Baptisms, 3; Burials, 3; Marriages, 1.

The Rev. WILLIAM HYDE respectfully reports :

That during the past year he has officiated in the Diocese as opportunity offered.

The Rev. JOSHUA KIMBER, residing at Richmond Hill, respectfully reports :

That during the Convention year now closed he has uninterruptedly performed all of his duties as Associate Secretary of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society, and has rendered (principally in his former Parish of the Resurrection, Richmond Hill), services as follows: Said Morning Prayer twenty times and assisted four times; said Evening Prayer four times; read the Litany in Church and in the Church Missions House Chapel forty-eight times; celebrated the Holy Communion twenty times, and assisted or read portions of the Communion office thirty-four times; said the office for the burial of the dead twice, and otherwise publicly officiated fifteen times. He has preached or made addresses only eight times; he continuing to be prohibited from frequent preaching by his physician, while engaged six days in the week with his duties for the Church. He has, during the absence of the General Secretary, been in charge of "Noon Day Prayers" at the Church Missions House and has taken most of them himself.

The Rev. FRANK R. JONES reports :

In accordance with your request I submit herewith my report of the work done under the auspices of the N. Y. P. E. City Mission Society in the Kingston Avenue Hospital for Contagious Diseases (Department of Health, Borough of Brooklyn). I have visited the hospital regularly twice each week, and during the past Canonical year have administered the Sacraments as follows: Holy Baptism to thirty-one infants; Holy Communion to two adults. I have read the burial service over two persons. I have distributed Prayer Books, Hymnals and Bibles to seventy-five persons. There have been held seven public services (with sermons): aggregate attendance, seventy. These services have been conducted in the small-pox ward. I was also requested to visit the Kings County Hospital three times, and once administered the Holy Communion to the patient whom I visited. The records of baptisms and burials are contained in the N. Y. P. E. City Mission Society's Register.

The Rev. ISAAC PECK respectfully reports:

At St. George's, Flushing, and elsewhere, I have assisted at six services; held two; celebrated the Holy Communion once, and twice assisted at this; and preached four sermons.

The Rev. W. H. WEEKS reports:

That he still holds the Chaplaincy of City Hospital, where he is engaged in ministering to the sick, of which the daily average is over six hundred. He has celebrated the Holy Communion at the bedside of four hundred patients, and has visited over twenty thousand patients during the year, in addition to the regular Chapel services on Sundays and Holy Days. While on his vacation in September last he conducted divine service on each Sunday A. M. at St. James' Church, Brookhaven, L. I.

APPENDIX E.

The Woman's Auxiliary

The Long Island Branch of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Board of Missions was formed by the Bishop of the Diocese in 1872. It has 294 Delegates, representing 81 parishes, and 6 Honorary Members. Its purposes are:

1. To increase the number of women and children interested in Missions.

2. To form branches of the Woman's Auxiliary in every Parish and Mission.

3. To cultivate the habit of daily prayer for Missions, by placing in the hands of every member of copy of the Missionary Prayers, and to increase the spirit of devotion and intercession, by means of corporate Communion, Special Services, Quiet Days, etc.

4. To increase the knowledge of Missions by gaining new subscribers to the Spirit of Missions and the Young Christian Soldier by forming Study Classes and Missionary Reading Circles among both the women and young people; by arranging for Missionary meetings and exhibits.

5. To increase gifts for Missions, by so impressing the need upon the minds of the people of the Diocese as to incite them to give; by placing large undertakings before the Branches and members, especially:

- a. That the Auxiliary is to aid the Board of Missions in meeting its appropriations to the Mission fields.

- b. That it give each third year a united offering, in thankfulness for all the blessings of its work, the object of this offering being decided upon by the Auxiliary at its triennial meeting.

- c. And lastly, that the Auxiliary shall endeavor in all these ways to cultivate such a spirit in its members, that an increasing number of young women shall offer themselves for personal service in the Mission field.

The Long Island Branch carries on its work through five Departments, i. e., Foreign, Domestic, Indian, Freedmen and Diocesan. Its meetings are held in Brooklyn on the second Thursday of each month, from October until May, at 10 A. M., at St. Ann's Chapel, Clinton Street, near Joralemon.

The Anniversary Meeting, at which addresses are made by prominent men—Bishops, Clergy and laymen—is held on the second Thursday in November.

President—Mrs. Alexander Hutchins, 796 DeKalb Avenue.

First Vice-President—Mrs. George G. Hopkins, 350 Washington Avenue.

Second Vice-President—Miss Mary Benson, 214 Columbia Heights.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. Harlow R. Brown, 82 Rodney Street.

Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Robert Fanning, 140 Franklin Street, Astoria.

Treasurer—Miss Mary Hunter, The Touraine, 21 Clinton Street.

Assistant Treasurer—in charge of United Offering—Mrs. Charles P. Peterman, 809a Greene Avenue.

Brotherhood of St. Andrew

Long Island Diocese

The Long Island Assembly of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew has an aggregate membership of about 230, besides the Junior Assembly, for which see below. The Local Assembly meets monthly from September to June in various parishes for conference, instruction and corporate worship. Once a year, on Passion Sunday, the Assembly gathers at a corporate celebration of the Holy Communion.

The sole object of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew is the spread of Christ's Kingdom among men through daily prayer for that object and the making of an earnest effort each week to bring some man nearer to Christ, through His Church.

Senior Chapters of the Brotherhood exist in the following Parishes: St. Ann's; Incarnation; St. Thomas; Grace, on the Heights; Christ Church, Bedford Avenue; St. Luke's; Holy Cross; Christ Chapel; St. Philip's; St. John's, Webster Avenue; St. Mark's, Adelphi Street; Ascension, and Atonement, Brooklyn; Trinity, Roslyn; Redeemer, Astoria; Resurrection, Richmond Hill; St. Joseph's, Queens; St. Mark's, Islip; Grace, Whitestone; St. George's, Hempstead; St. Andrew's, Creedmoor; St. Luke's, Sea Cliff. Also St. Mary's, Brooklyn (Probationary).

The District Secretary, Mr. G. Frank Shelby (address 609 W. 137th Street, New York; telephone, 6691, Morningside), will be glad to advise and assist in the matter of forming new chapters and in all other ways to toward the work of the Brotherhood in this Diocese and in the neighboring assemblies.

The officers of the Assembly are:

President—William Harison, Redeemer, Astoria, 62 William Street, New York. Vice-President and Treasurer—William Macbeth, Incarnation, 834 Prospect Place. Secretary—Nicholas R. Mesereau, 673 Vanderbilt Avenue, Brooklyn. Chaplain—Rev. William Sheafe Chase, Christ Church, Bedford Avenue, Brooklyn. Executive Committee—L. V. Sand, Christ Church; H. E. Blanchford, Resurrection, Richmond Hill; Wm L. Little, St. Jude's, Blythebourne; George Denton, St. Andrew's, Redmoor; Robert A. Lyman, St. Ann's; Frank Du Moulin, St. Thomas'; Alexander Harding, Jr., St. Luke's; George G. Grimm, St. Mark's; Thur G. Clark, St. Clement's; Herbert R. Johnston, St. Mark's; George Henderson, Christ Church, Bedford Avenue; and William B. Dall, ex-officio, as member of the National Council for Long Island.

The Junior Department is made up of boys from twelve to eighteen years of age. Its sole object is to pray and work for the spread of Christ's Kingdom among boys. The Juniors are represented in the Executive Committee, and attend the Senior meetings, including the annual Communion service and Corporate Communion.

There are Junior Chapters (admitted or probationary) in the following parishes: Christ Church (Bedford Avenue); St. Ann's, St. Luke's, Incarnation, the Redeemer, Christ Chapel, St. Gabriel's, St. Mark's (Adel Street), St. Mark's (Eastern Parkway), St. Clement's and St. Bartholomew's, Brooklyn; St. Paul's, College Point; St. Joseph's, Queens; St. George's, Hempstead; St. Mark's, Islip; and Resurrection, Richmond Hill. This is a marked increase over last year's Junior Chapters.

Girl's Friendly Society

The Long Island Diocesan Organization of the Girls' Friendly Society was formed under the sanction of the Bishop of the Diocese, April 22, 1887.

OBJECTS.

1. To bind together in one Society, Churchwomen as Associates, and girls and young women as Members, for mutual help—religious and secular or sympathy and prayer.

2. To encourage purity of life, dutifulness to parents, faithfulness to employers, and thrift.

3. To provide the privileges of the Society for its Members, wherever they may be, by giving them an introduction from one Branch to another.

President of the Diocesan Council—Mrs. A. H. Ford, 61 Second Place.

Secretary and Treasurer—Miss Jane A. S. Schapps, 753 Bedford Ave.

Associate for Commended Members—Mrs. W. J. Shattuck, Jr., 160 Clinton Street.

The Women's Central Board

OF THE

Church Charity Foundation of the Diocese of Long Island

The Women's Central Board of the Church Charity Foundation, organized in 1902, is composed of the former Board of Associates and the co-workers of the different Houses, viz.: The Home for the Aged, The Orphan House, St. John's Hospital, and the Home for the Blind.

The object of the Board is to solicit contributions of money, material, and produce in behalf of the Church Charity Foundation, and to further the interest of the same.

The work is carried on through the House and other Committees, each of which has its own Chairman, appointed by the President of the Board.

The regular meetings of the Women's Board are held on the first Wednesday in each month from October to June, at 11 o'clock, in the Home for the Aged, 464 Herkimer Street.

The Executive Committee meets at 10 o'clock on the same day.

The Rectors of the Diocese are expected to appoint women to represent their respective Parishes on the Women's Central Board.

The Chairmen of Committees must be communicants of the Protestant Episcopal Church.

All women in sympathy with the work are eligible as members, their names being presented and voted upon by the Board. Present membership about 200. Dues are $3 a year.

Extract from the Laws of New York
RELATING TO

CHAPTER XLII OF THE GENERAL LAWS.

(As amended to date.)

The Religious Corporations Law.

ARTICLE I. Provisions Applicable to Religious Corporations Generally:

§ II. SALE, MORTGAGE AND LEASE OF REAL PROPERTY OF RELIGIOUS CORPORATIONS.—A religious corporation shall not sell or mortgage any of its real property without applying for and obtaining leave of the court therefor pursuant to the provisions of the code of civil procedure. The trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church shall not vote upon any resolution or proposition for the sale, mortgage or lease of its real property unless the rector of said church, if it then has a rector, shall be present, and shall not make application to the court for leave to sell or mortgage any of its real property, which has been consecrated or which is used for regular religious services by the congregation of such church, or which is used for a rectory or parsonage, without the consent of the bishop and standing committee of the Diocese to which such church belongs; but in case the See be vacant, or the Bishop be absent or unable to act, the consent of the standing committee with their certificate of the vacancy of the See or of the absence or disability of the Bishop shall suffice. The trustees of an incorporated Roman Catholic Church shall not make application to the court for leave to mortgage, lease or sell any of its real property without the consent of the Archbishop or Bishop of the Diocese to which such church belongs, or in case of their absence or inability to act, without the consent of the Vicar-General or Administrator of such Diocese. The petition of the trustees of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal Church or Roman Catholic Church shall, in addition to the matters required by the code of civil procedure to be set forth therein, set forth that this section has also been complied with. But lots, plots, or burial permits in a cemetery owned by a religious corporation may be sold without applying for or obtaining leave of the court. No cemetery lands of a religious corporation shall be mortgaged while used for cemetery purposes.

ARTICLE II. Special provisions for the Incorporation and Government of Protestant Episcopal Parishes or Churches:

SECTION 30. The meeting for incorporation.

31. The certificate of incorporation.

32. Corporate Trustees; Vestry; power and duties thereof.

33. Annual Elections of incorporated Protestant Episcopal parishes.

34. Changing the number of vestrymen of Protestant Episcopal parishes hereafter incorporated.

35. Changing date of annual election, number and terms of office of vestrymen and terms of churchwardens of Protestant Episcopal Churches heretofore incorporated.

36. Changing the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen.

§ 30. THE MEETING FOR INCORPORATION.—Notice of a meeting for the purpose of incorporating an unincorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or congregation, and of electing the first churchwardens and vestrymen thereof, shall specify the object, time and place of such meeting, and shall be made public for at least two weeks prior to such meeting, either by open reading of such notice in time of divine service, at the usual place of worship of such parish or congregation, or by posting the same conspicuously on the outer door of such place of worship.

Only men of full age who have been regular attendants at the worship of such parish or congregation and contributors to the support thereof for one year next prior to such meeting, or since the establishment of such parish or congregation, shall be qualified to vote at such meeting.

The presence of at least six persons qualified to vote thereat shall be necessary to constitute a quorum at such meeting. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, a quorum being present.

The officiating minister, or, if there be none, or he shall be necessarily absent, any other person qualified to vote at the meeting, who is called to the chair, shall preside thereat. Such presiding officer shall receive the votes, be the judge of the qualifications of the voters, and declare the result of the votes cast at such meeting.

The polls of the meeting shall remain open for one hour or longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the voters present.

The meeting shall decide whether such unincorporated parish or congregation shall become incorporated. If such decision be in favor of incorporation, such meeting shall decide upon the name of the proposed corporation; what secular day of the week, beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, shall be the date of the regular annual election; whether the vestrymen thereof shall be three, six or nine; and shall elect by ballot from the persons qualified to be voters thereat, who have been baptized, one-third of the number of vestrymen so decided upon to hold office until the first annual election to be held thereafter, one-third of such number to hold office until one year after such annual election, and one-third of such number to hold office until two years after such annual election; and shall elect from such qualified voters who are communicants in the Protestant Episcopal Church, two persons to be churchwardens thereof, one to hold office until such annual election, and one to hold office until one year after such annual election.

§ 31. THE CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.—If such meeting shall decide in favor of incorporation and comply with the next preceding section, the presiding officer of such meeting and at least two other persons present and voting thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate of incorporation setting forth:

1. The fact of the calling and holding of such meeting;
2. The name of the corporation as decided upon thereat;
3. The county, and the town, city or village, in which its principal place of worship is, or is intended to be, located;
4. The day of the week, commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, upon which the annual election shall be held;
5. The number of vestrymen decided upon at such meeting;
6. The names of the vestrymen elected at such meeting and the term of office of each;
7. The names of the churchwardens elected at such meeting and the term of office of each.

On filing such certificate in the office of the clerk of the county, so specified therein, the churchwardens and vestrymen so elected and their successors in office, together with the rector, when there is one, shall form a vestry, and shall be the trustees of such church or congregation; and they and their successors shall thereupon, by virtue of this act, be a body corporate by the name or title expressed in such certificate, and shall have power, from time to time, to adopt by-laws for its governance.*

Such corporation shall be an incorporated church, and may be termed so an incorporated parish.

§ 32. CORPORATE TRUSTEES; VESTRY; POWERS AND DUTIES THEREOF.—The churchwardens and vestrymen of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church, together with the rector thereof, if any, shall be the trustees of the corporation and shall also constitute the vestry of the parish.

No meeting of the vestry or trustees of any incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church shall be held unless either all the members thereof are present, or three days' notice thereof shall be given to each member thereof, by the rector in writing either personally or by mail, or, if there be no rector or he is incapable of acting by one of the churchwardens; except that twenty-four hours' notice of the first meeting of the vestry or trustees after an annual election, shall be sufficient; provided such meeting be held within three days after the election.

To constitute a quorum of the vestry or board of trustees there must be present either:

1. The rector, at least one of the churchwardens, and a majority of vestrymen; or,
2. The rector, both churchwardens and one less than a majority of vestrymen; or,
3. If the rector be absent from the Diocese and shall have been so absent for over four calendar months, or if the meeting be called by the rector and he be absent therefrom, or be incapable of acting, one churchwarden and a majority of the vestrymen, or both churchwardens and one less than a majority of the vestrymen.

But if there be a rector of the parish, no measure shall be taken, in his absence, in any case, for effecting the sale or disposition of the real property of the corporation, nor for the sale or disposition of the capital or principal of the personal property of the corporation, nor shall any act be done which shall impair the rights of such rector.

The presiding officer of the vestry or trustees shall be the rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, the churchwarden who shall be called to the chair by a majority of the votes, if both the churchwardens be present; or the churchwarden present, if but one be present.

At each meeting of the vestry or trustees each member thereof shall be entitled to one vote.

The vestry shall have power to fill a vacancy occurring in the office of a churchwarden or vestryman by death, resignation or otherwise than by expiration of term, until the next annual election, at which, if such vacancy would continue thereafter, it shall be filled for the remainder of the unexpired term.

If vacancies exist in the offices of the churchwardens or vestrymen in such number that a quorum of the vestry or board of trustees is not in office at any time, the rector shall forthwith call a special election for the filling of such vacancies. If there be no rector, the churchwarden longest in office shall call such special election. Notice of such special election shall be read by the rector, or if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by one of the churchwardens, on the Sunday next preceding such election, in the time of divine service. If for any reason the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for divine service on such Sunday, such notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for one week next preceding the election. Such notice shall conform to that required for an annual election. The provisions of section thirty-three of this chapter, relating to annual election shall apply to such special election, except as inconsistent herewith. Such vacancies shall be filled at such election for the remainder of the unexpired terms.

The vestry may, subject to the canons of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, and of the Diocese in which the parish or church is situated, by a majority vote, elect a rector to fill a vacancy occurring in the rectorship of the parish, and may fix the salary or compensation of the rector.

§ 33. ANNUAL ELECTIONS OF INCORPORATED PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PARISHES.—The annual election of a Protestant Episcopal parish, hereafter incorporated, shall be held on the secular day in the week commencing with the first Sunday in Advent, designated in its certificate of incorporation. The annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated shall be held on the day fixed for such annual election, by or in pursuance of law, or if no such date be so fixed, then on the Monday next after the first Sunday in Advent.

Notice of such annual election shall be read by the rector of the parish, or, if there be none, or he be absent, by the officiating minister or by the churchwarden thereof, on each of the two Sundays next preceding such election, in the time of divine service, or if, for any reason, the usual place of worship of the parish be not open for the divine service, the notice shall be posted conspicuously on the outer door of the place of worship for two weeks next preceding the election.

Such notice shall specify the place, day and hour of holding the election, the name and term of office of each churchwarden and vestryman whose term of office shall then expire, or whose office shall then be vacant for any cause, and the office for which each such officer is to be then elected. The meeting for such annual election shall be held immediately after morning service.

The presiding officer of such meeting shall be the rector thereof, if there be one, or if there be none, or he be absent, one of the churchwardens elected for the purpose by a majority of the duly qualified voters present, or if no churchwarden be present, a vestryman elected in like manner. Such presiding officer shall be the judge of the qualifications of the voters; shall receive the votes cast; and shall declare the result of the votes cast at such election. The presiding officer of such meeting shall enter the proceedings of the meeting in the book of the minutes of the vestry, sign his name thereto, and offer the same to as many qualified voters present as he shall think fit, to be also signed by them.

Only men of full age belonging to the parish, who have been regular attendants at its worship and contributors to its support for at least twelve months prior to such election, or since the establishment of such parish, shall be qualified voters at any such election. The action of the meeting upon any matter or question shall be decided by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon. The polls of the election shall continue open for one hour, and longer in the discretion of the presiding officer, or, if required, by a vote of a majority of the qualified voters present and voting.

The churchwardens and vestrymen shall be elected by ballot from persons qualified to vote at such election, and no person shall be eligible for election as churchwarden, unless he be also a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church, nor be eligible for election as vestryman, unless he shall have been baptized.

At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish hereafter incorporated, one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years; and one-third of the total number of the vestrymen of the parish shall be elected to hold office for three years. At each annual election of an incorporated Protestant Episcopal parish or church heretofore incorporated, two churchwardens and the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter, unless the terms of office of but one churchwarden or of but one-third of its vestrymen shall then expire in which case one churchwarden shall be elected to hold office for two years, and one-third of the total number of its vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years. Each churchwarden and vestrymen shall hold office after the expiration of his term until his successor shall be chosen.

§ 34. CHANGING THE NUMBER OF VESTRYMEN OF PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL PARISHES HEREAFTER INCORPORATED.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish hereafter incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the number of vestrymen of such parish be changed to either three, six or nine vestrymen, notice of such recommendation shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof, and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, that the meeting had ratified the same; and the number of vestrymen so decided on. Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded, and such change in the number of vestrymen shall take effect at the time of the next annual election thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen be thereby increased, then, in addition to the number of vestrymen to be elected at such next annual election, one-third of such increased number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for one year thereafter; one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for two years thereafter, and one-third of such increased number shall be elected to hold office for three years thereafter.

If the number of vestrymen by such change be reduced, such reduction shall not affect the term of office of any vestryman duly elected, and at such next annual election, and at each annual election thereafter, one-third of such reduced number of vestrymen shall be elected to hold office for three years.

§ 35. CHANGING DATE OF ANNUAL ELECTION, NUMBER AND TERMS OF OFFICE OF VESTRYMEN AND TERMS OF OFFICE OF CHURCHWARDENS IN PROTESTANT EPISCOPAL CHURCHES HERETOFORE INCORPORATED.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the date of the annual election be changed to a secular day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, or that the number of vestrymen be changed to three, six or nine, and that the terms of office of the churchwardens be changed so that one warden shall be elected annually, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat, shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry; the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election; that such meeting had ratified the same; the date determined upon for the annual election of the parish; the number of vestrymen so decided on; and the fact that the meeting determined to thereafter elect churchwardens, so that the term of one warden shall expire annually.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded. If the meeting determine to change the date of the annual election, the next annual election shall be held on the day in the week beginning with the first Sunday in Advent, determined on by such meeting, and the terms of the vestrymen and churchwardens which, pursuant to law, would expire at the next annual election shall expire, and their successors shall be elected on such day.

If the meeting determine to change the number of vestrymen and manner of electing wardens and vestrymen, there shall be elected at the first annual election thereafter, one-third of the number of vestrymen so determined on, to hold office for three years; one-third thereof to hold office for two years; and one-third thereof to hold office for one year; and one churchwarden to hold office for one year, and one to hold for two years; and thereafter at the annual election there shall be elected one-third of the number of vestrymen determined on at such meeting and one churchwarden.

§ 36. CHANGING THE QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS AND THE QUALIFICATIONS OF WARDENS AND VESTRYMEN.—If the vestry of a Protestant Episcopal parish, heretofore incorporated, shall, by resolution, recommend that the qualifications of voters and the qualifications of wardens and vestrymen be changed to conform in both cases to the requirement of section thirty-three of this statute, notice of such recommendation or recommendations shall be included in the notice of the next annual election of such parish, and be submitted to the meeting. If such recommendation or recommendations be ratified by such meeting, the presiding officer thereof and at least two qualified voters present thereat shall execute and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such resolution of the vestry, the fact that notice thereof had been given with the notice of such annual election, and that the meeting had ratified the same.

Such certificate shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the county in which the original certificate of incorporation is filed and recorded.

SESSION LAWS OF 1904.

CHAP. 689.

AN ACT to exempt the real estate of religious corporations in the City of New York, as now constituted, from assessment for public improvements.

ther than those mentioned in this act, or the same shall cease to be held under lease as herein provided, thereupon the real estate so sold and conveyed, or ceasing to be so held, and not so used, shall be thereafter subject to assessment in the same manner as other real estate situated in the City of New York.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.

APPENDIX H.

The Constitution
OF THE

ARTICLE I.

SECTION 1.—There shall be a Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church in this Diocese on the third Tuesday of May in each year, provided that when such day falls in Rogation Week it shall be on the fourth Tuesday of May, in such place as shall be determined by the Bishop for the time being; or, in case of his inability to act, or a vacancy in the Episcopate, by the Standing Committee.

SEC. 2.—In the event of the prevalence of any epidemic disease, or for other sufficient cause, occurring after the designation of the place of meeting, the Bishop, or, in the cases above mentioned, the Standing Committee, may appoint another place for the meeting of the Convention.

ARTICLE II.

The Bishop may call Special Conventions when he shall judge it conducive to the good of the Church.

In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or the inability of the Bishop to do so, the Standing Committee may call such Conventions.

ARTICLE III.

SECTION 1.—The Convention shall be composed of the Bishop, the Assistant Bishop, the Archdeacons, the officiating Ministers, regularly admitted and settled in some Church within this Diocese which is in union with the Convention, and of Lay Members, not exceeding three Delegates from each Parish.

SEC. 2.—Clergymen employed as Missionaries under the direction of this Convention, Chaplains in the Army or Navy of the United States, who shall be canonically connected with the Diocese, and on duty at some station within its limits, and Clergymen, members of the Board of Managers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and those engaged as professors or instructors of youth, in any College, Academy or General Seminary of learning, duly incorporated, may be members of this Convention. No Clergyman, however, shall be a member of this Convention unless he has been canonically resident in this Diocese for the period of three months immediately preceding the meeting of the Convention.

SEC. 3.—The Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Vestry, when one is in legal existence. When the Vestry is from vacancy, or otherwise, incompetent to act, they shall be chosen by the Congregation.

SEC. 4.—But in cases of Churches or Congregations, organized or incorporated without a Vestry, Delegates may be chosen by the Church or Congregation, unless the Convention shall otherwise prescribe.

SEC. 5.—The mode of admitting new Churches or Congregations into union with the Convention may be prescribed by Canon.

ARTICLE IV.

Every Convention shall be opened with the prayers of the Church. On the first morning of the Convention there shall be a sermon, address or charge by the Bishop, or a sermon by some Presbyter, to be appointed by him, and the Holy Communion shall always be celebrated. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the sermon shall be provided for by the Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

The Bishop, by virtue of his office, shall preside in the Convention, but in case of a vacancy, inability to act, or absence, the members shall elect a President from among the Presbyters.

ARTICLE VI.

SECTION 1.—A Secretary shall be chosen upon the assembling of the Convention, who shall remain in office until the meeting of the next Convention, and until a successor be chosen. His duty shall be to take minutes of the proceedings, to preserve the journals and records, to attest the public acts of the body, and to deliver into the hands of his successor all books and papers, relating to the concerns of the Convention, which may be in his possession.

SEC. 2.—It shall be also his duty to give due notice of the time and place appointed for the meeting of the succeeding Convention.

ARTICLE VII.

SECTION 1.—In all matters which come before the Convention, the Clergy and Laity shall deliberate, and except as hereinafter provided, shall vote in one body; but, if in any case it shall be required by five votes, either wholly or in part of Clergymen, or of Lay Delegates, or shall be demanded by Canon, the two orders shall vote separately, the Clergy by individuals and the Laity by Congregations; and the concurrence of a majority of each order shall be necessary to constitute a decision.

SEC. 2.—In case of the election of a Bishop, the two orders shall always vote separately, and according to the mode above described.

ARTICLE VIII.

The mode of altering this Constitution shall be as follows: A proposition for an amendment shall be introduced, in writing and considered in the Convention; and, if approved of, shall lie over to the next Convention; and, if again approved of in such next Convention, by a majority of the two orders voting thereon separately, the change shall take place, and the Constitution so altered shall be valid and obligatory.

The Canons
OF THE

The Definition of Terms.

Unless it shall otherwise appear from the context, or be otherwise expressly directed, the following terms shall, for the purpose of these Canons, be construed to mean as follows: The terms, "The Constitution" and "The Canons" to mean, respectively, the Constitution and the Canons of the government of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America, passed and adopted in General Convention in October, 1789, and any amendments thereof; the terms, "Constitution" and "Canons" to mean the Constitution and Canons of the Church in this Diocese; the term "Minister," a Bishop, Priest or Deacon; the term "Clergyman," a Priest or Deacon; the term "This Church," the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States of America; the term "Ecclesiastical Authority," the Bishop of the Diocese, or the Bishop Coadjutor, or the Standing Committee when authorized by the Bishop, as provided in Section V. of Canon 12 of the Canons, or by a Bishop in charge of the Diocese as provided in [ii] Section VI. of Canon 12 of The Canons, or when there is no Bishop in charge, the Standing Committee; the term "Canonically Resident," that a Minister has been duly received into this Diocese by acceptance of Letters of Mission recorded as provided by Section V. of Canon 1, ordination or in any other mode by the Ecclesiastical Authority. Whenever words importing the plural number are used in describing or referring to any matters, parties or persons, any single matter, party or person shall be deemed to be included, although distributive words may not be used.

CANON I.

Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese.

SECTION I.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare or cause to be prepared and recorded in a book designated "Record or List of Ministers of the Diocese," a list of all Ministers of this Church canonically resident in the Diocese, designating those settled in the Cathedral or in some Church or Congregation in union with this Convention by the names of their respective offices, Churches, Congregations or Cures; those employed as Missionaries by their respective stations; those who are Chaplains in the Army and Navy by their posts of duty; those employed as instructors of youth in any College, Academy or Seminary of Learning, duly incorporated, by the Colleges, Academies or other Seminaries of learning in which they are engaged, and in regard to those not so employed, their places of residence only.

SEC. II.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall cause all changes in said record or list by reason of death, transfer, deposition or suspension, and all additions thereto by reason of acceptance of Letters Dimissory, ordination or any other mode, to be promptly made.

SEC. III.—Such Record or List, or a copy thereof, authenticated by the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall be laid before the Convention on the first day of its meeting, and shall be prefixed to the Journal.

SEC. IV.—The right of any Minister to a seat in the Convention shall, if disputed, be determined according to the provisions of the Third Article of the Constitution, by the Convention itself, whether his name be inserted in such list or omitted. Such list shall, however, be taken as presumptive evidence of the right of those whose names appear thereon to seats in the Convention, and that none others have such right.

SEC. V.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall record or cause to be recorded in a book designated "Letters Dimissory" all such letters received by it, the date of reception, and a brief minute of the action taken thereon. When a certificate pursuant to [IV.] or [V.] Section V. of Canon 15 of The Canons is given, it must be recorded at length; from the date of such certificate as recorded, and not before, a Clergyman shall be deemed canonically resident.

SEC. VI.—The Ecclesiastical Authority shall record or cause to be recorded in a book to be called "Election of Rectors" all notices of the election of a Rector required by Section III. of Canon 14 of The Canons, and of the action taken thereon.

SEC. VII.—The Record or List named in Section I., the record of "Letters Dimissory" named in Section V., and the record of "Election of Rectors" named in Section VI. of this Canon, or transcripts thereof (or of such parts thereof as may relate to the matter in question), duly certified by the Secretary of the Convention, shall be received in evidence upon all proceedings or trials under any law or Canon in force in this Diocese.

CANON 2.

SECTION I.—Of Churches and Congregations in Union with the Church in this Diocese.

[1.] The Ecclesiastical Authority shall prepare, or cause to be prepared, and recorded in a book designated "Record or List of Churches and gations in Union with the Church in this Diocese," a list of the ral and all such Churches and Congregations by their corporate date of organization and date of admission into Union with the ] Such Record or List, or a copy thereof, authenticated by the astical Authority, shall be laid before the Convention on the first its meeting, and shall be taken as presumptive evidence of the f the Cathedral and of such Church or Congregation whose name thereon to appoint Lay Delegates to the Convention, and that none have such right. A copy of such Record or List shall be prefixed Journal.

] The Cathedral and each Church and Congregation now in Union e Church in this Diocese and such as may hereafter be received on therewith shall be entitled to appoint three Lay Delegates to the tion.

] No Lay Delegate shall be entitled to a seat in the Convention he is a communicant in the Protestant Episcopal Church and has onnected with the Cathedral, Church or Congregation appointing least twelve months prior to such appointment.

SEC. II.—Of Lay Delegates.

] The Lay Delegates to the Convention from the Cathedral, one m shall be a member of the Cathedral Chapter, shall be chosen by le Lay Members of full age of the Congregation, who have habitutwelve months preceding such election attended divine service in hedral, acting under by-laws made by the Chapter. The evidence r appointment shall be a certificate signed by the Dean, or the tor if the Dean is absent, and by the recording officer.

] Lay Delegates from Churches or Congregations shall be chosen Vestry, when one is in legal existence.

When the Vestry is from vacancy or otherwise incompetent to act, cases where a Church or Congregation is organized or incorporated a Vestry, Lay Delegates shall be chosen by the Church or Con-on.

] The evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate, if made by stry, shall be a written certificate signed by the Rector of the , or if there be no Rector or he be absent, by the Warden who s at the meeting at which such Delegate is appointed, and also in se by the Clerk of the Vestry.

] If the appointment be made by the Church or Congregation, the e shall be a certificate signed by the Minister, if there be one, or officer presiding at a meeting of the Congregation by which he cted, and by the Clerk or Secretary, which certificate shall declare that such person has been duly chosen Lay Delegate by the male members of full age of such Church or Congregation who have habitually for twelve months preceding such election attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

[5.] The time, place and manner of holding such election, and the notice for holding the same (which shall be ten days at least), shall be fixed by rules or by-laws made by the Trustees of such Churches or Congregations, or by the Lay Members of the same, qualified as aforesaid, at a meeting duly convened.

[6.] Every certificate of the appointment of a Lay Delegate shall show upon its face that the appointment has been made in pursuance of the requirements of this Section, and shall certify that the delegate has the qualifications required by this Canon.

[7.] A copy of this Canon shall be transmitted by the Secretary of the Convention, to the Vestry of Trustees of every Church in Union with this Convention, with blank printed forms of proceedings under it, to be entered upon their books of minutes. All alterations shall be similarly transmitted.

[8.] No other certificate or evidence of the appointment of a Lay Delegate than such as is required by this Section shall be required, and the right of any Layman to a seat in the Convention, in cases of doubt or dispute, shall be determined by the Convention itself.

CANON 3.

Of Parish Boundaries.

SECTION I.—The Parish boundaries, as defined by the laws of the State of New York, of the four parishes of St. George's, Flushing; Grace, Jamaica; St. James', Newtown; and St. George's Hempstead, are limited and established by the terms of their several charters.

SEC. II.—All other parish boundaries in this Diocese are and shall be the limits as now fixed by law, of any village, town, township, incorporated borough, city, ward of a city, or the limits of some division thereof, which may have been recognized or which shall hereafter be recognized by the Bishop, acting with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee.

SEC. III.—The ascertainment and defining other boundaries of the existing parishes or parochial cures, in all cases where any question or conflict of jurisdiction may arise, the formation of new parishes, or the establishment of new churches, congregations or missions, within the limits of other parishes, and the changing the location of any church or congregation, and the transferring of the same beyond the vicinage in which it is now or may be hereafter established, shall be vested in the Bishop of the Diocese, acting by and with the advice and consent of the Standing Committee, after an opportunity to be heard, on ten days' notice thereof, served by mail on the Rector and Clerk of the Vestry of each of the three nearest parishes. And in case of their being no Bishop, in the Ecclesiastical Authority; Provided, that in all cases where the Standing Committee shall act alone, there may be an appeal made to the next Diocesan Convention.

SEC. IV.—Nothing contained in this Canon shall affect any legal rights of property of any parish.

CANON 4.

Of the Convention.

SECTION I.—Of the Call of the Convention.

[1.] At least three weeks before a Convention is held the Secretary shall mail a written or printed notice of the time and place thereof directed to each Minister, who by the "Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese" is entitled to a seat therein, to the Chapter of the Cathedral and to the Vestry or Trustees of each Church or Congregation entitled to appoint Lay Delegates thereto named in the "List of Churches or Congregations in Union with the Church in this Diocese."

Whenever a Special Convention is to be held, such notice shall specify the purpose for which it is called, and no business other than that so specified shall be transacted.

[2.] At least five days before the time specified in the call for a Convention, the Cathedral and any Church or Congregation appointing Lay Delegates to the Convention shall file the certificate of appointment as provided in Canon 2, with the Secretary, who shall prepare a list of such Delegates and place it before the Convention on the first day of its meeting. Irregular or defective certificates, and certificates and documents relating to contested seats shall be reported by the Secretary to the Convention when organized for its action.

SEC. II.—Of a Quorum.

[1.] The presence of at least fifteen Clergymen entitled to vote in the Convention, and of Delegates from at least fifteen Churches or Congregations, shall be necessary for the transaction of business, but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day.

SEC. III.—Of Organizing the Convention.

[1.] The Bishop, or in his absence, the Bishop Coadjutor, shall call those presenting themselves to order. If neither the Bishop nor the Bishop Coadjutor are present the Presbyter present who has been longest canonically resident in the Diocese shall take the Chair and preside until a President shall be elected.

[2.] The Secretary shall call over the names of the Ministers entitled to seats from the Record or List of Ministers in the Diocese, and of the Lay Delegates so entitled from the list provided for in [2] of Section I. of this Canon.

[3.] A canonical quorum of fifteen Clergymen and Delegates from fifteen Churches or Congregations being present, the Bishop, or in his absence, the Bishop Coadjutor, if present, shall declare the Convention duly organized. If neither the Bishop nor the Bishop Coadjutor are present, the temporary President shall direct that the members proceed to vote for a President, as provided for in Article V. of the Constitution, which election shall be by ballot. The President elected shall declare the Convention organized for business.

[4.] The Convention shall then take action upon the irregular or defective certificates of appointment of Lay Delegates, and certificates and documents relating to contested seats reported by the Secretary.

[5.] The Convention shall then proceed to the election, by ballot, of a Secretary. He may nominate an Assistant Secretary for choice by the Convention.

[6.] The rules of order in force at the preceding Convention, so far as they are applicable to the preliminary proceedings for the organization of the Convention, shall be deemed in force for that purpose; and the said rules of order shall regulate the proceedings, after the organization, until altered by the Convention.

SEC. IV.—The Secretary.

[1.] In addition to the offices and duties elsewhere declared, the Secretary shall transmit annually to each of the Bishops of this Church, and to the Secretary of every Diocesan Convention, a copy of the Journal of the Convention, and shall request the Secretaries of the Diocesan Convention to send copies of their respective Journals in exchange.

[2.] He shall also transmit to the Secretary of the House of Deputies the documents and certified copy of the testimonials mentioned in [ii] of Section I. of Canon 46 of The Canons, and also forward a duplicate copy of such testimonials to the Standing Committee of the Diocese, in which the General Convention is next to meet. He shall also transmit to such Secretary the documents and lists mentioned in Section II. of Canon 47 of The Canons.

[3.] Whenever there shall be a vacancy in the office of Secretary of the Convention, or he shall be unable to act, the duties shall devolve upon the Assistant Secretary, if there be one; if not, upon the Secretary of the Standing Committee.

SEC. V.—The Treasurer.

[1.] At every stated Convention there shall be chosen by ballot a Treasurer, who shall remain in office until the next stated Convention, and until a successor is appointed. It shall be his duty to receive all moneys collected under the authority of the Convention, and to disburse them by the same authority; and where no disbursement has been ordered by the Convention, under the direction of the Standing Committee.

[2.] His accounts shall be rendered annually to the Convention, and shall be examined by a Committee appointed by it.

[3.] In case of a vacancy in the office of Treasurer, it shall be supplied by the Standing Committee; and the person appointed by such Committee shall continue to act until an appointment is made by the Convention.

SEC. VI.—Of Elections.

Elections by ballot, when required by the Canons, may be dispensed with by a unanimous vote of the Convention; and when the election is by ballot, a majority of the votes in each order, upon concurrent ballot, shall be necessary to a valid election.

SEC. VII.—Of the Admission of a Church into Union, and of Maintaining such Union.

[1.] To entitle a Church to admission into union with the Church in this Diocese, the Vestry or Trustees respectively shall submit to the Convention or to a Committee appointed by it, the Certificate or Act of Incorporation or a copy thereof, certified by the officer whose duty it is, or may be, to record or file certificates of incorporation of Religious Societies.

[2.] There shall also be submitted a certificate of the Ecclesiastical Authority, that the incorporation of such Church was approved before such act of incorporation, and that such Church is duly and satisfactorily established.

[3.] Satisfactory testimony, by certificate of the Rector or Churchwarden, or the principal officer of a Board of Trustees, or otherwise, shall also be given, that not less than twenty-five persons of legal age, members of such Church, have habitually, for at least six months preceding such application, attended divine service in such Church or Congregation.

[4.] The application for admission shall be in writing and shall be accompanied with a copy of a resolution adopted by the Vestry, Congregation or Trustees respectively, that such Church agrees to abide by and conform to the Constitution, Canons, Rules and Orders in force within this Diocese. Such copy shall be certified by the Secretary or Clerk, and be authenticated by the seal of the Corporation. This application, with the documents required as above, shall be sent to the Secretary of the Convention, that they may be communicated to the Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches at least thirty days before the meeting of the Convention.

[5.] The Committee on the Incorporation and Admission of Churches shall make their report on the application to the Convention with their recommendations thereon immediately after the Secretary has been elected. The report shall be acted upon before the adjournment of the Convention. If the Convention by a majority vote shall grant the application, the Church or Corporation shall be declared by the President to have been duly received into union with the Church in this Diocese.

[6.] Whenever any Church in union shall neglect, for three years in succession, to make a parochial report (no missionary report being made in its behalf), or shall not, during the same period, have employed a Clergyman as its Parish Minister, nor requested of the Ecclesiastical Authority the services of a Missionary, such Church shall be regarded as having forfeited its connection with the Convention, and shall no longer have a right to send Delegates to the same. The Bishop shall report such Church to the Convention in his annual address, stating whether, in his judgment, after legal advice of the Lay Assessor of the Ecclesiastical Court and the Church Advocate, such Church has or has not for any cause become extinct in fact.

[7.] Such Church, however, upon proof satisfactory to the Ecclesiastical Authority that it has continued its corporate existence, may be readmitted upon an application to the Convention, accompanied with a report of its condition, and on such terms as shall appear just; such re-admission to take place from and after the rising of the Convention consenting to it.

[8.] Whenever any Church shall be thus reported as extinct by the death or removal of its members, or by ceasing to act in its corporate capacity and to keep up the services of the Protestant Episcopal Church, the Convention shall declare the same to be extinct, and may instruct the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island, to apply to the proper authorities for an order and decree of the dissolution of the same.

CANON 5.

Of the Standing Committee.

Whereas, by Article IV of The Constitution, it is required that there shall be a Standing Committee, to be appointed by the Convention in each Diocese, whose rights and duties, except as provided in The Constitution and The Canons may be prescribed by the Canons of the respective Diocese; therefore it is, in addition to The Constitution and The Canons, declared and prescribed as follows:

[1.] There shall be a Standing Committee to consist of four of the Clergy and four of the Laity elected by the Convention and divided into four classes, so that one of the Clergy and one of the Laity shall go out of office annually, and the two vacancies thus made shall be filled by an election by ballot and by the concurrent vote of the members of each order at every stated meeting of the Convention, of one of each order to serve for four years.

[2.] Vacancies in said Committee, occurring by death or otherwise, shall be supplied by the concurrent vote of the Clerical and Lay members of the Committee until the meeting of the next Convention, when they shall be filled by an election by ballot.

In all other cases they shall act as one body, without distinction of orders, except when otherwise directed by the Canons of the General Convention.

SEC. II.—The Bishop of the Diocese and the Standing Committee are the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island; and they and their successors in office are hereby elected and constituted by the said title, Trustees, under the Act, Chapter 110, of the Laws of the State of New York, passed April 11, 1876, which is hereby adopted, with all powers conferred by said Act.

Until otherwise ordered, the said Trustees are restrained from the exercise of such powers, properties and trusts as are committed to the officers and committees of this Convention, already appointed and existing.

SEC. III.—In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, or of the inability or disability of the Bishop, the powers and duties to be performed by him, in matters of discipline, shall be performed by the Standing Committee, except in those cases where such powers and duties are or may be specially delegated to or enjoined upon the Clerical members of such Committee, in which case they shall be exercised by such Clerical members alone; provided, that no sentence shall be pronounced on a Clergyman but by a Bishop.

CANON 6.

Of Deputies to the General Convention.

SECTION I.—The Convention shall, at each regular annual meeting next preceding a stated meeting of the General Convention, elect, by the concurrent ballot of the Clerical and Lay Members, four Clergymen and four Laymen as deputies to the General Convention from this Diocese. It shall, also, in like manner, elect four Clergymen and four Laymen as provisional deputies, to act in the cases hereafter mentioned. Such deputies and provisional deputies shall hold their respective stations until successors are appointed, and shall be deputies or provisional deputies for any General Convention which may be held during their continuance in office.

SEC. II.—Upon any vacancy occurring, by resignation, removal from the Diocese, death, or otherwise, among the deputies, or provisional deputies, between the stated times of election, the vacancy shall be supplied by any Convention during which or prior to which such vacancy shall occur.

SEC. III.—It shall be the duty of the deputies-elect to signify to the Bishop, at least ten days before the meeting of the General Convention, their acceptance of the appointment, and their intention to discharge its duties, in default of which, the Bishop shall designate, from the list of provisional deputies, so many as may be necessary to insure, as far as practicable, a full representation of the Diocese. The Bishop shall, in like manner, designate from the same list of provisional deputies, one or more, as the case may be, to supply any deficiency in the representation of the Diocese, which may in any way occur. The person or persons so designated, being furnished with a certificate of appointment, shall have all the power and authority of deputies duly elected by the Convention.

CANON 7.

Of the Registrar and Historiographer.

SECTION I.—The journals, files, papers, reports and other documents, which, under the Canons or otherwise, shall become the property of this Convention, shall be committed to the keeping of a Presbyter to be elected by it, and who shall be known as the Registrar and Historiographer of the Diocese of Long Island.

SEC. II.—It shall be his duty to procure all such journals, files, papers, reports, copies of charters and acts of incorporation of Churches and other documents, which may be of value in the history of this Diocese, to arrange, label, file, index and otherwise put in order, and provide for the safe keeping of the same, and all such others as may hereafter come into his possession, in some safe and accessible place of deposit, and to hold the same, under such regulations and restrictions as this Convention may from time to time provide.

SEC. III.—It shall be his duty, also, to secure a proper and sufficient Book of Record, and enter therein a record of the consecration of all the Bishops of this Diocese, designating accurately the time and place of the same, with the names of the consecrating Bishops, and of others present and assisting; to record a list of all the Presbyters and Deacons, and the dates of their connection with this Diocese, and copies of the charters and acts of incorporation of Churches in the same, with such additional facts as may be worthy of safe keeping in the archives of this Diocese.

CANON 8.

Of the Episcopal Fund.

SECTION I.—[1.] The Fund for the support of the Episcopate in this Diocese now provided, together with what may hereafter be contributed or acquired, and any accumulation from the investment thereof, shall be intrusted to the Trustees of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate.

[2.] Such Trustees shall be five in number, and shall be appointed by and hold their offices during the pleasure of the Convention, which shall fill up such vacancies. Vacancies, however, occurring during a recess of the Convention, may be filled by the remaining Trustees, to be reported to and approved by the Convention.

SEC. II.—[1.] It shall be the duty of every Rector or Minister having charge of a Parish or Congregation in this Diocese, to cause an annual collection or contribution to be made in aid of the Fund for the support of the Episcopate, and in case of a vacant Parish, the duty shall devolve upon the Wardens and Vestrymen.

[2.] The amount received shall be paid to the Treasurer of the said Trustees, and shall be reported by them to the next Convention, at a stated meeting, and shall be entered on its Journal.

[3.] The moneys thus raised shall be kept by the Trustees in a regular course of accumulation without diminution, until by such accumulation it shall amount to at least one hundred thousand dollars, or until the Convention shall otherwise direct.

[4.] The interest or income of the Fund shall be subject to the order of the Convention.

SEC. III.—[1.] All moneys belonging to such Fund shall be loaned by the said Trustees upon security of real estate, or invested in stock of the United States, or of the State of New York, or of the city of New York, or any Railroad Bonds, approved by the unanimous vote of the Trustees. All securities, when practicable, shall be taken in the corporate name. The Trustees may, from time to time, change such investments.

[2.] A statement exhibiting the condition of the said Fund and securities, together with all receipts and disbursements, shall be reported to the Convention at every stated meeting thereof, signed by the Trustees, or a majority of them.

CANON 9.

Of the Diocesan Fund.

SECTION I.—Whereas, it is indispensable to provide a fund for defraying the necessary expenses of the Convention, it is therefore required of every Congregation in this Diocese to pay to the Treasurer of the Convention, on or before the day of its annual meeting, a contribution of not less than 1 per cent. on the amount of salary of its Clergyman, which fund shall be appropriated in part by a Committee of the Convention to said expenses.

SEC. II.—And whereas, by Section V, of Canon 46, of The Canons, it is made the duty of the several Diocesan Conventions to forward to the Treasurer of the General Convention, at each meeting of the same, three dollars for each Minister within the Diocese, for the purpose of paying the contingent expenses of the said Convention; therefore it shall be the duty of the Committee upon the Diocesan Fund to retain annually, out of the moneys received by them, one dollar for each Clergyman in this Diocese. The amount thus retained shall be paid by the Treasurer of the Convention to the Treasurer of the General Convention, at each meeting of the same.

CANON 10.

Of the Missionary Operations of the Diocese.

SECTION I.—The corporation organized by Special Act of the Legislature in 1902 under the name of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island" is hereby recognized as a Diocesan institution, for which provision is recommended to be made. It shall present at each annual Convention a report of its financial condition, showing its receipts and expenditures of money for the preceding year, and all property received or accepted by it in trust, or otherwise, and giving an account of all work done by it.

SEC. II.—The Diocese shall be divided into four districts to be called "Archdeaconries," as follows, viz.:

[1.] The Northern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, including all that part of Kings County lying north of a line running from the river up the middle of Montague Street, to Fulton, to Flatbush Avenue, to Atlantic Avenue, to Franklin Avenue, south to Flatbush Avenue, to Jamaica Bay.

[2.] The Southern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, including all that part of the city and suburbs lying south of said line.

[3.] The Archdeaconry of Queens and Nassau, comprising Queens County and Nassau County.

[4.] The Archdeaconry of Suffolk, comprising Suffolk County.

SEC. III.—Each Archdeaconry shall be composed of the Clergy resident within its limits, together with three Laymen from each Parish, appointed annually by the Rector, or Minister-in-charge, or in his absence by the Vestry, to serve until the sitting of the next Convention, and one Lay Delegate from each Chapel or Mission Station not represented in the Convention and having fifteen or more regular communicants, to be appointed by the Minister of said Chapel from among its Laity.

For the purposes of this Canon, Clergymen shall be considered to be resident in that Archdeaconry where their work is located. But this Canon shall not be construed so as to exclude from membership Clergymen resident within the limits of the Archdeaconry and canonically resident in the Diocese, who are officers of the Domestic and Foreign Missionary Society of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and those engaged as professors or instructors of youth in any College, Academy or General Seminary of learning duly incorporated.

At its first regular meeting, and every fourth year thereafter, each Archdeaconry, as constituted above, shall nominate to the Bishop for his approval or rejection a Clergyman to fill the office of Archdeacon, whose duty shall be, in the absence of the Bishop, to preside at all meetings and to perform the other functions of the office as hereinafter provided. His term of office shall be for four years from the time of his appointment, and until his successor shall be nominated and approved. In case the office should become vacant by death or resignation, a special meeting of the Archdeaconry shall be convened by the Bishop, and the said Archdeaconry shall proceed at once to the filling of the office in the manner provided above.

SEC. IV.—The Convention shall annually elect one Layman from each of said Archdeacons, as a Trustee of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island," and shall further elect, as Trustees of that corporation, two Clergymen and two Laymen at large. The persons so elected as Trustees of The Diocesan Missions of Long Island shall, together with the Trustees of the corporation, who hold office ex officio, constitute the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, of which Committee the Bishop shall, ex officio, be the head.

SEC. V.—The Missionary Committee thus constituted and created shall have the management of Missionary operations of the Diocese and the control of the funds raised for Missionaries.

It shall have for its officers the corresponding officers of "The Diocesan Missions of Long Island."

It shall receive annually from the several Archdeacons full reports of their work, and with the aid of said reports it shall make a full annual report to the Diocesan Convention, giving an account of all the work done by it and moneys raised and expended by it within the limits of the Diocese. It shall meet as soon as convenient after the adjournment of the Diocesan Convention, at which meeting, after completing its organization, it shall designate the amounts derived from each Archdeaconry, and allot the amount to be expended in each Archdeaconry, and shall at once notify the secretaries of the several Archdeacons of its action; such designation and allotment to be based in a general way upon the reports of the previous year. Its fiscal year shall end at the meeting of the Missionary Committee next preceding the Diocesan Convention, said meeting to be not less than five days before such Convention.

SEC. VI.—It shall be the duty of the Archdeacon to take the oversight of the Missionary work in the Archdeaconry—with the exception of Cathedral and Parochial Chapels. He shall confer with the Bishop as to plans and details, and with the Clergy within the limits of whose parishes missionary work may be proposed or is being conducted. He shall survey the ground, and propose, as occasion offers, plans of operations, and in case such plans be adopted by the Archdeaconry, awaken, as far as opportunity can be found, an interest therein on the part of the congregations. Each Archdeaconry shall annually present a report of the condition and progress of the missionary work within its limits to the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, in time for said Committee to make its report to the Convention. It shall be the duty of the Treasurer of each Archdeaconry to receive contributions from the Parishes and to forward the same to the Treasury of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese, and to keep and account for the money of the Archdeaconry, paying out any such sums as he shall be authorized to pay by a regular meeting.

SEC. VII.—Each Archdeaconry shall, in open meeting, under the advice of the Bishop, and with the consent of the Clergy within the limit of whose parishes missionary work may be proposed, conduct the missionary work within its own limits; shall have control and distribution of the money allotted to it by the Missionary Committee, in aid of mission stations and feeble parishes; shall apportion for collection among its parishes and missions the sums from time to time so allotted; and may, at its discretion, with the approval of the Bishop, undertake special missionary work within its limits, and raise funds for such purposes; provided it shall first have met the assessments made upon it by the Missionary Committee.

SEC. VIII.—Each Archdeaconry shall hold, at least twice annually, stated meetings for the transaction of its business, and no apportionments or appropriations shall be made except at those meetings. The time and place of such meetings shall be fixed by the vote or by-laws of each Archdeaconry.

It shall be the duty of each Clergyman, unless prevented by grave and reasonable causes, to attend the regular meetings of the Archdeaconry, and to report all missionary work done in his cure. It shall be competent for each Archdeaconry to arrange, by by-laws or otherwise, such a programme for devotional, business and social exercises as shall in their judgment tend to the profit and pleasure of the meetings.

SEC. IX.—No missionary station shall be established or missionary appointed except with the concurrence of the Bishop. The Bishop, together with the Archdeacon, shall have the power to remove any missionary; six months notice having been given to the missionary. No appropriation shall be made by the Missionary Committee or by any Archdeaconry in aid of any organized parish, except on application of the wardens and vestrymen of said parish, with the written consent and approval of the Minister, if there be one.

SEC. X.—[1.] The Bishop may nominate to the Northern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn and to the Southern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, a Clergyman to fill the office of Archdeacon of Brooklyn, who, upon being approved and accepted by both Archdeaconries, shall take oversight of the missionary work in the said Archdeaconries, with the exception of the Cathedral and Parochial Chapels, and generally perform in said Archdeaconries the duties assigned by Section VI of this Canon to an Archdeacon.

[2.] He shall hold office for two years, and thereafter in terms of two years, upon nomination by the Bishop and approval and acceptance by the two Archdeaconries.

[3.] During the incumbency of such Archdeacon of Brooklyn, the two Archdeaconries shall meet together, and the work therein and the funds therefor may be consolidated and administered as though the two Archdeaconries constituted a single Archdeaconry. At such meetings the Archdeacon of Brooklyn shall, if he be present, preside, and in his absence the Archdeacon of the Archdeaconry within the limit of which the meeting is held shall preside.

[4.] The two Archdeaconries may adopt by-laws for their grievance in matters of joint interest.

CANON 11.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and of the Fund for Families of Deceased Clergymen.

SECTION I.—[1.]—Two lay trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop and one Clergyman, to be chosen by the Convention, and the Treasurer of the Convention, shall constitute a Board, to be called The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, whose duty it shall be to receive applications for relief and to apply the interest of said Fund according to such rules and principles as the said Trustees shall adopt, to be submitted to the Convention for its revision and approval.

[2.] Vacancies occurring in the number of the Trustees, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

and allotment to be based in a general way upon the previous year. Its fiscal year shall end at the meeting of the Committee next preceding the Diocesan Convention, and shall not be less than five days before such Convention.

SEC. VI.—It shall be the duty of the Archbishop of the Missionary work in the Archdeaconry Cathedral and Parochial Chapels. He shall plan and details, and with the Clergy within the missionary work may be proposed or is he the ground, and propose, as occasion case such plans be adopted by the Archbishop. If opportunity can be found, an interest there Each Archdeaconry shall annually progress of the missionary work within the Diocese, in time for the Convention. It shall be the duty of the Archdeaconry to receive contributions from the same to the Treasury of the Diocese and to keep and account for the same out any such sums as he may require for the meeting.

SEC. IX.—No missionary station shall be established or missionary appointed except with the concurrence of the Bishop. The Bishop, together with the Archdeacon, shall have the power to remove any missionary; six months notice having been given to the missionary. No appropriation shall be made by the Missionary Committee or by any Archdeaconry in aid of any organized parish, except on application of the wardens and vestrymen of said parish, with the written consent and approval of the Minister, if there be one.

SEC. X.—[1.] The Bishop may nominate to the Northern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn and to the Southern Archdeaconry of the Borough of Brooklyn, a Clergyman to fill the office of Archdeacon of Brooklyn, who, upon being approved and accepted by both Archdeaconries, shall take oversight of the missionary work in the said Archdeaconries, with the exception of the Cathedral and Parochial Chapels, and generally perform in said Archdeaconries the duties assigned by Section VI of this Canon to an Archdeacon.

[2.] He shall hold office for two years, and thereafter in terms of two years, upon nomination by the Bishop and approval and acceptance by the two Archdeaconries.

[3.] During the incumbency of such Archdeacon of Brooklyn, the two Archdeaconries shall meet together, and the work therein and the funds therefor may be consolidated and administered as though the two Archdeaconries constituted a single Archdeaconry. [4.] The two Archdeaconries may adopt by-laws for their grievance in matters of joint interest.

CANON II.

Of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, and of the Fund for Families of Deceased Clergymen.

SECTION I.—[1.]—Two lay trustees shall be appointed annually by the Convention, who, with the Bishop and one Clergyman, to be chosen by the Convention, and the Treasurer of the Convention, shall constitute a Board, to be called The Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, whose duty it shall be to receive applications for relief and to apply the interest of said Fund according to such rules and principles as the said Trustees shall adopt, to be submitted to the Convention for its revision and approval.

[2.] Vacancies occurring in the number of the Trustees, during the recess of the Convention, may be supplied by the remaining Trustees.

[3.] All contributions or donations for this object shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Convention, and funds not needed for current use shall be invested and held in trust by such Trustees.

SEC. II.—[1.] Two clerical and three lay trustees shall be annually appointed by the Convention, who, with the Bishop, shall constitute a board to be called the Trustees of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen, whose duty it shall be to receive applications for relief and to apply said Fund according to such rules and principles as the said Trustees shall adopt, to be submitted to the Convention for its revision and approval.

[2.] It is hereby declared to be the duty of every Congregation in this Diocese to make an annual collection, to be paid to the Trustees of said Fund, who shall hold and apply the same to the relief of the families of deceased clergymen of this Diocese. It is recommended that such collection be made on the annual Thanksgiving Day or the Sunday next before, or next following.

[3.] Vacancies occurring in the number of the Trustees during the recess of the Convention may be filled by the remaining Trustees.

[4.] All contributions or donations for this object shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Fund, and funds not needed for current use shall be invested and held in trust by the Trustees.

CANON 12.

Of the Clergymen's Pension and Retirement Fund.

SECTION I.—Two clerical and three lay trustees shall be annually appointed by the Convention, who shall constitute a board to be known as the Trustees of the Clergymen's Pension and Retirement Fund, whose duty it shall be to receive and hold in trust all money contributed or donated for this Fund, and to administer the same in accordance with the provisions of this Canon.

SEC. II.—Vacancies in the board, occurring during the recess of the Convention, may be filled by the remaining members of the board.

SEC. III.—All contributions or donations for this object shall be transmitted to the Treasurer of the Fund, and funds not needed for current use shall be invested and held in trust by such Trustees.

SEC. IV.—The income from this Fund, as the Trustees may deem proper, shall be available for the granting of pensions to aged clergymen on retiring from the regular work of the ministry.

SEC. V.—All clergymen of the Diocese in good standing who have reached the age of at least 65 years, and have, as clergymen, given the fifteen preceding years to continuous service of the Church in this Diocese, in parochial or missionary work, and during the same period have been canonically resident in this Diocese, on retiring from regular work, shall receive in quarterly payments equal shares of the available money of this Fund. But in no case shall the quarterly payment to any one clergyman exceed the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars.

CANON 13.

Of the Church Charity Foundation and Other Benevolent Institutions.

SECTION I.—The Church Charity Foundation of Long Island is hereby recognized as a Diocesan institution, for which provision is recommended to be made, so that each Congregation in the Diocese may make an annual contribution thereto.

SEC. II.—There shall be a Standing Committee appointed annually by the Bishop, whose duty it shall be to prepare and present to the Convention a digest of all reports relating to the Foundation and other benevolent institutions of the Church.

CANON 14.

Of the Social Service Committee.

There shall be a standing committee to be known as The Social Service Committee, consisting of the Bishop as its ex-officio head, and one clergyman and one layman from each Archdeaconry, and six clergymen and six laymen at large. Its duty shall be to carry into effect, as far as may be, any measure, or measures, recommended by the Diocesan Convention for the betterment of social conditions in the Diocese.

OF DISCIPLINE.

CANON 15.

Of the Ecclesiastical Court.

SECTION I.—There shall be an Ecclesiastical Court for the Diocese of Long Island, to try any Clergyman thereof upon charges. It shall consist of seven Presbyters, members of the Convention, and a Layman learned in the law, a communicant of the Church, of good reputation for gravity and soundness in the faith, to act as adviser to the Court, without a voice. No member of the Standing Committee shall be a member of this Court. They shall be appointed biennially by the Bishop, by and with the advice and consent of the Diocesan Convention, and shall continue in office two years, and until their successors are chosen, unless sooner removed by vote of the Convention.

SEC. II.—When vacancies occur, they shall be filled in the same manner for the residue of the term; but if the Convention be not then in session, the Bishop, with the consent of the remaining members of the Court shall fill such vacancy by an appointment, which shall continue until the next meeting of the Convention.

SEC. III.—At any trial the Lay Assessor and five clerical members of the Court must be present: and if a less number be present, they shall adjourn from day to day till a quorum be present.

In case the Lay Assessor is absent, or unable to participate in a trial, or disqualified by reason of interest or otherwise, or if for any reason a quorum of the Court cannot be obtained, a special appointment or appointments sufficient to constitute a full Court, shall, at the request of the members of the Court who are present and qualified, be made for the occasion, as is hereinbefore provided, for filling vacancies. The accused may then reject two of these if he desires. Should a Lay Assessor be thus appointed and rejected, another shall be appointed as before, and the Court thus constituted shall proceed with the trial.

SEC. IV.—Upon the question of guilt or innocence of the accused, or upon the final decision of the cause, the Clerical members of the Court only shall vote.

They shall anticipate the opening of the sitting of the Court, in any case, by the reception of the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper, and remember ever that the power committed to them is to be exercised without pride, prejudice or passion.

SEC. V.—The Court shall transact its business in accordance with the Canons of the Church and such rules as it may make for its own guidance.

SEC. VI.—There shall be an officer of the Court, to be called the Church Advocate, who shall be a Layman learned in the law. He shall be chosen by the Bishop, with the consent of the Standing Committee, and hold office during their pleasure. It shall be his duty to prepare the charges and conduct the trial on behalf of the Church. He shall be the legal adviser of the Ecclesiastical Authority, and give his opinion when called upon on legal questions. The accused may have counsel to aid in his defence. The Church Advocate and counsel for the accused shall be communicants of the Church, of good reputation for gravity and soundness in the faith.

SEC. VII.—The Court shall choose a Clerk, to hold office during its pleasure. He shall keep a record of its proceedings, of convictions and sentences, and preserve the testimony taken on trials.

CANON 16.

Of Confession before Trial.

SECTION I.—Whenever a Clergyman is accused of offences, either by public rumor or reliable information, charges shall be prepared without regard to form, but containing the substance of the offence alleged, with reasonable certainty as to the time, place and circumstances, and delivered to the accused.

SEC. II.—Whenever a Clergyman thus accused, or against whom charges are preferred, as hereinafter provided, shall, before the first session of the Court summoned to try the cause, voluntarily confess himself to the Bishop to be guilty of the offence alleged, the Bishop shall, in the presence of the Standing Committee, pronounce such sentence as he may judge proper, and cause the same, with the accusation reduced to form and the confession annexed, to be recorded by the Clerk of the Court.

CANON 17.

Of Charges and Presentments.

SECTION I.—Charges against a Clergyman for any triable offence shall be made in writing, addressed to the Standing Committee, and be delivered to its President. They must be signed by a majority of the members of the Vestry of the Parish or Church of which the accused is Rector or Minister, or by seven male communicants of this Church, who are not of such Parish or Church, and two of whom shall be Presbyters.

SEC. II.—When the accused is not connected with any Church or Parish, the charges may be signed by any three Presbyters and three Lay Communicants of the Diocese, or by seven Lay Communicants.

SEC. III.—If the offence consists in teaching or preaching publicly and advisedly heresy or heretical doctrine, or doctrines contrary to those of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, a presentment, with specifications of the nature, time and place of such offence, shall be made, signed by three Presbyters of the Church canonically resident within the Diocese, and delivered to the President of the Standing Committee.

SEC. IV.—Whenever the Bishop shall, either from his own observation, or from any information which he shall deem worthy of notice, have reason to believe that there are grounds for an investigation into the conduct of any Clergyman of this Diocese, according to Section I. of Canon 23 of The Canons, he shall, at his discretion, convene the Standing Committee, and lay before them the information in his possession.

SEC. V.—Whenever the Standing Committee, or a majority of them, shall, from any information so laid before them by the Bishop, or from any other information which they, or a majority of them, may think worthy of notice, or from charges made to them as hereinbefore specified, be of opinion that it is proper that a judicial investigation of the conduct of any Clergyman of this Diocese should take place, they, with the consent of the Bishop, shall cause a general statement of the facts of the case to be made and delivered to the Church Advocate.

CANON 18.

Of Limitation.

SECTION I.—No presentment shall be sustained in any case unless the offence be alleged and proved to have been committed within three years next before the day on which the charges are delivered to the Church Advocate, as hereinafter mentioned.

CANON 19.

Of the Preliminary Proceedings.

SECTION I.—Whenever it is determined to bring to trial any Clergyman of this Diocese, the Standing Committee shall notify the Church Advocate, and direct him to proceed with the same.

SEC. II.—He shall thereupon prepare charges and specifications, containing the substance of the offence alleged, with reasonable certainty as to time, place and circumstances. But no variance between an allegation and proof shall be regarded if the accused has not been misled or prejudiced thereby. The style of the charge or charges shall be:

"Articles or charges against.....exhibited on behalf of the Church to the Bishop of the Diocese of Long Island, by.....acting as Church Advocate, in consequence of a presentation made to the said Bishop by the Standing Committee of the said Diocese."

He shall immediately deliver two copies of the charges and specifications signed by him to the Bishop, who shall cause one of them, with a notice of the time and place of trial (which he shall prescribe) to be served on the accused personally, or left at his place of abode, at least thirty days before the time appointed for trial.

SEC. III.—The Bishop shall also issue a precept, directed to all the members of the Ecclesiastical Court, requiring them to proceed to the trial of the accused, at the prescribed time and place, which precept, together with the other copy of the charges signed by the Church Advocate, shall be transmitted to the President of the Court, whose duty it shall be, on receipt of the same, to cause all the members of the Court to be summoned to meet at the prescribed time and place.

SEC. IV.—If the accused shall neglect to attend at the time and place appointed for the meeting of the Court, which is convened to try him, after due notice given to him, the President of the Court shall report the fact to the Bishop, who shall thereupon suspend such Clergyman from the exercise of the ministry for contumacy, until he shall appear and demand a trial. If he shall not apply for a trial within three months, the Bishop shall pronounce such sentence as would be proper upon a conviction for the offence alleged.

SEC. V.—Any resort to a civil court, on the part of the accused, for the purpose of impeding, delaying, or averting the trial, shall be treated as contumacy, and the Bishop shall thereupon suspend such Clergyman from the exercise of the ministry for contumacy, until he appear and demand a trial.

CANON 20.

Of Trial.

SECTION I.—The accused, on appearance, shall be called upon to say whether he is guilty or not guilty of the offence charged in the presentment. He may thereupon except, in writing, to the sufficiency of the presentment, or any part thereof, or to all or any of the specifications therein, and such exceptions shall be heard and disposed of by the Court.

SEC. II.—If no exceptions are taken, or they are overruled, or only so far allowed as to leave substantial ground for trial, the same shall proceed. If the accused refuse or neglect to plead to the presentment, the Court shall enter the plea of not guilty for him, and proceed with the trial. The accused may attend, produce his testimony, and make his defence as advised.

SEC. III.—All testimony shall be given on oath or affirmation. The manner of conducting the trial, and the rules of evidence, unless otherwise provided by the Canons of the Church, shall be the same as in the Law Courts of the State of New York, so far as applicable. The Court may adjourn from time to time, not exceeding one week at one adjournment, for the purpose of procuring testimony or furthering the ends of justice.

SEC. IV.—Proceedings in a trial shall be private, unless the accused, ten days before the trial, shall demand in writing that the same be public.

SEC. V.—In case there is reason to suppose that the attendance of a necessary witness cannot be had on trial, either party may, at any time after the presentment is served, on five days' notice to the other, apply to the Lay Assessor to appoint a Commissioner to take the deposition of such witness. The party so applying shall accompany his application with the interrogatories proposed to be propounded to the witness. The Lay Assessor shall then appoint a Commissioner, and fix a time and place to settle the interrogatories before him, at which time and place the other party shall, if he desires, present cross-interrogatories; and further interrogatories may be added with the approbation of the Lay Assessor, and reasonable time allowed for that purpose, if the Lay Assessor shall deem necessary or proper. The Lay Assessor shall then transmit the deposition with the interrogatories annexed, to the Commissioner, who shall take the testimony under oath or affirmation, as provided by the laws of the State where taken, and certify the same and transmit it, properly sealed and secured, to the President of the Court. The deposition so taken shall be read upon the trial, subject to all exceptions that would avail if such witnesses were examined in Court.

SEC. VI.—All notices and papers to be served on the accused, after the presentment, may be served on his counsel, and all papers to be served on the prosecutors shall be served on the Church Advocate. Such service may be made by leaving the same with such advocate or counsel personally, or at his place of residence or business, or such service may be made by mail, by depositing the notice or paper, properly folded and enveloped, in the Post Office, directed to the said counsel or advocate, at his place of residence or business, and prepaying the postage. But in case of service by mail, three days' additional time shall be allowed for transmission and receipt.

SEC. VII.—If the person to be served with any presentment, notice or paper has departed from the United States, it shall be sufficient service thereof to leave a copy at his last place of abode within the United States, sixty days before the day on which his appearance or other act required by such notice or paper is to be performed. If his last place of abode cannot be ascertained, a publication of a copy in a public newspaper, printed at the seat of government of the State or Territory in which he last resided, shall be sufficient.

SEC. VIII.—The Court, having fully heard the allegations and proofs of the parties, and deliberately considered the same after the parties have withdrawn, the Lay Assessor shall deliver an opinion in writing of the law and facts of the case, in matters not strictly theological. The Clerical members of the Court shall then declare respectively whether, in their opinion, the accused is guilty or not guilty of each particular charge and specification contained in the presentment, in the order in which they are set forth; and the accused shall be considered as not guilty of every charge and specification of which he shall not be pronounced guilty by a unanimous vote of the Clerical members of the Court.

SEC. IX.—On the final question whether the accused is guilty or not guilty, no member of the Court shall be permitted to vote, or be considered present, who shall not have been present at the delivery of all the testimony. Unless the accused be found guilty he shall be deemed acquitted.

SEC. X.—Whenever a trial shall fail by the negligence of any Clerical member or members, the President of the Court shall report the names and the facts of such negligence to the next ensuing Convention of the Diocese.

SEC. XI.—The decision of the Court as to each and all the charges and specifications shall be reduced to writing and signed by the Court. Such decision or decisions shall be regarded as the judgment of the Court. In case of a judgment of guilty on any charge, the Court shall state also the sentence which, in its opinion, ought to be pronounced.

CANON 21.

Of Ecclesiastical Sentences.

SECTION I.—All proceedings within this Diocese, the result of which may involve a subjection to Canonical sentence, must be ultimately revised and determined, and all sentences pronounced by the Bishop. In case of a vacancy in the Episcopate, the Standing Committee shall call in the Bishop of some other Diocese, who shall be requested, and is hereby authorized, to act therein, and proceed in the same manner as the Bishop of this Diocese would be authorized to do.

SEC. II.—The Bishop, having received the judgment of the Court, it shall be his duty to inform the accused of the sentence thereof and call upon him to show reason, if any, why the judgment should not be sustained. He may receive from him any statement in mitigation of sentence.

SEC. III.—The Bishop having reviewed and adjudged upon the case, shall proceed to pronounce such sentence as may be proper, not exceeding in severity that recommended by the Court. Such sentence shall be pronounced in the presence of any three Presbyters of the Diocese, after notice to the party of the time and place appointed therefor, and publicly in a Church, or privately, as the Bishop shall determine.

SEC. IV.—A copy of a sentence of suspension shall be sent to the accused, and another to the Vestry or Vestries of the Church or Churches with which he may be canonically connected and such other publicity may be given to it as the Bishop may think expedient.

SEC. V.—The Ecclesiastical Authority, after the final decision, shall transmit all the papers, with such decision, to the Clerk of the Court, whose duty it shall be to record an abstract of the proceedings, including the final judgment and sentence in full, in a book kept for that purpose.

CANON 22.

Of Differences between Ministers and Congregations.

SECTION I.—[1.] In cases of controversy between any Rector or Assistant Minister of any Church or Parish, and the vestry, Trustees, or Congregation thereof, which cannot be settled by the parties themselves, and is such as to injure the peace and prosperity of the Parish or the Church, the said parties, or either of them, may make a written application to the Ecclesiastical Authority for decision thereupon.

[2.] The parties may agree upon a written statement of facts, and submit the same. If not agreed upon, the application must contain a statement setting forth in substance the ground or grounds on which the interference is sought. A copy of such papers shall be served upon the other party with ten days' notice of the intention to present them. An answer in writing shall be made and delivered.

[3.] When a statement is agreed upon, or no answer is made, or the case shall clearly appear to require no further inquiry as to facts, the Ecclesiastical Authority shall pass upon the same, and if a dissolution of the pastoral relation be deemed necessary, may recommend to such Pastor or Minister to relinquish his titles, on such conditions as shall appear reasonable.

[4.] Whenever further inquiry shall be deemed expedient, or if, when an answer is filed, either party shall demand it, the Ecclesiastical Authority, being a Bishop, shall transmit the papers to the Standing Committee, for action upon the same.

SEC. II.—[1.] The Standing Committee in such case, as well as when the application is to said Committee as the Ecclesiastical Authority, shall thereupon designate three of its members, one of whom shall be a Layman, to inquire into the facts and take evidence thereon. Ten days' notice of the time and place where such inquiry is to be held shall be given to each party. The testimony so taken shall be reported to the Standing Committee, who, after considering the same, shall recommend to the Bishop such action as they deem proper to be taken in the premises.

[2.] The Bishop, if he approves the recommendation of the Standing Committee, shall declare a final judgment in accordance therewith, giving ten days' notice to each party of the time and place of announcing the same.

SEC. III.—[1.] If the final judgment in any case be a recommendation that the pastoral relations be dissolved, and that titles be relinquished by the Minister, and he shall refuse to comply with the same within thirty days after the decision shall be made known to him, the Bishop may proceed to declare the canonical dissolution of all connection between the parties.

[2.] And if the Vestry or Congregation refuse or neglect to comply on their part with such decision or judgment, the Church shall be prohibited from a representation in the Diocesan Convention until they submit thereto.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

CANON 23.

Of Parish Registers and Parochial Reports.

SECTION I.—[1.] According to Section III of Canon 15 of the Canons, each Clergyman of this Church shall keep a Register of baptisms, confirmations, communicants, marriages and funerals within his cure, agreeably to such rules as may be provided by the Constitution of the Diocese where his cure lies.

[2.] The Register so to be kept by him shall specify the name, place and time of the birth of the child baptized, with the names of the parents and sponsors; the name of the adult baptized, and the names of the witnesses; the names of the parties married; the names of the persons buried, and also the time when each rite was performed.

[3.] These entries shall be made by the Minister in a book to be provided for that purpose, belonging to the Vestry of each Church, which book shall be the Parish Register, and shall be preserved by the Vestry as a part of the records of the Church.

[4.] This list of communicants shall embrace all within the Minister's cure, as nearly as can be ascertained; and he shall also keep a list of all the families and adult persons within his cure, as far as practicable; and also an accurate list of the persons confirmed, from time to time, by the Bishop.

SEC. II.—Every Minister of this Church shall present, or cause to be delivered, on or before the first day of every Annual Convention, to the Bishop of the Diocese, or, if there be no Bishop, to the President of the Convention, a statement of the number of baptisms, confirmations, marriages and funerals, the number of communicants, the contributions for Diocesan, Missionary and other Church objects, in his Parish, and any other matters that may throw light on the state of the same; and in reporting the number of communicants he shall distinguish the additions, removals and deaths since the last report.

CANON 24.

Of Vacant Parishes.

Whenever a Parish becomes vacant it shall be the duty of the Vestry to give immediate notice thereof to the Ecclesiastical Authority.

CANON 25.

Of Repealed Canons.

Whenever there shall be a repealing clause in any Canon, and such Canon shall be repealed, such repeal shall not be a re-enactment of the Canon or Canons repealed by the said repealing clause.

CANON 26.

Of the Repeal, Amendment and Enactment of New Canons.

SECTION I.—In all cases of future enactment, the same, if by way of amendment of an existing provision, shall be in the following form: "Canon —, (or Section —, of Canon —, or Clause —, of Section —, of Canon —,) of Article —, is hereby amended so as to read as follows." And if the enactment is of an additional Clause, Section, or Canon, it shall be designated as the next Canon, or next Section, or next Clause of a Canon or Section, in the order of numbering of the Article to which the subject properly belongs. If a Canon, or Section, or Clause be stricken out, the existing numbering shall be retained until a new edition of the Canons be directed.

SEC. II.—The Secretary, with any one of the Committee on Canons, selected by such Committee, shall at the close of each session of the Convention, certify the changes made in the Canons, and the Secretary shall print the same in the Journal.

CANON 27.

Of Amendments of the Canons.

The Canons may be altered, or new Canons may be added at the Annual Convention, after one day's notice, by the vote of two-thirds of the members present.

The undersigned, in accordance with Section II of Canon 26, hereby certify that the foregoing Constitution and Canons are a true copy of the same, as originally adopted by the Convention, with the subsequent additions and amendments.

REESE F. ALSOP,

Chairman of the Committee on Canons.

ROBERT ROGERS,

Secretary of the Convention.

Rules of Order of the Convention

I. At the opening of each Annual Convention, after Morning Prayer, Sermon, and the Administration of the Holy Communion, the President shall take the chair; after which the Order of Procedure shall be as follows:

1. The Secretary, under the direction of the Bishop, or, in case of his absence or inability to act, or, of a vacancy in the Episcopate, under the direction of the Standing Committee, shall call over the names of the Clergy entitled to seats.

2. He shall call over the Churches entitled to representation, when the Lay Delegates shall present their certificates, which certificates shall be examined by the Secretary and a Committee of two members appointed by the Presiding Officer. Irregular or defective certificates, and certificates and documents referring to contested seats, shall be temporarily laid aside. The names of the Lay Delegates duly appointed shall then be called; after which the certificates and documents laid aside shall be reported to the Convention, which shall decide on the admission of the deputies named therein.

3. A constitutional quorum (fifteen Clergymen and fifteen Delegates) being present, the President shall declare the Convention organized for business, which shall proceed in the following order:

4. The election of a Secretary and Treasurer, the former of whom shall have power to nominate an Assistant Secretary.

5. The appointment of seven Standing Committees by the President:

(1.) On the Incorporation and Admission of Churches, one Clergyman and two Laymen, reports from which Committee may be in order at any time during the session of the Convention.

(2.) On the Diocesan Fund, two Clergymen and two Laymen, with the Treasurer.

(3.) On the Treasurer's Report, three Laymen.

(4.) On the Theological Seminary, two Clergymen and three Laymen.

(5.) On Canons, at least two Clergymen and two Laymen.

(6.) On the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions, one Clergyman and two Laymen.

(7.) On Social Service, one Clergyman and one Layman from each Archdeaconry, and six Clergymen and six Laymen-at-large.

6. The appointment of Inspectors of Elections—one Clergyman and one Layman for the Clerical Votes, and one Clergyman and one Layman for the Lay Votes—for the Standing Committee, the Missionary Committee, the Deputies and Provisional Deputies to the General Convention, and the Deputies to the Federate Council.

7. Nominations for Election, without remarks.

8. The Annual Address of the Bishop shall be at any time in order.

9. The receiving and referring, when necessary, of Reports, other than those of Special Committees, which may have been handed in to the Secretary.

10. Miscellaneous Business.

II. On the second day, the Order of Business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approving of the Minutes.

2. Receiving Certificates of Lay Delegates not present before.

3. Calling over the names of members not present on the first day.

4. The Election of the Standing Committee, the Missionary Committee, the Deputies and the Provisional Deputies to the General Convention and the Deputies to the Federate Council.

5. The appointment of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, Trustees of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen, and Trustees of Clergymen's Pension and Retiring Fund, and supplying vacancies, if any, in the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

6. Report of the Secretary when any business has been committed to that officer.

7. Report of the Standing Committee.

8. Report of the Missionary Committee of the Diocese.

9. Report of the Trustees of the Episcopal Fund.

10. Reports of the Trustees of the Fund for Aged and Infirm Clergymen, Trustees of the Fund for the Families of Deceased Clergymen, and Trustees of Clergymen's Pension and Retiring Fund.

11. Report of the Trustees of the Estate belonging to the Diocese of Long Island.

12. Report of the Standing Committee on the Treasurer's Report.

13. Report of the Standing Committee on the Theological Seminary.

14. Report of the Standing Committee on the Diocesan Fund.

15. Report of the Standing Committee on the Salary of the Bishop.

16. Report of the Standing Committee on the Church Charity Foundation and other Benevolent Institutions.

17. Report of the Standing Committee on Christian Education.

18. Report of the Committee on Cathedral Library.

19. Reports of Special Committees.

20. Miscellaneous Business.

III. On the third and any subsequent day, the Order of Business, after Morning Prayer, shall be:

1. Reading and approval of the Minutes.
2. Receiving the Certificates of the Lay Delegates not present before.
3. Calling the names of members not present before.
4. Reports not presented the preceding day, in order.
5. Miscellaneous Business.

IV. If the Prescribed Order of Business on any day should not have been gone through with, the first business on the succeeding day shall be the matters which had not been reached and finished on the preceding day, and in the Order for that day prescribed; this rule shall not apply to miscellaneous business.

V. If the President ex officio is not present at the opening of the Convention, the Secretary shall call the Convention to order, when the senior Presbyter present, being entitled to a seat, shall take the chair; and in such case, immediately after the organization of the Convention, a President shall be elected by ballot from among the Presbyters.

VI. Before the rising of the Convention, the minutes of the last day's proceedings shall be read and approved.

VII. The Bishops of the Protestant Episcopal Church; Clergymen belonging in this Diocese, but not entitled to seats in this Convention; Clergymen of other Dioceses, Professors and Students of Theology in the Protestant Episcopal Church, and all persons holding any office or trust under the Convention, if not members, shall be admitted to the sittings of the Convention.

VIII. The hours of each day's session shall be from 9 A.M. to 12:30 P.M., and from 1:30 P.M. to 5 P.M., and when ordered by the Convention from 7 to 10 P.M.

IX. The mode of conducting the stated Elections by ballot shall be as follows:

Immediately after nominations are closed on the first day, the Secretary shall prepare all ballots for the several offices and committees to be filled, containing the names of all persons nominated therefor, in alphabetical order, and stating the number of names to be voted for such office or committee, which ballots shall be on the Secretary's desk, for distribution at the opening of the Convention on the second day.

Voters shall prepare their ballots by striking out the names of those for whom they do not vote, leaving uncanceled not more than the number to be elected by the ballot voted.

Rules of Order.

xlvii

Nothing herein shall prevent the voting of any ballot that may be presented.

No ballot shall be counted by the Inspectors which contains more names uncanceled than the number required to fill the office or committee for which the ballot is cast.

X. No Motion shall be considered as before the Convention unless seconded, and, when required, reduced to writing.

XI. When a Question is before the Convention, no Motion, except as hereinafter provided, shall be received, but to lay it on the table, to postpone it indefinitely, to postpone it to a certain time, to commit it or to amend it; which motions shall have precedence in the order named. But a motion to strike out the word "Resolved" shall have precedence of a motion to amend, and, if carried, shall be equivalent to a rejection of the Resolution.

XII. All Amendments shall be considered in the order in which they are received. When a proposed amendment is under consideration, a motion to amend the same may be made; no after Amendment to such Amendment shall be in order.

XIII. A Motion to lay on the table shall be decided without debate.

XIV. A Motion to adjourn shall always be in order, when no member is speaking, and shall be decided without debate. A Motion to fix the hour or day to which the Convention shall adjourn takes precedence of a Motion to adjourn, and shall be decided without debate.

XV. The Mover may withdraw a Motion or Resolution at any time before decision or Amendment, in which case it shall not be entered upon the Minutes.

XVI. If a Question under debate contain several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided, at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

XVII. No member may speak more than twice on the same Question without leave of the Convention, nor more than once in any case until every member choosing to speak shall have spoken.

XVIII. Every member present shall vote whenever a Question is put, unless excused by the Convention on account of his being personally interested in the result, or for other cause.

XIX. The Votes shall be taken by Ayes and Noes, and by Orders, whenever called for by five members.

XX. In taking the Vote by Orders, it shall be the right of any member of a Delegation, who may dissent from the vote of the majority of the Delegation, to have the fact of his dissent recorded on the Minutes.

XXI. A Question being decided, shall not be reconsidered during the same session, without the consent of two-thirds of the members present, nor without the Motion for that purpose being made by one of the majority on the first decision. No Question shall be reconsidered more than once.

XXII. All Special Committees shall be appointed by the President, unless otherwise ordered.

XXIII. The Reports of all Committees shall be in writing, and shall be received, of course, without motion for acceptance. They shall be entered on the Minutes, unless otherwise ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Convention, they shall be accompanied by a Resolution or Resolutions for its consideration.

XXIV. When a member is called to order by the President or another member, he shall immediately sit down, unless permitted to explain. All Questions of order shall be determined in the first instance by the President; but any member may appeal from any decision of the Chair; and on such appeal no member shall speak more than once without leave of the Convention.

XXV. All Questions relating to priority of business shall be decided without debate.

XXVI. The prescribed Order of Business shall not be departed from, nor shall any Rule of Order be suspended, unless by a vote of two-thirds of the members present.

XXVII. The majority of a Quorum shall always be required to elect any Officer.
